(g) Time and procedure for objection to sale. An interested person may object to the sale by filing a written objection with the clerk within three court days following the sale, serving the objection on all parties, the successful bidder and the Marshal, and depositing a sum with the Marshal that is sufficient to pay the expense of keeping the property for at least seven days. Payment to the Marshal shall be in cash, certified check, or cashier's check. The written objection must be endorsed by the Marshal with an acknowledgement of receipt of the deposit prior to filing with the clerk.

(h) Confirmation of sale without motion. A sale shall stand confirmed as of course without any affirmative action by the court unless (1) written objection is filed with the court within the time allowed under these rules, or (2) the purchaser is in default for failure to pay the balance due to the Marshal. The purchaser in a sale so confirmed as of course shall present a form of order reflecting the confirmation of the sale for entry by the clerk on the fourth court day following the sale. The Marshal shall transfer title to the purchaser upon presentation of such order by the clerk.

(i) Confirmation of the sale on motion. If an objection has been filed or if the successful bidder is in default, the Marshal, the objector, the successful bidder, or a party may move the court for relief. The motion will be heard summarily by the court. The person seeking a hearing on such motion shall apply to the court for an order fixing the date and time of the hearing and directing the manner of giving notice and shall give written notice of the motion to the Marshal, all parties, the successful bidder and the objector. The court may confirm the sale, order a new sale, or grant such other relief as justice requires.

(j) Disposition of deposits.

(1) Objection sustained. If an objection is sustained, sums deposited by the successful bidder will be returned to the bidder forthwith. The sum deposited by the objector will be applied to pay the fees and expenses incurred by the Marshal in keeping the property until it is resold, and any balance remaining shall be returned to the objector. The objector will be reimbursed for the expense of keeping the property from the proceeds of a subsequent sale.

(2) Objection overruled. If the objection is overruled, the sum deposited by the objector will be applied to pay the expense of keeping the property from the day the objection was filed until the day the sale is confirmed, and any balance remaining will be returned to the objector forthwith.

(k) Title to property. Failure of a party to give the required notice of the action and arrest of the vessel, cargo or other property or required notice of the sale may afford grounds for objecting to the sale but does not affect the title of a bona fide purchaser of the property without notice of the failure.

Rule 215.00. Release of seizures — Custodial cost — General bonds.

(a) Property seized by the Marshal may be released as follows:

(1) By the Marshal upon the receipt of security by the Marshal, accompanied by the endorsed express authorization for release signed by the party or counsel for the party as provided by Supplemental Rule E(5)(c), FED. R. CIV. P. if all costs and charges of the court and its officers shall have first been paid. Monies received as part of any cash stipulation shall be delivered by the Marshal to the clerk for deposit in the registry of the court.

(2) In action entirely for a sum certain, by paying into the court the amount alleged in the complaint to be due, with interest at ten percent per annum thereon from the date claimed to be due to a date 24 months after the date the claim was filed, or by filing an approved stipulation for such alleged amount and interest. In either event, claim of the property shall be filed.

(3) In actions other than possessory, petitory, and partition, by filing, in addition to a claim of the property, an approved stipulation for the amount of the appraised or agreed value of the property seized, with interest (unless otherwise ordered by the court), interlocutory or final, and to pay the amount awarded by the final decree rendered by this court or by any appellate court, with interest.

(4) In possessory, petitory, and partition actions, only upon the order of the court, and on such security and terms as ordered.

(5) Upon the dismissal or discontinuance of the action or upon the written consent of the attorney for the party on whose behalf the property is detained, if all costs and charges of the court and its officers shall have first been paid.

(b) The Marshal shall not deliver any property so released until costs and charges of the Marshal shall first have been paid.

(c) In any general bond as provided for by Supplemental Rule E(5)(b), FED. R. CIV. P. the vessel will be identified by name, nationality, dimension, official number or registration number, hailing port and port of documentation, to the extent applicable. The owner of such vessel shall also file complete designated United States address for communications to the owner or designated agent, which shall be by mail. Execution of process against the vessel so stayed under Supplemental Rule E(5)(b), FED. R. CIV. P. shall be endorsed to the Marshal as stayed pursuant to the rule. Such process shall be served by the Marshal together with a copy of the complaint on the master or other person in whose charge or custody the vessel is found and the Marshal shall make his or her return thereof. If no master or other person in charge of custody is found aboard the vessel, the Marshal shall so make his or her return accordingly, and the clerk shall advise by mail the owner or designated agent, at the address furnished pursuant to this rule, of the nature of the action, any amount claimed, the plaintiff, the name and address of plaintiff's attorney, the case number, and the return day thirty days from the date of the Marshal's attempt. The clerk will maintain a current list of vessels subject to a general bond and file said bonds alphabetically by name of vessel and endorsed as provided by Supplemental Rule E(5)(b), FED. R. CIV. P.

Rule 216.00. Taxation of costs.

If costs shall be awarded to either or any party, then the reasonable premium or expenses paid on all bonds or stipulations or other security by the party in whose favor such costs are allowed shall be taxed as a part of the costs of the case. In addition thereto, if costs shall be awarded to either or any party, then the reasonable expenses paid by a party incidental to or arising out of the attachment or arrest of any property in the proceedings or while said property is "in custodia legis" shall be taxed as a part of the costs of the case.

Rule 217.00. Stay of execution or of release of property after judgment or dismissal.

No execution of judgment shall issue nor shall seized property be released pursuant to judgment or order of dismissal, until 10 days after its entry. Upon the filing of a motion for new trial or notice of appeal or motion to set aside default within said ten-day period, a further stay shall exist for a period not to exceed 30 days from the entry of judgment or dismissal to permit the entry of an order fixing the amount of a supersedeas bond and the filing of same.

Rule 218.00. Possessory actions — Short day return.

In all possessory actions upon special order of the court, process may be made returnable upon a short day. The answer shall be filed within such time as may be specifically ordered by the court, and a day of hearing then fixed, unless otherwise ordered. The hearing of possessory suits shall be given preference.

Rule 219.00. Claims after sale — How limited.

Claims upon the proceeds of sale of property under a final decree, except for seamen's wages, shall not be admitted in behalf of lienors who file their claims after the sale, to the prejudice of lienors who filed their claims before the sale, but shall be limited to remnants and surplus, unless for cause shown it shall be otherwise ordered.

Rule 220.00. Alternative dispute resolution.

In all actions governed by these Local Admiralty Rules, all parties are encouraged to consider early judicial intervention and at least one alternative dispute resolution procedure provided for in the Local Rules 30.00 - 32.00 or another form of alternative dispute resolution approved by the court. The alternative dispute resolution procedure shall be identified in the Discovery Plan and should be completed no later than 90 days after the entry of the Scheduling Order.

CRIMINAL RULES

Rule 1.1. Scope and citation of local rules.

These local rules of practice shall govern the conduct of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina except when the conduct of this court is governed by federal statutes and rules. A judge or magistrate judge, for good cause and in his or her discretion, may alter these rules in any particular case. These rules shall be cited: These rules shall be cited: "Local Criminal Rule _____, EDNC."

Editor's note. — On December 1, 2000, the Court entered a standing order regarding the effect of recent Amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on the Local Rules and practice in the Eastern district. In addition to making various amendatory changes, the Court provided as follows:

Applicability of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

a. In all cases filed in this Court or removed to this Court on or after December 1, 2000, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as amended, shall apply in full.

b. In actions filed in this Court or removed to this Court prior to December 1, 2000, F.R.Civ.P. 26(d) will not apply. Therefore, all parties may propound discovery at any time after an action has been filed.

c. In actions filed in this Court or removed to this Court prior to December 1, 2000 in which a Request for Discovery Plan has been issued by the Clerk of Court, the parties are not required to make the mandatory initial disclosures required under F.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(1). Moreover, the parties should follow the deadlines set forth in the Court's Request for Discovery Plan, not those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26. All other amended Federal Rules shall apply.

d. Except as ordered by the Court in a specific case, all other portions of the Federal Rules, as amended effective December 1, 2000, shall apply to civil actions filed or removed to this Court prior to December 1, 2000, including the provisions regarding scope of discover (F.R.Civ.P. 26(b)), limit on length of discovery (F.R.Civ.P. 30(d)), and sanctions for failure to disclose (F.R.Civ.P. 37(c)(1)).

Rule 2.1. Reserved for future purpose.

Rule 3.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 4.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 5.1. Assignment of magistrate judges — Criminal cases.

(a) Misdemeanor cases. Upon the filing of an information, complaint or violation notice, or the return of an indictment, all misdemeanor cases shall be assigned by the clerk to a magistrate judge, who shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3401 and the Rules of Procedure for the Trial of Misdemeanors before United States Magistrate Judges.

(b) Felony cases. Upon the return of an indictment or the filing of an information, all felony cases shall be assigned by the clerk to a magistrate judge for the conduct of an arraignment and such pre-trial conferences as are necessary, and for the hearing and determination of all pre-trial procedural and discovery motions.

Rule 6.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 7.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 8.1. Reserved for future purpose.

Rule 9.1. Reserved for future purpose.

Rule 10.1. Arraignment.

When a district judge conducts the arraignment, the United States Attorney or an Assistant U.S. Attorney shall be present. If the arraignment is conducted by magistrate judges under the provision of FED. R. CRIM. P.19(B)(4) the presence of the U.S. Attorney at arraignment is not mandatory, and in the absence of the U.S. Attorney, the magistrate judge shall conduct the arraignment in accordance with FED. R. CRIM. P.10.

Rule 10.2. Apperance bonds.

In the event a deed of trust is used to secure an appearance bond for a defendant, the grantor of the deed of trust is responsible for preparing and supplying the clerk with documentation necessary to cancel the deed of trust within 15 days of the date that the conditions of the appearance bond and deed of trust are satisfied. Grantor shall also be responsible for recording any documentation necessary to cancel the deed of trust and for payment of any costs associated with such cancellation. Failure of the Grantor to comply with these requirements shall relieve the clerk of any responsibility to cancel the deed of trust.

Rule 11.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 12.1. Time period for filing pre-trial motions in criminal cases.

All pre-trial motions, including but not limited to motions to suppress and motions under Rules 7, 12, 14, 16, and 41 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure shall be filed no later then 30 days after indictment or initial appearance, whichever comes later. Responses shall be filed within 10 days after the service of such motions. Untimely motions maybe summarily disregarded.

CASE NOTES

Stated in United States v. A-A-A Elec. Co., 607 F. Supp. 266 (E.D.N.C. 1985).

Rule 12.2. Further discovery and inspection.

In the event that either party thereafter moves to compel compliance with Local Rule 16.1(a) or for additional discovery or inspection, such motion shall be filed within the time period set by Local Rule 12.1. The motion shall contain:

(a) the statement that the prescribed conference was held;

(b) the date of said conference;

(c) the names of all counsel participating in the conference; and

(d) the statement that agreement could not be reached concerning the discovery or inspection that is the subject of the motion and the reasons given for the same.

Rule 13.1. Reserved for future purpose.

Rule 14.1. Reserved for future purpose.

Rule 15.1. Reserved for future purpose.

Rule 16.1. Motions relating to discovery and inspection.

(a) In General. A discovery motion in a criminal action (FED. R. CRIM. P.16) shall state that a request for discovery and inspection was made and denied.

Counsel must also certify that there has been a good faith effort to resolve discovery disputes prior to the filing of any discovery motions.

(b) Criminal Pre-Trial Conference. Within 20 days after indictment or initial appearance, whichever comes later, the United States Attorney shall arrange and conduct a pre-trial conference with counsel for the defendant. At the pretrial conference and upon the request of counsel for the defendant, the Government shall permit counsel for the defendant to inspect and copy all discoverable evidence under Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. Additionally, the Government shall provide the right to inspect, copy or photograph any exculpatory evidence.

At the pre-trial conference and upon the request of counsel for the defendant, the government shall permit counsel for the defendant:

(1) to inspect and copy or photograph any relevant written or recorded statements or confessions made by the defendant, or copies thereof, within the possession, custody or control of the government, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorney for the government;

(2) to inspect and copy or photograph any relevant results or reports of physical or mental examinations, and of scientific tests or experiments made in connection with the case, or copies thereof, within the possession, custody or control of the government, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known to the attorney for the government;

(3) to inspect and copy or photograph any relevant recorded testimony of the defendant before a grand jury;

(4) to inspect and copy or photograph books, papers, documents, tangible objects, buildings or places which are the property of the defendant and which are within the possession, custody or control of the government;

(5) to inspect and copy or photograph the Federal Bureau of Investigation Identification Sheet indicating defendant's prior criminal record; and

(6) to inspect, copy or photograph any exculpatory evidence.

(c) Discovery From Defendant. After discovery has been provided by the Government, and upon request of the Government, counsel for the defendant shall permit the Government to inspect any copy all discoverable evidence under Rule 16(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

(d) Exchange of Discovery by Mail. The United States Attorney and counsel for the defendant, in lieu of the conference, may agree to the exchange of discovery material by mail.

(e) Duty of Disclosure. Any duty of disclosure and discovery set forth in Local Rule 16.1 is a continuing one and the United States Attorney and counsel for the defendant shall produce voluntarily any additional relevant information gained by either of them.

CASE NOTES

This rule adds to the government's disclosure obligations under Rule 16, Fed. R. Crim. P., and requires the scheduling of a pre-trial conference at which Rule 16 materials should be given to a defendant. United States v. King, 121 F.R.D. 277 (E.D.N.C. 1988).

Rule 17.1. Time of issuance of subpoenas in criminal cases.

Subpoenas for witnesses in criminal cases shall be delivered to the Marshal or other person qualified to make service at least seven days prior to the Monday of the week in which the case is set for trial. The failure of the Marshal or other qualified person to serve a subpoena not delivered within this time period shall not constitute sufficient cause for a continuance.

Rule 21.1. Reserved for future purpose.

Rule 22.1. Reserved for future purpose.

Rule 23.1. Reserved for future purpose.

Rule 24.1. Attorney preparations for criminal trial.

(a) Unless the parties have previously entered into and executed a written plea agreement, counsel for each party shall file with the clerk and the assigned judge, on or before the Thursday preceding the first day of the session at which the criminal action is set for trial:

(1) Voir dire questions as required by Local Rule 24.2;

(2) requests for jury instructions.

(b) Before jury selection begins, all parties shall file with the court a list of all witnesses each party, in good faith, reasonably anticipates will be called in its evidence-in-chief.

Rule 24.2. Jurors.

(a) Jury Lists. When the jury for a session of the court is drawn, the clerk shall furnish a copy of the list to members of the bar of this court upon their request therefor. The list shall set out the name, address, occupation and employer of each juror and, where available, the name, address, occupation and employer of the spouse of each juror. The jurors and their families shall not be contacted, either directly or indirectly, in an effort to secure information concerning the background of any member of the jury panel. When the jurors are seated in the jury box, a chart or list shall be furnished by the clerk to the parties or their counsel, showing the name and seating assignment of each juror.

(b) Examination of Jurors. The court shall conduct the examination of prospective jurors. Five days preceding the first day of the session at which an action is set for trial, counsel shall file a list of voir dire questions counsel desires the court to ask the jury other than routine questions such as (1) the occupations and addresses of jurors and their spouses, (2) the identity and relation of jurors, the parties, counsel and witnesses and (3) the knowledge of the jurors concerning the case.

(c) Contact with Trial Jurors. Following the discharge of a jury from further consideration of a case, no attorney or party litigant shall individually or through an investigator or any person acting for such attorney or party litigant ask questions of or make comments to a member of that jury or the members of the family of such a juror that are calculated merely to harass or embarrass such a juror or member of such juror's family or to influence the actions of such a juror or a member of such juror's family in future jury service.

Rule 30.1. Requests for jury instructions.

On or before the Thursday preceding the first day of the session at which the criminal action is set for trial, counsel shall file requests for jury instructions. Requests using Devitt & Blackmar (4th Ed.), 5th Circuit Pattern Instructions, and North Carolina Pattern Instructions shall include both the text of the proposed instruction as well as a citation reference to the proposed instruction. All other requests shall contain citations to supporting authorities.

Rule 31.1. Taking verdicts and polling the jury.

The court may take the verdict of the jury in open court. Unless a defendant has fled or has been removed from the courtroom for misconduct, he/she must be in the courtroom when the verdict is announced. Unless the contrary affirmatively appears of record, it will be presumed that the parties were present or by their voluntary absence waived their presence. The jury will not be polled unless a party requests a poll at the time the verdict is taken or unless a poll is ordered by the court.

Rule 32.1. Petition for disclosure of presentence or probation records.

No confidential records of this court maintained by the probation office, including presentence and probation supervision records, shall be sought by any applicant except by written petition to this court establishing with particularity the need for specific information in the records. Whenever a probation officer is served with a subpoena or other judicial process seeking the production or disclosure of presentence and probation records and reports, the probation officer shall petition the Chief Judge of this court in writing for instructions with respect to responding to such process. In no event shall production or disclosure be made except pursuant to an order by a judge.

Rule 32.2. Procedures implementing sentencing guidelines.

(a) Scheduling of Sentencing. Sentencing proceedings shall be scheduled by the court at the time of adjudication of guilt not earlier than 60 days following the adjudication of guilt.

(b) Time for Completion of Presentence Report. No later than 35 days prior to sentencing, the probation officer shall complete and disclose the presentence investigation report to the defendant, counsel for the defendant, and counsel for the government.

(c) Time for Filing Objections to Presentence Report. Within 14 days thereafter, counsel shall communicate, in writing, to the probation officer objections to any material information, sentencing classifications, guideline ranges, and policy statements contained in or omitted from the report. A copy shall be served on opposing counsel. The court may conduct a show cause hearing and/or disallow objections in any case where such objections are not timely filed.

(d) Procedure for Resolving Objections to Presentence Report. After receiving objections from counsel, the probation officer shall conduct such further investigation as may be necessary. Counsel shall jointly confer with the probation officer to discuss and attempt to resolve contested issues. Thereafter, the probation officer shall make such revisions to the presentence investigation report as the probation officer deems appropriate. Unresolved contested issues, including the written position as filed by counsel and the opinion of the probation officer, shall be contained in an addendum to the Presentencing Investigation Report. If an objection by any party affects the guideline computation, the probation officer must attach a copy of that party's objection to the final pre-sentence report.

(e) Time for Filing Revised Presentence Report. The revised presentence investigation report and addendum shall be delivered to the judge, the defendant, and counsel not later than seven days prior to the sentencing hearing. The probation officer's sentencing recommendation shall be disclosed only to the judge.

(f) Expedited Procedures Where Defendant Detained. If it appears that a defendant may be detained pending trial and sentencing for a period of time exceeding the sentence likely to be imposed under the guidelines, the court, upon motion of counsel for defendant at the time of adjudication of guilt, may direct the probation office to expedite the sentencing timetable.

(g) Court Acceptance of Presentence Report. The revised presentence investigation report may be accepted by the court as accurate except as to matters set forth in the addendum which shall be resolved as provided in Section 6A1.3 of the United States Sentencing Commission Guidelines Manual (November 1995).

(h) Service of Presentence Report. The presentence investigation report shall be deemed to have been disclosed when a copy is physically delivered or three days after a copy is mailed. Such dates shall be certified on the report by the probation officer.

(i) Procedure at Sentencing. Before final judgment is entered in a case, the court shall disclose to the defendant, defense counsel, and the attorney for the government, the court's tentative findings of fact and interpretation of applicable guidelines and shall afford the parties an opportunity to object to said tentative findings of fact and interpretation of the guidelines.

(j) Receipt of Presentence Report Under Seal. The final presentence investigation report, addendum, and probation officer's recommendation shall be received by the clerk under seal for inclusion in the record and shall be otherwise disclosed only upon order. Defendants and counsel may retain their copies. After final judgment, the presentence investigation report shall be returned to the United States Probation Office.

(k) Role of Defense Counsel in Presentence Investigation. Upon adjudication of guilt, the probation officer will initiate the presentence investigative process. Counsel for the defendant shall advise the probation officer attending court whether or not the defendant will submit to an interview with the officer and whether or not counsel desires to be present at the interview. Counsel, if attending, and the defendant shall make themselves available for the interview on the day of adjudication with the U. S. Marshal's Service providing, in custody cases, an appropriate location sufficient for accommodating a private interview at the court site or in the immediate vicinity thereof. If extraordinary circumstances prohibit conducting the interview on the day of adjudication, the probation officer will make arrangements to interview the defendant on a mutually agreeable date.

Rule 43.1. Waiver of appearance in misdemeanors cases FED. R. CRIM. P. 43(c)(2).

A defendant in misdemeanor cases may execute a written waiver of appearance which contains the following statements:

(a) the designation of counsel to appear in behalf of the defendant and the granting to such counsel of full authority to enter on behalf of the defendant a plea of guilty, not guilty, or nolo contendere to the offense charged, or to a lesser offense or offenses in lieu thereof;

(b) a consent to trial by the magistrate judge; and, a waiver of: (1) the right to be tried and sentenced by a district judge, (2) the right to a jury trial, (3) the right to testify in person, and (4) the right to face his or her accusers;

(c) an agreement to be bound by the decisions of the court as in any other case of adjudication and the entry of judgment subject to the right of appeal as in any other case; and,

(d) the circumstances which justify the approval of the written waiver of appearance by the court. The waiver of appearance must (1) be in writing, (2) be signed by the defendant and his or her counsel, (3) be consented to by the United States Attorney or an Assistant United States Attorney and (4) be approved by the court.

Rule 44.1. Appearance of counsel in criminal cases.

(a) Obligation to Notify the Court. A defendant who does not apply for representation at government expense, or who is deemed ineligible after application, must inform the court of the identity of retained counsel within 10 days of his or her first appearance before a judicial officer in this district. Retention of counsel outside this period will not constitute grounds for a continuance of pre-trial proceedings or trial unless the defendant demonstrates due diligence in attempting to retain counsel.

(b) Notice of Appearance. Counsel representing a defendant in a criminal action shall file a Notice of Appearance with the clerk and serve the U. S. Attorney and other counsel with a copy. The notice of appearance shall contain the attorney's address, phone number and state bar number.

Rule 45.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 46.1. Reserved for future purpose.

Rule 47.1. Motion practice.

(a) General Requirements. All motions shall be concise and shall state precisely the relief requested. Motions shall conform to the general motions requirements, standards and practices set forth in the applicable Federal Rules of Procedure and in Local Rule 47.3. Time for the filing of pre-trial motions in criminal cases is governed by Local Rule 12.1.

(b) Supporting Memoranda. Except for motions which the clerk may grant as specified in Local Rule 77.2, all motions made other than in a hearing or trial shall be filed with an accompanying supporting memorandum in the manner prescribed by Local Rule 47.2(a). Where appropriate, motions shall be accompanied by affidavits or other supporting documents.

(c) Response to Motions. Any party may file a written response to any motion. The response may be a memorandum in the manner prescribed by Local Rule 47.2(a) and may be accompanied by affidavits and other supporting documents.When the response is not a memorandum, the written response shall be accompanied by a supporting memorandum in the manner prescribed by Local Rule 47.2(a) and, when appropriate, by affidavits and other supporting documents.Responses and accompanying documents shall be filed within 20 days after service of the motion in question unless otherwise ordered by the court or prescribed by the applicable Federal Rules of Procedure.

(d) Subsequently Decided Authority. A suggestion of subsequently decided controlling authority, without argument, may be filed at any time prior to the court's ruling and shall contain only the citation to the case relied upon if published or a copy of the opinion if the case is unpublished.

(e) Affidavits. Ordinarily, affidavits will be made by the parties and other witnesses and not by counsel for the parties. However, affidavits may be made by counsel for a party if the sworn facts are known to counsel or counsel can swear to them upon information and belief, and

(1) the facts relate solely to an uncontested matter; or

(2) the facts relate solely to a matter of formality and there is no reason to believe that substantial evidence will be offered in opposition to the facts; or

(3) the facts relate solely to the nature and value of the legal services rendered for the party by such counsel or counsel's law firm; or

(4) the refusal to accept the affidavit would work a substantial hardship on the party and the court finds that its acceptance of the affidavit would not be such as to require that counsel or counsel's law firm be disqualified from continuing to appear for the party.

(f) Hearings on Motions. Hearings on motions may be ordered by the court in its discretion. Unless so ordered, motions shall be determined without hearing.

(g) Frivolous or Delaying Motions. Where the court finds that a motion is frivolous or filed for delay, costs may be assessed against the party or counsel filing such motion.

(h) Motions for An Extension of Time to Perform An Act. All motions for an extension of time to perform an act required or allowed to be done within a specified time must show good cause, prior consultation with opposing counsel and the views of opposing counsel. The motion must be accompanied by a separate proposed order granting the motion.

CASE NOTES

Time for Response. — The federal rules permit a court to set a time other than that provided in Fed. R. Civ. P., Rule 56(c) in which a party must respond to a motion for summary judgment, to forego any hearing on the motion, and to promulgate local rules to that effect. Byrd v. City of Fayetteville, 110 F.R.D. 71 (E.D.N.C. 1986), aff'd, 819 F.2d 1137 (4th Cir. 1987).

Failure to Provide Analysis or Caselaw. — Where defendant, in broad and conclusory fashion, sought specification, through a bill of particulars, of matters not set forth in the indictment which defendant alleged were essential to the preparation of his defense, but provided no hint of legal analysis to support his position and no citation to caselaw or other authority, the motion was filed in direct violation of Rule 4.04. United States v. King, 121 F.R.D. 277 (E.D.N.C. 1988).

Plaintiffs' failure to file a supporting memorandum to accompany any of their other motions as required by Eastern District Local Rule 4.04 justified denial of the motion. Plotkin v. Association of Eye Care Ctrs., Inc., 710 F. Supp. 156 (E.D.N.C. 1989).

Response to Reply Struck. — Where plaintiff filed a memorandum in response to defendant's reply and defendant then filed a Motion to Strike this memorandum, as this rule does not authorize the filing of a response to a reply, plaintiff's memorandum in response to defendant's reply was struck pursuant to Rule 12(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Simmons v. Al Smith Buick Co., 841 F. Supp. 168 (E.D.N.C. 1993).

Applied in Plotkin v. Association of Eye Care Ctrs., Inc., 710 F. Supp. 156 (E.D.N.C. 1989).

Quoted in Faircloth v. United States, 837 F. Supp. 123 (E.D.N.C. 1993).

Stated in Boon Partners v. Advanced Fin. Concepts, Inc., 917 F. Supp. 392 (E.D.N.C. 1996).

Supp. 392 (E.D.N.C. 1996); Whitlock v. Duke Univ., 637 F. Supp. 1463 (M.D.N.C. 1986); Sterling Forest Assocs. v. Barnett-Range Corp., 673 F. Supp. 1394 (E.D.N.C. 1987).

Rule 47.2. Supporting memoranda.

(a) Form and Content. A memorandum shall be in the form prescribed by Local Rule 47.3 and shall contain:

(1) a concise summary of the nature of the case;

(2) a concise statement of the facts that pertain to the matter before the court for ruling;

(3) the argument (brevity is expected) relating to the matter before the court for ruling with appropriate citations in accordance with Local Rules 47.2(b), (c) and (d);

(4) copies of any decisions in cases cited as required by Local Rules 47.2(c) and (d).

(b) Citation of Published Decisions. Published decisions cited should include parallel citations (except for U.S. Supreme Court cases), the year of the decision, and the court deciding the case. The following are illustrations:

(1) State Court Citation: Rawls v. Smith, 238 N.C. 162, 77 S.E.2d 701 (1953).

(2) District Court Citation: Smith v. Jones, 141 F. Supp. 248 (E.D.N.C. 1956).

(3) Court of Appeals Citation: Smith v. Jones, 237 F.2d 597 (4th Cir. 1956).

(4) United States Supreme Court Citation: Smith v. Jones, 325 U.S. 196 (1956). United States Supreme Court cases should be cited only to the United States Reports except that if a petition for certiorari or an appeal was filed in the United States Supreme Court, the disposition of the case in that court should always be shown. For example: Carson v. Warlick, 238 F.2d 724 (4th Cir. 1956), cert. denied, 353 U.S. 910 (1957).

(c) Citation of Decisions Not Appearing in Certain Published Reports. Decisions published outside the West Federal Reporter System, the official North Carolina reports and the official United States Supreme Court reports (e.g. CCH Tax Reports, Labor Reports, U.S.P.Q., reported decisions of other states or other specialized reporting services) may be cited if the decision is furnished to the court and to opposing parties or their counsel when the memorandum is filed.

(d) Citation of Unpublished Decisions. Unpublished decisions may be cited only if the unpublished decision is furnished to the court and to opposing parties or their counsel when the memorandum is filed. The unpublished decision of a United States District Court may be considered by this court. The unpublished decision of a United States Circuit court of Appeals will be given due consideration and weight but will not bind this court. Such unpublished decisions should be cited as follows: United States v. John Doe, 5:94-CR-50-1-F (E.D.N.C. January 7, 1994) and United States v. Norman, No. 74-2398 (4th Cir. June 27, 1975).

(e) Length of Memoranda. Except as otherwise provided by these local rules, memoranda in support of or in opposition to a motion shall not exceed 30 pages in length, without prior court approval.

CASE NOTES

Applied in United States v. One 1985 Mercedes Benz Auto., 716 F. Supp. 211 (E.D.N.C. 1989).

Rule 47.3. Forms of pleadings, motions and documents.

(b) state the court and division in which the action is pending;

(c) bear, except for initial filing, the case number assigned by the clerk;

(d) contain the caption of the case;

(e) if applicable, state the title of the pleading, motion, discovery procedure or document and the federal statute or rule number under which the party is proceeding;

(f) contain the individual name, firm name, address, telephone number, fax number and State Bar identification, where applicable, of all attorneys who appear for the filing party, including an attorney making a special appearance pursuant to Local Rule 83.1(e);

(g) bear the date when signed by counsel;

(h) be signed by counsel as required by Local Rule 83.1(d)—Local Rule 83.1(d) counsel may submit for filing a facsimile copy of the signature of out of state counsel on pleadings provided that a signature page with all original signatures is submitted to the court within two business days after the original filing;

(i) on all documents, the signature of parties and counsel shall be followed, on the line immediately below, by the typed or printed name in the exact form as the signature. In preparation of documents for signature by a judge or magistrate judge, a blank space shall be provided below the signature line in which the name may be typed or printed; and

(j) have each page numbered sequentially. The following forms are examples to be followed:

Rule 47.4. Form of exhibits to motions.

Exhibits containing double-sided documents are not permitted and will not be considered by the court. Condensed deposition transcripts are discouraged.

Rule 48.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 49.1. Filing and service of papers.

Unless otherwise specifically provided for, the original and one copy of all pleadings and other papers required to be filed or served shall be filed with the clerk in the office of the clerk in Raleigh, Greenville or Wilmington regardless of the division to which the case is assigned. In all cases, whenever a pleading or other paper is required to be filed with the clerk or with the court, a copy thereof shall be served upon opposing parties as provided in FED. R. CRIM. P. 49.

Rule 50.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 51.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 52.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 53.1. Photographing and reproducing court proceedings.

The taking of photographs, broadcasting or recording of proceedings in any form in the courtroom, court offices or in the corridors immediately adjacent thereto, during judicial proceedings or during any recess of the court is prohibited except as set forth below. The taking of photographs, broadcasting or recording of ceremonial proceedings, such as naturalization proceedings, the administration of oaths of office to officers of the court, presentation of portraits and other ceremonial occasions may be allowed with the permission of the presiding judge and under the supervision and control of the court.

Rule 54.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 55.1. Exhibits.

The clerk shall be the custodian of all exhibits admitted into evidence. Upon 10 days notice by mail to counsel for all parties, the clerk may, within 30 days after the entry of final judgment, destroy or otherwise dispose of the exhibits.

Rule 55.2. Sealed documents.

(a) Filing Sealed Documents. Absent statutory authority, no cases or documents may be sealed without an order from the court. A party desiring to file material under seal must first file a motion seeking leave to file the information under seal, or have a court-approved protective order in place.

(b) Proposed Sealed Documents. All proposed, sealed material which accompanies a Motion to Seal shall be received by the clerk and temporarily sealed, pending a ruling on the motion to seal. The filing of a Motion to Seal documents will toll the time for filing the material. If the Motion to Seal is allowed, the sealed material shall be filed on the same date as the order allowing the filing under seal. If the motion to file the material under seal is denied, the movant will be given an option of retrieving the material or having it filed the same date as the order denying the filing under seal.

(c) Docketing Sealed Documents. When material is filed under seal, the docket will indicate generically the type of document filed under seal, but it will not contain a description that would disclose its identity.

(d) Return of Sealed Materials. After the action concludes and all appeals have been completed, counsel is charged with the responsibility of retrieving and maintaining all sealed documents. Upon 10 days notice by mail to counsel for all parties, and within 30 days after final disposition, the court may order the documents to be unsealed and they will thereafter be available for public inspection.

(e) Form. All under seal or potentially under seal documents shall be delivered to the clerk's office enclosed in a red envelope, marked with the case caption, case number, and a descriptive title of the document, unless such information is to be, or has been, among the information ordered sealed. Additionally, the following information will be prominently displayed:

Rule 56.1. Court and clerks.

(a) Court in Continuous Session. This court shall be in continuous session in all divisions of the District on all business days throughout the year. All matters of either a criminal or civil nature not reached at the regular sessions of court are deemed to be in an open status and subject to being called for disposition before the next regular session of court upon reasonable notice to the interested parties.

(b) Assignment of Cases to a Division. The clerk shall assign all criminal indictments to a division when an indictment is filed or transferred. If the indictment alleges the crime occurred within the District, the clerk shall assign the action to the division in which the crime is alleged to have occurred. In cases where it is not alleged that the crime occurred in the District or in cases in which it is unclear in which division the alleged crime occurred, the clerk shall assign the indictment to the division in which the first named defendant, who resides within this District, resides. In all other instances, an indictment shall be assigned to a division in the discretion of the clerk.

(c) Orders and Judgments. The clerk or deputy clerk is authorized to enter the orders and judgments listed below without further direction of the court. However, such action may be suspended, altered or rescinded by the court for cause shown.

(1) Consent orders for substitution of attorneys.

(2) Orders extending for a reasonable amount of time the period within which an act must be perform under the local rules of this court.

(3) Orders canceling liability on bonds.

(4) Orders changing the time of opening and adjourning court in the absences of the judge.

(5) Certification of law students and supervising attorneys pursuant to Local Rule 83.2.

(6) Any other motion, rule or order which may be granted of course or without notice.

CASE NOTES

Stated in Boon Partners v. Advanced Fin. Concepts, Inc., 917 F. Supp. 392 (E.D.N.C. 1996).

Rule 57.1. Attorneys.

(a) Roll of Attorneys. The bar of this court consists of those heretofore admitted and those hereafter admitted as prescribed by this Local Rule 57.1.

(b) Eligibility. A member in good standing of the bar of the Supreme Court of North Carolina is eligible for admission to the bar of this court.

(c) Procedure for Admission. Before being presented to the court for taking the required oath, an applicant for admission shall certify in a written application that such applicant:

(1) Is a member in good standing of the bar of the Supreme Court of North Carolina; and,

(2) Has studied the Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure, the Federal Rules of Evidence, and the Local Rules of this court.

In addition to these certifications, the written application shall contain the certification of two attorneys who are members in good standing of the bar of this court that the applicant is of good moral character and professional reputation and meets the requirements for admission. An applicant may be admitted to practice in this court by a district judge, bankruptcy judge, or magistrate judge of this court or of the United States District Court for the Middle District or Western District of North Carolina upon oral motion by a member of the bar of this court. If the motion for admission is granted, the applicant shall take the following oath or affirmation:

I do solemnly swear that, to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic, and that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will demean myself as an attorney of this court, uprightly and according to law. So help me God.

Following the administration of the oath, the application shall be signed by the judge or magistrate judge and the applicant shall file the application, accompanied by a fee of $80.00, with the clerk. The clerk shall then issue the applicant a certificate of admission to the bar of this court. Upon the filing of a properly certified and executed application accompanied by the admission fee of $80.00, the clerk may accept for filing papers signed by the applicant. However, no applicant shall make an appearance on behalf of a client, either before a magistrate or district judge, by telephone conference or in person, until the applicant has taken the oath.

(3) Current law clerks to judges of this court as well as magistrate judges and bankruptcy judges within this District shall be admitted to the bar of this court without payment of an admission fee.

(d) Representation by Local Counsel Who Must Sign All Pleadings. Litigants criminal actions, except governmental agencies and parties appearing pro se, must be represented by at least one member of the bar of this court who shall sign each pleading, motion, discovery procedure or other document filed in this court, including his or her state bar number and fax number in the signature block on all pleadings. If an attorney appears solely to bring the litigant in compliance with this local rule, he shall in each instance designate himself "LR 57.1 Counsel." In signing the pleading, motion, discovery request or other document, counsel certifies that he is an authorized representative for communication with the court about the litigation, and the document conforms to the practice and procedure of this court. Signatures in the following form shall be sufficient to comply with this local rule. Local Rule 57.1 Local Counsel must include state bar number and fax number in the signature block on all pleadings:

LR 57.1 Counsel
State Bar No.

(e) Appearances by Attorneys Not Admitted in the District. Any person who is a member in good standing of the bar of a United States District court and the bar of the highest court of any state or the District of Columbia and who is neither a resident of this state nor engaged in the practice of law in this state shall be permitted to appear in a particular matter in association with Local Rule 57.1 local counsel. Pursuant to this local rule, counsel may enter a notice of appearance without the necessity of filing a motion to appear pro hac vice.

The appearance of such a person in a particular matter shall confer jurisdiction upon this court for any alleged misconduct of that person or for any other purpose arising in the course of or in the preparation of such matter.

(f) Pleadings, Service, and Attendance by Local Counsel in Cases Where Out-of-State Attorneys Appear. Pleadings and other documents filed in a case where an attorney appears who is not admitted to the bar of this court shall contain the individual name, firm name, address, and phone number of both the attorney making a special appearance under this local rule and the associated local counsel. In such a case, the service of all pleadings and notices as required shall be sufficient if served only upon the associated local counsel. Local counsel shall attend all court proceedings unless excused by the court.

(g) Withdrawal of Appearance. No attorney whose appearance has been entered shall withdraw his or her appearance or have it stricken from the record except with leave of the court.

(h) Courtroom Decorum. Counsel shall conduct themselves with dignity and propriety. Counsel shall rise when addressing the court, and all statements to the court shall be made from a counsel table or from behind the lectern facing the court. Counsel shall not approach the bench unless requested to do so by the court or unless permission is granted upon the request of counsel.

(i) Questioning of Witnesses. Only one attorney for each party may question a particular witness unless the court allows otherwise. Counsel shall remain seated while questioning witnesses.

(j) Professional Standards. The ethical standard governing the practice of law in this court are the Revised Rules of Professional Conduct, now in force and as hereafter modified by the Supreme Court of North Carolina, except as may be otherwise provided by specific local rule of this court. Counsel are directed to advise the clerk within 10 days of disciplinary action taken against them resulting in suspension or disbarment. The disciplinary procedures of this court shall be on file with the clerk and furnished to counsel upon request.

(k) Admission of Attorneys Previously Admitted to the United States District Courts for the Middle or Western Districts of North Carolina. Attorneys already admitted to the bar of either the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina or the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina may be admitted to the bar of this court upon tendering the application and fees required by Local Rule 57.1(c), together with a copy of the order admitting the attorney to practice in one of the other districts, without the necessity of taking the oath that is otherwise required and without obtaining the character certification by two members of the bar of this court.

Rule 57.2. Student practice rule.

(a) Compliance with Rule. Students may participate as counsel in civil and criminal cases in this court subject to their compliance with all of the requirements of this Local Rule 57.2.

(b) Eligibility. An eligible student must:

(1) be duly enrolled in a law school;

(2) have completed at least three semesters of legal studies;

(3) have knowledge of the Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure, the Federal Rules of Evidence, the Code of Professional Responsibility, and the Local Rules of this court;

(4) be supervised by a supervising attorney as defined in Local Rule 57.2(c);

(5) be certified by the Dean of the Law School where the student is enrolled, or the Dean's designee, as being of good character, sufficient legal ability, and adequately trained to fulfill the responsibilities of a legal intern to both the client and the court;

(6) be certified by the court to practice pursuant to this Local Rule 57.2; and,

(7) decline personal compensation for his or her legal services from a client or any other source.

(c) Supervising Attorney. A supervisor must:

(1) either (1) have faculty or adjunct faculty status at a law school at which a portion of the supervisor's duties includes supervision of students in a clinical program; or (2) be a member of the bar of this court for at least two years, who in the determination of the court, is competent to carry out the role of supervising attorney;

(2) be admitted to practice in this court;

(3) be certified by the court as a student supervisor;

(4) be present with the student at all times in court, and at other proceedings in which testimony is taken;

(5) co-sign all pleadings or other documents filed with the court;

(6) assume full personal and professional responsibility for a student's guidance and any work undertaken and for the quality of the student's work, and to be available for consultation with represented clients;

(7) assist and counsel the student in activities mentioned in Local Rule 57.2(e), and review such activities with the student, all to the extent required for proper practical training of the student and the protection of the client; and

(8) supplement oral or written work of the student as necessary to insure proper representation of the client.

(d) Certification of Student and Supervisor.

(1) Student. The court's certification of a student to practice under this Local Rule 57.2 shall be filed with the clerk and shall remain in effect for 18 months or until the student graduates from law school, whichever is earlier. Certification to appear generally or in a particular case may be withdrawn by the court at any time, in the discretion of the court, and without any showing of cause.

(2) Supervising Attorney. Certification of the supervising attorney shall be filed with the clerk, and shall remain in effect indefinitely unless withdrawn by the court, in its discretion, and without any showing of cause.

(e) Activities. A certified student may under the personal supervision of his or her supervisor:

(1) represent any client including federal, state or local governmental bodies, if the client on whose behalf the certified student is appearing has consented in writing to that appearance and the supervising lawyer has given written approval of that appearance;

(2) represent a client in any criminal, civil or administrative matter; however, the court retains the authority to limit a student's participation in any individual case;

(3) in connection with matters in this court, engage in other activities on behalf of the client in all ways that a licensed attorney may, under the general supervision of the supervising lawyer; however, a student shall make no binding commitments on behalf of a client absent prior client and supervisor approval, and in any matters, including depositions, in which testimony is taken the student must be accompanied by the supervising lawyer. Documents or papers which are filed shall be read, approved, and co-signed by the supervising lawyer. The court retains the authority to establish exceptions to such activities; and

(4) prior to oral participation by a certified student in a hearing or trial, the supervising attorney shall provide the court with a written statement of the scope of participation anticipated on the part of the certified student.

Rule 57.3. Change of address.

All attorneys and pro se parties must notify the court in writing within 10 days of any change of address. Failure to notify the court in a timely manner of an address change may result in dismissal of the action or the imposition of such other relief that the court deems just and proper.

CASE NOTES

Cited in Great Am. Ins. Co. v. Nye, 64 Bankr. 759 (Bankr. E.D.N.C. 1986).

Rule 57.4. Correspondence.

Correspondence addressed to the court shall indicate that copies have been transmitted to all other parties and failure to transmit the same to all other parties may result in sanctions by the court. Such correspondence shall not become a part of the record in the case.

Rule 58.1. Magistrate judges.

(a) Disposition of Misdemeanor Cases — 18 U.S.C. § 3401. A magistrate judge may:

(1) try persons accused of, and sentence persons convicted of, misdemeanors committed within this district in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3401;

(2) direct the probation service of the court to conduct a presentence investigation in any misdemeanor case; and

(3) conduct a jury trial in any misdemeanor case where the defendant so requests and is entitled to trial by jury under the Constitution and laws of the United States.

(b) Appeal from Judgments in Misdemeanor Cases — 18 U.S.C. § 3402. A defendant may appeal a judgment of conviction by a magistrate judge in a misdemeanor case by filing a notice of appeal and paying a $5.00 filing fee within 10 days after entry of the judgment, and by serving a copy of the notice upon the United States Attorney. The scope of appeal shall be the same as on an appeal from a judgment of the district court to the court of appeals.

Rule 59.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 60.1. Reserved for future purposes.

Rule 61.1. Publicity in criminal matters.

(a) In General. All court personnel, including but not limited to, the marshal and deputy marshals and office personnel, the clerk and deputy clerks and office personnel, probation officers and office personnel, bailiffs, court reporters, and the judges' and magistrate judges' office personnel, are prohibited from disclosing to any person, where it can reasonably be expected to be disseminated by means of public communication, without authorization of the court, information relating to any pending matter, civil or criminal, that has not been filed as a part of the public records of the court. This proscription applies to the divulgence of any information concerning arguments and hearings held in chambers or otherwise outside the presence of the jury or the public.

(b) Statements by One Participating in or Associated with An Investigation. An attorney participating in or associated with the investigation of a criminal matter shall not make or participate in making any extra-judicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and that does more than state without elaboration:

(1) information contained in a public record;

(2) that the investigation is in progress;

(3) the general scope of the investigation including a description of the offense and, if permitted by law, the identity of the victim;

(4) a request for assistance in apprehending a suspect or assistance in other matters and the information necessary thereto; and

(5) a warning to the public of any dangers.

(c) Statements After Filing Complaint, Information, or Indictment, Issuance of Warrant or Arrest. An attorney or law firm associated with the prosecution or defense of a criminal matter shall not, from the time of the filing of a complaint, information, or indictment, the issuance of an arrest warrant, or arrest until the commencement of the trial or disposition without trial, make or participate in making an extra-judicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication that relates to:

(1) the character, reputation, or prior criminal record (including arrests, indictments, or other charges of crime) of the accused;

(2) the possibility of a plea of guilty to the offense charged or to a lesser offense;

(3) the existence or contents of any confession, admission, or statement given by the accused or the refusal or failure of the accused to make a statement;

(4) the performance or results of any examinations or tests or the refusal or failure of the accused to submit to examination or tests;

(5) the identity, testimony, or credibility of a prospective witness; or

(6) any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused, the evidence, or the merits of the case.

(d) Statements That Can Be Made. This local rule does not preclude an attorney during such period from announcing:

(1) the name, age, residence, occupation, and family status of the accused;

(2) if the accused has not been apprehended, any information necessary to aid in apprehension of the accused or to warn the public of any dangers the accused may present;

(3) a request for assistance in obtaining evidence;

(4) the identity of the victim of the crime;

(5) the fact, time, and place of arrest, resistance, pursuit, and use of weapons;

(6) the identity of investigating and arresting officers or agencies and the length of the investigation;

(7) at the time of seizure, a description of the physical evidence seized, other than a confession, admission or statement;

(8) the nature, substance, or text of the charge;

(9) quotations from or references to public records of the court in the case;

(10) the scheduling or result of any step in the judicial proceedings; or

(11) that the accused denies the charges made against him.

(e) Statements During Jury Selection or Trial. During the selection of a jury or the trial of a criminal matter, an attorney or a law firm associated with the prosecution or defense of a criminal matter shall not make or participate in making any extra-judicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and that relates to the trial, parties, or issues in the trial or other matters that are reasonably likely to interfere with a fair trial, except that the attorney may quote from or refer without comment to public records of the court in the case.

(f) Statements After Trial, Disposition Without Trial, or Sentencing. After the completion of a trial or disposition without trial of a criminal matter and prior to the imposition of sentence, an attorney or a law firm associated with the prosecution or defense shall not make or participate in making an extra-judicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by public communication and that is reasonably likely to affect the sentence.

(g) Statements of Staff and Employees. An attorney shall exercise reasonable care to prevent employees and associates from making an extra-judicial statement that the attorney would be prohibited from making under this Local Rule 45.00 and 61.1.

(h) Copies of Public Records. The members of the news media and others may obtain copies of all public records from the clerk upon payment of copying fees as prescribed by the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Rule 100.1. Court libraries.

The clerk shall maintain the court libraries in the district. Use of the facilities is limited to judicial officers, court staff and members of the bar of this court. Books shall not be removed from the library without the consent of the person responsible for the maintenance of the particular library, and shall not be removed from the courthouse under any circumstances. A violation of this rule shall be punishable as for contempt of court.

Rule 100.2. Jurisdictional agreements with other courts.

The clerk shall maintain all jurisdictional agreements entered into by the Chief District Judge of this court and the Chief District Judge of any other United States District Court and a copy of such agreements shall be furnished to counsel upon request.

IN RE:
LOCAL BANKRUPTCY RULES ORDER

It appearing that local bankruptcy rules would facilitate the administration of bankruptcy cases in this district, and would assist the court in the management of contested matters and adversary proceedings; and

It further appearing that Bankruptcy Rule 9029 permits the United States District Court to authorize the bankruptcy judges to make rules of practice and procedure not inconsistent with the Official Bankruptcy Rules; and

It further appearing that by order of Chief United States District Judge W. Earl Britt, dated October 8, 1987, the bankruptcy judges of this district are authorized, subject to the requirements of Rule 83 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to make rules of practice and procedure not inconsistent with the Bankruptcy Rules, consistent with the authority of the district court to modify or abrogate any rules so adopted as appears appropriate. It further appearing that appropriate notice was given with an opportunity to comment; now therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that the bankruptcy rules attached hereto are hereby adopted and shall be referred to as Local Bankruptcy Rules, Eastern District of North Carolina, and shall be numbered in such a way as to refer to the Official Bankruptcy Rules.

Entered this 1st day of September, 1988.

PREFACE

The Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina are adopted to facilitate the administration of bankruptcy cases, to assist the court in the management of contested matters and adversary proceedings and to provide for variations in the local practice in this court.

The numbering system for the Local Bankruptcy Rules is patterned after the Bankruptcy Rules which became effective August 1, 1983. Each local rule is keyed to an appropriate Bankruptcy Rule number and is numbered with a decimal to such Bankruptcy Rule number. For example, a local rule relating to Bankruptcy Rule 7001 will be numbered as Local Bankruptcy Rule No. 7001.1. This numbering system should facilitate the use of the local rules.

The Local Bankruptcy Rules will be cited as: "Local Bankruptcy Rule No. ____, EDNC".

PART I. COMMENCEMENT OF CASE; PROCEEDINGS RELATING TO PETITION AND ORDER FOR RELIEF

Rule 1002.1. Petition — General.

The required number of copies of petitions requesting relief under the Code is as follows:

(1) Chapter 7 — original and one
(2) Chapter 11 — original and five
(3) Chapter 12 — original and two
(4) Chapter 13 — original and one

Rule 1003.1. Involuntary petition.

The number of copies shall be as specified in Rule 1002.1.

Rule 1006.1. Fees — Installment payments.

(a) An application for permission to pay the filing fees in installments shall contain the following:

(1) reasons why the debtor cannot pay the full fee at the time of filing;

(2) a statement that the debtor's attorney has received no payment for fees and will accept none until the filing fees are paid in full;

(3) a statement that the debtor does not owe any outstanding fees to the court on account of any other prior case;

(4) signatures of both the debtor and the debtor's attorney.

(b) Following the filing of a petition and an application, each application will be reviewed by the court and an order entered granting or denying the application. Should the application be denied, the debtor shall have ten (10) days from the date of the order to pay the full fee. If the full fee is not paid within ten (10) days of the order, the petition may be dismissed by the court without any further prior notice.

(c) Final installments of the filing fee shall be paid within ten (10) days following the date first set for the meeting of creditors called pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 341, unless otherwise ordered by the court upon appropriate motion for extension and for cause shown.

(d) The debtor and the debtor's attorney are responsible for knowing the dates the payments are due. No reminders will be provided from the court of the due date. Upon failure to make any payment as scheduled, the petition is subject to dismissal after hearing on notice to the debtor and trustee.

Rule 1007.1. Lists, schedules and statements; Time limits.

(a) Schedules and statements required. In the instance of an accelerated chapter 11 case when the schedules and statements are not filed with the voluntary petition, a copy of the schedules and statements shall be filed within 15 days thereafter and served directly upon the bankruptcy administrator and the Internal Revenue Service. If the debtor is a corporation or limited partnership, then a copy of the schedules and statements shall be filed also within fifteen (15) days upon the following:

(1) Securities & Exchange Commission
Branch of Reorganization
Suite 1000
3475 Lennox Road, N.E.
Atlanta, Georgia 30327-1323 or at the most current address on file with the clerk, and

(2) Secretary of the Treasury
Washington, D.C. 20220

A certificate of service shall be attached to the original schedules and statements filed with the court reflecting that service has been made on each party.

(b) Twenty (20) largest unsecured creditors. The clerk of court is authorized to lodge for filing any voluntary chapter 11 reorganization petition that is not accompanied by the list of 20 largest unsecured creditors.

(c) Dismissal of case for failure to comply with Rule 1007(c) Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. In the event the schedules and statements are not filed with the petition in a voluntary case, they shall be filed within 15 days thereafter, unless a motion to extend the time for filing the schedules and statements is filed prior to the expiration of the 15 days. If the schedules and statements are not filed within 15 days of the filing of the petition and no motion to extend the time for filing is received by the clerk of court within the 15-day period, then the clerk of court may summarily dismiss the petition. A copy of this local rule shall be served on the debtor and his counsel at the time of the filing of a petition which is unaccompanied by the schedules and statements.

Rule 1007.2. Mailing — List or Matrix.

A petition requesting relief under chapters 7, 11, 12, or 13 shall be accompanied by a mailing matrix containing the complete mailing address, including zip code, for the following:

(1) all creditors listed in the petition, alphabetically arranged;

(2) Bankruptcy Administrator, Post Office Box 3758, Wilson, NC 27895-3758 or most current address, in chapters 7 and 11;

(3) Internal Revenue Service, 320 Federal Place, ATTN: Special Procedures Staff, Greensboro, NC 27402 or the most current address on file with the clerk — except in chapters 7, 12 and 13 when the IRS is not listed as a creditor;

(4) North Carolina Department of Revenue, Office Services Division, Bankruptcy Unit, Post Office Box 1168, Raleigh, NC 27602-1168 or the most current address on file with the clerk — except in chapters 7, 12 and 13 when the Department of Revenue is not listed as a creditor; and

(5) Employment Security Commission, Post Office Box 26504, Raleigh, NC 27611 or the most current address on file with the clerk — except in chapters 7, 12 and 13 when the ESC is not listed as a creditor.

(6) If the United States is a party, other than for taxes, the matrix should include the United States Attorney, 310 New Bern Avenue, Suite 800, Federal Building, Raleigh, NC 27601-1461 or the most current address on file with the clerk (EXAMPLE: FHA, FmHA, VA, SBA).

(7) If the debtor is a corporation, list the name, current mailing address, and title of each officer, director, insider, and managing executive.

(8) If the debtor is a partnership, list the name and current mailing address of each member of the partnership.

The matrix shall be prepared in the format approved by the clerk and its content shall be certified as accurate by the filing attorney or party. The party shall be responsible for any errors in or omissions from the listing.

Rule 1009.1. Amendments to Lists and Schedules.

Any amendment to a petition, list, schedule or statement shall be accompanied by a certificate of service in the form of a statement of the date and manner of service and of the names and addresses of the persons served and certified as correct by the person making the service.

Rule 1073.1. Assignment of Cases.

In accordance with the divisions established in Local Bankruptcy Rule 1071.1, the clerk shall assign all cases to a division when the case is filed. The place of filing shall be determined by the the debtor's domicile, residence, principal place of business or location of the debtor's principal assets immediately preceding the filing of the bankruptcy case. In cases involving an affiliate, a general partner or partnership, related cases may be filed in the division where the original case was filed.

In adversary proceedings when there is no pending bankruptcy case in this district, the division will be assigned at the discretion of the clerk.

PART II. OFFICERS AND ADMINISTRATION; NOTICES; MEETINGS; EXAMINATIONS; ELECTIONS; ATTORNEYS AND ACCOUNTANTS

Rule 2002.1. Notice to creditors and other interested parties.

(a) Amended or supplemental schedules. The § 341 meeting will be scheduled and the clerk of court, or such other person as the clerk of court may designate, will notify the creditors listed on the matrix filed with the petition. If additional creditors are added either through schedules being filed after notice has been given or through amendments to the schedules, the debtor shall serve the § 341 notice on the creditors and file a certificate of service with the clerk of court within three (3) days after notice.

(b) Notice fee. The notice fee required pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930 shall be collected by the clerk for each notice mailed by the office of the clerk of court only as required under Rule 2002(a), (b), (d), (e), (f) and (n), Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, in chapter 7 and 13 cases filed prior to December 1, 1992. In a chapter 7 case, the fee shall be payable from the estate and only to the extent there is an estate. In chapter 11, 12 and 13 cases, the fee shall be payable at confirmation pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(12), 11 U.S.C. § 1225(a)(2), and 11 U.S.C. § 1325(a)(2).

In the event a debtor files a request for conversion to another chapter or a voluntary dismissal, payment of the fee shall be a condition of the conversion or dismissal.

(c) Guide to service and notice requirements. The chart attached to these rules shall serve as a guide for the giving of notice to creditors and other parties in interest.

Rule 2003.1. Meeting of creditors and equity security holders.

(a) The bankruptcy administrator shall retain and preserve the taped recordings of the meeting of creditors required by 11 U.S.C. § 341(a) for a period of two years from the date of the meeting. After the expiration of two years from the date of the meeting, the bankruptcy administrator is authorized to erase or otherwise destroy the taped recordings.

(b) Upon the request of any entity, the bankruptcy administrator may certify and provide a copy of the recording of the meeting of creditors at the entity's expense.

Rule 2014.1. Employment of professional persons.

The chapter 11 debtor may not employ any professional person including but not limited to any attorney, accountant, appraiser, business consultant, broker, agent, or auctioneer without first obtaining approval of the court.

Rule 2015.1. Duty of trustee or debtor in possession to keep records, make reports, and give notice of case.

The standing chapter 13 trustees are authorized to charge a search fee when answering inquiries which require a search of the records for each name or item searched in the amount established under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(b), and to use the funds as a part of operating expenses. The trustees shall include in the chapter 13 trustee's annual report the amount of any search fees received.

Rule 2015.2. Duty of Chapters 7 and 11 trustee to give notice.

The chapters 7 and 11 trustee shall prepare and mail notices required under Rule 2002(a)(2), (3), (4), (7) and Rule 2002(f)(3) and (9), Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

The trustee shall provide 15 days notice to creditors and other parties in interest within which to object to any proposed use, sale or lease of property under Rule 6004(b), Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. The trustee shall prepare and file with the clerk of court within three (3) days thereafter a certificate of service showing when and to whom the notices were mailed.

Rule 2015.5. Trustees — Chapter 13 search fees.

The standing chapter 13 trustees are authorized to charge a search fee when answering inquiries which require a search of the records for each name or item searched in the amount established under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(b), and to use the funds as a part of operating expenses. The trustees shall include in the chapter 13 trustee's annual report the amount of any search fees received.

Rule 2016.1. Compensation of attorneys in Chapter 13 Cases.

(a) AMOUNT OF STANDARD BASE FEE. The standard base fee in a Chapter 13 case is $1,400.00.

(b) SERVICES INCLUDED IN THE BASE FEE. The standard base fee includes the basic services reasonably necessary to properly represent the debtor before the Bankruptcy Court during the first twelve (12) months after filing the case.

(c) APPLYING FOR A HIGHER BASE FEE. Applications for approval of a base fee higher than the standard base fee must be filed by the debtor's attorney within sixty (60) days after the conclusion of the creditor's meeting under Section 341 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(d) NON-BASE FEE SERVICES DEFINED. The following services are not covered by the standard base fee, and additional compensation for these services may be awarded by the Court:

(A) Motion for authority to sell real property.

(B) Application to incur debt.

(C) Prosecution or defense of adversary proceedings.

(D) Filing of formal motions or responses pertaining to four or more matters arising during the first year of the case, including but not limited to the services listed below in subsection (f).

(E) Any other service that, in the discretion of the court, reasonably warrants additional compensation.

(e) APPROVAL OF NON-BASE FEES. Except as specified in subsection (f), applications for fees for any non-base fee services provided to a Chapter 13 debtor must be approved by the Court. Notice of each application for fees and expenses in any amount under $1000.00 must be sent to each debtor, the Trustee, and the Bankruptcy Administrator. Notice of each application for fees and expenses of $1000.00 and above must be given to all parties in interest.

(f) PRESUMPTIVE NON-BASE FEES/APPROVAL/NOTICE. The following fees for non-base fee services are presumptively reasonable. Applications for these fees must be filed with a notice verifying completion of the service and a certificate of service evidencing service of the notice on each debtor, the Trustee and the Bankruptcy Administrator. The applications will automatically be approved by the Court.

(A) Motion to use interrogatories, and interrogatories. $150.00
(B) Motion for turnover. $250.00
(C) Adversary proceeding for turnover. $500.00
(D) Uncontested lien avoidance. $500.00
(E) Motion to avoid judicial lien. $200.00
(F) Motion to modify plan post-confirmation. $250.00
(G) Motion to substitute collateral. $350.00
(H) Motion for authority to sell property. $250.00
(I) Application to incur debt. $200.00
(J) Defense of motion for relief from stay and/or co-debtor stay. ... $350.00
(K) Handling of an insurance inquiry received more than twelve (12) months after the Chapter 13 case is filed. $50.00
(L) Defense of motion to dismiss. $200.00
(M) Motion for hardship discharge. $350.00
(N) Objection to claims. $200.00
(O) Notice to abandon property. $100.00

Alternatively, the debtor's attorney may apply to the Court for approval of non-base fees on a "time and expense" basis pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2016, 11 U.S.C. § 330, and subsection (c) above.

(g) DISCLOSURE OF FEE PROCEDURES. Every attorney for a Chapter 13 debtor must disclose to the debtor the procedures applicable in this district to awards of attorneys' fees in Chapter 13 cases.

(h) INTERIM APPROVAL OF PARTIAL BASE FEE. An attorney fee of $400.00 for services provided to the debtor up to and including the petition date is authorized and shall be considered part of the base fee. Any amount in excess of $400.00 collected by the attorney prior to filing the Chapter 13 petition must be held in the attorney's client trust account pending further order of the Court or approval of the fees in accordance with this Rule.

(i) PAYMENT OF ATTORNEY FEES/MODIFICATION OF PLAN. The following will be treated and paid as administrative expenses of the Chapter 13 case:

(A) The standard base fee, less any partial base fee paid prior to filing the Chapter 13 petition; and

(B) Any additional amounts awarded in excess of the standard base fee or for non-base fee services.

These fees shall be paid by the Trustee at the rate of $100.00 per month unless the Court directs otherwise. The Trustee may, without application to the Court, modify the Chapter 13 plan to extend the duration of the plan and/or increase the monthly amount of the plan payment in order to provide the funds necessary to pay attorney fees. The Trustee must notify the debtor and the debtor's attorney of the plan modification. (Enacted March 28, 2000)

Rule 2070.1. Estate administration — Deposit of estate funds pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 345: Reporting requirements and collateralization of deposits exceeding $100,000.00.

(a) Initial deposit reports. Promptly after making the initial deposit or investment of the estate's funds, the trustee or the debtor in possession shall file a report with the bankruptcy administrator that identifies the depository or describes the investment and states the amount of any deposit or investment.

(b) Reports required from entities holding estate funds.

(1) An entity with which estate funds have been deposited or invested shall file a monthly report with the bankruptcy administrator in a format prescribed by the bankruptcy administrator indicating the amount credited to each bankruptcy estate account as of the date of the report.

(2) Whenever the total of deposited or invested estate funds not insured or guaranteed by the United States or backed by the full faith and credit of the United States reaches 95 percent of the amount of the bond or securities posted, the entity with which such funds are deposited or invested shall file a written statement with the bankruptcy administrator setting forth the total amount of such deposits not so insured, guaranteed or backed by the full faith and credit of the United States and the amount of the existing bond or securities.

(3) In the event that an entity holding estate funds fails to comply with the reporting requirements set forth in this rule, the bankruptcy administrator may direct the debtor in possession or the trustee to immediately withdraw all funds on deposit or invested with the entity with all interest payable thereon.

(c) Collateralization of deposits.

(1) If the monies of an estate which are on deposit exceed $100,000, or such other amount as may be insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the depository must post a bond or deposit securities of the kind specified in 31 U.S.C. § 9303 for any amount in excess of $100,000 with the Federal Reserve Bank. Court approval of the bond or deposit of securities must be obtained for a deposit or investment for which a bond is required under § 345(b) of the Code.

(2) Securities accepted for deposit in lieu of a surety on a depository bond shall be deposited in the custody of the Federal Reserve Bank in Richmond or such other branch as may be approved by the bankruptcy administrator.

(3) Upon deposit of securities by the depository with the Federal Reserve Bank, a copy of the document evidencing the deposit shall be transmitted to the bankruptcy administrator.

(d) Deficiency in amount of bond or deposited securities. Whenever the bond and any deposited securities do not or will not constitute adequate security because of existing and expected deposits o investments, the depository or entity with which an investment is made shall increase the amount of the bond or the deposited securities within a time fixed by the bankruptcy administrator. If, within the time fixed, the depository or entity with which an investment is made fails to increase the amount of the bond or the deposited securities to an amount adequate for existing and expected deposits or investments, the bankruptcy administrator may direct the trustee or debtor in possession to withdraw all funds on deposit or invested with the entity together with all interest payable thereon.

PART III. CLAIMS AND DISTRIBUTION TO CREDITORS AND EQUITY INTEREST HOLDERS; PLANS

Rule 3001.1. Claims and Equity Security Interests — General.

(a) WHERE TO FILE A CLAIM:

(1) In chapter 7 and 11 cases, all claims shall be filed with the clerk of court in accordance with Rule 5005, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Local Bankruptcy Rule 5001-2.

(2) In chapter 12 and 13 cases, all claims shall be filed with the appropriate standing trustee as provided in Local Bankruptcy Rule No. 5005-1.

(b) TIME FOR FILING CLAIMS IN A CHAPTER 11 CASE: In a chapter 11 case, a proof of claim shall be filed within ninety (90) days after the date first set for the meeting of creditors pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 341(a), except as provided in Rule 3002(c)(1) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure or otherwise extended by the court.

(c) DEBTORS' NOTICE OF DISPUTED, CONTINGENT OR UNLIQUIDATED CLAIMS: In addition to the duties set forth in Local Bankruptcy Rule 4002-1(b), the debtor shall notify each creditor whose claim is scheduled as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated of that fact within fifteen (15) days after filing the schedule of assets and liabilities or within fifteen (15) days after addition of any creditors to the petition. Failure to notify a creditor that its claim is listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated shall result in the creditor's claim being deemed filed in the amount listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, as though a proof of claim had been filed by the creditor. The debtor shall file a certificate of service with the clerk of court within three (3) days after service has been made.

(d) FILING OF CLAIMS BY DEBTOR OR TRUSTEE: In Chapter 13 cases, if a creditor fails to file a proof of claim on or before the first date set for the § 341(a) meeting of creditors, the debtor or trustee may do so in the name of the creditor within 30 days after service by the Chapter 13 Trustee of the List of Claims Filed in the debtor's case. If the debtor or trustee does file a proof on behalf of a creditor, the creditor may file an amended proof pursuant to Rule 3002 or Rule 3003(c), which shall supercede the proof filed by the debtor or trustee. (Amended effective March 28, 2001.)

Rule 3002.1. Filing proof of claim or interest.

(a) In chapters 7 and 11 cases, all claims shall be filed with the clerk of court in accordance with Rule 5005, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

(b) In chapter 12 and 13 cases, all claims shall be filed with the appropriate standing trustee as provided in Local Bankruptcy Rule No. 5005.1, Eastern District of North Carolina.

Rule 3003.1. Filing proof of claim or equity security interest in Chapter 9 municipality or Chapter 11 reorganization cases.

The debtor shall notify each creditor whose claim is scheduled as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated of that fact within fifteen (15) days after filing the schedule of assets and liabilities or within fifteen (15) days after addition of any creditors to the petition. Failure to notify a creditor that its claim is listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated shall result in the creditor's claim being deemed filed in the amount listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, as though a proof of claim had been filed by the creditor. The debtor shall file a certificate of service with the clerk of court within three (3) days after service has been made.

CASE NOTES

Applicability to Divorce Action. — Where debtor listed pending divorce action against spouse appellee as a "chose in action" under the asset schedule, listing the value as "undetermined," and where debtor did not schedule spouse as a creditor, but did place her name and address on the original mailing matrix, appellee was not aware that her marital rights were being extinguished and, therefore, was not bound by the confirmed Chapter 11 plan. Hoffman v. Hoffman, 157 Bankr. 580 (E.D.N.C. 1992), aff'd, 998 Bankr. 1009 (1993).

Rule 3003.2. Time for filing claims in a Chapter 11 case.

In a chapter 11 case, a proof of claim shall be filed within ninety (90) days after the date first set for the meeting of creditors called pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 341(a) of the Code, except as otherwise extended by order of the court.

Rule 3010.1. Payments to creditors in Chapter 13 individual's debt adjustment cases.

Rule 3010(b), Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, is amended to the extent that standing chapter 13 trustees are authorized to make payments to creditors in amounts smaller than $15.00 without waiting until that creditor's dividends accumulate to $15.00. The decision as to whether to make smaller payments shall be solely in the discretion of the trustee as to what is in the best interest of the individual estate.

Rule 3012.1. Valuation of security.

After notice, a chapter 13 trustee may recommend the value of a creditor's security at the § 341 meeting and, unless an objection is filed within twenty (20) days after notice of the recommendation, the court may accept the recommendation of value for the purpose of distribution under the plan.

Rule 3017.1. Notices required to be sent by Chapter 11 debtors.

The debtor in possession in a chapter 11 case shall be responsible for mailing the following notices and documents to creditors, after having their form and content approved by the clerk of court, and for filing a certificate of mailing with the clerk of court within three (3) days of the date of the mailing:

(1) notice of the meeting of creditors;

(2) notice of the hearing on disclosure statement;

(3) the plan, approved disclosure statement and the notice regarding balloting and date for hearing on confirmation;

(4) confirmation order; and

(5) any other notices as the court or clerk of court shall direct in a particular matter.

PART IV. THE DEBTOR: DUTIES AND BENEFITS

Rule 4001.1. Automatic stay — Relief from.

Standing modification of the automatic stay. The automatic stay provided in 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) is modified in bankruptcy cases as follows:

(a) In chapter 13 cases, affected secured creditors may:

(1) contact the debtor about the status of insurance coverage on property used as collateral;

(2) if there are direct payments to creditors, contact the debtor about any payment in default.

(3) send to the debtor statements, payment coupons or other correspondence that the creditor sends to its non-debtor customers.

(b) In chapter 11 and 12 cases, the Internal Revenue Service and the North Carolina Department of Revenue may contact the debtor or the trustee and the debtor's depository to verify that all required tax deposits are being made and reported and that all tax returns are being filed and remittances paid in the manner prescribed by law. The debtor or trustee and the debtor's designated depository shall assist the Internal Revenue Service and the North Carolina Department of Revenue with the monitoring and verification of the provisions of this rule.

(c) In chapters 7 and 13 cases, the Internal Revenue Services is authorized:

(1) to make income tax refunds, in the ordinary course of business, directly to the chapter 7 and 13 debtors unless otherwise ordered by the court or otherwise instructed by the chapter 7 trustee or the standing chapter 13 trustee;

(2) to offset against any refund due a debtor any taxes due the United States government;

(3) to assess any tax liability satisfied by offsetting any refunds, when such liability has not been assessed previously;

(4) to assess tax liabilities shown on voluntarily filed returns and other agreed-to liabilities.

(d) In chapter 13 cases, secured creditors seeking relief from the automatic stay on grounds of post-petition default by the debtor must specify in a motion that they seek relief on grounds of the debtor's default and must set forth, with specificity, the payments alleged to be in default. (Amended March 28, 2001.)

Rule 4001.2. Secured Creditor Duties.

A secured creditor must respond promptly to a chapter 13 debtor's reasonable requests for account information (Enacted March 28, 2001.)

Rule 4002.1. Debtor duties.

(a) The debtor filing a petition requesting relief under chapter 7 of the Code shall comply with the following:

(1) Statement of intention. A chapter 7 debtor who is required to file a statement of intention pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 521(2)(A) shall serve a copy of the statement upon the creditor whose claim is secured by the property which is the subject of the statement. The debtor shall file a certificate of service with the clerk of court within three (3) days of the filing of the statement.

(2) Failure to perform statement of intention. If a chapter 7 debtor should fail to perform the intention as required by 11 U.S.C. § 521(2)(B), the court may, upon motion of the affected creditor, ex parte order the lifting of the stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) and order the debtor to turn over the property to such creditor.

(b) Duties of chapter 11 debtor in possession.

(1) The debtor shall:

(A) Monthly report. File with the bankruptcy administrator monthly accountings, the first report being due within thirty (30) days after the filing of the petition and subsequent reports on or before the fifteenth day of each month thereafter. The debtor shall serve a copy of all monthly reports on the attorney and the chairman for the unsecured creditors committee. Such report shall be in a format prescribed by the bankruptcy administrator.

(B) Books of account. Close the present books of account as of the close of business on the date on which the petition is filed and shall open new books of account and a bank account in a court approved depository as of the opening of business on the next succeeding business day. In the new books of account, the debtor shall keep proper records of earnings, expenses, receipts and disbursements, and all obligations incurred and business transactions. The debtor shall preserve proper vouchers for all payments made on account of the disbursements. If the debtor is authorized to sue cash collateral, separate cash collateral accounts must be established and maintained pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(4).

(C) Proof of insurance coverage. Keep the property of the debtor insured in a manner and to the extent as amy be deemed necessary and prudent with loss payable clauses, in the case of pledged or mortgaged property, in favor of the appropriate secured creditors as their interests may appear. Within five (5) days of the filing of the petition, the debtor shall file with the bankruptcy administrator a verified statement or written evidence that worker's compensation, general liability, fire, theft and motor vehicle insurance are in full force and effect, together with all other insurance coverage ordinarily used in the debtor's operations.

(D) Tax accounts. Segregate and hold separate from all other funds, all monies withheld from employees or collected from others for taxes, including social security taxes, under any law of the United States or any state or subdivision thereof. The debtor shall deposit the funds so withheld or collected, together with the debtor's share of social security taxes in a separate bank account simultaneously with the collection or withholding. The debtor shall pay from the bank account to the appropriate taxing authority the amounts due at the times and in the manner prescribed by law.

(E) Banking institution. Advise the bankruptcy administrator, within ten (10) days of the filing of the petition, of the name of the bank to be used as the debtor's depository.

(F) Filing of plan and disclosure statement. File a plan or reorganization and a disclosure statement within one hundred twenty (120) days of the date of the filing of the petition commencing the case, unless otherwise ordered.

(G) Physical inventory. Procure a physical inventory, if applicable, upon the filing of the petition and file the inventory with the bankruptcy administrator within thirty (30) days of the filing of the petition or such other time as the court may direct.

(H) Projected operating statement. File with the bankruptcy administrator, within ten (10) business days of the filing of the petition commencing the case, a projected operating statement for the next thirty (30) days of operation under chapter 11. The statement must contain:

(i) The estimated costs of operation for the next succeeding thirty (30) days;

(ii) The estimated profit or loss for the period;

(iii) The amount of cash available for the operation;

(iv) How the debtor intends to fund the cost of operation for the next thirty (30) days; and

(v) Any other and additional information that is pertinent to determine the desirability of continuing the debtor's business.

(I) Relationship with secured creditors and unsecured creditors committee. promptly respond to reasonable inquiries of secured creditors, the unsecured creditors committee, and any court appointed consultant.

(2) The debtor shall not:

(A) Payment to professionals. prior to confirmation of a plan of reorganization, compensate or remunerate itself, or any of its partners, officers, directors or shareholders in any manner without prior approval of the court. Any application for approval of compensation should set forth the name and proposed position of the individual sought to be employed along with a detailed description of the duties the individual is to perform, the number of hours each week the individual will devote to those duties and the reasons why the employment of the individual is necessary to the successful reorganization of the debtor. Also, the application should set forth the amount of compensation sought on a weekly or monthly basis and disclose all perquisites, benefits and consideration of any kind the individual is to receive, e.g., use of company vehicles, payment of life or health insurance premiums, reimbursement of expenses. The salary history of the individual for the year immediately preceding the filing of the petition shall be disclosed. The application shall be signed under oath. The court may reconsider applications to compensate principals sua sponte or at the request of the bankruptcy administrator, any creditor or other party in interest.

(B) Payment of prepetition debt. pay prepetition unsecured debt without approval of the court.

(c) Duties of chapter 12 debtor.

(1) The debtor shall:

(A) Monthly reports. file with the chapter 12 trustee monthly reports, the first report being due within thirty (30) days after the petition is filed.

Subsequent reports are due no later than the fifteenth day of each month thereafter. The reports shall contain:

(i) monthly receipts from every source;

(ii) monthly disbursements by accounting classification;

(iii) expenses charged and not paid;

(iv) crop inventory (if applicable);

(v) livestock inventory (if applicable);

(vi) tax deposit statement (if applicable).

(B) Books of account. close the present books of account as of the close of business on the date on which the petition is filed and open new books of account and a bank account as of the opening of business on the next succeeding business day. In the new books of account, the debtor shall keep proper records of earnings, expenses, receipts, disbursements, and all obligations incurred and transactions had in the operation of the business. The debtor shall preserve proper vouchers for all payments made on account of the disbursements.

(C) Proof of insurance coverage. keep the property of the debtor insured in a manner and to the extent as may be deemed necessary with loss payable clauses, in the case of pledged or mortgaged property, in favor of the appropriate secured creditors as their interests may appear.

(D) Tax accounts. segregate and hold separate and apart from all other funds, all monies withheld from employees or collected from others for taxes, including social security taxes, under any law of the United States or any state or subdivision thereof. The debtor shall deposit the funds so withheld or collected, together with the debtor's share of social security taxes, in a separate bank account simultaneously with the collection or withholding. The debtor shall pay from the bank account to the appropriate taxing authorities the amounts due at the times and in the manner prescribed by law.

(E) Banking institution. advise the bankruptcy administrator within ten (10) days of the filing of the petition commencing the case under chapter 12 the name of the bank to be used as the debtor's depository.

(F) Filing of plan. file a plan of reorganization within ninety (90) days of the filing of the petition pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1221.

(G) Relationship with creditors. promptly respond to reasonable inquiries of creditors.

(2) The debtor shall not:

(A) Payments to principals. prior to confirmation of a plan of reorganization, compensate or remunerate itself or any of its partners, officers, directors or shareholders in any manner without prior approval of the court. Any application for approval of compensation should set forth the name and proposed position of the individual sought to be employed along with a detailed description of the duties the individual is to perform, the number of hours each week the individual will devote to those duties and the reasons why employment of the individual is necessary to th successful reorganization of the debtor. Also, the application should set forth the amount of compensation sought on a weekly or monthly basis and disclose all perquisites, benefits and consideration of any kind the individual is to receive, e.g., use of company vehicles, payment of life or health insurance premiums, reimbursement of expenses. The salary history of the individual for the year immediately preceding the filing of the petition shall be disclosed. The application shall be signed under oath.

Rule 4002.2. Duties of Chapter 7 debtor.

The debtor filing a petition requesting relief under chapter 7 of the Code shall comply with the following:

(1) Statement of intention. A chapter 7 debtor who is required to file a statement of intention pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 521(2)(A) shall serve a copy of the statement upon the creditor whose claim is secured by the property which is the subject of the statement. The debtor shall file a certificate of service with the clerk of court within three (3) days of the filing of the statement.

(2) Failure to perform statement of intention. If a chapter 7 debtor should fail to perform the intention as required by 11 U.S.C. § 521(2)(B), the court may, upon motion of the affected creditor, ex parte order the lifting of the stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) and order the debtor to turn over the property to such creditor.

Rule 4002.3. Duties of Chapter 11 debtor in possession.

(a) The debtor shall:

(1) Monthly report. File with the bankruptcy administrator monthly accountings, the first report being due within 30 days after the filing of the petition and subsequent reports on or before the 15th day of each month thereafter. The debtor shall serve a copy of all monthly reports on the attorney and the chairman for the unsecured creditors committee. Such report shall be in a format prescribed by the bankruptcy administrator.

(2) Books of account. Close the present books of account as of the close of business on the date on which the petition is filed and shall open new books of account and a bank account in a court approved depository as of the opening of business on the next succeeding business day. In the new books of account, the debtor shall keep proper records of earnings, expenses, receipts and disbursements, and all obligations incurred and business transactions. The debtor shall preserve proper vouchers for all payments made on account of the disbursements. If the debtor is authorized to use cash collateral, separate cash collateral accounts must be established and maintained pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(4).

(3) Proof of insurance coverage. Keep the property of the debtor insured in a manner and to the extent as may be deemed necessary and prudent with loss payable clauses, in the case of pledged or mortgaged property, in favor of the appropriate secured creditors as their interests may appear. Within five (5) days of the filing of the petition, the debtor shall file with the bankruptcy administrator a verified statement or written evidence that worker's compensation, general liability, fire, theft and motor vehicle insurance are in full force and effect, together with all other insurance coverage ordinarily used in the debtor's operations.

(4) Tax accounts. Segregate and hold separate from all other funds, all monies withheld from employees or collected from others for taxes, including social security taxes, under any law of the United States or any state or subdivision thereof. The debtor shall deposit the funds so withheld or collected, together with the debtor's share of social security taxes in a separate bank account simultaneously with the collection or withholding. The debtor shall pay from the bank account to the appropriate taxing authority the amounts due at the times and in the manner prescribed by law.

(5) Banking institution. Advise the bankruptcy administrator, within ten (10) days of the filing of the petition, of the name of the bank to be used as the debtor's depository.

(6) Filing of plan and disclosure statement. File a plan of reorganization and a disclosure statement within 120 days of the date of the filing of the petition commencing the case.

(7) Physical inventory. Procure a physical inventory, if applicable, upon the filing of the petition and file the inventory with the bankruptcy administrator within thirty (30) days of the filing of the petition or such other time as the court may direct.

(8) Projected operating statement. File with the bankruptcy administrator, within ten (10) working days of the filing of the petition commencing the case, a projected operating statement for the next thirty (30) days of operation under chapter 11. The statement must contain:

A. the estimated costs of operation for the next succeeding thirty (30) days;

B. the estimated profit or loss for the period;

C. the amount of cash available for the operation;

D. how the debtor intends to fund the cost of operation for the next thirty (30) days; and

E. any other and additional information that is pertinent to determine the desirability of continuing the debtor's business.

(9) Relationship with secured creditors and unsecured creditors committee. Promptly respond to reasonable inquiries of secured creditors, the unsecured creditors committee, and any court appointed consultant.

(b) The debtor shall not:

(1) Payment to professionals. Prior to confirmation of a plan of reorganization, compensate or remunerate itself, or any of its partners, officers, directors or shareholders in any manner without prior approval of the court. Any application for approval of compensation should set forth the name and proposed position of the individual sought to be employed along with a detailed description of the duties the individual is to perform, the number of hours each week the individual will devote to those duties and the reasons why employment of the individual is necessary to the successful reorganization of the debtor. Also, the application should set forth the amount of compensation sought on a weekly or monthly basis and disclose all perquisites, benefits and consideration of any kind the individual is to receive, e.g., use of company vehicles, payment of life or health insurance premiums, reimbursement of expenses. The salary history of the individual for the year immediately preceding the filing of the petition shall be disclosed. The application shall be signed under oath.

(2) Payment of pre-petition debt. Pay pre-petition unsecured debt without approval of the court.

Rule 4002.4. Duties of Chapter 12 debtor.

(a) The debtor shall:

(1) Monthly reports. File with the chapter 12 trustee monthly reports, the first report being due within thirty (30) days after the petition is filed. Subsequent reports are due no later than the 15th day of each month thereafter. The reports shall contain:

A. monthly receipts from every source;
B. monthly disbursements by accounting classification;
C. expenses charged and not paid;
D. crop inventory (if applicable);
E. livestock inventory (if applicable);
F. tax deposit statement (if applicable).

(2) Books of account. Close the present books of account as of the close of business on the date on which the petition is filed and open new books of account and a bank account as of the opening of business on the next succeeding business day. In the new books of account, the debtor shall keep proper records of earnings, expenses, receipts, disbursements, and all obligations incurred and transactions had in the operation of the business. The debtor shall preserve proper vouchers for all payments made on account of the disbursements.

(3) Proof of insurance coverage. Keep the property of the debtor insured in a manner and to the extent as may be deemed necessary with loss payable clauses, in the case of pledged or mortgaged property, in favor of the appropriate secured creditors as their interests may appear.

(4) Tax accounts. Segregate and hold separate and apart from all other funds, all monies withheld from employees or collected from others for taxes, including social security taxes, under any law of the United States or any state or subdivision thereof. The debtor shall deposit the funds so withheld or collected, together with the debtor's share of social security taxes, in a separate bank account simultaneously with the collection or withholding. The debtor shall pay from the bank account to the appropriate taxing authorities the amounts due at the times and in the manner prescribed by law.

(5) Banking institution. Advise the bankruptcy administrator within ten (10) days of the filing of the petition commencing the case under chapter 12 the name of the bank to be used as the debtor's depository.

(6) Filing of plan. File a plan of reorganization within ninety (90) days of the filing of the petition pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1221.

(7) Relationship with creditors. Promptly respond to reasonable inquiries of creditors.

(b) The debtor shall not:

(1) Payments to principals. Prior to confirmation of a plan of reorganization, compensate or remunerate itself or any of its partners, officers, directors or shareholders in any manner without prior approval of the court. Any application for approval of compensation should set forth the name and proposed position of the individual sought to be employed along with a detailed description of the duties the individual is to perform, the number of hours each week the individual will devote to those duties and the reasons why employment of the individual is necessary to the successful reorganization of the debtor. Also, the application should set forth the amount of compensation sought on a weekly or monthly basis and disclose all perquisites, benefits and consideration of any kind the individual is to receive, e.g., use of company vehicles, payment of life or health insurance premiums, reimbursement of expenses. The salary history of the individual for the year immediately preceding the filing of the petition shall be disclosed. The application shall be signed under oath.

(2) Payment of pre-petition debt. Pay pre-petition unsecured debt without approval of the court.

Rule 4003.1. Exemptions.

If the debtor is an individual and desires to claim exemptions, the debtor shall file a claim for exempt property pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(1) on Local Form No. 2, which is available from the clerk of court. The debtor's filing of Local Form No. 2 must be referenced in Schedule C, Property Claimed as Exempt.

Rule 4003.2. Extension of time for objections to exemptions.

The court may grant any party in interest an extension of time for objecting to the debtor's claim of exempt property. The request for extension shall be by motion which shall contain the reasons for requesting the extension. The motion must be filed before the time for objecting expires.

PART V. COURTS AND CLERKS' OFFICES

Rule 5001.1. Office hours, divisions of the district, assignment of cases to a division.

(a) Office hours. The office of the clerk of court with the clerk of court or a deputy clerk in attendance shall be open to the public from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. on all days except Saturdays, Sundays and the legal holidays listed in Rule 6(a), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or as otherwise ordered.

(b) Divisions of the district. There shall be six divisions of the court. The headquarters of each division and the counties comprising each division are as follows:

Name of Division	Headquarters	Counties
Elizabeth City	Wilson	Bertie	Hertford
		Camden	Pasquotank
		Chowan	Perquimans
		Currituck	Tyrrell
		Dare	Washington
		Gates
Fayetteville	Wilson	Cumberland	Sampson
		Robeson
New Bern	Wilson	Beaufort	Lenoir
		Carteret	Martin
		Craven	Onslow
		Hyde	Pamlico
		Jones	Pitt

Name of Division	Headquarters	Counties
Raleigh	Raleigh	Franklin	Vance
		Granville	Wake
		Harnett	Warren
		Johnston
Wilmington	Wilson	Bladen	Duplin
		Brunswick	New Hanover
		Columbus	Pender
Wilson	Wilson	Edgecombe	Northampton
		Greene	Wayne
		Halifax	Wilson
		Nash

(c) Assignment of cases to a division. The clerk shall assign all cases and proceedings to a division when the action is filed or removed. The place of filing shall be determined by the debtor's domicile, residence, principal place of business or location of the debtor's principal assets immediately preceding the filing of the bankruptcy case. In cases involving an affiliate, a general partner or partnership, related cases may be filed in the division where the original case was filed.

In adversary proceedings when there is no pending bankruptcy case in this district, the division will be assigned in the discretion of the clerk. (Amended effective January 2, 1992.)

Rule 5003.1. Duties of the clerk.

Orders and judgments. The clerk of court is authorized to enter the orders and judgments listed below without further direction of the court. However, such action may be suspended, altered or rescinded by the court for cause shown:

(1) consent orders for the substitution of attorneys;

(2) orders setting status conferences and preliminary conferences;

(3) orders extending for a reasonable amount of time the period within which to file a response or answer to a complaint (first request only);

(4) orders continuing trial with consent of all parties;

(5) stipulations of dismissal or consent orders dismissing a proceeding;

(6) judgments by default as provided for in Rule 55(a) and 55(b)(1), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; and

(7) orders canceling liability on bonds.

Rule 5005.1. Filing and Transmittal Papers.

(a) Claims. In chapter 12 and 13 cases, proofs of claim shall be filed directly with the appropriate standing trustee to whom the case is assigned. The address of the proper standing trustee will be shown on the notice of the meeting of creditors. Claims will be dated and stamped as "received" as of the date they arrive in the office of the trustee, and the claim shall be deemed filed with the court as of that date.

The staff of the standing chapter 12 and 13 trustee shall prepare a claims register for each case referred to that trustee and the claims register shall be transferred to the clerk of court and made a part of the permanent record at the closing of the case, together with the original claims.

(b) Papers filed with the clerk. All pleadings (including but not limited to complaints, answers, motions and applications) and all proposed orders shall be tendered by the party submitting the documents to the clerk of court, rather than directly to the judge unless otherwise specifically directed. The clerk of court shall first accomplish any necessary processing of the document before the document is forwarded to any judge of this court for consideration.

(c) Filing by facsimile.

(1) Filing. The following documents may be filed by facsimile transmission to the clerk.

(A) motions for a continuance stipulated to by all parties;

(B) withdrawal of motions that are scheduled for hearing; and

(C) any other filings allowed by the court.

(2) Faxed document serves as original. A document filed by facsimile serves as an original, and subjects the signer to the same penalties as an original document, including penalties of Rule 9011, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

(d) Exhibits or attachments containing excerpted material. Any exhibit or attachment to any document or paper filed under these rules may contain only those excerpts of the referenced documents that are directly germane to the matter under consideration by the court. Excerpted material must be clearly and prominently identified as such. A party filing excerpts of documents as exhibits or attachments under this rule may supplement the excerpt without prejudice to timely file additional excerpts or the complete document. Responding parties likewise may timely file excerpts or the complete document to the extent that the excerpts or document are directly germane to the matter under consideration. Upon request by any party in interest or the court, the complete document containing any such excerpt shall be made available to both the party making the request and the court, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Rule 5005.4(1). Assignment to System and Filing Requirements.

(a) Assignment: All opened cases are assigned to the Electronic Case Filing System ("ECF System").

(b) Filing: All petitions, motions, memoranda of law, and other pleadings or documents required to be filed with the court in connection with the case must be electronically filed except as provided in these rules or in exceptional circumstances preventing a Filing User from filing electronically.

(c) Exception to Filing Requirement: Notwithstanding the foregoing, attorneys and others who are not Filing Users as defined by Local Rule 5005-4(2) are not required to electronically file pleadings and other documents in cases assigned to the ECF System.

Rule 5005.4(2). Eligibility, Registration and Passwords.

(a) Eligibility and registration. Attorneys admitted to the bar of this court (including those admitted pro hac vice), bankruptcy administrators and their assistants, private trustees, and others as the court deems appropriate, may register as Filing Users of the court's Electronic Case Filing System. Registration is in the form prescribed by and available from the clerk. The registration form also is contained in the Administrative Guide to Electronic Filing maintained by the clerk and published on the court's web site.

(b) Non-Represented parties: If the court permits, a party to a pending action who is not represented by an attorney may register as a Filing User in the ECF System solely for purposes of that action. If, during the course of the action, the party retains an attorney who appears on the party's behalf, the attorney must advise the clerk to terminate the party's registration as a Filing User effective upon the attorney's appearance in the case.

(c) Electronic Notice and Sevice; Waivers: As to all documents properly filed and served electronically, registration as a Filing User constitutes (1) a waiver of the right to receive notice or service by first class mail or personal delivery; and (2) consent to electronic service pursuant to Local Rule 5004-4(9), except with regard to service of a summons and complaint under Rule 7004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and any other applicable rule or statute pursuant to which service by mail is not permitted. Waiver and consent pursuant to subsections (c)(1) and (2) applies to notice of the entry of an order or judgment under Rule 9022 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

(d) Passwords: Once registration is completed, the Filing User will receive notification of the Filing User log-in and password. Filing Users agree to protect the security of their log-in information and passwords and to immediately notify the clerk if they learn that their log-in information or password has been compromised. Users may be subject to sanctions for failure to comply with this provision.

Rule 5005.4(3). Consequences of Electronic Filing; Deadlines.

(a) Filing: Electronic transmission of a document to the Electronic Case Filing System consistent with these rules, together with the transmission of a Notice of Electronic Filing from the clerk, constitutes filing of the document for all purposes of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and the local rules of this court, and constitutes entry of the document on the docket kept by the clerk under Rule 5003 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

(b) Official Record: When a document has been filed electronically, the official record is the electronic recording of the document as stored by the clerk, and the filing party is bound by the document as filed. A document filed electronically is deemed filed at the date and time stated on the Notice of Electronic Filing.

(c) Deadlines Unchanged by Electronic Filing: Filing a document electronically does not alter the filing deadline for that document. Filing must be completed before 12:00 midnight, Eastern Time, in order to be considered timely filed that day.

Rule 5005.4(4). Entry of Court Orders.

(a) Filing of Court Orders; Effect of Electronic Filing on Court Orders: All orders, decrees, judgments and proceedings of the court will be filed in accordance with these rules, which will constitute entry on the docket kept by the clerk under Rules 5003 and 9021 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. All orders or other documents generated by the court and filed electronically, without the signature of a judge, shall have the same force and effect as if the judge had affixed the judge's signature to a paper copy of the order and it had been entered on the docket in a conventional manner.

(b) Submission of Documents for Judge's Signature: Any document submitted for a judge's signature in a case assigned to the ECF System must be submitted electronically, to the clerk's office, in the format specified by the Administrative Guide.

Rule 5005.4(5). Format; Attachments and Exhibits.

(a) All documents filed electronically within the ECF System are subject to the same rules pertaining to format as documents filed in paper form, including but not limited to Local Rule 5005-3.

(b) Filing Users must submit, in electronic form, all documents referenced as exhibits or attachments as provided in Local Rule 5005-1(d), unless the court permits conventional filing.

Rule 5005.4(6). Sealed Documents.

Documents ordered to be placed under seal must be filed conventionally, and not electronically, unless specifically authorized by the court. A motion to file documents under seal may be filed electronically unless prohibited by law. A court order authorizing the filing of documents under seal may be filed electronically unless prohibited by law. A paper copy of any order authorizing the filing of documents under seal must be attached to the documents and delivered to the clerk.

Rule 5005.4(7). Original Signatures and Retention Requirements.

Electronically filed documents that require original signatures from any person other than the Filing User must be maintained by the Filing User in paper form, bearing the original signatures, for four years after the closing of the case or proceeding in which the documents were filed. Upon the court's request, the Filing User must provide the original signed documents for review.

Rule 5005.4(8). Signatures and Certification.

(a) Electronic Filing Constitutes Signature and Certification: The use of the log-in and password of the Filing User to electronically file any petition, pleading, motion, claim, or other document shall constitute the signature of that Filing User on the electronically filed document for purposes of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, including Rule 9011, the Local Rules of this court, and any other purpose for which a signature is required in connection with proceedings before this court. Use of the log-in and password also shall constitute certification by the Filing User, and by any agent authorized by the Filing User to use the log-in and password, that: (1) all persons indicated to have signed the document have actually executed the original prior to electronic filing; and (2) the Filing User has authorized the electronic filing of the executed document.

(b) Use of Login/Password: No Filing User or other person may knowingly permit or cause to permit a Filing User's password to be used by anyone other than an agent of the Filing User authorized to use such login and password.

(c) Form of Electronic Signature: Electronically filed documents requiring a signature shall either: (1) show an image of such signature as it appears on the original document or appended as an image file, in which case such document shall indicate that it has been filed electronically, or (2) bear the name of the signatory preceded by an "s" typed in the space where the signature would otherwise appear, as follows: s/ Jane D. Doe.

(d) Imaged Signatures: An electronic image of signatures shall be required as an attachment of the filed document for all documents executed under oath or under penalty of perjury; however, bankruptcy petitions, schedules, statements of financial affairs, exemptions, and creditor matrix verifications shall be accompanied by an imaged signature page in the form prescribed by the Administrative Guide. The signatures on imaged attachments shall have the same legal effect as the original signatures.

Rule 5005.4(9). Service of Documents by Electronic or Conventional Means; Calculation of Response Time.

(a) Notice of Electronic Filing to Filing Users: A Filing User who electronically files a pleading or other document in a case assigned to the ECF System may transmit or cause to be transmitted a "Notice of Electronic Filing" to other Filing Users entitled to notice or service of the document under the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure or the Local Rules.

(b) Transmission of Notice of Electronic Filing: The Notice of Electronic Filing may be transmitted by e-mail, hand, facsimile, or by the U.S. Mail, first-class postage prepaid. Transmission of the Notice of Electronic Filing to Filing Users constitutes service or notice of the filed document on Filing Users.

(c) Conventional Service of Documents and Notice to Non-Consenting Parties: Parties who have not consented to electronic service of documents or notice must be served with a paper copy of any electronically filed pleading or other document.

(d) Calculation of Response Time: Rule 9006(f) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure shall apply to the calculation of deadlines for responses to electronically filed pleadings and other documents.

Rule 5005.4(10). Notice and Service of Court Orders.

(a) Notice and Service to Filing Users: Immediately upon the entry of an order, judgment, decree or other document generated by the court in an action assigned to the ECF System, the clerk will electronically transmit a Notice of Electronic Filing to all Filing Users in the case. Electronic Transmission of the Notice of Electronic Filing constitutes the notice required by Rule 9022 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and constitutes service of the document to Filing Users.

(b) Notice and Service to Non-Consenting Parties: The clerk must give conventional notice and service of documents in accordance with the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure to any person who has not consented to electronic service.

Rule 5005.4(11). Tehnical Failures.

A Filing User whose filing is made untimely as the result of a technical failure may seek appropriate relief from the court.

Rule 5005.4(12). Limitation on Public Access.

(a) In connection with the filing of any material in an action assigned to the ECF System, any person may apply by motion for an order prohibiting the electronic filing of or limiting the electronic access to certain specifically-identified material on the ground that the material is subject to privacy interests, and that electronic filing of the action or electronic access to the filed material is likely to prejudice those privacy interests.

(b) Material filed on the ECF System shall not be accessed or downloaded for any purpose inconsistent with the privacy concerns of any person.

Rule 5008.1. Deposit of estate funds pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 345: Reporting requirements and collateralization of deposits exceeding $100,000.00.

(a) Initial deposit reports. Promptly after making the initial deposit or investment of the estate's funds, the trustee or the debtor in possession shall file a report with the bankruptcy administrator that identifies the depository or describes the investment and states the amount of any deposit or investment.

(b) Reports required from entities holding estate funds.

(1) An entity with which estate funds have been deposited or invested shall file a monthly report with the bankruptcy administrator in a format prescribed by the bankruptcy administrator indicating the amount credited to each bankruptcy estate account as of the date of the report.

(2) Whenever the total of deposited or invested estate funds not insured or guaranteed by the United States or backed by the full faith and credit of the United States reaches 95 percent of the amount of the bond or securities posted, the entity with which such funds are deposited or invested shall file a written statement with the bankruptcy administrator setting forth the total amount of such deposits not so insured, guaranteed or backed by the full faith and credit of the United States and the amount of the existing bond or securities.

(3) In the event that an entity holding estate funds fails to comply with the reporting requirements set forth in this rule, the bankruptcy administrator may direct the debtor in possession or the trustee to immediately withdraw all funds on deposit or invested with the entity with all interest payable thereon.

(c) Collateralization of deposits.

(1) If the monies of an estate which are on deposit exceed $100,000, or such other amount as may be insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the depository must post a bond or deposit securities of the kind specified in 31 U.S.C. § 9303 for any amount in excess of $100,000 with the Federal Reserve Bank. Court approval of the bond or deposit of securities must be obtained for a deposit or investment for which a bond is required under § 345(b) of the Code.

(2) Securities accepted for deposit in lieu of a surety on a depository bond shall be deposited in the custody of the Federal Reserve Bank in Richmond or such other branch as may be approved by the bankruptcy administrator.

(3) Upon deposit of securities by the depository with the Federal Reserve Bank, a copy of the document evidencing the deposit shall be transmitted to the bankruptcy administrator.

(d) Deficiency in amount of bond or deposited securities. Whenever the bond and any deposited securities do not or will not constitute adequate security because of existing and expected deposits or investments, the depository or entity with which an investment is made shall increase the amount of the bond or the deposited securities within a time fixed by the bankruptcy administrator. If, within the time fixed, the depository or entity with which an investment is made fails to increase the amount of the bond or the deposited securities to an amount adequate for existing and expected deposits or investments, the bankruptcy administrator may direct the trustee or debtor in possession to withdraw all funds on deposit or invested with the entity together with all interest payable thereon.

PART VI. COLLECTION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE ESTATE

Rule 6005.1. Appraisers and auctioneers.

(a) Employment of auctioneer without application to the court. In a chapter 7 case where the gross sales proceeds of an auction conducted pursuant to this rule are reasonably anticipated by the trustee to be less than $50,000, the trustee may elect to employ an auctioneer without application to the court and shall be authorized without application to the court to pay the auctioneer a commission of fifteen percent (15%) of gross sales inclusive of all expenses of the auction, which are to be paid from the auctioneer's commission.

(b) Conditions precedent to employment. The trustee may employ and compensate an auctioneer without application to the court on the basis set out in (a) above only if the following conditions are satisfied in advance:

(1) the auctioneer to be employed under (a) above must have been employed in a chapter 7 case in this district as an auctioneer by order of this court within the prior twelve months;

(2) the auctioneer must be licensed and in good standing with the North Carolina Auctioneer's Commission consistent with North Carolina General Statute Section 85-B-3 and 4;

(3) the auctioneer must execute and deliver to the trustee the same affidavit that would be required in support of an application for employment of auctioneer otherwise filed with the court;
(4) the auctioneer must not have been censured or suspended by the bankruptcy administrator; and
(5) the affidavit executed by the auctioneer must affirmatively set out compliance with the conditions of (2) and (4) above.
The trustee shall be entitled to rely on the truth and accuracy of the affidavit submitted by the auctioneer.
(c) Report by trustee. The trustee shall prepare a report of sale that includes a report of such fees paid to the auctioneer, and shall be accompanied by the auctioneer's affidavit. The trustee shall file such report of sale with the clerk and serve copies on the bankruptcy administrator.
(d) Report by auctioneer. An auctioneer employed to conduct a sale on behalf of the bankruptcy estate shall file a report of sale following the conclusion of any sale within the time and in the format as prescribed by the bankruptcy administrator.

PART VII. ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS

Rule 7003.1. Commencement of an adversary proceeding.

All complaints initiating adversary proceedings in bankruptcy cases shall be accompanied by an Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet (Form B 104), conforming substantially to Form No. 4 contained in these rules, which has been completed fully by the plaintiff.

Rule 7012.1. Motions in adversary proceedings.

(a) General requirements. All motions shall state with particularity the facts supporting the motion and shall state the relief requested. All motions, except those seeking a shortening or extension of any time period, shall be filed with an accompanying memorandum.
(b) Responses to motions. Any party may file a written response to any motion within twenty (20) days after service of the motion in question unless otherwise ordered by the court or prescribed by the applicable rules of bankruptcy procedure. The response may be a memorandum and may be accompanied by affidavits or other supporting documents. When the response is not a memorandum, the written response shall be accompanied by a supporting memorandum. In the event no response is filed, the court may proceed to rule on the motion.
(c) Hearings on motions. Hearings on motions may be ordered by the court in its discretion.

Rule 7016.1. Preliminary conference.

(a) Scheduling and notice. A preliminary conference may be scheduled at the discretion of the court. The clerk of court shall give at least twenty (20) days notice of the conference.
(b) Preparation by counsel for preliminary conference. Counsel shall be prepared to discuss at the conference the following:
(1) the issues raised by the pleadings;
(2) issues concerning jurisdiction, venue, or the authority of the bankruptcy court;
(3) whether the parties, if the proceeding is a non-core proceeding, have consented to the bankruptcy judge hearing and determining the proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(c)(2);

(4) the disposition of pending motions;
(5) the necessity, desirability, and timing of amendments to pleadings, joinder of additional parties, the filing of additional motions and discovery;
(6) the possibility of settlement;
(7) the need for additional pre-trial conferences;
(8) the timing and form of disclosures under Bankruptcy Rule 7026(a)(1), (as amended December 1, 1993), including a statement of when disclosures under (a)(1) were made or should be made;
(9) changes that should be made in the limitations on discovery imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (as amended December 1, 1993); and
(10) whether use of expert witnesses is contemplated, and if so, whether and when the disclosure of expert information as required by Bankruptcy Rule 7026(a)(2) should be required.
(c) Preliminary conference report. At least one week prior to the preliminary conference, counsel shall file with the clerk of court a joint report containing information concerning all the items to be discussed at the preliminary conference (see paragraph (b) of this rule).
(d) Disclosures. Unless counsel agree to disclosures at an earlier date, disclosures required to be made by Rule 7026(a) and (b) shall be made at the time and under the circumstances directed by the court in the scheduling order entered after receipt of the preliminary conference report.

Rule 7016.2. Final pre-trial conference.

(a) Scheduling and notice. A final pre-trial conference shall be scheduled at the discretion of the court. The clerk of court shall give at least thirty (30) days notice of the conference.
(b) Preparation by counsel for final pre-trial conference. At least ten (10) days prior to the final pre-trial conference, trial counsel for each of the parties shall confer and prepare a proposed final pre-trial order. In the event no pre-trial conference is scheduled, counsel shall confer, prepare and submit a proposed final pre-trial order to the court no later than ten days prior to the scheduled trial. It shall be the duty of the counsel for the plaintiff to arrange for this conference. The conference of attorneys shall be held in a mutually agreeable location or may be conducted by telephone conference. Each counsel shall bring to the conference or be responsible for the exchange of copies of exhibits to be introduced into evidence, lists of witnesses to be called and designations of discovery material to be used at the trial. The disclosure of witnesses and exhibits under this section supersedes the requirements of timing and format otherwise required by Bankruptcy Rule 7026(a)(3).
(c) Pre-trial order. The pre-trial order shall be prepared in one sequential document without reference to attached exhibits or schedules and shall contain the following in five separate sections, numbered by Roman numerals, as indicated:
(1) I. Stipulations. Stipulations covering jurisdiction, joinder, capacity of the parties, all relevant and material facts, legal issues and factual issues.
(2) II. Contentions. Contentions covering matters on which the parties have been unable to stipulate, including jurisdiction, misjoinder, capacity of the parties, relevant and material facts, legal issues and factual issues. Claims and defenses as to which no contentions are listed in the pre-trial order are deemed abandoned.
(3) III. Exhibits. A list of exhibits that each party may offer at trial, including any map or diagram, numbered sequentially, which numbers shall remain the same throughout all further proceedings. Copies of all exhibits shall be provided to opposing counsel not later than the attorney conference provided for in Rule 7016.2(b). The court may excuse the copying of large maps or other exhibits. Except as otherwise indicated in the pre-trial order, it will be deemed that all parties stipulate that all exhibits are authentic and may be admitted into evidence without further identification or proof. Grounds for objection as to authenticity or admissibility must be set forth in the pre-trial order.

(4) IV. Designation of pleadings and discovery materials. The designation of all portions of pleadings and discovery materials, including depositions, interrogatories and request for admissions that each party may offer at trial by reference to document, volume, page number, and line. Objection by opposing counsel shall be noted by document, volume, page number and line, and reasons for such objections shall be stated.

(5) V. Witnesses. A list of the names and addresses of all witnesses each party may offer at trial, together with a brief statement of what counsel proposes to establish by their testimony.

(d) Pre-trial conference.

(1) Purpose. To resolve any disputes concerning the contents of the pre-trial order.

(2) Counsel shall be prepared to present to the court all necessary information and documentation necessary for completion of the pre-trial order. Failure to do so shall result in the sanctions provided by this rule.

(3) Sanctions. Rule 16(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure which provides for sanctions if a party or party's attorney fails to obey a scheduling or pre-trial order, or if no appearance is made on behalf of a party at a scheduling or pre-trial conference, or if a party or party's attorney is substantially unprepared to participate in the conference, or if a party or party's attorney fails to participate in good faith, is applicable to adversary proceedings pursuant to Rule 7016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

(4) Form of pre-trial order. A pre-trial order should be submitted in detail sufficient to comply with these rules. A sample pre-trial order is shown as Exhibit A of these rules.

Rule 7016.3. Trials.

(a) Opening statements. At the beginning of the trial, each party (beginning with the party having the burden of proof on the first issue) shall, without argument and in such reasonable time as the court allows, state to the court the following:

(1) the substance of the claim, counterclaim, crossclaim or defense; and

(2) what counsel contends the evidence will show. Parties not having the burden of proof on the first issue may elect to make an opening statement immediately prior to presenting evidence, rather than at the beginning of the trial.

(b) Witnesses. Counsel may not release a person from a subpoena without notice to opposing counsel and leave of court. A party objecting to the release of a person shall bear all costs incident to the person which arise subsequent to the request for release. The court, in its discretion and in the interest of justice, may permit a party to call and examine a witness not listed in the final pre-trial order.

(c) Exhibits.

(1) All exhibits shall be pre-marked with stickers obtained from the office of the clerk of court with the sequential numbers as listed in the pre-trial order.

(2) Copies of all exhibits, properly bound, shall be provided to the court at the beginning of the trial.

(3) The original exhibit shall bear a sticker. After receipt into evidence, it shall remain in the custody of the courtroom deputy, except when being used by a witness.

(4) Copies of all exhibits shall bear the photostatic image of the sticker or a typed or printed reproduction thereof.

(5) Upon presentation of an exhibit to a witness, counsel shall announce to the court the exhibit number. The exhibit shall not be handed to opposing counsel. Should opposing counsel contend that a copy has not been provided or that the exhibit has been lost or misplaced, it shall be brought to the attention of the court.

(d) Closing argument. The court will set the times for closing argument after consultation with parties. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the party with the burden of proof shall open and close the arguments. The opening argument may not be waived.

Rule 7026.1. General provisions governing discovery.

Transcripts of depositions upon oral examination and interrogatories, requests for production of documents, requests for admissions, and answers and responses thereto are not to be filed unless by order of the court or for use in the proceeding. All such papers must be served on other counsel or parties entitled to service of papers filed with the clerk of court. The party taking a deposition or obtaining any material through discovery is responsible for its preservation and delivery to the court if needed or so ordered.

Rule 7041.1. Dismissal of actions for lack of prosecution.

Except where a complaint objecting to a discharge has been filed, an adversary proceeding may be dismissed by the court for lack of prosecution as follows:

(1) where no service of process has been made and certified to the court within thirty (30) days after the filing of the complaint; or

(2) where no responsive pleadings have been filed and plaintiff has not moved for entry of default within thirty (30) days after the time for filing responsive pleadings has expired.

Dismissal under this local rule shall be without prejudice unless the delay has resulted in prejudice to an opposing party.

Rule 7067.1. Deposit in court.

In the event a depository intended by the court to receive registry funds is not able, immediately upon the court's receipt of the registry funds, to pledge sufficient collateral for receipt of those funds, the funds may be retained temporarily in non-interest bearing U. S. Treasury accounts as necessary to arrange for their deposit in interest-bearing accounts.

FINAL PRE-TRIAL ORDER

DATE OF CONFERENCE: May 5, 1986

Appearance: John Y. Lawyer, Raleigh, North Carolina, for plaintiff; Sam X. Attorney, Fayetteville, North Carolina, for defendant.

I. STIPULATIONS

A. All parties are properly before the court.

B. The court has jurisdiction of the parties and of the subject matter.

C. This is a core proceeding, or in the alternative, both parties have consented to hearing by the bankruptcy court.

D. All parties have been correctly designated.

E. There is no question as to misjoinder or nonjoinder of parties.

F. Facts:

1. Plaintiff is a New York Corporation, licensed to do business and doing business in the State of North Carolina.

2. Defendant is a citizen of Wake County, North Carolina.

G. Legal Issues: The legal issue is whether the debt owed by the defendant to the plaintiff is nondischargeable under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(B).

H. Factual Issues:

1. Did the defendant receive money, property, services, or an extension, renewal, or refinancing of credit through the use of a statement in writing that was materially false?

2. Did the written statement relate to the defendant's or an insider's financial condition?

3. Did the plaintiff reasonably rely on the written statement?

4. Did the defendant make or publish the written statement with the intent to deceive plaintiff?

II. CONTENTIONS

A. Plaintiff

1. Facts:

(a) Plaintiff loaned defendant $XXX,XXX.XX based on written property appraisals that defendant had falsified materially.

(b) The written appraisals were on real property owned by the defendant.

(c) Plaintiff had no factual reason not to accept the appraisal and, therefore, reasonably relied on the appraisal.

(d) Defendant had the appraisal done simply for its use in obtaining the loan from plaintiff.

2. Law:

(a) The falsified property appraisal used by the defendant in obtaining a loan from the plaintiff has created a nondischargeable debt under 11 U.S.C. § 523(A)(2)(B).

B. Defendant

1. Facts:

(a) Defendant did not falsify the property appraisals he used in obtaining the loan from the plaintiff.

(b) Plaintiff is experienced as a commercial lender in the area and has made loans on property appraisals for 50 years.

(c) Defendant had the appraisal done at the plaintiff's request.

2. Law:

(a) The loan from plaintiff was not obtained through the use of a false appraisal and, therefore, the debt is dischargeable.

PART VIII. APPEALS TO DISTRICT COURT OR BANKRUPTCY APPELLATE PANEL

[Reserved]

PART IX. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 9004.1. General requirements of form; Number of copies of other documents.

(a) Caption. All pleadings, motions, discovery procedures, memoranda and other papers filed with the clerk or the court shall state the court and division in which the action is pending.

(b) Number of copies of other documents. The number of documents required to be filed with the clerk of court other than those provided for in the rules of bankruptcy procedure or local bankruptcy rules is as follows:

(1) any person requesting filed copies of documents for his office records must submit copies, in addition to those called for in the rules of bankruptcy procedure or local bankruptcy rules, together with a stamped, self-addressed envelope;

(2) any order or judgment that is tendered to the court for consideration shall have attached a sufficient number of copies for service on all parties required to receive notice of the order or judgment. Orders tendered without sufficient copies may not be considered until the required number of copies has been tendered;

(3) application for compensation .... original plus one;

(4) motions, applications, answers, responses and other general pleadings ..... original plus one. (Amended effective January 2, 1992.)

Rule 9007.1. Designation of parties to provide notice.

The clerk of court is authorized to designate the parties who shall provide the notice to creditors and parties in interest as required under the rules of bankruptcy procedure and the local bankruptcy rules.

Rule 9010.1. Representation and appearances; Powers of attorney.

Local Rule No. 2.00 of the Local Rules of Court for the United States District Court, Eastern District of North Carolina, entitled "Attorneys," is applicable in this court, with the following exceptions:

(1) an individual may represent himself;

(2) an entity may be represented at a meeting of creditors by its officers and agents; however, all courtroom appearances, except as previously indicated, pleadings, motions, and objections must be by an attorney admitted to practice before this court.

Rule 9010.2. Extent of an attorney's duty to represent.

Any attorney who files a bankruptcy petition for or on behalf of a debtor shall remain the attorney of record for all purposes including the representation of the debtor in all matters that arise in conjunction with the proceeding until the case is closed or the attorney is relieved upon application and court order. In the event additional fees are required, they must be applied for pursuant to Rule 2016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

CASE NOTES

Attorneys who, after filing bankruptcy petition, are indifferent to the needs of their clients are not entitled to compensation. In re Wright, 48 Bankr. 172 (Bankr. E.D.N.C. 1985).

Rule 9013.1. Motions: Form and service.

(a) Form. All pleadings, motions, discovery procedures, memoranda and other papers filed with the clerk or the court shall contain the individual name, firm name, address, telephone number and State Bar identification number, where applicable, of all attorneys who appear for the filing party.

(b) Service on trustee and attorney for debtor in possession. Any and all filings (except claims) in all proceedings and cases must be served on the trustee (including the standing chapter 12 and 13 trustee) for the debtor whether or not the trustee is a party to the proceeding. In chapter 11 cases, the attorney for the debtor in possession is to be served in like manner.

(c) Service on bankruptcy administrator. Any and all filings (except claims) in all chapter 7 and 11 cases must be served on the bankruptcy administrator.

(d) Certificate of service. Each pleading or document to be served on any party indicated in paragraphs (a) and (b) above shall have attached a certificate reflecting that service has been made on that party.

Rule 9014.1. Contested matters.

(a) Requirements of motion. A motion shall be accompanied by all exhibits and attachments referred to in the motion, together with a notice of motion and certification of service. The notice of motion shall give notice of the filing of the motion, allow for a specific response time to the motion and shall conform substantially to Local Form No. 1 in these rules.

(b) Content of motion. Motions seeking relief other than as to the debtor or the trustee shall recite the name and address of the party against whom relief is sought.

(c) Time for response. A response and accompanying affidavits, if any, to any motion shall be filed within fifteen (15) days from the date of the service of motion, unless otherwise ordered or provided in the rules of bankruptcy procedure or local bankruptcy rules.

(d) Service of motion. The moving party shall serve copies of the motion, together with all exhibits and attachments, accompanied by a notice of motion in the manner prescribed in Rule 7004, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, contemporaneously with the filing of the original motion and notice with the clerk of court, and shall attach a certificate of service to the original motion and notice to be filed with the clerk of court.

(e) Response. Any party against whom relief is sought may file a written response to the motion. The response may be accompanied by affidavits and other supporting documents and shall be served on all interested parties and service shall be certified to the court.

(f) Content of response. All responses shall contain sufficient information to reasonably disclose the basis for the party's position and what specific issues are contested. If a response is not in compliance with this provision, the court in its discretion may resolve the matter without a hearing.

(g) Hearing on motion. Unless a hearing is requested in the motion or in the response, motions may be determined without a hearing. A hearing on a motion may be ordered by the court in its discretion.

(h) Frivolous or delaying motions. Where the court finds that a motion is frivolous or filed for delay, costs may be assessed against the party or counsel filing the motion. Any party filing a request for a hearing shall appear at the hearing set by the court in support of the request or costs may be assessed.

(i) Disclosure requirements inapplicable. The disclosure requirements imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 7026(a) are inapplicable to contested matters.

Rule 9019.2. Mediated settlement conference.

(a) Order for mediated settlement conference.

(1) Order by court. The court may, by written order, require parties and their representatives to attend a pretrial mediated settlement conference in any adversary proceeding pending in the court.

(2) Timing of the order. The court may issue the order at any time after the time for the filing of answers has expired.

(3) Content of order. The court's order shall:

(A) require that a mediated settlement conference be held in the case;

(B) establish a deadline for the completion of the conference;

(C) state clearly that the parties have the right to select their own mediator as provided by section (b);

(D) state the rate of compensation of the court appointed mediator in the event that the parties do not exercise their right to select a mediator pursuant to section (b); and

(E) state that the parties shall required to pay the mediator's fee at the conclusion of the settlement conference unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(4) Motion to dispense with mediated settlement. A party may move the court, within ten (10) days after the court's order, to dispense with the conference. The motion shall state the reasons the relief is sought, and shall be filed with the clerk of court and served on all opposing parties. Any party may file a written objection specifically stating his or her reasons for opposing the motion. The judge will rule upon such motion without a hearing.

(5) Motion for court ordered mediated settlement conference. In cases not ordered to mediated settlement conference, any party may move the court to order such a conference. The motion shall state the reasons why the order should be allowed and shall be served on nonmoving parties. Objections may be filed in writing with the court within ten (10) days after the date of the service of the motion. Thereafter, the judge shall rule upon the motion without a hearing.

(6) Motion to authorize the use of other settlement procedures. Within ten (10) days of the court's mediation order, any party may move the court to authorize the use of some other settlement procedure in lieu of a mediated settlement conference. The motion shall state the reasons the authorization is requested and that all parties consent to the motion. The court may order the use of any agreed upon settlement procedure. The deadline for completion of the authorized settlement procedure shall be as provided by rules authorizing the procedure or, if none, the deadline shall be as ordered for the mediated settlement conference.

(b) Selection of mediator.

(1) Selection of certified mediator by agreement of parties. The parties appearing of record may select a mediator certified pursuant to the rules of the Supreme Court of North Carolina. The plaintiff shall file with the court an approved Designation for Mediator notice form indicating Selection of Certified Mediator by Agreement within twenty-one (21) days of the court's order. This notice shall state the name, address and telephone number of the mediator selected; state the rate of compensation of the mediator; state that the mediator and the parties have agreed upon the selection and rate of compensation; and state that the mediator is certified pursuant to the rules of the Supreme Court.

(2) Nomination and court approval of noncertified mediator. The parties may select a mediator who does not meet the certification requirements of the Supreme Court but who, in the opinion of the parties and the judge, is otherwise qualified by training or experience to mediate the action.

If the parties select a noncertified mediator, the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney shall file with the judge an approved Designation of Mediator notice form indicating Nomination for Noncertified Mediator within twenty-one (21) days of the court's order. Such nomination shall state the name, address and telephone number of the mediator; state the training, experience or other qualifications of the mediator; state the rate of compensation of the mediator; and state that the mediator and the parties have agreed upon the selection and rate of compensation. The judge shall rule on the nomination without a hearing.

(3) Appointment of mediator by the court. If the parties cannot agree upon the selection of a mediator, the plaintiff shall submit a Designation of Mediator form indicating a Motion for Court Appointment of Mediator to the judge on behalf of the parties. The motion must be filed within twenty-one (21) days after the court's order and shall state that the parties and their attorneys have had a full and frank discussion concerning the selection of a mediator and have been unable to agree.

The motion shall state whether any party prefers a certified attorney mediator, and if so, the judge shall appoint a certified attorney mediator. The motion may state that all parties prefer a certified, nonattorney mediator, and if so, the judge shall appoint a certified, nonattorney mediator if one is on the list of certified mediators desiring to mediate cases in the district. If no preference is expressed, the judge may appoint a certified attorney mediator or a certified nonattorney mediator.

Upon receipt of a Motion for Court Appointment of Mediator,or in the event the plaintiff has not filed a Notice of Selection of Certified Mediator or Nomination of Noncertified Mediator with the court within twenty-one (21) days of the court's order, the judge shall appoint a mediator certified pursuant to these Rules. Only mediators that have indicated their desire to mediate cases in the Eastern District shall be appointed.

(4) Mediator information directory. To assist the parties in the selection of a mediator by agreement, a central directory of information on all certified mediators who wish to mediate cases in the Eastern District will be collected and maintained by the clerk of court.

(5) Disqualification of mediator. Any party may move for an order disqualifying the mediator. If the mediator is disqualified, a replacement mediator shall be selected or appointed pursuant to this rule. Nothing in this provision shall preclude mediators from disqualifying themselves upon written notice to the judge and the parties.

(c) The mediated settlement conference.

(1) Where conference is to be held. Unless all parties and the mediator otherwise agree, the mediated settlement conference shall be held in the United States Bankruptcy Courthouse or other public or community building in the Eastern District. The mediator shall be responsible for reserving a place and making arrangements for the conference and for giving timely notice of the conference to all attorneys, unrepresented parties and other persons and entities required to attend.

(2) When conference is to be held. The court's order issued pursuant to section (a)(2) shall state a date of completion for the conference. As a guiding principle, the conference should be held after the parties have had a reasonable time to conduct discovery but well in advance of the trial date.

(3) Request to extend date of completion. A party, or the mediator, may request the judge to extend the deadline for completion of the conference. The request shall state the reasons the continuance is sought and shall be served by the movant upon the other parties and the mediator. If any party does not consent to the request, said party shall promptly communicate its objection to the judge.

The judge may grant the request and enter an order setting a new date for the completion of the conference, which date may be set at any time prior to trial. The order shall be served on all parties and on the mediator by the person who sought the extension.

(4) Recesses. The mediator may recess the conference at any time and may set times for reconvening. No further notification is required for persons present at the recessed conference.

(5) Mediated settlement conference is not to delay other proceedings. The mediated settlement conference shall not be cause for the delay of other proceedings in the case, including the completion of discovery, the filing or hearing of motions, or the trial of the case, except by order of the judge.

(d) Dues of parties, representatives, and attorneys.

(1) Attendance. The following persons shall physically attend the entire mediated settlement conference until an agreement is reduced to writing and signed as provided by section (d)(3) or an impasse has been declared, unless excused by the judge or by the mediator with approval of all parties and attorneys:

(A) Parties.

(i) All individual parties;

(ii) Any party that is not a natural person or a governmental entity shall be represented at the conference by an officer, employee or agent who is not such party's outside counsel and who has been authorized to decide on behalf of such party whether and on what terms to settle the action; and

(iii) Any party that is a governmental entity shall be represented at the conference by an employee or agent who is not such party's outside counsel and who has authority to decide on behalf of such party whether and on what terms to settle the action; provided, if under law proposed settlement terms can be approved only by a board, the representative shall have authority to negotiate on behalf of the party and to make a recommendation to that board.

(B) Insurance company representatives. A representative of each liability insurance carrier, uninsured motorist insurance carrier, and underinsured motorist insurance carrier which may be obligated to pay all or part of any claim presented in the action. Each carrier shall be represented at the conference by an officer, employee, or agent, other than the carrier's outside counsel, who has the authority to make a decision on behalf of the carrier or who has been authorized to negotiate on behalf of the carrier and can promptly communicate during the conference with persons who have decision-making authority.

(C) Attorneys. At least one counsel of record for each party or other participant whose counsel has appeared in the action.

(2) Notifying lien holders. Any party or attorney who has received notice of a lien or other claim upon proceeds recovered in the action shall notify the lien holder or claimant of the date, time, and location of the mediated settlement conference and shall request the lien holder or claimant to attend the conference or make a representative available with whom to communicate during the conference.

(3) Finalizing agreement. Upon reaching agreement, either before or during the mediation conference, the settlement shall be immediately reduced to writing and signed by the parties, their counsel, and others with settlement authority. By stipulation of the parties, the agreement may be electronically or stenographically recorded. A consent judgment or one or more voluntary dismissals shall be filed with the Court by such persons as the parties shall designate.

(4) Reporting settlement. Upon reaching a settlement agreement before or during the conference, the parties and others with settlement authority, shall provide a copy of the executed written agreement to the mediator within seven (7) days of the settlement. The mediator shall attach a copy of the written agreement to the Report of Mediator filed pursuant to section (f)(2)(D) of these rules. Failure of the parties to provide a copy of the written agreement to the mediator on a timely basis may result in sanctions.

(e) Sanctions for failure to attend. If any person required to attend the conference pursuant to section (d) of these rules fails to attend without good cause, the judge may impose an appropriate monetary sanction, including but not limited to, the payment of fines, attorneys fees, mediator fees, expenses and losses of earnings incurred by persons attending the conference.

A party seeking sanctions against another party or person shall do so in a written motion stating the grounds for the motion and the relief sought. The motion shall be served upon all parties and on any person against whom sanctions are being sought. If the court imposes sanctions, it shall do so after notice and a hearing, and in a written order making findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(f) Authority and duties of mediator.

(1) Authority of mediator.

(A) Control of conference. The mediator shall at all times be in control of the conference and the procedures to be followed.

(B) Private consultation. The mediator may meet and consult privately with any participant or counsel during the conference.

(C) Scheduling the conference. The mediator shall make a good faith effort to schedule the conference at a time that is convenient with the participants, attorneys and mediator. In the absence of agreement, the mediator shall select the date for the conference.

(2) Duties of mediator.

(A) Generally. The mediator shall define and describe the following to the parties at the beginning of the conference:

(i) the process of mediation;

(ii) the differences between mediation and other forms of conflict resolution;

(iii) the costs of the mediated settlement conference;

(iv) that the mediated settlement conference is not a trial, the mediator is not a judge, and the parties retain their right to trial if they do not reach settlement;

(v) the circumstances under which the mediator may meet and communicate privately with any of the parties or with any other person;

(vi) whether and under what conditions communications with the mediator will be held in confidence during the conference;

(vii) the inadmissibility of conduct and settlements as provided by applicable Rules of Evidence.

(viii) the duties and responsibilities of the mediator and the participants; and

(ix) the fact that any agreement reached will be reached by mutual consent.

(B) Disclosure. The mediator has a duty to be impartial and to advise all participants of any circumstances bearing on possible bias, prejudice or partiality.

(C) Declaring impasse. It is the duty of the mediator to timely determine that an impasse exists and that the conference should end.

(D) Reporting results of conference. The mediator shall submit a Report of Mediator to the judge which indicates the results of the conference. This report shall be filed within 2 weeks of the conclusion of the conference or upon the receipt of a copy of a written settlement agreement, whichever comes first.

If an agreement was reached, the report shall state whether the action will be concluded by consent judgment or voluntary dismissal and shall identify the persons designated to file the consent judgment or dismissals. The mediator's report shall inform the court of the absence of any party, attorney, or insurance representative who was absent without permission from the conference.

The mediator shall attach the written settlement agreement prepared by the parties to the Report of Mediator.

(E) Scheduling and holding the conference. It is the duty of the mediator to schedule the conference and to conduct and conclude the conference prior to the conference completion deadline set out in the court's order. Deadlines for completion of the conference shall be strictly observed by the mediator unless the time limit is changed by a written order of the judge.

(3) Failure of mediator to comply with section (f). The judge may withhold future appointments of any mediator who does not fully comply with the requirement of section (f).

(4) Sanctions for failure to pay mediator's fee. Except when excused by these rules or by order of the court, failure of a party to make timely payment of the party's share of a mediator's fee at the conclusion of the conference may result in the imposition of sanctions.

(g) Compensation of the mediator.

(A) By agreement. When the mediator is stipulated to by the parties, compensation shall be as agreed upon between the parties and the mediator.

(B) By court order. When the mediator is appointed by the court, the mediator shall be compensated by the parties at an hourly rate set by the judge.

(C) Payment of compensation by parties. Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the court, costs of the mediated settlement conference shall be paid in equal shares by the parties. Multiple parties shall be considered one party when they are represented by the same counsel. Parties obligated to pay a share of the costs shall pay them equally unless the court otherwise orders.

(h) Communications with court. All communications concerning mediated settlement conferences should be addressed to the bankruptcy administrator.

Rule 9029.1. Sanctions.

(a) Failure to comply with local rules. If any attorney or party willfully fails to comply with any local rule of this court, the court, in its discretion, may impose sanctions.

(b) Sanctions under § 362(h). When determining sanctions under 11 U.S.C. § 362(h), the court shall consider whether the moving party notified and gave the offending unity to cure the alleged violation.

CASE NOTES

Applied in In re Chavis, 213 Bankr. 462 (Bankr. E.D.N.C. 1997).

Rule 9036.1. Notice by Electronic Transmission.

(a) Whenever the clerk, or some other person as directed by the court, is required to send notice by mail and the entity or person entitled to receive the notice requests in writing that, instead of notice by mail, all or part of the information required to be contained in the notice be sent by a specified type of electronic transmission, the court may direct the clerk or other person to send the information by such electronic transmission.

(b) Notice by electronic transmission is complete, and the sender shall have fully complied with the requirement to send notice, when the sender obtains electronic confirmation that the transmission has been received, except where the recipient of the notice has agreed in writing that confirmation is not required, in which case notice is complete upon transmission.

ADVERSARY PROCEEDING COVER SHEET (Reverse Side)

This cover sheet must be completed by the plaintiff's attorney (or by the plaintiff if the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney) and submitted to the Clerk of the court upon the filing of a complaint initiating an adversary proceeding.

The cover sheet and the information contained on it do not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law, the Bankruptcy Rules, or the local rules of court. This form is required for the use of the clerk of the court to initiate the docket sheet and to prepare necessary indices and statistical records. A separate cover sheet must be submitted to the clerk of the court for each complaint filed. The form is largely self explanatory.

Parties. The names of the parties to the adversary proceeding exactly as they appear on the complaint. Give the names and addresses of the attorneys if known. Following the heading "Party," check the appropriate box indicating whether the United States is a party named in the complaint.

Cause of Action. Give a brief description of the cause of action including all federal statutes involved. For example, "Complaint seeking damages for failure to disclose information, Consumer Credit Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. §1601 et seq.," or "Complaint by trustee to avoid a transfer of property by the debtor, 11 U.S.C. §544."

Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. Only one box should be checked. If the cause fits more than one category of suit, select the most definitive.

Origin of Proceedings. Check the appropriate box to indicate the origin of the case:

1. Original Proceeding.
2. Removed from a State or District Court.
4. Reinstated or Reopened.
5. Transferred from Another Bankruptcy Court.

Demand. On the next line, state the dollar amount demanded in the complaint in thousands of dollars. For $1,000 enter "1," for $10,000 enter "10," for $100,000 enter "100," if $1,000,000, enter "1000." If $10,000,000 or more, enter "9999." If the amount is less than $1,000, enter "0001." If no monetary demand is made, enter "XXXX." If the plaintiff is seeking non-monetary relief, state the relief sought, such as injunction or foreclosure of a mortgage.

Bankruptcy Case in Which This Adversary Proceeding Arises. Enter the name of the debtor and the docket number of the bankruptcy case from which the proceeding now being filed arose. Beneath, enter the district and divisional office where the case was filed, and the name of the presiding judge.

Related Adversary Proceedings. State the names of the parties and the six digit adversary proceeding number from any adversary proceeding concerning the same two parties or the same property currently pending in any bankruptcy court. On the next line, enter the district where the related case is pending, and the name of the presiding judge.

Filing Fee. Check one box. The fee must be paid upon filing unless the plaintiff meets one of the following exceptions. The fee is not required if the plaintiff is the United States government or the debtor. If the plaintiff is the trustee or a debtor in possession, and there are no liquid funds in the estate, the filing fee may be deferred until there are funds in the estate. (In the event no funds are ever recovered for the estate, there will be no fee). There is no fee for adding a party after the adversary proceeding has been commenced.

Signature. This cover sheet must be signed by the attorney of record in the box on the right of the last line of the form. If the plaintiff is represented by a law firm, a member of the firm must sign. If the plaintiff is pro se, that is, not represented by an attorney, the plaintiff must sign.

The name of the signatory must be printed in the box to the left of the signature. The date of the signing must be indicated in the box on the far left of the last line.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE MATTER OF LOCAL RULES OF CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PRACTICE IN THIS COURT	ORDER ADOPTING LOCAL RULES OF CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PRACTICE

For good cause appearing to the Court,

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. The following Local Rules of Civil and Criminal Practice in the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina be and they hereby are adopted, effective at 12:01 a.m, on the 1st day of July, 1997. At that time these local rules shall supersede local rules therefore in effect and shall apply to all pending cases, unless the Court finds that their application in a specific case would result in injustice or hardship.
2. These rules are adopted in compliance with and pursuant to the authority of Rule 83, Fed.R.Civ.P.; Rule 57, Fed.R.Crim.P.; and other federal rules and statutes providing for district court local rules.
3. These rules conform to the uniform numbering system prescribed by the Judicial Conference of the United States. Each local rule is numbered according to its corresponding Federal Rule. Local rules for which there are no corresponding Federal Rules are correlated with the respective Federal Rule on local rulemaking. (Fed.R.Civ.P. 83; Fed.R.Crim.P. 57)
4. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9029, the Court authorizes the Bankruptcy Judges of this district to adopt Local Rules of Practice and Procedure for the Bankruptcy Court.
5. The Clerk is directed to make appropriate arrangements to see that these rules are published promptly and that copies of the rules are made available for distribution to the bar and the public.

This the 4th day of June, 1977.

ORDER

It appearing that local bankruptcy rules would facilitate the administration of bankruptcy cases in this district and would assist the court in the management and orderly disposition of contested matters and adversary proceedings; and

It further appearing that Rule 9029 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure permits the United States District Court to authorize bankruptcy judges to make and amend local rules of practice and procedure for the bankruptcy court which are consistent with Acts of Congress and the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure; and

It further appearing that by order of the United States District Court for the Middle District, dated June 4, 1997, the bankruptcy judges of this district are authorized, subject to the requirements of Rule 83 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to make and amend local rules of practice and procedure not inconsistent with Acts of Congress and the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure; and

It further appearing that appropriate public notice and an opportunity to comment regarding the rules attached hereto has been given; now, therefore

IT IS ORDERED that the local bankruptcy rules attached hereto are hereby adopted and shall be effective from and after June 4, 1997, with respect to all cases and proceedings before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of North Carolina. Such rules shall be referred to as Local Bankruptcy Rules, Middle District of North Carolina.

This the 4th day of June, 1997.

Editor's note. — By letter dated September 19, 2003, the Local Rules Committee of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of North Carolina notified Bankruptcy Attorneys of proposed changes to the Local Bankruptcy Rules as follows:

"The Local Rules Committee is seeking public comment on proposed changes to the Local Bankruptcy Rules. All of the proposed changes relate to the Electronic Case Filing system that will soon be implemented in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of North Carolina. The comment period shall run for 30 days from the date of this letter [September 19, 2003]. Further announcement on these proposed rules shall be made after the conclusion of the 30 days and only after all comments are taken into consideration by the Committee. Comments should be addressed to: Local Rules Committee, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, P.O. Box 26100, Greensboro, NC 27420-6100 or ncmb_web@ncmb.uscourts.gov."

As of the date this publication went to press, the proposed changes to the Local Bankruptcy Rules had not gone into effect. To view the proposed changes in their entirety, see the website for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of North Carolina at www.ncmb.uscourts.gov/main.htm.

PART I. LOCAL RULES OF CIVIL PRACTICE

I. SCOPE OF RULES—ONE FORM OF ACTION

Rule LR1.1. Scope of rules.

These rules shall govern the procedure and practice in all proceedings before this court, except for proceedings before the bankruptcy court. As used in these rules, the terms "judge" and "court" refer to either a United States District Judge or United States Magistrate Judge, unless the context or any rule of law indicates otherwise.

Editor's note. — For website, see www.ncmd.uscourts.gov.

Rule LR1.2. Philosophy of rules.

These rules shall be construed and enforced in such manner as to avoid technical delay, encourage civility, permit just and prompt determination of all proceedings, and promote the efficient administration of justice.

II. COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION; SERVICE OF PROCESS; PLEADINGS; MOTIONS AND ORDERS

Rule LR3.1. Commencement of actions.

(a) Civil docket cover sheet. A civil docket cover sheet, in a form supplied by the clerk, must be completed and submitted in triplicate with any complaint commencing an action or any notice of removal from state court.

(b) Records to be removed. Upon removal of an action from state court, the removing party shall cause a complete copy of the state court file to be filed in this court.

Rule LR5.1. Additional copies for court use.

In addition to the original, a copy of the following documents shall be delivered to the clerk for use by the court when the original is filed:

(1) A brief.

(2) Proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(3) Requests for jury instructions.

If word processing equipment is used, in addition to the hard copy, submit a 3-½ inch disk utilizing WordPerfect software or ASCII format for briefs on dispositive motions, trial briefs, and proposed voir dire questions and jury instructions. If the software package used is other than WordPerfect, identify the type of software used. On the disk label, write the case name, case number, and list the documents included. If counsel's name is affixed to the jacket in which the disk is enclosed, the disk may be retrieved from the clerk's office after the case is closed. Failure to retrieve the disk will result in its destruction by the Clerk's office in accordance with LR83.5(c) and LCrR57.3(c).

Rule LR5.2. No filing of discovery papers.

Depositions and deposition notices, interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admission, and answers and responses thereto shall not be filed unless the court so orders or unless the court will need such documents in a pretrial proceeding. All discovery papers must be served on other counsel or parties. The party taking a deposition or obtaining any material through discovery is responsible for its preservation and delivery to the court when needed or ordered. Any party seeking to compel discovery or other pretrial relief based upon discovery material which has not been filed with the clerk must identify the specific portion of the material which is directly relevant and ensure that it is filed as an attachment to the application for relief.

Rule LR6.1. Extensions of time and continuances of hearings.

(a) Motions for an extension of time to perform an act. All motions for an extension of time to perform an act required or allowed to be done within a specified time must show good cause, prior consultation with opposing counsel, and the views of opposing counsel. Extensions will not be allowed unless the motion is made before the expiration of the specified time, except upon a showing of excusable neglect. Consent orders extending time may be signed by the clerk to the extent provided by LR77.2.

(b) Motions for continuance. All motions to continue a pretrial conference, hearing on a motion, or the trial of an action must be presented through the clerk's office for the court's consideration reasonably in advance of the hearing date and must reflect the views of opposing counsel.

III. PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS

Rule LR7.1. Form of pleadings and papers.

(a) Form. Pleadings, motions, briefs, and other papers submitted for filing must be typewritten, printed, or legibly handwritten on letter size paper. The pages shall be unfolded and shall be bound at the top and numbered at the bottom, without manuscript cover. The margin at the top of each page shall not be less than one and one-quarter inches, and bottom, left and right margins shall be set at not less than one inch. Typewritten documents should be double spaced. Mechanically reproduced copies which bear an original signature will be accepted by the court as originals.

The text of every document shall be printed in a font size of 11 or larger, so that the type size and face shall be no smaller than that contained in the United States Reports beginning with Volume 453. There shall be no more than 27 lines of regularly spaced text on a page.

(b) Personal Data Identifiers. In compliance with the Policy of the Judicial Conference of the United States and the E-Government Act of 2002, and in order to promote electronic access to case files while also protecting personal privacy and other legitimate interests, parties shall refrain from including, or shall partially redact where inclusion is necessary, the following personal data identifiers from all pleadings filed with the court, including exhibits thereto, whether filed electronically or in paper, unless otherwise ordered by the court:

a. Social Security Numbers. If the individual's social security number must be included in a pleading, only the last four digits of that number should be used.

b. Names of minor children. If the involvement of a minor child must be mentioned in a pleading, only the initials of that child should be used.

c. Dates of birth. If the individual's date of birth must be included in a pleading, only the year should be used.

d. Financial account numbers. If financial account numbers are relevant and must be included in a pleading, only the last four digits of the financial account number should be used.

In compliance with the E-Government Act of 2002, a party wishing to file a document containing the personal data identifiers listed above may file an unredacted document under seal. The court may, however, still require the party to file a redacted copy for the public file. The unredacted document shall be retained by the court as part of the record and disposed in accordance with Local Rule 83.5. Counsel who file personal identifier data under seal should be mindful that the confidentiality of sealed documents transferred to the General Services Administration for holding after the case is closed cannot be assured.

The responsibility for redacting these personal identifiers rests solely with counsel and parties. The Clerk will not review each pleading for compliance with this rule.

(c) Identification of Documents. All papers submitted for filing shall follow the heading format set out in the Appendix of Forms, Fed.R.Civ.P., and papers submitted subsequent to the original complaint shall bear the case number.

(d) Telephone numbers and addresses. Parties or attorneys signing papers submitted for filing must state their telephone numbers, as well as their addresses, and the N.C. State Bar number of attorneys who are admitted to practice before this court.

(e) Exhibits to pleadings or papers. Bulky or voluminous materials should not be submitted for filing with a pleading or paper, or incorporated by reference therein, unless such materials are essential. The court may order any pleading or paper stricken if filed in violation of this rule.

(f) Civil rights actions by prisoners, 42 U.S.C. § 1983. All pro se complaints filed by state prisoners seeking relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 shall be filed with the clerk in compliance with the instructions of the clerk and on appropriate forms which are available without charge in the clerk's office. In each action, an original and one copy of the complaint for the court and one copy of the complaint for each defendant must be provided by the plaintiff. (Amended effective May 1, 2003.)

Rule LR7.2. Briefs.

(a) Contents. All briefs filed with the court shall contain:

(1) A statement of the nature of the matter before the court.

(2) A concise statement of the facts. Each statement of fact should be supported by reference to a part of the official record in the case.

(3) A statement of the question or questions presented.

(4) The argument, which shall refer to all statutes, rules and authorities relied upon.

(b) Citation of cases. Cases cited should include parallel citations, the year of the decision, and the court deciding the case. If a petition for certiorari was filed in the United States Supreme Court, disposition of the case should be shown with three parallel citations [e.g. Carson v. Warlick, 238 F.2d 724 (4th. Cir. 1956), cert. denied, 353 U.S. 910, 77 S.Ct. 665, 1 L.Ed.2d.664 (1957)].

(c) Citation of unpublished decisions. Unpublished decisions may be cited only if the unpublished decision is furnished to the court and to opposing parties or their counsel when the brief is filed. Unpublished decisions should be cited as follows: Wise v. Richardson, No. C-70-191-S (M.D.N.C., Aug. 11, 1971).

(d) Citation of decisions not appearing in certain published reports. Decisions published in reports other than the West Federal Reporter System, the official North Carolina reports and the official United States Supreme Court reports (e.g., C.C.H. Reports, Labor Reports, U.S.P.Q. reported decisions of other states or other specialized reporting services) may be cited only if the decision is furnished to the court and to opposing parties or their counsel when the brief is filed.

(e) Additional copies of briefs for court use. At the time the original of a brief is filed, an additional (working) copy of the brief shall be delivered to the clerk for use by the judge.

Rule LR7.3. Motion practice.

(a) Form. All motions, unless made during a hearing or at trial, shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by a brief except as provided in section (i) of this rule. Each motion shall be set out in a separate pleading.

(b) Content. All motions shall state with particularity the grounds therefor, shall cite any statute or rule of procedure relied upon, and shall set forth the relief or order sought.

(c) Decided on motion papers and briefs.

(1) Motions shall be considered and decided by the court on the pleadings, admissible evidence in the official court file, and motion papers and briefs, without hearing or oral argument, unless otherwise ordered by the court. Special considerations thought by counsel sufficient to warrant a hearing or oral argument may be brought to the court's attention in the motion or response.

(2) The clerk shall give at least five days' notice of the date and place of oral argument. The court, however, for good cause shown may shorten the five-day notice period.

(d) Limitations on length of briefs. Briefs in support of motions and responsive briefs are limited in length to 20 pages, and reply briefs are limited to 10 pages.

(e) Movant's supporting documents and briefs. When allegations of facts not appearing of record are relied upon to support a motion, affidavits, parts of depositions, and other pertinent documents then available shall accompany the motion. If supporting documents are not then available, the party may move for an extension of time in accordance with section (g) of this rule.

(f) Response to motion and brief. The respondent, if opposing a motion, shall file a response, including brief, within 20 days after service of the motion (30 days if the motion is for summary judgment; see LR56.1(d)). If supporting documents are not then available, the respondent may move for an extension of time in accordance with section (g) of this rule. For good cause appearing therefor, a respondent may be required to file any response and supporting documents, including brief, within such shorter period of time as the court may specify.

(g) Extension of time for filing supporting documents and briefs. Upon proper motion accompanied by a proposed order, the clerk may enter an ex parte order, specifying the time within which supporting documents and briefs may be filed pursuant to sections (e) and (f), if it is shown in writing that such documents are not available or cannot be filed contemporaneously with the motion or response. The time allowed to an opposing party for filing a response shall not run during any such extension. If good cause to grant the motion is not apparent upon the face of the motion, the clerk may direct that the motion be served upon the opposing party, who shall be allowed 10 days to respond.

(h) Reply brief. A reply brief may be filed within 10 days after service of the response. A reply brief is limited to discussion of matters newly raised in the response.

(i) Suggestion of subsequently decided authority. As an addendum to a brief, response brief, or reply brief, a suggestion of subsequently decided controlling authority, without argument, may be filed at any time prior to the court's ruling and shall contain only the citation to the case relied upon, if published, or a copy of the opinion if the case is unpublished.

(j) Motions not requiring briefs. No brief is required by either movant or respondent, unless otherwise directed by the court, with respect to the following motions: (1) discovery motions in which the parties have agreed to the expedited procedures described in LR26.1(d); (2) for extension of time for the performance of an act required or allowed to be done, provided request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by previous orders; (3) to continue a pretrial conference, hearing, or the trial of an action; (4) to add parties; (5) to amend the pleadings; (6) to file supplemental pleadings; (7) to appoint a next friend or guardian ad litem; (8) for substitution of parties; and (9) to stay proceedings to enforce judgment. The above motions, while not required to be accompanied by a brief, must state good cause therefor and cite any applicable rule, statute, or other authority justifying the relief sought. These motions must be accompanied by a proposed order.

(k) Failure to file and serve motion papers. The failure to file a brief or response within the time specified in this rule shall constitute a waiver of the right thereafter to file such brief or response, except upon a showing of excusable neglect. A motion unaccompanied by a required brief may, in the discretion of the court, be summarily denied. A response unaccompanied by a required brief may, in the discretion of the court, be disregarded and the pending motion may be considered and decided as an uncontested motion. If a respondent fails to file a response within the time required by this rule, the motion will be considered and decided as an uncontested motion, and ordinarily will be granted without further notice.

CASE NOTES

Brief in Opposition to Motion. — Even if the opposition is futile and the motion to amend must be granted, subsection (a) allows defendant to file a brief in opposition to the motion if it so chooses. Fulk v. Hartford Life Ins. Co., 839 F. Supp. 1181 (M.D.N.C. 1993).

Length of Briefs. — Plaintiff's statement of specific facts greatly exceeded the applicable page limit mandated by Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina and did not set forth facts that were not otherwise available in the record; thus, the statement violated U.S. Dist. Ct., M.D. N.C., R. 7.3(d), 56.1(c), and 56.1(e), and lacked any utility that would justify exempting it from the Local Rules. It was therefore stricken from the record. Volumetrics Med. Imaging, Inc. v. ATL Ultrasound, Inc., 243 F. Supp. 2d 386, 2003 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 1354 (M.D.N.C. 2003).

Combination Memorandum Inappropriate. — Where defendant combined a reply memorandum with a response memorandum in what appeared to be an attempt to circumvent subsection (g), this tactic appeared to violate the spirit, if not the letter, of the rule and counsel for defendant was cautioned against similar future actions. Fulk v. Hartford Life Ins. Co., 839 F. Supp. 1181 (M.D.N.C. 1993).

Pro Se Status of Plaintiffs. — Where plaintiffs failed to respond to defendants' motion for summary judgment, under this rule and rule 56.1(e), the Court could find the motion to be uncontested and grant it without further notice, but because of plaintiffs' pro se status, the Court acted with an abundance of caution and examined the motion closely on its merits. Baraukas v. Danek Med., Inc., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2000 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5122 (M.D.N.C. Jan. 13, 2000).

Applied in Barbee v. Coble, 208 F.R.D. 549, 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15888 (M.D.N.C. 2002); Butler v. Sears Roebuck & Co., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 24229 (M.D.N.C. Dec. 12, 2002).

Rule LR16.1. Initial pretrial proceedings.

(a) Requirement for initial pretrial order. There shall be an initial pretrial order entered pursuant to the provisions of Fed.R.Civ.P. 16(b) and 26(f) in every civil case, except in:

(1) Social Security cases and other actions for review of administrative decisions;

(2) Prisoner petitions;

(3) Summons or subpoena enforcement proceedings;

(4) Bankruptcy appeals;

(5) Government collection cases and forfeiture proceedings; and

(6) Cases brought by pro se plaintiffs.

The above categories of cases are exempted from the timing-and-sequence-of-discovery provisions of Rule 26(d), and the meeting of parties described in Rule 26(f). Category (1), (2), (3), and (4) cases require no pretrial management and are ready for adjudication on the pleadings of the parties, unless the court orders otherwise. Category (5) cases (government collections and forfeitures) shall be governed by a 90-day period of discovery from the filing of answer or other response, with dispositive motions due in accordance with LR56.1. Category (6) cases (brought by pro se plaintiffs) shall be governed by a scheduling order entered by the court after an initial pretrial conference, unless the Court determines, in its discretion, that no conference is necessary.

(b) Meeting of the parties. Within the time set by Fed.R.Civ.P. Rule 16(b), the clerk shall schedule an initial pretrial conference and give at least thirty (30) days notice thereof. The parties must hold their Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(f) meeting at least 14 days before the scheduled initial pretrial conference and submit to the court their report within 10 days thereafter. The parties may not stipulate out of the Rule 26(f) meeting but must meet to discuss a proposed discovery plan. At the Rule 26(f) meeting, the parties shall discuss:

(1) All matters identified in Rules 16(b) and (c) and 26(f),

(2) The possibility of settlement,

(3) The proper management track for the case under LR26.1,

(4) The timing of any mediated settlement conference under LR16.4 and LR83.10a-g, and the identity of any agreed-upon mediator,

(5) The nature of the documents and information believed necessary for the case,

(6) Issues of burden and relevance and the discoverability of different types of documents,

(7) A preliminary schedule for depositions, to be updated at reasonable intervals upon communication between the parties, and

(8) The decision of each party whether or not to consent to the trial jurisdiction of a magistrate judge.

The parties shall jointly prepare a Rule 26(f) Report (LR16.2) if they are in agreement concerning a discovery plan for the case. If they do not agree, each shall file a separate Rule 26(f) Report (LR16.3), setting forth its position on disputed matters. The Reports must be filed with the court within 10 days of the Rule 26(f) meeting.

(c) Initial pretrial order by conference. If the parties are unable to reach agreement on a discovery plan and therefore submit separate Rule 26(f) Reports (LR16.3), they shall appear for the scheduled initial pretrial conference. Each party shall personally appear or be represented by an attorney who has full authority to bind the party on the matters for discussion at the conference. After hearing from the parties, the court will enter an initial pretrial order that will control the conduct of the litigation.

(d) Initial pretrial order upon the Joint Rule 26(f) report. If the parties reach agreement on a discovery plan and submit a joint Rule 26(f) Report, the court will enter an order on the basis of the proposed plan as submitted or as modified by the court. The parties shall submit to the clerk sufficient copies of the joint Report so that all parties can receive a copy after approval by the court. The court may, on its own motion, modify the plan if it finds in its discretion that the plan provides for an excessive amount of discovery or the parties' selection of a case management track under LR26.1 is unreasonable. The scheduled initial pretrial conference is automatically canceled upon the submission to the court of the joint Rule 26(f) Report.

(e) Discovery with respect to expert witnesses. The initial pretrial order, whether based upon a joint Rule 26(f) Report or a conference following the filing of separate reports, shall provide that discovery with respect to experts be conducted within the discovery period established in the case. The order shall set the date on which disclosure of expert information under Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(2) must be made. (Amended effective March 5, 2002; amended effective September 1, 2003.)

Rule LR16.2. Joint Rule 26(f) report.

If the parties are in agreement concerning a discovery plan, they shall file a joint report in substantially the following form:

Joint Rule 26(f) Report

1. Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(f) and LR16.1(b), a meeting was held on date at place and was attended by _____ for Plaintiff(s), and _____ for Defendant(s).

2. Discovery Plan. The parties propose to the court the following discovery plan:

Discovery will be needed on the following subjects:

(brief descriptions).

Discovery shall be placed on a case-management track established in LR26.1. The parties agree that the appropriate plan for this case (with any stipulated modification by the parties as set out below) is that designated in LR26.1(a) as:

Standard _____

Complex _____

Exceptional _____

The date for the completion of all discovery (general and expert) is: _____.

Stipulated modifications to the case management track include: _____ .

Reports from retained experts under Rule 26(a)(2) are due during the discovery period:

From Plaintiff(s) by _____

From Defendant(s) by _____

Supplementations under Rule 26(e) are due: (time[s] or interval[s]).

3. Mediation. [For cases selected for mediation under LR16.4 and LR 83.10a-g et seq.]

Mediation should be conducted [early] [midway] [late] in the discovery period, the exact date to be set by the mediator after consultation with the parties. The parties agree that the mediator shall be (identity).

(If the parties report no agreement, the clerk will select a mediator from the court's panel of mediators.)

4. Preliminary Deposition Schedule. Preliminarily, the parties agree to the following schedule for depositions: _____ .

The parties will update this schedule at reasonable intervals.

5. Other items.

Plaintiff(s) should be allowed until date to request leave to join additional parties or amend pleadings.

Defendant(s) should be allowed until date to request leave to join additional parties or amend pleadings.

After these dates, the court will consider whether the granting of leave would delay trial.

The parties have discussed special procedures for managing this case, including reference of the case to a magistrate judge on consent of the parties under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), or appointment of a master:

Rule LR16.4. Mediated settlement conferences.

(a) Mediated settlement conferences during discovery. In selected civil cases (see section [b] for a description of cases automatically selected for mediation) there shall be conducted a mediated settlement conference in accordance with LR83.10a-g. The conference may be set for any time during the discovery period, as agreed by the parties. In appropriate cases, the parties may wish to schedule the mediation early in the discovery period, after a first round of depositions or other discovery. In other cases, the parties may choose to set the conference near the end of the discovery period after all, or substantially all, discovery is complete. The parties shall discuss the timing of the mediated settlement conference during the Rule 26(f) meeting of the parties.

(b) Automatic selection by these rules. Several categories of civil cases are automatically selected for mediated settlement conferences, without specific order by the court. These categories include, according to designations on the civil cover sheet (1) contract [categories 110-140 and 160-195, specifically excluding 150-153], (2) tort [all categories, 310-385], (3) civil rights [all categories, 440-444], (4) labor [all categories, 710-791], (5) property rights [all categories, 820-840], (6) antitrust [category 410], (7) banks and banking [category 430], (8) securities/commodities/exchange [category 850] and (9) environmental matters [category 893]. The parties to these actions shall discuss mediation plans at the Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(f) meeting of the parties and report such plans in their Rule 26(f) Report in preparation for the entry of an initial pretrial order. See LR16.1(b)(c) and (d). Cases wherein the United States is a party or the plaintiff appears pro se are not included within this automatic selection for mediation.

(c) Exemption from mediated settlement conference. Any party, or parties jointly, may move for exemption from the requirement for a mediated settlement conference. The court will grant such a request only for good cause. A general assertion that settlement is unlikely or only a remote possibility does not serve as good cause for exemption.

CASE NOTES

Where pro se plaintiff had not made any attempt to settle the dispute and failed to show that defendant's proposed settlement was unfair, the court would deny her motion to compel, due to her failure to follow this rule, without prejudice to her filing a new motion within 15 days. Barlow v. Esselte Pendaflex Corp., 111 F.R.D. 404 (M.D.N.C. 1986), aff'd, 838 F.2d 1209 (4th Cir.), cert. denied, 488 U.S. 843, 109 S. Ct. 116, 102 L. Ed. 2d 90 (1988) (decided prior to the 1993 amendment).

IV. PARTIES

Rule LR17.1. Minors and incompetents as parties.

(a) Capacity to sue or be sued. Minors and incompetent persons may sue or defend only by their general or testamentary guardians within this state or by guardians ad litem appointed by this court.

(b) Appointment of guardian ad litem.

(1) Application for the appointment of a guardian ad litem to sue on behalf of a minor or incompetent may be made by motion submitted contemporaneously with a complaint. The complaint may be filed when the appointment is made by a judge.

(2) Application for the appointment of a guardian ad litem to defend on behalf of a minor or incompetent person may be filed after service of summons and complaint and before time has expired to answer or otherwise to respond.

(3) Applications for the appointment of a guardian ad litem by this court must:

(i) set out facts requiring such appointment,

(ii) suggest a natural person suitable for appointment,

(iii) contain information about that person, including willingness to serve, upon which the court can judge his or her qualifications, and

(iv) be accompanied by a proposed order of appointment.

(c) Termination of actions; Court hearing and approval.

(1) No civil action or proceeding in which a minor or incompetent person is a party may be compromised, settled, dismissed, or otherwise terminated without the approval of the court.

(2) In order to obtain court approval, a party must file a motion setting forth reasons justifying the termination and explaining its effect upon the rights of the minor or incompetent person.

(3) The court will conduct a hearing to determine whether the termination is fair, reasonable, and in the best interest of the minor or incompetent. The following persons must be present at the hearing unless excused by the court:

(i) attorneys for all parties,

(ii) the minor or incompetent party,

(iii) the guardian ad litem or other legal representative, and

(iv) a parent or other person in loco parentis.

(4) At the hearing the parties must establish to the satisfaction of the court:

(i) the facts giving rise to the cause of action and the contentions of the parties with respect to liability and damage;

(ii) the facts concerning the nature and extent of any injury or damage suffered by the minor or incompetent person, supported by medical records and reports in personal injury cases;

(iii) medical and hospital expenses, if any, incurred or likely to be incurred;

(iv) the concurrence of the attorney, guardian ad litem or other legal representative that the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interest of the minor or incompetent person;

(iv) the facts with respect to any related claims or liens, including separate claims of parents for expenses, and the disposition or status of such other claims.

(5) Ordinarily, the requirements of section (c)(4) of this rule may be satisfied by summaries made by the parties or their attorneys. In every case, the parties may present sworn testimony of witnesses, affidavits or documentary evidence, and the court reserves the right to call for such evidence at any time.

(d) Fees. At the hearing, the court will consider requests for counsel fees and a fee for services by the guardian ad litem or other legal representative and may make appropriate orders relating to payment of fees.

(1) Before a judgment approving a compromise settlement of claims of a minor or incompetent is presented to the court, it shall be consented and agreed to by counsel for the parties to the action and by the guardian ad litem or other legal representative of the minor or incompetent.

(2) The judgment presented should provide, inter alia, that the parties have agreed to a settlement of all matters in controversy between them, and the amount of the settlement; that the court has conducted a hearing on the matter; that the court has found that the proposed compromise settlement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interest of the minor or incompetent; and that the court has approved the compromise settlement agreement.

(f) Payment of judgment. The amount of the judgment shall be paid into the office of the clerk of this court, and the clerk shall make such disbursements from the proceeds as provided by the judgment of the court. The balance of the proceeds of the judgment shall be paid to the legal guardian of the minor or incompetent, if within this state. If there is no such guardian, the balance of the proceeds shall be paid to the clerk of superior court of the county in this state in which the minor or incompetent resides. If the minor or incompetent does not reside within this state, the balance shall be paid to a legal guardian approved by the court.

Rule LR23.1. Class actions.

(a) Class action complaint. The complaint shall bear next to its caption the legend, "Complaint — Class Action." The complaint shall contain under a separate heading, styled "Class Action Allegations":

(1) A reference to the portion or portions of Rule 23, Fed.R.Civ.P., under which it is claimed that the suit is properly maintainable as a class action.

(2) Appropriate allegations claimed to justify class treatment, including, but not necessarily limited to:

(i) the size and definition of the alleged class,

(ii) the basis upon which the plaintiff claims

(A) to be an adequate representative of the class, or

(B) if the class is comprised of defendants, that those named as parties are adequate representatives of the class,

(iii) the alleged questions of law or fact claimed to be common to the class, and

(iv) for actions sought to be maintained under Rule 23(b)(3), Fed.R.Civ.P., allegations thought to support the findings required by that subdivision.

(b) Motion for class action determination. Within 90 days after the filing of a complaint in a class action, unless this period is extended by court order, the plaintiff shall file a separate motion for a determination under Rule 23(c)(1), Fed.R.Civ.P., as to whether the case may be maintained as a class action. If a party wishes to present oral testimony to support or oppose the class action motion, the party must so inform the court in its motion or opposition. In ruling upon such a motion, the court may allow the action to be so maintained, may disallow and strike the class action allegations, or may order postponement of the determination pending discovery or such other preliminary procedures as appear to be appropriate and necessary in the circumstances. Whenever possible, where it is held that the determination should be postponed, a date will be fixed by the court for renewal of the motion.

(c) Class action counterclaims or cross-claims. The foregoing provisions shall apply, with appropriate adaptations, to any counterclaim or cross-claim alleged to be brought for or against a class.

(d) Burden of proof; Notice. The burden shall be upon any party seeking to maintain a case as a class action to present an evidentiary basis to the court showing that the action is properly maintainable as such. If the court determines that an action may be maintained as a class action, the party obtaining that determination shall initially bear the expenses of and be responsible for giving such notice as the court may order to members of the class.

V. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

Rule LR26.1. Differentiated case management and discovery.

(a) Differentiated case management. Every case in which an initial pretrial order is entered pursuant to LR16.1(b)-(d) shall be assigned, by agreement of the parties (if adopted by the court) or by order of the court, to one of three case-management tracks. (See LR16.2 and 16.3 for forms of the Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(f) report wherein parties advise the court regarding case management tracks.) The three tracks are defined as follows:

(1) Standard. Discovery (including all discovery with respect to experts) in cases assigned to this track shall be completed within four (4) months from the date of the initial pretrial order. Presumptively, subject to stipulation of the parties or order of the court on good cause shown, interrogatories (including subparts) and requests for admission are limited to 15 in number by each party. Depositions are presumptively limited to four (4) depositions (including any experts) by the plaintiffs, by the defendants, and by third-party defendants.

(2) Complex. Discovery (including all discovery with respect to experts) in cases assigned to this track shall be completed within six (6) months from the date of the initial pretrial order, subject to agreement of the parties for a larger discovery period, if approved by the court. Presumptively, subject to stipulation of the parties or order of the court on good cause shown, interrogatories (including subparts) and requests for admission are limited to 25 in number by each party. Depositions are presumptively limited to seven (7) depositions (including any experts) by the plaintiffs, by the defendants, and by third-party defendants.

(3) Exceptional. Discovery (including all discovery with respect to experts) in cases assigned to this track shall be completed within nine (9) months from the date of the initial pretrial order. Presumptively, subject to stipulation of the parties or order of the court on good cause shown, interrogatories (including subparts) and requests for admission are limited to 30 in number by each party. Depositions are presumptively limited to 10 depositions (including any experts) by the plaintiffs, by the defendants, and by third-party defendants. This management track is reserved for cases of exceptional complexity. It is not to be used for ordinary federal cases even though such cases have some complexity and require significant discovery.

(b) Discovery procedures and materials.

(1) The court expects counsel to conduct discovery in good faith and to cooperate and be courteous with each other in all phases of the discovery process. As a part of their Rule 26(f) Report, the parties must formulate a preliminary deposition schedule. They must continue to communicate throughout the discovery period to update the schedule.

(2) Depositions shall be conducted in accordance with the following guidelines:

(i) Counsel shall not direct or request that a witness not answer a question, unless that counsel has objected to the question on the ground that the answer is protected by a privilege or a limitation on evidence directed by the court.

(ii) Counsel shall not make objections or statements which might suggest an answer to a witness. Counsels' statements when making objections should be succinct, stating the basis of the objection and nothing more.

(iii) Counsel and their witness-clients shall not engage in private, off-the-record conferences while the deposition is proceeding in session, except for the purpose of deciding whether to assert a privilege.

(iv) Deposing counsel shall provide to the witness's counsel a copy of all documents shown to the witness during the deposition. The copies shall be provided either before the deposition begins or contemporaneously with the showing of each document to the witness. The witness and the witness's counsel do not have the right to discuss documents privately before the witness answers questions about them.

(3) Interrogatories, requests for production of documents, or requests for admission shall be numbered consecutively by each party regardless of the number of sets into which they are divided.

(4) Depositions and deposition notices, interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admission, and answers and responses thereto shall not be filed unless the court so orders or unless the court will need such documents in a pretrial proceeding. All discovery papers must be served on other counsel or parties. The party taking a deposition or obtaining any material through discovery is responsible for its preservation and delivery to the court when needed or ordered. Any party seeking to compel discovery or other pretrial relief based upon discovery material which has not been filed with the clerk must identify the specific portion of the material which is directly relevant and ensure that it is filed as an attachment to the application for relief.

(c) Conference of attorneys with respect to motions and objections relating to discovery. The court will not consider motions and objections relating to discovery unless moving counsel files a certificate that after personal consultation and diligent attempts to resolve differences the parties are unable to reach an accord. The certificate shall set forth the date of the conference, the names of the participating attorneys, and the specific results achieved. It shall be the responsibility of counsel for the movant to arrange for the conference and, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, the conference shall be held in the office of the attorney nearest the court location where the initial pretrial conference was convened or, in the absence thereof, nearest to Greensboro. Alternatively, at any party's request, the conference may be held by telephone.

(d) Expedited resolution of some discovery disputes. If, after a LR26.1(c) conference, the parties agree that a discovery dispute can be ruled upon in a telephone conference of no more than 30 minutes, the magistrate judge will schedule such a conference and rule on the dispute without briefing by the parties. Alternatively, if the parties agree that the dispute can be ruled upon in an in-court hearing of no more than one hour, without briefing, the magistrate judge will schedule an early hearing. The fact that these proceedings are expedited and without briefing does not alter the application of Fed.R.Civ.P. 37(a)(4) and subsection (e) of this rule regarding the imposition of sanctions in discovery motions.

(e) Award of expenses of discovery motion. Any ruling on a discovery motion shall ordinarily result in the imposition of sanctions under Fed.R.Civ.P. 37(a)(4) unless the court determines that the position taken by the losing party was justifiable or some other circumstances would make a sanction unjust.

(f) Completion of discovery. The requirement that discovery be completed within a specified time means that adequate provisions must be made for interrogatories and requests for admission to be answered, for documents to be produced, and for depositions to be held within the discovery period.

(g) Extension of the discovery period or request for more discovery. Motions seeking an extension of the discovery period or permission to take more discovery than is permitted under the initial pretrial order must be made or presented prior to the expiration of the time within which discovery is required to be completed. They must set forth good cause justifying the additional time and will be granted or approved only upon a showing that the parties have diligently pursued discovery. The court will permit additional depositions only on a showing of exceptional good cause.

(h) Trial preparation after the close of discovery. For good cause appearing therefor, the physical or mental examination of a party may be ordered at any time prior to trial. Ordinarily, the deposition of a material witness not subject to subpoena should be taken during discovery. However, the deposition of a material witness who agrees to appear at trial, but who later becomes unable or refuses to attend, may be ordered at any time prior to trial.

CASE NOTES

Motion to Compel Denied Where Party Not in Compliance with Rule. — Plaintiff's motion to compel should not have been filed because no certificate had been filed, and diligent attempts had not been made to resolve differences between plaintiff and the non-party; timely compliance with the Local Rule was not only mandatory, but essential to the discovery process in order to avoid unnecessary burden to the non-party and the court, and plaintiff failed to offer any excuse for its conduct, except the advancement of its legal position. Med. Components, Inc. v. Classic Med., Inc., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19170 (M.D.N.C. Sept. 27, 2002).

Applied in MCI Constr., LLC v. Hazen & Sawyer, P.C., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 22996 (M.D.N.C. Nov. 27, 2002).

Rule LR26.2. Exemption from Fed. R. Civil P. 26(a)(1).

Parties are not required to make initial disclosures identified in Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(1); the court elects to be exempt from the provisions of Rule 26(a)(1).

VI. TRIALS

Rule LR40.1. Trial dates and final pretrial preparation.

(a) Establishment of trial date. While the case is in discovery, the clerk shall establish a trial date and give at least 4 months' notice thereof to the parties. The case may be set on a trial calendar of the assigned judge or placed on a master calendar to be called by one or more district judges. A magistrate judge may assist with the master calendar, although no case may be referred to the magistrate judge for trial unless the parties consent to the magistrate judge's trial jurisdiction.

(b) Continuance of trial. The court will consider a request to continue a trial date only if the request is signed by both the party and counsel for the party.

(c) Final pretrial preparation. The parties shall comply in all respects with Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(3) regarding final pretrial disclosure, including the time requirements set out therein. The pretrial disclosures mandated by that rule shall be served on other parties but should not be filed with the court. No later than 20 days before trial, each party shall file a trial brief, along with proposed instructions on the issues (jury cases) or findings of fact and conclusions of law (non-jury cases). Any party, or the court on its own motion, may request a pretrial hearing or telephone conference to address matters relating to final pretrial preparation or settlement of the case. At any settlement conference, the court may require the attendance of parties and insurers.

Rule LR43.1. Trial procedure.

(a) Opening statement in civil actions. At the commencement of the trial of civil actions, the party with the burden of proof may, without argument, state his cause of action and the evidence by which he expects to sustain his claim. The adverse party may then, without argument, state his defense and the evidence by which he expects to sustain his defense. If the trial is to a jury, the opening statement shall be made immediately after the jury is sworn. If the trial is to the court, the opening statement shall be made immediately after the case is called for trial. Opening statements shall be subject to such time limitations as may be imposed by the court.

(b) Documents, other than exhibits, used at trial. When counsel expects to examine or cross-examine a witness concerning a document which will not be offered as an exhibit, counsel shall have at trial a copy of the document for use by the judge.

(c) Absence during return of verdict. In a jury trial, if a party or counsel is voluntarily absent from the courtroom prior to the return of the verdict, it shall be conclusively presumed that such party or counsel waived presence.

Rule LR47.1. Juries.

(a) Examination of jurors.

(1) The court will conduct the examination of prospective jurors.

(2) When the court's examination is completed, attorneys and parties appearing pro se may request that the court ask additional questions to the prospective jurors.

(b) Contacts prohibited.

(1) All parties, witnesses, and attorneys shall avoid any extra-judicial contact or communication with a grand juror or member of a petit jury venire or panel who has been or may be selected in a case in which that person is involved. No person may have any extra-judicial contact or communication, either directly or indirectly, with a grand juror, member of a petit jury venire or panel which may reasonably have the effect of influencing, or which is intended to influence, the grand juror, potential petit juror, or sitting petit juror.

(2) Attorneys for parties shall inform their clients and witnesses of this rule.

(3) No person shall approach a juror, either directly or through any member of his immediate family, in an effort to secure information concerning the juror's background.

(4) No provision of this rule is intended to prohibit communication with a petit juror after the juror has been dismissed from further service, so long as the communication does not tend to harass, humiliate, or intimidate the juror in any fashion.

(c) Disclosure of names and addresses of prospective jurors.

(1) The names of prospective jurors for any session of court or for a specific case may not be disclosed prior to their reporting for duty except in compliance with instructions of the court. The clerk will make available to counsel for the parties, and to any parties appearing pro se, a list which sets forth the name, general address, and occupation of each potential juror when court is opened for the session for which the jurors have been summoned.

(2) The names, address, and telephone numbers of persons who have served as jurors may not be disclosed by the clerk's office without court permission.

(d) Number of jurors in civil jury cases. In civil jury cases the jury shall consist of six (6) or more members.

VII. JUDGMENT

Rule LR51.1. Jury arguments and instructions.

(a) Jury arguments. In the trial of civil actions the party having the burden of proof shall have the right to open and close the jury argument, without regard to whether the defendant has offered evidence. If each of the parties has the burden of proof on one or more issues, the court, in its discretion, shall determine the order of arguments. All arguments shall be subject to such time limitations as may be imposed by the court.

(b) Instructions to jury. In all cases tried to a jury, a party who desires the jury to be instructed on a particular point must set it out in writing and furnish it to the court before jury arguments commence.

Rule LR54.1. Taxation of costs.

(a) Filing bill of costs.

(1) A prevailing party may request the clerk to tax allowable costs in a civil action as a part of a judgment or decree by filing a bill of costs, on a form available in the clerk's office, within 30 days.

(i) after the expiration of time allowed for appeal of a final judgment or decree, or

(ii) after receipt by the clerk of an order terminating the action on appeal.

(2) The original of the bill of costs shall be filed with the clerk, with copies served on adverse parties.

(3) The failure of a prevailing party to timely file a bill of costs shall constitute a waiver of any claim for costs.

(b) Objections to bill of costs.

(1) If an adverse party objects to the bill of costs or any item claimed by a prevailing party, that party must state objection in a motion for disallowance with a supporting brief within 10 days after the filing of the bill of costs. Within five days thereafter, the prevailing party may file a response and brief. Unless a hearing is ordered by the clerk, a ruling will be made by the clerk on the record.

(2) A party may request review of the clerk's ruling by filing a motion within five days after the action of the clerk. The court's review of the clerk's action will be made on the existing record unless otherwise ordered.

(c) Taxable costs.

(1) Items normally taxed include, without limitation:

(i) Those items specifically listed on the bill of costs form. The costs incident to the taking of depositions (when allowable as necessarily obtained for use in the litigation) normally include only the reporter's attendance fee and charge for one transcript of the deposition.

(ii) Premiums on required bonds.

(iii) Actual mileage, subsistence, and attendance allowances for necessary witnesses at actual cost, but not to exceed the applicable statutory rates, whether they reside in or out of this district.

(iv) One copy of the trial transcript for each party represented by separate counsel.

(2) Items normally not taxed include, without limitation:

(i) Witness fees, subsistence, and mileage for individual parties, real parties in interest, parties suing in representative capacities, and the officers and directors of corporate parties.

(ii) Copies of depositions.

(iii) Daily copy of trial transcripts, unless prior court approval has been obtained.

(d) Costs in settlements. The court will not tax costs in any action terminated by compromise or settlement. Settlement agreements must resolve any issue relating to costs. In the absence of specific agreement, each party will bear its own costs.

(e) Payment of costs. Costs are to be paid directly to the party entitled to reimbursement, who must file a certificate of satisfaction within 20 days of receipt of payment.

Rule LR54.2. Award of statutory attorney's fees.

The court will not consider a motion to award statutory attorney's fees until moving counsel shall first advise the court in writing that after consultation the parties are unable to reach an agreement in regard to the fee award. The statement of consultation shall set forth the date of the consultation, the names of the participating attorneys, and the specific results achieved.

Within 60 days after the entry of final judgment, (i) the parties shall file an appropriate stipulation and request for an order if they have reached an agreement on an award of statutory attorney's fees; or (ii) if the parties have not reached such an agreement, the moving party shall file the statement of consultation required by this rule and a motion, supported by affidavits, time records, or other evidence, setting forth the factual basis for each criterion which the court will consider in making such an award.

Rule LR56.1. Summary judgment motions.

(a) Notice of dispositive motion. Any party who intends to file a motion for summary judgment, or any other dispositive motion, must file and serve notice of intention to file a dispositive motion within 10 days following the close of the discovery period.

(b) Filing of dispositive motions. All dispositive motions and supporting briefs must be filed and served within 30 days following the close of the discovery period.

(c) Limitations of length of briefs. The page limitations for briefs on all motions, established by LR7.3(d), apply to summary judgment briefs. Principal briefs are limited to 20 pages, and reply briefs are limited to 10 pages.

(d) Form of briefs — Summary judgment motion by claimant. A party requesting summary judgment on its claim shall set out a statement of the nature of the matter before the court, a statement of facts, and a statement of the questions presented as provided in LR7.2(a)(1)-(3). The party shall also set out the elements that it must prove (with citations to supporting authority), and the specific, authenticated facts existing in the record or set forth in accompanying affidavits that would be sufficient to support a jury finding of the existence of those elements.

In a responsive brief the opposing party may, within 30 days after service of the summary judgment motion and brief, set out the statements required by LR7.2(a)(1)-(3) and also set out the elements that the claimant must prove (with citations to supporting authority), and either identify any element as to which evidence is insufficient (and explain why the evidence is insufficient), or point to specific, authenticated facts existing in the record or set forth in accompanying affidavits that show a genuine issue of material fact, or explain why some rule of law (e.g., an applicable statute of limitations) would defeat the claim. The failure to file a response may cause the court to find that the motion is uncontested.

In a reply brief the claimant may, within 10 days of service of the response, address matters newly raised in the response.

(e) Form of briefs — Summary judgment motion by defending party. A party moving for summary judgment upon an opposing party's claim shall set out a statement of the nature of the matter before the court, a statement of facts, and a statement of the questions presented as provided in LR7.2(a)(1)-(3). The party shall also set out the elements that the claimant must prove (with citations to supporting authority), and explain why the evidence is insufficient to support a jury verdict on an element or elements, or why some other rule of law would defeat the claim.

In a responsive brief the party having made the challenged claim may, within 30 days after service of the summary judgment motion and brief, file with the court a response that sets out the statements required by LR7.2(a)(1)-

(3) and also sets out the elements that it must prove (with citations to supporting authority), and the specific, authenticated facts existing in the record or set forth in accompanying affidavits that would be sufficient to support a jury finding of the existence of the disputed elements. The failure to file a response may cause the court to find that the motion is uncontested.

In a reply brief the defending party may, within 10 days of service of the response, address matters newly raised in the response.

(f) Summary judgment motions and trial dates. The pendency of summary judgment motions will not serve to delay trial on the date set by the court in accordance with LR40.1. If by the time set for trial, the court has been unable to reach any pending summary judgment motion, the case will nonetheless be reached according to the trial calendar. The court will rule on the motion at the outset of trial.

(g) Failure to timely file dispositive motions. A dispositive motion which is not noticed and filed within the prescribed time will not be reached by the court prior to trial unless the court determines that its consideration will not cause delay to the proceedings.

CASE NOTES

Length of Briefs. — Plaintiff's statement of specific facts greatly exceeded the applicable page limit mandated by Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina and did not set forth facts that were not otherwise available in the record; thus, the statement violated U.S. Dist. Ct., M.D. N.C., R. 7.3(d), 56.1(c), and 56.1(e), and lacked any utility that would justify exempting it from the Local Rules. It was therefore stricken from the record. Volumetrics Med. Imaging, Inc. v. ATL Ultrasound, Inc., 243 F. Supp. 2d 386, 2003 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 1354 (M.D.N.C. 2003).

Where plaintiffs failed to respond to defendants' motion for summary judgment, under Local Rules 7.3(k) and this rule, the Court could find the motion to be uncontested and grant it without further notice, but because of plaintiffs' pro se status, the Court acted with an abundance of caution and examined the motion closely on its merits. Baraukas v. Danek Med., Inc., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2000 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5122 (M.D.N.C. Jan. 13, 2000).

VIII. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES

Rule LR65.1. Injunctions and temporary restraining orders.

(a) Form of application. A prayer for a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction set forth in a pleading will not bring the issue before the court prior to the time of trial. If a ruling before trial is desired, a party must separately file a motion and brief.

(b) Hearing. A motion seeking a preliminary injunction will be considered and determined on the official court file including affidavits, briefs and other documents filed in support thereof without oral argument or testimony unless otherwise ordered by the court. A request for leave to present oral argument or testimony in support of or in opposition to such motion must be included in the motion or response.

Rule LR65.1.1. Sureties.

(a) Surety. Except as otherwise provided by law or by order of the court, all bonds, guaranties, and undertakings must be secured by:

(1) Deposit of cash, certified check, certificate of deposit, bank draft, Post Office money order, negotiable bond, note of the United States as defined in 6 U.S.C. § 15, or other bond or note of the United States with the agreement provided for in 6 U.S.C. § 15;

(2) Undertaking of guaranty of a company holding a certificate of authority from the U.S. Department of Treasury as an acceptable surety on federal bonds; which company has filed with the clerk the designation of a resident of this district as agent, dated not more than three years earlier than the date of the undertaking, upon whom process may be served; and which company is otherwise qualified by having met all requirements of the law of North Carolina and of 6 U.S.C. §§ 6-13; or

(3) Undertaking of individual surety or sureties who are residents of North Carolina and own property within the state worth double the amount of the bond or undertaking over all exemptions, debts, liabilities and other obligations.

(b) Individual sureties.

(1) An individual surety must execute an affidavit of justification giving full name, occupation, residence address, business address, and facts showing his financial qualification to act as surety.

(2) A husband and wife are considered as one surety.

(3) Members of the bar, officers and employees of this court, and employees of the Department of Justice serving in this district may not serve as sureties in any suit, action, or proceeding in this court.

(c) Approval. All bonds, guaranties, undertakings, and individual sureties must be approved by a judge or the clerk. Individual sureties who justify on the basis of ownership of real or personal property may be required to provide proof of ownership such as a certificate of title, and a title search conducted by an attorney other than the attorney representing the party on whose behalf the bond is being posted, and give security in the form of a proper security instrument or deed of trust.

Rule LR67.1. Registry funds.

(a) Deposit with the Treasury. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the clerk shall deposit registry funds in the Treasury of the United States.

(b) Investments in income-earning account. Upon motion or upon consent of the parties, the court may order the clerk to invest certain registry funds in an income-earning account. The order may issue upon a consent request of the parties or upon motion by an interested party, in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) A consent request must demonstrate the assent of all interested and potentially interested parties. The agreement must demonstrate that the investment will be in compliance with applicable provisions of the law regulating the investment of public monies, provide for proper disposition of future earnings, and set out with particularity the following information:

(i) the form of deposit;

(ii) the amount to be invested;

(iii) the type of investment to be made by the clerk of court; i.e., passbook savings, insured money fund, CD, etc.;

(iv) the name and address of the private institution where the deposit is to be made;

(v) the rate of interest at which the deposit is to be made, if possible;

(vi) the length of time the money should be invested, whether it should automatically be reinvested, etc., keeping in mind that some investments include a penalty for early withdrawal;

(vii) the name and address of the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries;

(viii) the form of additional collateral to be posted by the private institution in the event that the standard F.D.I.C. coverage is insufficient to insure the total amount of deposit; and

(ix) such other information that may be deemed appropriate under the facts and circumstances of the particular case.

The consent request shall be accompanied by a proposed order directing the clerk to proceed with the investment.

(2) A motion may be filed ex parte by an interested party, and the court may enter an order in advance of the filing of any response thereto. The motion must set forth the showings required in subsection (b)(1) concerning the investment and must include a proposed order. The motion must be served on all known interested parties who do not join therein. The court may determine the motion upon the record or may, in its discretion, call for a hearing on the matter. If an order is entered prior to the filing of a response in opposition, the motion will be reconsidered by the court.

(3) When an order is issued to invest or reinvest registry funds into some form of interest-bearing account or accounts, the party presenting the order shall deliver a copy of said order either personally, or by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the Clerk, or in his absence, the Chief Deputy Clerk or the Financial Deputy. Further, it shall be incumbent upon the presenting party to confirm that the appropriate action has been accomplished by the Clerk in accordance with the provisions of the particular order.

(4) The clerk of court shall deduct from the income earned the fee specified in Chapter VII, Guide to Judiciary Policies and Procedures, for deposit to the credit of the Judiciary, without order of the court.

IX. SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

Rule LR72.1. Authority of magistrate judges.

(a) Designation to conduct trials and to perform other duties.

(1) Magistrate judges are authorized and designated to exercise the powers and authority and to perform the duties enumerated in 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) and (2).

(2) Magistrate judges serving this court are specially designated to:

(i) exercise civil jurisdiction to conduct any or all proceedings in jury or non-jury cases and order the entry of judgment in any case referred to them for that purpose, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), and

(ii) exercise jurisdiction to try persons accused of, and sentence persons convicted of, criminal misdemeanors.

(b) Authority to perform additional duties. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(3), magistrate judges are authorized to perform additional functions and duties, including the following:

(1) Conduct pretrial conferences, settlement conferences, omnibus hearings, and related pretrial proceedings;

(2) Conduct calendar and status calls for civil and criminal calendars, and determine motions to expedite or postpone the trial of cases;

(3) Conduct arraignments in cases not triable by the magistrate judge to the extent of taking a not guilty plea or noting a defendant's intention to plead guilty or nolo contendere and ordering a presentence report in appropriate cases;

(4) Conduct voir dire and select petit juries for the court;

(5) Accept petit jury verdicts in civil cases in the absence of a district judge;

(6) Conduct preliminary proceedings relating to the potential revocation of probation;

(7) Issue subpoenas, writs of habeas corpus ad testificandum or habeas corpus ad prosequendum, or other orders necessary to obtain the presence of parties or witnesses or evidence needed for court proceedings;

(8) Order the exoneration or forfeiture of bonds;

(9) Conduct proceedings for the collection of civil penalties of not more than $200 assessed under the Federal Boat Safety Act of 1971, in accordance with 46 U.S.C. § 1484(d);

(10) Conduct examinations of judgment debtors, in accordance with Rule 69 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;

(11) Review petitions in civil commitment proceedings under Title III of the Narcotic Addict Rehabilitation Act;

(12) Conduct such hearings as are necessary or appropriate, and submit to a district judge proposed findings of fact and recommendations for disposition of applications for judgment by default pursuant to Rule 55(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or motions to set aside judgments by default pursuant to Rule 55(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;

(13) Consider an application by complainant pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f)(1), and in such circumstances as may be deemed just, appoint an attorney for such complainant, and authorize the commencement of an action without payment of fees, costs, or giving security therefor;

(14) Issue orders or warrants authorizing acts necessary in the performance of the duties of administrative and regulatory agencies and departments of the United States Government;

(15) Conduct extradition proceedings, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3184;

(16) Supervise proceedings conducted pursuant to letters rogatory, in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1782;

(17) Require compliance with local rules with regard to pro se petitions under 42 U.S.C. § 1983;

(18) Issue orders of withdrawal from the court registry of funds pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2042; and

(19) Perform any additional duty which is not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States.

Rule LR72.2. Assignment of matters to magistrate judges.

Duties and cases may be assigned or referred to a magistrate judge by a court order entered in the action or by the clerk in compliance with standing orders or the instructions of a district judge.

Rule LR72.3. Consent to designation of magistrate judge as a special master.

(a) Consent. Upon the written consent of the parties, a magistrate judge may be designated to serve as a special master in any civil proceeding without a showing of exceptional conditions or that the issues are complicated.

(b) Reference. Reference of a case to a magistrate judge as a special master is within the discretion of the court, but the consent of the parties may not thereafter be withdrawn without approval of the referring district judge.

Rule LR72.4. Stay of order.

Application for stay of a magistrate judge's order pending review of objections made thereto must first be made to the magistrate judge.

Rule LR73.1. Consent to civil trial jurisdiction.

(a) Consent to exercise of civil trial jurisdiction.

(1) The consent of a party to the exercise of civil trial jurisdiction authorized in 28 U.S.C. § 636(c)(1) may be communicated to the clerk by letter, or by a form available in the clerk's office, signed by the party or the party's attorney.

(2) The consent of a party will be placed in the public court file only when the court has ordered the case referred to a magistrate judge.

(b) Withdrawal of consent. After a case has been referred, the consent of the parties to the exercise of a magistrate judge's jurisdiction may not be withdrawn without the approval of the district judge who signed the order of reference.

(c) Reference discretionary. Reference of a case to a magistrate judge after consent of all parties is within the discretion of the court.

X. DISTRICT COURTS AND CLERKS

Rule LR77.1. Court schedule and conduct of business.

(a) Headquarters. The headquarters of the court shall be located in Greensboro. All pleadings and papers submitted for filing shall be presented to the clerk in Greensboro, except that papers may be filed in open court in any court location when permitted by a judge.

(c) Scheduling. Conferences, hearings, and trials will be scheduled by the court or by the clerk at the court's direction. All sessions of court will commence at 9:30 a.m. unless otherwise announced.

(c) Naturalization. Petitions for naturalization will be considered by the court at Greensboro, North Carolina, on Fridays after the third Mondays in February, May, August, and on the Friday before Thanksgiving in November. In its discretion, the court may at other times consider petitions for naturalization when made by members of the armed services, seamen on merchant vessels registered under the laws of the United States, members of the immediate families and dependents of such personnel, or other persons in exceptional circumstances.

Rule LR77.2. Orders and judgments grantable by clerk.

(a) Orders and judgments. The clerk is authorized to grant the following orders and judgments without direction by the court:

(1) Consent orders for the substitution of attorneys.

(2) Upon a showing of good cause, consent orders in civil actions for extending for not more than 30 days (plus an additional 30 days in exceptional circumstances) the time within which to answer or otherwise plead or to respond to motions.

(3) Consent orders dismissing an action, except in cases governed by Fed.R.Civ.P. 23 or 66.

(4) Entry of default and judgment by default as provided for in Fed.R.Civ.P. 55(a) and 55(b)(1).

(5) Orders canceling liability on bonds other than orders disbursing funds from the court's registry account.

(6) Orders appointing persons to serve process pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 4(c).

(7) Ex parte orders as authorized in LR7.3(g). Applications for extensions of time, orders or judgments shall be accompanied by a proposed order.

(b) Clerk's action reviewable. The actions of the clerk may be suspended, altered, or rescinded by the court upon cause shown.

Rule LR77.3. Court libraries.

The court's libraries are maintained for the exclusive use of the judges and the clerk.

Rule LR79.1. Access to court records.

(a) Access. The public records of the court are available for examination in the clerk's office during normal business hours.

(1) No file, pleading, paper, or index card may be removed from the clerk's office without the approval of a judge.

(2) When removal of a file or document is authorized, the clerk will set a date for its return and will require a written receipt for its release.

(b) Copies. The clerk will make and furnish copies of official court records upon request and upon payment of prescribed fees. The official court record consists of items filed on the right-hand side of the case folder. Items filed on the left-hand side of the case folder, while available for public examination, may not be copied without the written approval of a judge. Requests for copies of items filed on the left-hand side of the case folder must be submitted in writing to the clerk of court, who will refer the matter to the appropriate judge and advise the requester of the judge's decision.

Rule LR79.2. Release of information by court personnel.

All court personnel, including, among others, the United States Marshal and deputies, the clerk of court and deputies, the chief probation officer and officers, the chief pretrial services officer and officers, bailiffs, and court reporters, are prohibited from disclosing to any person, without authorization by the court, information relating to a case that is not part of the public records of the court. This proscription applies to the divulgence of information concerning arguments and hearings held in chambers or otherwise outside the presence of the public.

Rule LR79.3. Designation of contents of record on interlocutory appeal.

With respect to an interlocutory appeal, the clerk shall certify and forward to the court of appeals a record consisting of copies of the docket entries, all pleadings (complaints, counterclaims, cross claims, and answers thereto), and the order from which the appeal is taken.

Rule LR80.1. Official court reporters.

The duties and responsibilities of official court reporters of this court are set forth in the Court Reporters Management Plan which is a public document on file with the office of the clerk.

XI. LOCAL CIVIL RULES FOR WHICH THERE ARE NO CORRESPONDING FEDERAL RULES

Rule LR83.1. Attorneys.

(a) Roll of attorneys. The bar of this court shall consist of those attorneys admitted to practice before this court.

(b) Eligibility and admission. To be eligible for admission to the bar of the court, a person must be admitted to the practice of law in this state and in good standing with the Supreme Court of North Carolina. A judge will consider a request for admission only upon motion made in open court by a member of the bar of this court. Prior to being admitted to practice, an attorney must certify, on the application for admission to practice form provided for use in this court, that the attorney has read and is familiar with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Federal Rules of Evidence, the Local Rules of this Court, and the North Carolina Code of Professional Responsibility. Attorneys seeking admission to practice in this court must take an oath or make an affirmation in a form approved by the court and pay the filing fee required by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts for admission to practice in this district. When the application form prescribed for use by this court is completed and the appropriate filing fee has been paid to the Clerk of Court of this court, a judge or magistrate judge of the Eastern or Western Districts of North Carolina, upon being presented evidence that the above-mentioned application has been filed and that the requisite fees have been paid, may admit an attorney who is qualified according to these rules to practice before this court. Attorneys already admitted to the bars of either the United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina or the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina may be admitted to the bar of this court upon tendering the application and fees required by this rule, together with a copy of the order admitting the attorney to practice in either of the aforementioned districts.

(c) Litigants must be represented by a member of the bar of this court.

(1) Litigants in civil and criminal actions and parties in bankruptcy proceedings before this court, except governmental agencies and parties appearing pro se, must be represented by at least one attorney who is a member of the bar of this court. The service of all pleadings and papers permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure shall be sufficient if made upon such attorney.

(2) All pleadings and papers presented to the clerk for filing, except by attorneys representing governmental agencies or parties appearing pro se, shall be rejected by the clerk unless signed by a member of the bar of this court.

(d) Special appearance.

(1) Attorneys who are members in good standing of the bar of the highest court of any state or the District of Columbia may practice in this court for a particular case in association with a member of the bar of this court. By entering an appearance, an attorney agrees that:

(i) the attorney will be responsible for ensuring the presence of an attorney who is familiar with the case and has authority to control the litigation at all conferences, hearings, trials and other proceedings; and that

(ii) the attorney submits to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the court for any misconduct in connection with the litigation for which the attorney is specially appearing.

(2) A member of the bar of this court who accepts employment in association with a specially appearing attorney is responsible to this court for the conduct of the litigation or proceeding and must sign all pleadings and papers, except for certificates of service. Such member must be present during pretrial conferences, potentially dispositive proceedings, and trial.

(e) Withdrawal of appearance. No attorney who has entered an appearance in any civil or criminal action shall be permitted to withdraw an appearance, or have it stricken from the record, except on order of the court.

Rule LR83.2. Courtroom practices.

(a) Addressing the court. Attorneys or pro se litigants shall rise when addressing the court, and shall make all statements to the court from behind the counsel table or the lectern facing the court. They shall not approach the bench, except upon the permission of the court.

(b) Questioning witnesses. While questioning witnesses, attorneys or pro se litigants shall remain seated or standing behind the counsel table or standing at the lectern. They shall not approach the witness except for the purpose of examining the witness with respect to an exhibit. Only one attorney for each party may participate in the examination or cross-examination of a witness.

Rule LR83.3. Settlement.

Attorneys or pro se litigants shall immediately notify the clerk of an agreement in principle reached by the parties which resolves the litigation as to any or all parties. Whenever any civil action scheduled for a jury trial is settled or otherwise disposed of in advance of the actual trial, then, except for good cause shown, all jury costs, including any marshal's fees, mileage and per diem, may be assessed equally against the parties or otherwise assessed as determined by the court, unless the clerk's office is notified at least one full business day prior to the date on which the action is scheduled for trial or in sufficient time to notify jurors that their presence will not be required.

Rule LR83.4. Sanctions.

(a) Imposition of sanctions. If an attorney or a party fails to comply with a local rule of this court, the court may impose sanctions against the attorney or party, or both. The court may make such orders as are just under the circumstances of the case, including the following:

(1) an order that designated matters or facts shall be taken as established for purposes of the action;

(2) an order refusing to allow the failing party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting the party from introducing designated matters in evidence;

(3) an order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying proceedings until the rule is complied with, or dismissing the action or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the failing party;

(4) an order imposing costs, including attorney's fees, against the party, or the party's attorney, who has failed to comply with a local rule.

(b) Sanctions within the discretion of the court. The imposition of sanctions for violation of a local rule is discretionary with the court. In considering the imposition of sanctions, the court may consider whether a party's failure was substantially justified or whether other circumstances make the imposition of sanctions inappropriate.

CASE NOTES

Disqualification Sanction Not Necessary. — Ethical violations of plaintiff's out-of-state law firm were relatively minor, inasmuch as not all ex parte contacts with defendant's employees were improper and defendants did not suffer any harm; therefore, the disqualification sanction was not necessary to vindicate the public interest in preventing overreaching by counsel or to restore public confidence. McCallum v. CSX Transp., Inc., 149 F.R.D. 104 (M.D.N.C. 1993).

Rule LR83.5. Custody and disposition of trial exhibits, sealed documents, and filed depositions.

(a) Custody with the clerk. Unless otherwise directed by the court, all trial exhibits admitted into evidence in criminal and civil actions shall be placed in the custody of the clerk, except as provided in section (b) below.

(b) Custody with the offering party. All exhibits not suitable for filing and transmission to the court of appeals as a part of a record on appeal shall be retained in the custody of the party offering them, subject to the orders of the court. Such exhibits shall include, but not be limited to, the following types of bulky or sensitive exhibits: narcotics and other controlled substances, firearms, ammunition, explosive devices, jewelry, liquor, poisonous or dangerous chemicals, money or articles of high monetary value, counterfeit money, and documents or physical exhibits of unusual bulk or weight.

At the conclusion of a trial or proceeding, the party offering such exhibits shall retain custody of them and be responsible to the court for preserving them in their condition as of the time admitted until any appeal is resolved or the time for appeal has expired. The party retaining custody shall make such exhibits available to opposing counsel for use in preparation of an appeal and be responsible for their safe transmission to the appellate court, if required.

(c) Disposition of exhibits, sealed documents, and filed depositions by clerk. Any exhibit, sealed document, disk, or filed deposition in the clerk's custody more than 30 days after the time for appeal, if any, has expired, or an appeal has been decided and mandate received, may be returned to the parties or destroyed by the clerk. Complaints, answers, motions, responses and replies, whether sealed or not, must be forwarded to the General Services Administration for permanent storage. The confidentiality of sealed documents cannot be assured after the case file is transferred to the General Services Administration for records holding.

(d) Depositions. Depositions read into the court record are considered exhibits for which the parties shall be responsible as provided in section (b) above. Depositions on file admitted into evidence but not read into the record shall be retained in the clerk's custody and disposed of as authorized in section (c) of this rule.

Rule LR83.6. Disposition of private property.

(a) Disposition. Whenever, during the course of an investigation, a trial of any action, or any other proceeding in this court, money, contraband, or other private property comes into the possession or custody of a law enforcement officer or an officer of the court, which will require an order of this court to determine its ownership or proper disposition, it is the responsibility of the attorney representing the party having original custody or control of such property to apply to the court for an order determining its ownership and directing its disposition.

(1) This application must be made before the conclusion of the litigation while all parties are before the court in person or through their attorneys.

(2) If the court cannot determine ownership or the proper disposition on the basis of the record or information from the parties before it, application must be made for an order providing for temporary custody pending institution of appropriate civil proceedings to determine final ownership or disposition.

(b) Sanctions. The court may impose sanctions as provided in LR83.4 against any party or attorney whose failure to comply with this rule necessitates a subsequent hearing or court proceeding which would otherwise not have been necessary.

Rule LR83.7. Claim of unconstitutionality; three-judge courts.

(a) Notification. If at any time prior to the trial of an action to which (1) neither the United States nor any of its officers, agencies, or employees is a party and a party draws in question the constitutionality of an act of Congress affecting the public interest, or (2) neither the state nor any of its agencies, officers, or employees is a party and a party draws in question the constitutionality of any statute of that state affecting the public interest, that party, to enable the court to comply with 28 U.S.C. § 2403, shall notify the court. The notice shall be in writing, stating the title of the action, the statute in question, and the respects in which it is claimed the statute is unconstitutional, and a copy shall be served upon the Attorney General of the United States and the United States Attorney in this district or the North Carolina Attorney General, as applicable.

(b) Additional copies. In any action or proceeding required by act of Congress to be heard and determined by a district court of three judges, all pleadings, papers, and documents filed subsequent to the designation of the court, as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 2284(a), shall be filed in triplicate, original and two copies, with the clerk. The clerk shall make timely distribution of these documents to the designated judges.

Rule LR83.8. Photographs, recordings, and broadcasts.

Radio or television broadcasting and the use of photographic, electronic, or mechanical reproduction or recording equipment without court permission is prohibited in courtrooms or their environs. "Environs" is defined to mean the courtrooms, the offices of the judges, clerk, probation officers, or any corridor connecting or adjacent thereto. Ceremonial proceedings such as the administration of oaths of office to appointed officials of the court, naturalization, and presentation of portraits, may be photographed in or broadcast from the courtroom under the supervision of the court. This rule does not apply to courtroom proceedings by other government agencies.

Rule LR83.9. Courtroom security.

The United States Marshal or a Court Security Officer shall be present at all proceedings held in open court, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Rule LR83.10a. Purpose of mediated settlement conferences.

These rules govern reference of selected civil actions for mediated settlement conferences. Their purpose is to provide for an informal process conducted by a mediator with the objective of helping the parties reach a mutually acceptable settlement of their dispute. The rules are not intended to force settlement upon any party. The rules shall be construed to secure the speedy, fair, and economical resolution of controversies while preserving the right of all parties to a conventional trial.

CASE NOTES

Legal analysis in deciding Rule 15 motions should not be materially different merely because a case involves court-annexed arbitration from which the parties may seek a trial de novo. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. v. Southern Ry., 110 F.R.D. 95 (M.D.N.C. 1986) (decided prior to the 1993 amendments).

In ruling on a motion to amend the pleadings made immediately before an arbitration hearing, the court should consider, with slightly reduced rigor, the factors of delay and prejudice, as are appropriate to a trial setting. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. v. Southern Ry., 110 F.R.D. 95 (M.D.N.C. 1986) (decided prior to the 1993 amendments).

Rule LR83.10b. Selection of cases for mediated settlement conferences.

(a) Automatic selection by these Rules. Several categories of civil cases are automatically selected for mediated settlement conferences, without specific order by the court. These categories include, according to designations on the civil cover sheet (1) contract [categories 110-140 and 160-195, specifically excluding 150-153], (2) tort [all categories, 310-385], (3) civil rights [all categories, 440-444], (4) labor [all categories, 710-791], (5) property rights [all categories, 820-840], (6) antitrust [category 410], (7) banks and banking [category 430], (8) securities/commodities/exchange [category 850], and (9) environmental matters [category 893]. The parties to these actions shall discuss mediation plans at the Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(f) meeting of the parties and report such plans in their Rule 26(f) Report in preparation for the entry of an initial pretrial order. See LR16.1(b)(c) and (d). Cases wherein the United States is a party or the plaintiff appears pro se are not included within this automatic selection for mediation.

(b) Discretionary selection by the court. In its discretion, the court may order a mediated settlement conference in any action not automatically selected under section (a), above. After entry of such an order, the parties shall have 20 days to file a statement identifying an agreed-upon mediator.

(c) Stipulated selection by the parties. In any case where selection for a mediated settlement conference is not automatic under section (a) of this rule, the parties may file a stipulation for mediation. In such stipulation, the parties may state any agreements they have reached regarding the identity of the mediator, the timing of the conference, and any modification of the procedures described by these rules.

(d) Exemption from mediation. Any party, or parties jointly, may file a motion for exemption from mediation. Such a motion will be granted only on a showing of good cause. A general assertion that a case is not likely to settle or that settlement possibilities are remote does not constitute good cause.

Rule LR83.10c. Mediators.

(a) Certification. The clerk shall maintain a list of mediators who have agreed to serve under these rules. The list shall identify areas of subject matter expertise of each mediator according to the categories identified in LR83.10b(a) and include such biographical information as each mediator may wish to provide. Attorneys who have been certified as mediators pursuant to the rules of the North Carolina Supreme Court and who have at least 8 years of civil trial practice or membership on the faculty of an accredited law school may serve on the panel of mediators. Further, attorneys who were on the court's panel of arbitrators as of December 1, 1993 may serve on the panel of mediators. Appointment to the list does not guarantee any mediator that he or she will be appointed to serve in any case before the court.

(b) Compensation of mediators. All mediators under these rules, whether agreed upon by the parties or selected by the clerk, shall be compensated by the parties at the hourly rate set by the Chief Judge, except that the court may permit a higher compensation rate to an agreed-upon mediator on joint application by the parties and a showing that the case involves extraordinary complexities. The parties shall make payment directly to the mediator at the termination of the mediated settlement conference, whether or not the case is settled. The mediator shall be compensated for up to 2 hours of preparation time and for the time expended in the conference. The only compensable expense of the mediator is travel mileage at the ordinary government rate. The mediator's fee and travel expense shall be paid in one equal share by the plaintiff (or plaintiffs), one equal share by the defendant (or defendants), and one equal share by any third party (or parties), unless otherwise agreed by all parties or ordered by the court in the interest of fairness.

(c) Compensation of mediators when a party is unable to pay. If a party contends it is unable to pay its share of the mediator's fee, that party shall, before the conference, file a motion with the court to be relieved of the obligation to pay. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit of financial standing. The mediated settlement conference should proceed without payment by the moving party, and the court will rule on the motion upon completion of the case. The court will take into consideration the outcome of the case, whether by settlement or judgment, and may relieve the party of its obligation to pay the mediator if payment would cause a substantial financial hardship. If the party is relieved of its obligation, the mediator shall remain uncompensated as to that portion of his or her fee, a circumstance that reflects the mediator's duty of pro bono service.

Rule LR83.10d. Selection of the mediator.

(a) Selection by agreement. The parties are encouraged to select their own mediator by agreement. If, within 20 days of the initial pretrial order, the parties file with the clerk a statement identifying an agreed-upon mediator, such statement shall be effective to select the mediator, and the clerk will notify the mediator of his or her selection. The parties may select an agreed-upon mediator who is not on the clerk's list of certified mediators, but any such mediator must, prior to service, agree to be bound by all provisions of these rules.

(b) Selection by the clerk. If no timely statement pursuant to section (a) of this rule is filed, the clerk shall appoint a mediator from the certified list. The appointment is within the discretion of the clerk, who may consider subject matter expertise in making the appointment. The clerk shall give notice of the appointment to the mediator and the parties.

(c) Disqualification. On motion made to the court not later than 20 days before a scheduled mediated settlement conference, a mediator may be disqualified by the court for bias or prejudice as provided in 28 U.S.C. §144. Further, a mediator shall disqualify himself or herself if the mediator could be required to do so under 28 U.S.C. § 455 if he or she were a justice, judge, or magistrate judge.

(d) Copies of the pleadings. On request of the mediator, the clerk shall furnish to the mediator a copy of the complaint, answer, and any third-party pleadings in the action.

Rule LR83.10e. Procedures for mediated settlement conferences.

(a) Time period for the mediated settlement conference. The mediated settlement conference shall be held during the discovery period unless the court specifically orders otherwise.

(b) Scheduling the mediated settlement conference. The mediated settlement conference shall ordinarily be held in the office of the mediator, but may be held at any other place agreed to by the parties and the mediator. Because of space limitations, the federal courthouses are not available for mediated settlement conferences. After conferring with the attorneys for the parties regarding scheduling matters, the mediator shall determine the place and time of the conference (within the period established by these rules), and give notice to the parties.

(c) Submission of position papers to mediator. No later than five (5) business days before the scheduled date of the mediated settlement conference, any party may submit a confidential position paper to the mediator. The position paper shall be limited in length to five (5) pages, double-spaced, and may be accompanied by up to five (5) pages of exhibits. Position papers are confidential, shall be held so by the mediator, and need not be served on other parties. The purpose of these submissions is to help the mediator become familiar with the assertions of the parties, and the parties may agree to the submission of additional information if they believe the information will facilitate the mediated settlement conference.

(d) Duties of parties, representatives, and attorneys. The following persons shall be physically present at the entire mediated settlement conference unless excused by the mediator:

(1) Individual parties; an officer, manager, or director of a corporate or entity party, such representative to have full authority to negotiate on behalf of the entity and to approve or recommend a settlement;

(2) At least one attorney of record for each represented party; and

(3) A representative of the insurance carrier for any party against whom a claim is made. The representative must have full authority to settle the claim and must be a person other than the carrier's outside counsel.

Upon reaching a settlement agreement at a mediated settlement conference, the parties shall forthwith reduce the agreement to writing and prepare a stipulation of dismissal or consent judgment for presentation to the court.

(e) Authority of the mediator. The mediator is authorized by these rules to exercise control over the mediated settlement conference and to direct all proceedings therein. The mediator is specifically authorized to meet or consult privately with any party or their counsel during the conference. The mediator may report in writing to the court, with copies to the parties, any conduct of any party that may be in violation of these rules for mediated settlement conferences.

(f) Duties of the mediator. At the beginning of the mediated settlement conference, the mediator shall describe the following matters to the parties:

(1) The process of mediation,

(2) The differences between mediation and other forms of conflict resolution,

(3) The costs of the mediated settlement conference,

(4) The fact that the mediated settlement conference is not a trial, the mediator is not a judge, and the parties retain their right to trial if they do not reach settlement,

(5) The circumstances under which the mediator may meet alone with either of the parties or any other person,

(6) The conditions under which communications with the mediator will be held in confidence during the conference,

(7) The inadmissibility of negotiating statements and offers at trial,

(8) The fact that the court will not permit parties in other litigations to conduct discovery regarding the mediation in this case,

(9) The duties and responsibilities of the mediator and the parties, and

(10) The fact that any agreement reached will be reached by mutual consent of the parties.

The mediator may recess or suspend the conference at any time and set a schedule for reconvening. It is the duty of the mediator to determine if an impasse has been reached or mediation should for any reason be terminated. He shall then inform the parties that mediation is terminated.

(g) Agreements to modify mediation procedures. By agreement filed with the court, the parties, with the consent of the mediator, may modify the mediation procedures described in these rules, except that the parties may not alter time limitations set by these rules or order of the court.

(h) Sanctions for failure to appear. If a person fails to attend a mediated settlement conference without good cause, the court may impose on that person (or any associated party) any lawful sanction, including, but not limited to, the imposing of the cost of attorney's fees, mediator's fees, and expenses of persons incurred in attending the conference.

CASE NOTES

Cited in Ashley Furn. Indus., Inc. v. SanGiacomo N.A. Ltd., 187 F.3d 363 (4th Cir. 1999).

Rule LR83.10f. Completion of the mediated settlement conference.

When the mediated settlement conference is completed, the mediator shall immediately submit to the clerk a report of the status of the case, on a form supplied by the clerk. If the case is resolved, it is the duty of the parties to file a stipulation of dismissal or consent judgment. If the case is not resolved, it proceeds without further order of the court in accordance with the local rules of the court.

Rule LR83.10g. Evaluation of the mediation program.

The mediation program established by these rules is experimental in nature and will be periodically reviewed by the court. For purposes of evaluation of the program, the mediator, the attorneys, and the litigants may be requested to complete confidential evaluation reports at the completion of the mediation. These reports shall be kept confidential by the clerk and shall be maintained in a file separate and apart from the case file. The clerk shall compile information from the evaluation reports to assist the court in determining the effectiveness of the mediation program.

Rule LR83.11a. Purpose of disciplinary rules.

The court, in furtherance of its inherent power and responsibility to supervise attorneys who practice before it, adopts these rules of disciplinary enforcement.

Rule LR83.11b. Attorneys convicted of a crime.

(a) Suspension upon filing of judgment. Upon the filing of a certified copy of a judgment of conviction demonstrating that any attorney practicing before the court has been convicted in any court of the United States, or the District of Columbia, or of any state, territory, commonwealth or possession of the United States, of a serious crime as herein defined, the court may enter an order immediately suspending that attorney from practice until final disposition of a disciplinary proceeding before this court, or until final disposition is made by the appropriate state bar.

(b) Definition of serious crime. "Serious crime" shall include any felony and also any other crime which involves false swearing, misrepresentation, fraud, willful failure to file income tax returns, deceit, bribery, extortion, misappropriation, theft, or an attempt or a conspiracy of solicitation of another to commit a "serious crime."

(c) Conviction of serious crime. Upon the filing of a certified copy of a judgment of conviction of an attorney for a serious crime, the court may refer the matter to counsel for institution of a disciplinary proceeding before the court, providing that a disciplinary proceeding so instituted will not be brought to final hearing until all appeals from the conviction are concluded. Alternatively, the court may refer the matter to the appropriate state bar.

(d) Conviction of other crime. Upon the filing of a certified copy of a judgment of conviction of an attorney for a crime not constituting a "serious crime," the court may refer the matter to counsel for whatever action counsel may deem warranted, including the institution of a disciplinary proceeding before the court. Alternatively, the court may refer the matter to the appropriate state bar. The court is not restricted from taking such other disciplinary action as is within the inherent authority of the court.

(e) Reinstatement after suspension. An attorney suspended under the provisions of this rule will be reinstated immediately upon the filing of a certificate demonstrating that the conviction of a serious crime has been reversed, but the reinstatement will not terminate any disciplinary proceeding then pending, the disposition of which shall be determined by the court on the basis of all available evidence pertaining to both guilt and the extent of discipline to be imposed.

Rule LR83.11c. Discipline imposed by another court or by a state bar.

(a) Duty to inform the clerk. Any attorney practicing before this court shall, upon being subjected to public discipline by any court or by the state bar of any state, promptly inform the clerk of such action.

(b) Show cause order. Upon the filing of a certified copy of a judgment or order demonstrating that an attorney has been disciplined by another court or by a state bar, this court shall forthwith issue a notice containing a copy of the judgment or order and an order to show cause directing that the attorney inform this court within 20 days why imposition of the identical discipline by this court would be unwarranted and the reasons therefor.

(c) Imposition of discipline. Upon expiration of 20 days from service of the show cause order, this court will presume the misconduct to have been established and will impose the identical discipline unless the attorney demonstrates that upon the face of the record upon which the discipline in another jurisdiction is predicated it clearly appears:

(1) that the attorney was deprived of due process; or

(2) that there was such an infirmity of proof that this court could not accept as final the conclusion on that subject; or

(3) that the imposition of the same discipline by this court would result in grave injustice; or

(4) that the misconduct established is deemed by this court to warrant substantially different discipline. Where this court determines that any of said elements exist, it shall enter such order as it deems appropriate. The grant of a stay of discipline by the other jurisdiction shall constitute grounds for a similar grant by this court.

Rule LR83.11d. Disbarment on consent or resignation in another court or before a state bar.

Any attorney practicing before this court who shall be disbarred on consent or resign from the bar of any court or state while an investigation into allegations of misconduct is pending, shall promptly inform the clerk, and upon the filing with this court of a certified copy of the judgment or order accepting such disbarment on consent or resignation, shall cease to be permitted to practice before this court.

Rule LR83.11e. Standards for professional conduct.

(a) Disciplinary enforcement. For misconduct defined in these rules, and after notice of an opportunity to be heard, any attorney practicing before this court may be disbarred, suspended from practice, reprimanded, or subjected to such other disciplinary action as the circumstances may warrant.

(b) Standards for conduct. Acts or omissions by an attorney practicing before this court which violate the Code of Professional Responsibility adopted by this court shall constitute misconduct and shall be grounds for discipline, whether or not the act or omission occurred in the course of an attorney-client relationship. The Code of Professional Responsibility adopted by this court is the Code of Professional Responsibility adopted by the Supreme Court of North Carolina, as amended from time to time by that state court, except as otherwise provided by a specific rule of this court.

Rule LR83.11f. Disciplinary proceedings.

(a) Referral of complaints to counsel or to a state bar. When allegations of misconduct by an attorney practicing before this court come to the attention of a judge of this court, whether by complaint or otherwise, the judge may refer the matter to counsel for investigation and the prosecution of a formal disciplinary proceeding or the formulation of such other recommendation as may be appropriate. Alternatively, the judge may refer the matter to the appropriate state bar. The court is not restricted from taking such other disciplinary action as is within the inherent authority of the court.

(b) Recommendation by counsel. Should counsel conclude after investigation that a formal disciplinary proceeding should not be initiated against the attorney, counsel shall file with the court a recommendation for disposition of the matter, whether by dismissal, admonition, or deferral and shall set forth the reasons for such recommendation.

(c) Initiation of disciplinary proceedings. To initiate formal disciplinary proceedings, counsel shall obtain an order of the court upon a showing of probable cause requiring the attorney to show cause within 20 days after service of the order why the attorney should not be disciplined.

(d) Hearing. Upon the attorney's answer to the order to show cause, if any issue of fact is raised or the attorney wishes to be heard, the court shall set the matter for prompt hearing.

Rule LR83.11g. Disbarment on consent while under disciplinary investigation or prosecution.

(a) Consent to disbarment. Any attorney practicing before this court who is the subject of an investigation into, or a pending proceeding involving, allegations of misconduct may consent to disbarment by delivering to this court an affidavit stating that the attorney desires to consent to disbarment and that:

(1) the attorney's consent is freely given,

(2) the attorney is aware of the pending investigation or proceeding,

(3) the attorney acknowledges the material facts of misconduct, and

(4) the attorney consents because the attorney knows that he or she could not defend successfully against charges of misconduct.

(b) Order of disbarment. Upon receipt of the required affidavit, this court shall enter an order disbarring the attorney.

(c) Record. The order disbarring the attorney on consent shall be a matter of public record. However, the affidavit required under the provisions of this rule shall not be publicly disclosed or made available for use in any other proceeding except upon order of this court.

Rule LR83.11h. Reinstatement.

(a) Automatic reinstatement; Reinstatement by order. An attorney suspended for 3 months or less shall be automatically reinstated at the end of the period of suspension upon filing with the court an affidavit of compliance with the provisions of the suspension order. An attorney suspended for more than three months or disbarred may not resume practice until reinstated by order of this court.

(b) Time for petition. An attorney who has been disbarred after hearing or by consent may not petition for reinstatement until the expiration of at least 5 years from the effective date of disbarment.

(c) Procedure. Petitions for reinstatement by a disbarred or suspended attorney under this rule shall be filed with the court. Upon receipt of the petition, the chief judge shall assign the matter for a prompt hearing before a judge (or judges) of the court and may, in the chief judge's discretion, refer the petition to counsel for investigation. The judge assigned to the matter shall schedule a hearing at which petitioner shall have the burden of demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that the attorney has the moral qualifications, competency, and learning of the law required for admission to practice law before this court, and that the attorney's resumption of the practice of law will not be detrimental to the integrity and standing of the Bar or the administration of justice or subversive of the public interest. In all proceedings upon a petition for reinstatement, cross-examination of the witnesses of the attorney and the submission of evidence, if any, in opposition to the petition shall be conducted by counsel if the matter has been referred to counsel by the court.

(d) Costs. Petitions for reinstatement under this rule shall be accompanied by an advanced cost deposit in an amount to be set from time to time by the court to cover anticipated costs of the reinstatement proceeding.

(e) Order of reinstatement. If the petitioner is found to be unfit to resume the practice of law, the petition shall be dismissed. If the petitioner is found to be fit to resume the practice of law, the judgment shall reinstate the petitioner, provided that the judgment may make reinstatement conditional upon the payment of all or part of the costs of the proceedings, and upon the making of partial or complete restitution to parties harmed by the petitioner whose conduct led to the suspension or disbarment. Provided further that if the petitioner has been suspended or disbarred for 5 years or more, reinstatement may be conditioned, in the discretion of the judge, upon the furnishing of proof of competency and learning in the law, which proof may include certification by the bar examiners of North Carolina of the attorney's successful completion of an examination for admission to practice subsequent to the date of suspension or disbarment.

(f) Successive petitions. No petition for reinstatement under this rule shall be filed within 1 year following an adverse judgment upon a petition for reinstatement filed by or on behalf of the same person.

Rule LR83.11i. Attorneys specially appearing.

Whenever an attorney appears for purposes of a particular proceeding, the attorney shall be deemed thereby to have conferred disciplinary jurisdiction upon this court for any alleged misconduct of that attorney arising in the course of or in preparation for such proceeding.

Rule LR83.11j. Service of papers and other notices.

Service of an order to show cause instituting a formal disciplinary proceeding shall be made by personal service or by registered or certified mail addressed to the attorney. Service of any other papers or notices required by these rules shall be deemed to have been made if such paper or notice is addressed to the attorney or to the attorney's counsel and is posted by regular mail.

Rule LR83.11k. Appointment of counsel.

Whenever counsel is to be appointed by these rules to investigate allegations of misconduct or to prosecute disciplinary proceedings or in conjunction with a reinstatement petition, the court may appoint as counsel the disciplinary agency of the Supreme Court of North Carolina or any other disciplinary agency having jurisdiction. Alternatively, the court may appoint as counsel one or more members of the Bar, provided, however, that the respondent-attorney may move to disqualify an attorney so appointed who is or who has been engaged as an adversary of the respondent-attorney in any manner. Counsel, once appointed, may not resign unless permission to do so is given by the court. Nothing in this rule limits the court's authority to refer any matter to the appropriate state bar for investigation, prosecution of disciplinary proceedings, or reinstatement.

Rule LR83.11l. Duties of the clerk.

(a) Obtaining certificate of conviction. Upon being informed that an attorney practicing before this court has been convicted of any crime, the clerk shall determine whether the clerk of the court in which such conviction occurred has forwarded a certificate of such conviction to this court. If certificate has not been so forwarded, the clerk shall promptly obtain a certificate and file it with this court.

(b) Obtaining certificate of disciplinary judgment or order. Upon being informed that an attorney practicing before this court has been subjected to discipline by another court or a state bar, the clerk shall determine whether a certified copy of the disciplinary judgment or order has been filed with this court, and, if not, the clerk shall promptly obtain a certified copy of the disciplinary judgment or order and file it with this court.

(c) Clerk to inform other jurisdictions. Whenever it appears that any attorney convicted of any crime, disbarred, suspended, censured, or disbarred on consent by this court is admitted to practice law in any other jurisdiction or before any other court, the clerk shall, within 10 days of that conviction, disbarment, suspension, censure, or disbarment on consent, transmit to the disciplinary authority in such other jurisdiction, or for such other court, a certificate of the conviction or a certified copy of the judgment or order of disbarment, suspension, censure, or disbarment on consent, as well as the last known office and residence addresses of the attorney.

(d) Clerk to inform the National Discipline Data Bank. The clerk shall, likewise, promptly notify the National Discipline Data Bank operated by the American Bar Association of any order imposing public discipline upon any attorney practicing before this court.

Rule LR83.11m. Jurisdiction.

Nothing contained in these rules shall be construed to deny to this court such powers as are necessary for the court to maintain control over proceedings conducted before it, such as proceedings for contempt under Title 18 of the United States Code or under Rule 42 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure or other sanctions under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or these Local Rules.

PART II. LOCAL RULES OF CRIMINAL PRACTICE

I. SCOPE, PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION

II. PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS

III. INDICTMENT AND INFORMATION

IV. ARRAIGNMENT AND PREPARATION FOR TRIAL

Rule LCrR12.1. Pretrial motions in criminal cases.

(a) Time for filing. The time for filing pretrial motions and responses thereto shall be set by the court at arraignment in all cases in which a defendant pleads not guilty.

(b) Extensions of time for filing. Motions for an extension of time to file pretrial motions must be made within the time set for the filing of motions and will be granted only upon a showing of good cause for delay.

(c) Motions adopting other motions. Motions adopting motions filed by codefendants must clearly identify by character and date of filing the motions adopted. General adoptions which do not identify specifically the motions adopted may be summarily denied by the court.

Rule LCrR16.1. Discovery motions.

Discovery motions filed by a defendant who is represented by counsel must include a statement that counsel has fully reviewed the government's case file before bringing the motion or a statement that such file is not available for counsel's review. The filing of a discovery motion which does not include such certification may cause the court to deny the motion, to disapprove payment to court-appointed counsel in regard to a motion made unnecessary by examination of the file, or to impose other sanctions under LCrR57.3 in the discretion of the court.

V. VENUE

Rule LCrR24.1. Juries.

(a) Examination of jurors.

(1) The court will conduct the examination of prospective jurors.

(2) When the court's examination is completed, attorneys and parties appearing pro se may request that the court ask additional questions to the prospective jurors.

(b) Contacts prohibited.

(1) All parties, witnesses, and attorneys shall avoid any extra-judicial contact or communication with a grand juror or member of a petit jury venire or panel who has been or may be selected in a case in which that person is involved. No person may have any extra-judicial contact or communication, either directly or indirectly, with a grand juror, member of a petit jury venire or panel which may reasonably have the effect of influencing, or which is intended to influence, the grand juror, potential petit juror, or sitting petit juror.

(2) Attorneys for parties shall inform their clients and witnesses of this rule.

(3) No person shall approach a juror, either directly or through any member of his immediate family, in an effort to secure information concerning the juror's background.

(4) No provision of this rule is intended to prohibit communication with a petit juror after the juror has been dismissed from further service, so long as the communication does not tend to harass, humiliate, or intimidate the juror in any fashion.

(c) Disclosure of names and addresses of prospective jurors.

(1) The names of prospective jurors for any session of court or for a specific case may not be disclosed prior to their reporting for duty except in compliance with instructions of the court. The clerk will make available to counsel for the parties, and to any parties appearing pro se, a list which sets forth the name, general address, and occupation of each potential juror when court is opened for the session for which the jurors have been summoned.

(2) The names, address, and telephone numbers of persons who have served as jurors may not be disclosed by the clerk's office without court permission.

Rule LCrR26.1. Documents, other than exhibits, used at trial.

When counsel expects to examine or cross-examine a witness concerning a document which will not be offered as an exhibit, counsel shall have at trial a copy of the document for use by the judge.

Rule LCrR30.1. Instructions to the jury.

In all cases tried to a jury, a party who desires the jury to be instructed on a particular point must set it out in writing and furnish it to the court before jury arguments commence.

VI. TRIAL

VII. JUDGMENT

Rule LCrR32.1. Sentencing recommendations by probation officers.

Any sentencing recommendation made to the court by a probation officer is for the judge's use only and shall not be disclosed to the parties at any time.

VIII. STAY OF EXECUTION

IX. SUPPLEMENTARY AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

X. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule LCrR44.1. Representation of certain defendants.

The Court's Plan for Furnishing Representation and Services to defendants who are financially unable to obtain an adequate defense, pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act of 1964, as amended, is a public document available through the office of the clerk of this court. The court's plan as it now exists and as it is hereinafter amended shall have the same force and effect as a local rule of this court. When deemed appropriate by the court, the court may appoint an attorney to represent a defendant even though such attorney's name does not appear on the panel of attorneys drawn pursuant to the plan.

Rule LCrR50.1. Prompt disposition of criminal cases.

The Court's Plan for Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases in compliance with Rule 50(b) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Speedy Trial Act of 1974 (18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq.), and the Federal Juvenile Delinquency Act (18 U.S.C. §§ 5036, 5037), as approved by the Judicial Council, is a public document available through the office of the clerk of this court. The Court's Plan for the Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases as it now exists and as it is hereafter amended and approved by the Judicial Council shall have the same force and effect as a local rule of this court.

XI. LOCAL CRIMINAL RULES FOR WHICH THERE ARE NO CORRESPONDING FEDERAL RULES

Rule LCrR57.1. Incorporation of certain local rules of civil practice.

Local Rules of Civil Practice 1.1, 1.2, 6.1, 7.1, 7.2, 65.1.1, 72.1, 77.1, 77.3, 79.1, 79.2, 80.1, 83.1, 83.2, 83.5, 83.6, 83.8, 83.9, and 83.11a-m shall apply fully to criminal proceedings, and shall be interpreted consistent with the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and other Local Rules of Criminal Practice.

Rule LCrR57.2. Fair trial directives.

(a) Prohibited statements; Attorney's obligations.

(1) An attorney participating in or associated with a grand jury or other investigation of a criminal matter shall not make or participate in making any extrajudicial statement which a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and which does more than state without elaboration:

(i) Information contained in a public record.

(ii) That the investigation is in progress.

(iii) The general scope of the investigation including a description of the offense and, if permitted by law, the identity of the victim.

(iv) A request for assistance in apprehending a suspect or assistance in other matters and the information necessary thereto.

(v) A warning to the public of any dangers.

(2) An attorney associated with the prosecution or defense of a criminal case to be tried by a jury shall not make or participate in making any extrajudicial statement which a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication which relates to:

(i) The character, reputation, or prior criminal record (including arrests, indictments, or other charges of crime) of the accused.

(ii) The possibility of a plea of guilty to the offense charged or to a lesser offense.

(iii) The existence or contents of any confession, admission, or statement given by the accused or his refusal or failure to make a statement

(iv) The performance or results of any examinations or tests or the refusal or failure of the accused to submit to examinations or tests.

(v) The identity, testimony, or credibility of a prospective witness.

(vi) Any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused, the evidence, or the merits of the case.

(3) Section (a)(2) above does not preclude an attorney from announcing:

(i) The name, age, residence, occupation, and family status of the accused.

(ii) Any information necessary to aid in the apprehension of an accused or to warn the public of any dangers.

(iii) A request for assistance in obtaining evidence.

(iv) The identity of the victim of the crime.

(v) The fact, time, and place of arrest, resistance, pursuit, and use of weapons.

(vi) The identity of investigating and arresting officers or agencies and the length of the investigation.

(vii) The nature, substance, or text of the charge.

(viii) Quotations from or references to public records of the court in the case.

(ix) The scheduling or result of any step in the judicial proceedings.

(x) That the accused denies the charges.

(4) The foregoing provisions of this rule do not preclude an attorney from replying to charges of misconduct publicly made against the attorney or from participating in the proceedings of legislative, administrative, or other investigative bodies.

(b) Attorney's employees and associates. An attorney must exercise reasonable care to prevent employees and associates from making any extrajudicial statement which the attorney would be prohibited from making under this rule.

Rule LCrR57.3. Sanctions.

(a) Imposition of sanctions. If an attorney or a party fails to comply with a local rule of this court, the court may impose sanctions against the attorney or party, or both. The court may make such orders as are just under the circumstances of the case, including the following:

(1) an order that designated matters or facts shall be taken as established for purposes of the action;

(2) an order refusing to allow the failing party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting the party from introducing designated matters in evidence;

(3) an order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying proceedings until the rule is complied with, or dismissing the action or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the failing party;

(4) an order imposing costs, including attorney's fees, against the party, or the party's attorney, who has failed to comply with a local rule.

(b) Sanctions within the discretion of the court. The imposition of sanctions for violation of a local rule is discretionary with the court. In considering the imposition of sanctions, the court may consider whether a party's failure was substantially justified or whether other circumstances make the imposition of sanctions inappropriate.

PART III. LOCAL RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PRACTICE

Editor's note. — By letter dated September 19, 2003, the Local Rules Committee of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of North Carolina notified Bankruptcy Attorneys of proposed changes to the Local Bankruptcy Rules as follows:

"The Local Rules Committee is seeking public comment on proposed changes to the Local Bankruptcy Rules. All of the proposed changes relate to the Electronic Case Filing system that will soon be implemented in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of North Carolina. The comment period shall run for 30 days from the date of this letter [September 19, 2003]. Further announcement on these proposed rules shall be made after the conclusion of the 30 days and only after all comments are taken into consideration by the Committee. Comments should be addressed to: Local Rules Committee, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, P.O. Box 26100, Greensboro, NC 27420-6100 or ncmb_web@ncmb.uscourts.gov."

As of the date this publication went to press, the proposed changes to the Local Bankruptcy Rules had not gone into effect. To view the proposed changes in their entirety, see the website for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of North Carolina at www.ncmb.uscourts.gov/main.htm.

I. COMMENCEMENT OF CASE; PROCEEDINGS RELATING TO PETITION AND ORDER FOR RELIEF

Rule LBR1002-1. Petition — General.

Number of copies of petition required for filing. The following number of copies, together with the original, of a voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy petition shall be filed with the Bankruptcy Court:

For Chapter 7:	original and two copies
For Chapter 11:	corporation and partnership, original and five copies; individual, original and four copies
For Chapter 12:	original and three copies
For Chapter 13:	original and one copy

The copy requirements listed above include copies required for service on the Bankruptcy Administrator. They do not include any filed stamped copies for the debtor or the debtor's attorney.

Editor's note. — See http://www.ncmb.uscourts.gov.

NOTE

See also LBR5005-1 for return of "Filed" stamped copies of documents.

Rule LBR1004-1. Petition — Partnership.

Evidence of general partner's consent. Within 15 days of the filing of the petition, a written consent to the petition, which is signed by all general partners, shall be filed with the Bankruptcy Court.

NOTE

See also Federal Bankruptcy Rule 1004 for requirement that general partners consent to the petition.

Rule LBR1006-1. Fees — Installment payments.

(a) Chapter 13 cases. In a Chapter 13 case, a meeting of creditors called pursuant to Section 341 of the Bankruptcy Code shall not be concluded until the entire filing fee is paid.

(b) Chapter 7 cases. In a Chapter 7 case, a debtor shall not receive a discharge until the entire filing fee is paid.

Rule LBR1007-1. Lists, schedules, and statements.

(a) Corporate resolution. Within fifteen days of the filing of a voluntary bankruptcy petition by a corporation, the debtor shall file the original or a certified copy of the resolution of the debtor's board of directors authorizing the filing of the bankruptcy petition.

(b) Schedule of creditors. Any Schedule of Creditors containing more than five creditors should be alphabetized.

NOTE

See also LBR1007-2 for mailing matrix requirements.

Rule LBR1007-2. Mailing — List or matrix.

(a) Matrix required upon filing. As a requirement of filing, all voluntary Chapter 7, 11 and 12 petitions must be accompanied by an alphabetized matrix containing the names and addresses of all parties-in-interest, including the creditors and appropriate governmental agencies. The mailing matrix shall be submitted on a computer diskette as set forth in instructions provided by the Clerks Office.

(b) Matrix required upon Chapter 13 conversion. As a requirement of conversion by the debtor of a Chapter 13 case to any other bankruptcy relief chapter, the debtor must file, at the time of filing the motion for conversion, an alphabetized matrix containing the names and addresses of any additional creditors to be included in the bankruptcy case and/or any creditors not included under the Chapter 13 Plan. If there are five or more additional creditors, the matrix shall be submitted on a computer diskette as set forth in instructions provided by the Clerks Office.

NOTE

See also Local Bankruptcy Guide Section 4.1 for guidelines on creditors matrix, and Local Bankruptcy Guide Section 4.2 for guidelines on submission of matrix on diskette.

Rule LBR1009-1. Amendments to lists and schedules.

(a) Service of amendment to petition, list, schedule or statement in Chapter 7 and 11 cases. Any amendment to a petition, list, schedule (including Exemption Form 91-C) or statement in a Chapter 7 or 11 case shall be accompanied by a certificate of service in the form of a statement of the date and manner of service, and of the names and addresses of the persons served, certified by the person who made the service. All creditors and other parties in interest shall be notified of any amendment to the claim for property exemptions.

(b) Amendments to schedules or matrix to add new creditors. If an amendment adds additional creditors, the filer shall serve a copy of the Notice of Creditor's Meeting on all new creditors.

(c) Copies required for filing amendments. The number of copies required for filing an amendment to the petition shall be the same as the number of copies required for filing a petition pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 1002-1.

NOTE

Refer to the Bankruptcy Court Fee Schedule or contact the Bankruptcy Clerks Office to determine the amount of fee due for amending the schedule of creditors.

Rule LBR1020-1. Chapter 11 small business cases — General.

(a) Election to be considered a small business in a Chapter 11 reorganization case. In a Chapter 11 case, a debtor that is a small business under § 1121(e) of the Bankruptcy Code may elect to be considered a small business by filing a written statement of election no later than 60 days after the date of the order for relief or by such later date as the Bankruptcy Court, for cause, may fix.

(b) Approval of the disclosure statement.

(1) Conditional approval. If the debtor is a small business and has made timely election to be considered a small business in a Chapter 11 case, the Bankruptcy Court may, upon application of the plan proponent, conditionally approve a disclosure statement filed in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 3016. On or before conditional approval of the disclosure statement, the Bankruptcy Court shall

(A) fix a time within which the holders of claims and interests may accept or reject the plan;

(B) fix a time for filing objections to the disclosure statement;

(C) fix a date for the hearing on final approval of the disclosure statement to be held if a timely objection is filed; and

(D) fix a date for the hearing on confirmation.

(2) Application of Bankruptcy Rule 3017. If the disclosure statement is conditionally approved, Bankruptcy Rule 3017(a), (b), (c), and (e) do not apply. Notice of conditional approval of the disclosure statement shall be given in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and may be combined with notice of the hearing on confirmation of the plan. Objections to the disclosure statement shall be filed at any time before final approval of the disclosure statement or by an earlier date as the Bankruptcy Court may fix, transmitted to the Bankruptcy Administrator, and served on the debtor, the Trustee, any committee appointed under the Bankruptcy Code, and any other entity designated by the Bankruptcy Court.

II. OFFICERS & ADMINISTRATION; NOTICES; MEETINGS; EXAMINATIONS; ELECTIONS; ATTORNEYS AND ACCOUNTANTS

Rule LBR2002-1. Notice to creditors and other interested parties.

(a) Notice and hearing or period of objection. The period of notice and hearing or period of objection required by the Bankruptcy Court shall not be less then ten (10) days, unless Bankruptcy Rule 2002, other Bankruptcy Rule, or the Bankruptcy Court, for cause, otherwise provides.

(b) Filing request for notice in Chapter 13 cases. If a request to receive notice is made in a Chapter 13 case, a copy of the request shall be sent to the appropriate Chapter 13 Standing Trustee.

Rule LBR2004-1. Depositions & Examinations.

(a) Service of motions for examination under Rule 2004. Motions for examination under Rule 2004 shall be served upon the debtor, Trustee (if any), the party whose examination is requested, and any other party required to be served by the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy.

(b) Use of videotape for recording examinations. Only upon the consent of all parties will a motion for the use of videotape as the sole method for recording an examination be considered by the Bankruptcy Court.

NOTE

See also Local Bankruptcy Guide Section 6.5
for guidelines on 2004 examinations.

Rule LBR2007.1-1. Trustees and examiners (Ch. 11).

Election of trustee in a Chapter 11 case.

(a) Request for an election. A request to convene a meeting of creditors for the purpose of electing a Trustee in a Chapter 11 case shall be filed and transmitted to the Bankruptcy Administrator in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 5005 within the time prescribed by § 1104(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pending Bankruptcy Court approval of the person elected, a person appointed Trustee under § 1104(d) shall serve as Trustee.

(b) Manner of election and notice. An election of a Trustee under § 1104(b) of the Code shall be conducted in the manner provided in Bankruptcy Rules 2003(b)(3) and 2006. Notice of the meeting of creditors convened under § 1104(b) shall be given in the manner and within the time provided for notices under Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a). A proxy for the purposes of voting in the election may be solicited by a committee appointed under § 1102 of the Code and by any other party entitled to solicit a proxy under Bankruptcy Rule 2006.

(c) Application for approval of appointment and resolution of disputes. If it is not necessary to resolve a dispute regarding the election of the Trustee or if all disputes have been resolved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Bankruptcy Administrator shall promptly file an application for approval of the appointment of the elected person, except that the application does not have to contain names of parties in interest with whom the Bankruptcy Administrator has consulted. If it is necessary to resolve a dispute regarding the election, the Bankruptcy Administrator shall promptly file a report informing the Bankruptcy Court of the dispute. If no motion for the resolution of the dispute is filed within ten (10) days after such report is filed, the Bankruptcy Administrator will file a motion to approve the appointment of a Trustee.

Rule LBR2016-1. Compensation of professionals.

Chapter 11 quarterly fee applications. Any professional employed in a Chapter 11 case under § 327 of the Bankruptcy Code may file a motion to allow the filing of quarterly statements for interim allowance. Unless the Bankruptcy Court orders otherwise, the quarterly statements shall be filed on or before the 20th day of the month following the end of the calendar quarter for services rendered for the previous quarter. Absent Bankruptcy Court Order, any late filed statements shall be processed in the succeeding quarter.

NOTE

See also Local Bankruptcy Guide Section 8 for guidelines on employment of professionals.

Rule LBR2090-1. Attorneys — Admission to practice.

(a) Attorneys licensed in this judicial district. Except as otherwise provided herein, only those persons who are admitted to practice before the United States District Court for this judicial district will be allowed to practice before the Bankruptcy Court.

(b) Pro Hac Vice appearance.

(1) Any attorney who is a member in good standing of the bar of any District Court of the United States other than the Middle District of North Carolina, may, upon written motion and in the discretion of the Bankruptcy Court, appear and participate pro hac vice in any case or proceeding without general admission before this Bankruptcy Court if:

(A) the movant requesting to appear pro hac vice must file a written motion containing the following:

1. The movant's name, residence, office address and telephone number, and state bar number;

2. The courts to which the movant has been admitted to practice and the respective dates of admission;

3. A statement by the movant of the good standing to practice before the courts to which the movant has been admitted;

4. Whether the movant has been disciplined by any court or administrative body, and if disciplinary proceedings are pending, the details of such proceedings, and whether the movant resigned while disciplinary proceedings were pending;

5. A list of case names and numbers for the three years preceding the application in which the movant has filed for permission to appear pro hac vice before any court within the state of North Carolina;

6. A statement certifying that the movant has read and is familiar with the Local Bankruptcy Rules, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Federal Rules of Evidence; and

(B) such privilege is not abused by frequent or regular appearances in separate cases to such a degree as to constitute the maintenance of a regular practice of law in the Middle District.

(2) Any attorney seeking to be admitted to practice pursuant to the provisions of this Rule shall attach a proposed order to the application and shall specifically provide therein that "this order shall not be considered admission to practice generally before this Bankruptcy Court or the United States District Court."

(c) Attorney representation of debtor. Any attorney who represents a debtor in a bankruptcy case shall remain the responsible attorney of record for all purposes including the representation of the debtor in all matters in the case (including, but not limited to, adversary proceedings and all contested matters) until the case is closed or the attorney is relieved from representation upon motion and Bankruptcy Court order.

(d) Government representation. Any attorney who is an employee of a government agency may represent that governmental agency before the Bankruptcy Court.

NOTE

See also LBR9011-2 for appearances of pro se parties.

Rule LBR2090-2. Attorneys — Discipline and Disbarment.

(a) Standards of conduct. Acts or omissions by an attorney practicing before this court which violate the Rules of Professional Conduct adopted by this court shall constitute misconduct and shall be grounds for discipline, whether or not the act or omission occurred in the course of an attorney-client relationship. The Rules of Professional Conduct adopted by this court are the Revised Rules of Professional Conduct of the North Carolina State Bar adopted by the Supreme Court of North Carolina, as amended from time to time by that state court, except as otherwise provided by a specific rule of this court.

(b) Disciplinary enforcement. For misconduct as defined in these rules, and after notice and an opportunity to be heard, any attorney practicing before this court may be disbarred, suspended from practice, reprimanded, or subjected to such other disciplinary action as the circumstances may warrant.

(c) Duty to inform the clerk. Any attorney practicing before this court shall, upon being subjected to public discipline by any court or by the state bar of any state, promptly inform the clerk of such action.

(d) Referral of complaints to counsel or to a state bar. When allegations of misconduct by an attorney practicing before this court come to the attention of a judge of this court, whether by complaint or otherwise, the judge may refer the matter to counsel for investigation and the prosecution of a formal disciplinary proceeding or the formulation of such other recommendation as may be appropriate. Alternatively, the judge may refer the matter to the appropriate state bar. The court is not restricted from taking such other disciplinary action as is within the inherent authority of the court.

(e) Referral to counsel. Should the judge decide to refer a disciplinary matter to counsel for investigation and the prosecution of a formal disciplinary proceeding, the proceeding shall be referred and shall proceed and be conducted as set forth in Rule 83.11 of the Local Rules of the United States District Court for this judicial district.

(f) Attorneys specially appearing. Whenever an attorney appears in this court for purposes of a particular proceeding, the attorney shall be deemed thereby to have conferred disciplinary jurisdiction upon this court for any alleged misconduct of that attorney arising in the course of or in the preparation for such proceeding.

(g) Jurisdiction. Nothing contained in these rules shall be construed to deny to this court such powers as are necessary for the court to maintain control over proceedings conducted before it, such as proceedings for contempt or other sanctions under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, these local rules or other applicable law.

III. CLAIMS AND DISTRIBUTION TO CREDITORS AND EQUITY INTEREST HOLDERS; PLANS

Rule LBR3001-1. Claims and equity security interests — General.

(a) Transfer of claim with waiver. If the Clerks Office's standard form titled "NOTICE OF TRANSFER OF CLAIM AND WAIVER OF NOTICE" is signed by the attorney for the transferor, the transfer is deemed completed upon the filing of the notice.

(b) Transfer of claim with no waiver. Every transfer of claim shall contain the following information:

(1) the transferor's specific name and address of record in the case;

(2) the transferee's name and address;

(3) the amount of the claim being transferred as listed on the proof of claim;

(4) the claim or account number being transferred;

(5) whether a proof of claim has been filed by the transferor or transferee or deemed filed pursuant to § 1111(a) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(6) whether the transfer is unconditional; and

(7) if the transfer is not unconditional, whether the transfer was made for security purposes (for example, a transfer made as collateral on a loan).

The above information shall be included in a separate document for each claim. The original and at least two copies of each transfer must be submitted. A Notice of Transfer with the transferor's address of record in the case shall be submitted with the original and each copy.

NOTE

See also Local Bankruptcy Guide Section 6.6 for guidelines on filing objections to claims.

Rule LBR3002-1. Place of filing claims.

(a) Filing claims in Chapter 13. Proofs of claim in Chapter 13 cases shall be filed in duplicate directly with the office of the Standing Trustee to whom the case is assigned. The address of the proper Standing Trustee will be shown on the notice of creditors' meeting. Claims will be dated and stamped as "received" as of the date they arrive in the Standing Trustee's office, and the claim shall be deemed filed with the Bankruptcy Court as of that date.

(b) Filing claims in Chapter 7, 11 and 12 cases. Unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, proofs of claim in Chapter 7, 11 and 12 cases shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court.

(c) Return of filed stamped copies of claims. Any person desiring return of a "Filed" stamped office copy of a claim filed must provide an extra copy of the claim plus a self-addressed envelope with sufficient return postage.

NOTE

See also LBR9007-1 for service of pleadings on the Bankruptcy Administrator.

Rule LBR3003-1. Chapter 11 claims.

(a) Period for filing Chapter 11 claims. In a Chapter 11 case, an entity other than a governmental unit shall file a proof of claim (if required to be filed) within ninety (90) days after the date first set for the meeting of creditors called pursuant to Section 341(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise specified by order of the Bankruptcy Court.

(b) Debtor notification of Chapter 11 creditor of disputed, contingent or unliquidated claim. In Chapter 11 cases, the debtor shall notify each creditor whose claim is listed on the schedules as contingent, disputed or unliquidated of that fact within fifteen (15) days after filing the schedules, or within fifteen (15) days after the addition of such creditor to the schedules. Within three (3) days after service has been made, the debtor shall mail a certificate of service to the Bankruptcy Clerk's Office. Failure to timely notify a creditor that its claim is listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated shall result in the creditor's claim being deemed filed in the amount listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated, as though a proof of claim had been filed by the creditor.

Rule LBR3018-1. Ballots — Voting on plans.

Unless otherwise ordered, all original ballots shall be returned directly to the Bankruptcy Clerks Office by the voting parties. Any proponent of a plan shall file a summary of ballots as they appear in the Bankruptcy Court record. The summary shall be filed with the Bankruptcy Clerk not later than 3 business days prior to the hearing on confirmation unless otherwise set by the Bankruptcy Court.

IV. THE DEBTOR: DUTIES AND BENEFITS

Rule LBR4001-1. Automatic stay — Relief from.

(a) Lifting of stay upon abandonment. In Chapter 7, 11, 12 and 13 cases, the abandonment of property pursuant to Section 554 of the Bankruptcy Code shall have the effect of lifting the automatic stay (of Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code) with respect to the property abandoned.

(b) Secured creditor inquiry with Chapter 13 debtor. In Chapter 13 cases, affected allowed secured creditors may inquire of the debtor in writing of the following:

1. the status of insurance coverage on property used as collateral;
2. whether insurance premiums are paid directly by the debtor;
3. the location, inspection, and appraisal of the collateral; and
4. the status of direct payments.

Copies of all inquiries shall be sent to the debtor's attorney and the Chapter 13 Standing Trustee.

(c) Taxing authority actions authorized. In Chapter 7 and 13 cases, the Internal Revenue Service and the North Carolina Department of Revenue are authorized:

1. To assess tax liability shown on voluntarily filed returns and other agreed-to-tax liabilities;

2. To offset any refund due a debtor in a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 case against any allowed, secured or priority tax due the United States Government or the State of North Carolina provided promptly upon receipt of the refund the taxing authority shall file an amended proof of claim; and

3. To make income tax refunds, in the ordinary course of business, directly to the debtor unless otherwise directed by the Bankruptcy Court or otherwise instructed in writing by the Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 Trustee.

NOTE

See also Local Bankruptcy Guide Section 6.3 for guidelines on filing motions for relief from stay.

Rule LBR4003-1. Exemptions.

Each debtor who is an individual in a Chapter 7 case shall file any claim for exempt property pursuant to Section 522(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code on Local Form #91-C, which form is available from the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court; the debtor's filing of Local Form #91-C must be referenced in Schedule "C" of the debtor's schedules.

Rule LBR4008-1. Reaffirmation.

Reaffirmation Agreements. Reaffirmation Agreements shall be filed on Form B240 as it has been altered to conform with North Carolina state law.

V. COURTS AND CLERKS

Rule LBR5005-1. Filing papers — Requirements.

(a) Filing of papers with the Bankruptcy Clerk's Office. All pleadings (including, but not limited to, complaints, answers, motions and applications), and all prepared orders, shall be tendered by the party submitting such document to the Bankruptcy Clerks Office, and not to the Bankruptcy Judge.

(b) Return of filed stamped copies. Any person desiring return of a "Filed" stamped office copy of a document filed must provide an extra copy of the document plus a self-addressed envelope with sufficient return postage.

Rule LBR5010-1. Reopening cases.

A party seeking to reopen a case for purposes not related to the debtor's discharge, shall file a motion with the court and shall give twenty days notice to all parties-in-interest. The motion shall be served upon the Bankruptcy Administrator, the previously appointed trustee, and any party being added, if any, as a creditor or party-in-interest in the case. The motion shall be accompanied by the appropriate fee to reopen the case, a notice containing the hearing date as obtained from the court and proof of service. The motion shall also state that any objections to reopening the case must be filed at least three days prior to the hearing.

Rule LBR5011-1. Withdrawal of Reference.

(a) Form of request; place for filing. A request for withdrawal, in whole or in part, of the reference of a case or proceeding referred to the Bankruptcy Court, other than a sua sponte request by a bankruptcy judge, shall be by motion filed with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court. All such motions shall be accompanied by the proper filing fee. In addition, all such motions shall clearly and conspicuously state that "RELIEF IS SOUGHT FROM A UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT JUDGE."

(b) Stay. The filing of a motion to withdraw the reference does not stay proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court. The procedures relating to stay shall be those set forth in FRBP 5011.

(c) Designation of record. The moving party shall serve on all interested parties and file with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, together with the motion to withdraw the reference, a designation of those portions of the record of the case or proceeding in the Bankruptcy Court that the moving party believes will reasonably be necessary or pertinent to the District Court's consideration of the motion. Within ten (10) days after service of such designation of record, any other party may serve and file a designation of additional portions of the record. If the record designated by any party includes a transcript of any hearing or trial, or a part thereof, that party shall immediately after filing the designation, deliver to the court reporter and file with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court a written request for the transcript and make satisfactory arrangements for the payment of its cost. All parties shall take any action necessary to enable the Clerk to assemble and transmit the record.

(d) Responses to motions to withdraw the reference; reply. Opposing parties shall file with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, and serve on all parties to the matter for which withdrawal of the reference has been requested, their written responses to the motion to withdraw the reference, within ten (10) days after being served with a copy of the motion. The moving party may serve and file a reply within ten (10) days after service of the response.

(e) Transmittal to and proceedings in district court. When the record is complete for purposes of transmittal, but without awaiting the filing of any transcripts, the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court shall promptly transmit to the Clerk of the District Court the motion and the portions of the record designated. After the opening of a docket in the District Court, documents pertaining to the matter under review by the District Court shall be filed with the Clerk of the District Court, but all documents relating to other matters in the bankruptcy case or adversary proceeding or contested matter shall continue to be filed with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court.

Rule LBR5020-1. Corporate Disclosure.

Disclosure of corporate parent. Any nongovernmental corporate party identified as follows shall file a statement identifying all of its parent corporations and listing any public company that owns 10% or more of the party's stock:

(1) Corporate debtor filing a petition in a voluntary case;
(2) Petitioning corporate creditor in any involuntary case;
(3) Corporate party serving on a creditors' committee;
(4) Corporate party to any adversary proceeding; and
(5) Corporate party to any contested matter which arises in any pending bankruptcy case.

A party shall file the statement with its initial pleading or within 10 days of being appointed to a creditors committee. A party shall supplement the statement within a reasonable time of any change in the information.

Rule LBR5071-1. Continuance.

No continuance of hearing or trial (whether stipulated to by counsel or not) shall be effective unless:

(1) the Bankruptcy Court announces it in open Court,
(2) the Bankruptcy Court approves it by written Order, or
(3) the courtroom deputy informs the parties that the Bankruptcy Court has authorized the requested continuance.

Requests for continuances of Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 creditors' meetings shall be made to the Bankruptcy Administrator's office, and requests for continuances of Chapter 13 creditors' meetings shall be made to the appropriate Chapter 13 Standing Trustee's office.

Rule LBR5073-1. Photography, recording devices and broadcasting.

All photographic, recording and broadcasting equipment is prohibited from the courtrooms and their environs without Bankruptcy Court permission.

VI. COLLECTION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE ESTATE

VII. ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS

Rule LBR7003-1. Cover sheet.

Adversary proceeding cover sheet. All complaints initiating adversary proceedings shall be accompanied by a fully completed Adversary Cover Sheet (Form B-104).

Rule LBR7005-2. Filing of discovery materials.

Unless ordered otherwise, the following discovery documents shall not be filed with the Bankruptcy Clerk until there is a proceeding in which the document or proof of service is in issue:

(a) transcripts of depositions upon oral examination;

(b) transcripts of depositions upon written questions;

(c) interrogatories;

(d) answers or objections to interrogatories;

(e) requests for the production of documents or to inspect tangible things; responses or objections to requests for the production of documents or to inspect tangible things;

(g)[f] requests for admissions;

(h)[g] responses or objections to requests for admissions;

(i)[h] notices of deposition, unless filing is required in order to obtain issuance of a subpoena in another district; and

(j)[i] subpoena or subpoena duces tecum.

Any party seeking to compel discovery or other pretrial relief based upon discovery material which has not been filed with the Bankruptcy Clerk must identify the specific portion of the material that is directly relevant and ensure that it is filed as an attachment to the motion for relief.

Rule LBR7026-1. Discovery — General.

Federal Rule 26(a)(1) shall not apply to contested matters and adversary proceedings pending in this Bankruptcy Court.

VIII. APPEALS TO DISTRICT COURT OR BANKRUPTCY APPELLATE PANEL

IX. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule LBR9004-1. Papers — Requirements of form.

Each bankruptcy case docket number used in the caption of documents or other papers filed with the Bankruptcy Court shall include the case chapter and division assigned to the case.

Rule LBR9006-1. Time periods.

Unless otherwise ordered or noticed, to ensure review and consideration at a scheduled hearing, any response to a pleading in a contested matter, including, but not limited to, a brief, memorandum or objection, shall be filed not less than three (3) business days before the scheduled hearing date on which the motion is scheduled to be heard.

Rule LBR9007-1. General notice and service provisions.

(a) Designation of parties to provide notice. The Bankruptcy Clerk is authorized to designate the parties who shall provide such notice to creditors and parties-in-interest as required under the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and the Local Rules of the Bankruptcy Court.

(b) Service required on trustee and attorney for debtor-in-possession. In cases where a Trustee has been appointed, any and all pleadings (except claims) in all matters under the Bankruptcy Code shall be served on the Trustee whether or not such Trustee is a party to the proceeding. In Chapter 11 cases, the attorney for the debtor is to be served in like manner for all matters.

(c) Service required on bankruptcy administrator. In Chapter 7, 11 and 12 cases, the Bankruptcy Administrator shall be served with all pleadings and documents required to be filed with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, and any other documents specifically requested by the Bankruptcy Administrator. In Chapter 13 cases, the Bankruptcy Administrator shall be served with fee applications, motions to dismiss with prejudice, responses to documents filed by the Bankruptcy Administrator and any other documents specifically requested by the Bankruptcy Administrator.

NOTE

See also LBR1002-1 for manner of providing copies of petitions to the Bankruptcy Administrator, and see also LBR3002-1 for filing of proof of claims.

Rule LBR9011-2. Pro se parties.

An individual may appear pro se. All partnerships, corporations, and other business entities (other than an individual conducting business as a sole proprietorship) that desire to appear in cases or proceedings before this Bankruptcy Court must be represented by an attorney duly admitted to practice before the Bankruptcy Court, except in the following instances:

(a) A business entity, employed as a professional pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 327, may file an interim or final fee application pro se;

(b) A business entity may file a claim pro se;

(c) A business entity may appear pro se at a meeting of creditors called pursuant to section 341 of the Bankruptcy Code;

(d) A business entity may file a response to a notice transferring the business entity's claim.

Any individual appearing pro se is subject to these Local Rules, as well as the Federal Bankruptcy Rules and the Bankruptcy Code.

NOTE

See also LBR2090-1 for attorney admission procedures.

Rule LBR9011-4. Signatures.

(a) State bar code number. The state bar number of an attorney shall appear on every petition, pleading, motion or other paper filed with the Bankruptcy Court.

(b) Typed or printed name of attorney or party filer. Every petition, pleading, motion or other paper signed by an attorney or by a party who is not represented by an attorney shall contain a printed or typed name below all signatures.

Rule LBR9013-1. Motion practice.

(a) Multiple requests for relief. Multiple requests for relief in a single motion will be allowed for filing purposes if those requests are based upon identical facts or arise out of the same transaction. Multiple requests for relief not based on identical facts or not arising out of the same transaction shall be filed in separate documents.

(b) Motions regarding property. Any person filing a motion for relief from stay, abandonment or sale of property, or other relief with respect to property, shall attach thereto copies of all documents evidencing the related indebtedness and perfected lien status unless otherwise on file with the Bankruptcy Court in which case a specific reference should be made to the pleading in which such copies are attached.

NOTE

See also Local Bankruptcy Guide Section 10.4 for guidelines on filing multiple requests in a complaint and Local Bankruptcy Guide Section 6 for guidelines on filing applications, motions and claims.

Rule LBR9013-2. Briefs & memoranda of law.

At the time the original of a brief or memoranda of law is filed, a working copy of the brief or memoranda for use by the Bankruptcy Judge shall be delivered to the Bankruptcy Clerks Office.

Rule LBR9014-1. Discovery in contested matters.

For the purpose of Bankruptcy Rule 7026, which is made applicable to contested matters by Bankruptcy Rule 9014, the initial court hearing on a motion, application, or objection commencing a contested matter shall be treated as the scheduling conference under Federal Rule 16(b). The discovery conference required by Federal Rule 26(f) shall be held at least 7 calendar days (including intervening Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) prior to the initial court hearing, unless the hearing has been set on less than 20 days notice, in which event the discovery conference shall be held not later than the business day prior to the hearing. A discovery plan, if one is required, may be presented orally at the hearing. This rule does not prevent the court from disposing of the contested matter at the initial hearing if the Court determines that material facts are not in dispute or that discovery is not needed. Unless notified by the Court to the contrary or unless all parties agree that discovery is needed and present a discovery plan in accordance with this rule, parties should always assume that the Court will hear evidence at the initial hearing.

Rule LBR9015-1. Jury trial.

(a) Demand.

(1) Form. A demand for jury trial shall state whether the party consents to the trial being conducted by the Bankruptcy Court.

(2) Determination by the Bankruptcy Court. On motion or on its own initiative, the Bankruptcy Court may determine whether there is a right to trial by jury of the issues for which a jury trial is demanded.

(3) Statement of consent. Within the later of (i) the time required for the filing of a response to the pleading in which a jury demand is set forth or (ii) 14 days after the filing of a jury demand, any other party shall file a statement as to that party's consent to trial by the Bankruptcy Court.

(b) Applicability of certain Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Rules 38, 39, and 47-51 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Rule 81(c) F.R.Civ.P., insofar as they apply to jury trials, apply to cases and adversary proceedings except that a demand made under Rule 38(b) F.R.Civ.P. shall be filed in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 5005.

(c) Applicability of Local Rules of the District Court. To the extent applicable, the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina shall govern matters pertaining to the conduct of jury trials in this Bankruptcy Court.

Rule LBR9019-2. Mediated Settlement Conference.

(a) Order for mediated settlement conference:

(1) Order by Court: The court may, by written order, require parties and their representatives to attend a pre-trial mediated settlement conference in any adversary proceeding or contested matter pending in the court.

(2) Timing of the Order: The court may issue the order at any time after the time for filing answers has expired in an adversary proceeding or after a response is filed in a contested matter.

(3) Content of Order: The court's order shall:

(A) Require that a mediated settlement conference be held in the case;

(B) Establish a deadline for the completion of the conference;

(C) State clearly that the parties have the right to select their own mediator as provided by section (b);

(D) State the rate of compensation of the court appointed mediator in the event that the parties do not exercise their right to select a mediator pursuant to section (b); and

(E) State that the parties shall be required to pay the mediator's fee at the conclusion of the settlement conference unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(4) Motion to Dispense with Mediated Settlement Conference: A party may move the court, within ten (10) days after the court's order, to dispense with the conference. The motion shall state the reasons the relief is sought, and shall be filed with the clerk of court and served on all opposing parties. Any party may file a written objection specifically stating his or her reasons for opposing the motion. The judge will rule upon such motion without a hearing.

(5) Motion for Court Ordered Mediated Settlement Conference: In cases not ordered to mediated settlement conference, any party may move the court to order such a conference. The motion shall state the reasons why the order should be allowed and shall be served on non-moving parties. Objections may be filed in writing with the court within ten (10) days after the date of the service of the motion. Thereafter, the judge shall rule upon the motion without a hearing.

(6) Motion to Authorize the Use of Other Settlement Procedures: Within ten (10) days of the court's mediation order, any party may move the court to authorize the use of some other settlement procedure in lieu of a mediated settlement conference. The motion shall state the reasons the authorization is requested and that all parties consent to the motion. The deadline for completion of the authorized settlement procedure shall be as provided by the rules authorizing the procedure or, if none, the deadline shall be as ordered for the mediated settlement conference.

(b) Selection of Mediator:

(1) Selection of Certified Mediator by Agreement of Parties: The parties appearing of record may select a mediator certified pursuant to the rules of the Supreme Court of North Carolina. The plaintiff shall file with the court an approved Designation for Mediator notice form indicating Selection of Certified Mediator by Agreement within twenty-one (21) days of the court's order. The notice shall state the name, address, and telephone number of the mediator selected; state the rate of compensation of the mediator; state that the mediator and the parties have agreed upon the selection and rate of compensation; and state that the mediator is certified pursuant to the rules of the Supreme Court.

(2) Nomination and Court Approval of Noncertified Mediator: The parties may select a mediator who does not meet the certification requirements of the Supreme Court but who, in the opinion of the parties and the judge, is otherwise qualified by training or experience to mediate the action.

If the parties select a noncertified mediator, the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney shall file with the court an approved Designation of Mediator notice form indicating Nomination for Noncertified Mediator within twenty-one (21) days of the court's order. Such nomination shall state the name, address and telephone number of the mediator; state the training, experience or other qualifications of the mediator; state the rate of compensation of the mediator; and state that the mediator and the parties have agreed upon the selection and rate of compensation. The judge shall rule on the nomination without a hearing.

(3) Appointment of Mediator by the Court: If the parties cannot agree upon the selection of a mediator, the plaintiff shall submit a Designation of Mediator form indicating a Motion for Court Appointment of Mediator to the court on behalf of the parties. The motion must be filed within twenty-one (21) days after the court's order and shall state that the parties and their attorneys have had a full and frank discussion concerning the selection of a mediator and have been unable to agree.

The motion shall state whether any party prefers a certified attorney mediator, and if so, the judge shall appoint a certified attorney mediator. The motion shall state that all parties prefer a certified, nonattorney mediator, and if so, the judge shall appoint a certified, nonattorney mediator if one is on the list of certified mediators desiring to mediate cases in the district. If no preference is expressed, the judge may appoint a certified attorney mediator or a certified nonattorney mediator.

Upon receipt of a Motion for Court Appointment of Mediator, or in the event the plaintiff has not filed a Notice of Selection of Certified Mediator or Nomination of Noncertified Mediator with the court within twenty-one (21) days of the court's order, the judge shall appoint a mediator certified pursuant to these rules. Only mediators that have indicated their desire to mediate cases in the Middle District shall be appointed.

(4) Mediator Information Directory: To assist the parties in the selection of a mediator by agreement, a central directory of information on all certified mediators who wish to mediate cases in the Middle District will be collected and maintained by the clerk of court.

(5) Disqualification of Mediator: Any party may move for an order disqualifying the mediator. If the mediator is disqualified, a replacement mediator shall be selected or appointed pursuant to this rule. Nothing in this provision shall preclude mediators from disqualifying themselves upon written notice to the judges and the parties.

(c) The mediated settlement conference:

(1) Where Conference Is to Be Held: Unless all parties and the mediator otherwise agree, the mediated settlement conference shall be held in the United States Bankruptcy Courthouse or other public or community building in the Middle District. The mediator shall be responsible for reserving a place and making arrangements for the conference and for giving timely notice of the conference to all attorneys, unrepresented parties and other persons and entities required to attend.

(2) When Conference Is to Be Held: The court's order issued pursuant to section (a)(2) shall state a date of completion for the conference. As a guiding principle, the conference should be held after the parties have had a reasonable time to conduct discovery but well in advance of the trial date.

(3) Request to Extend Date of Completion: A party, or the mediator, may request the judge to extend the deadline for completion of the conference. The request shall state the reasons the continuance is sought and shall be served by the movant upon the other parties and the mediator. If any party does not consent to the request, said party shall promptly communicate its objection to the judge.

The judge may grant the request and enter an order setting a new date for the completion of the conference, which date may be set at any time prior to trial. The order shall be served on all parties and on the mediator by the person who sought the extension.

(4) Recesses: The mediator may recess the conference at any time and may set times for reconvening. No further notification is required for persons present at the recessed conference.

(5) Mediated Settlement Conference Is Not to Delay Other Proceedings: The mediated settlement conference shall not be cause for the delay of other proceedings in the case, including the completion of discovery, the filing or hearing of motions, or the trial of the case, except by order of the judge.

(d) Duties of parties, representatives, and attorneys:

(1) Attendance: The following persons shall physically attend the entire mediated settlement conference until an agreement is reduced to writing and signed as provided by section (d)(3) or an impasse has been declared, unless excused by the judge or by the mediator with approval of all parties and attorneys:

(A) Parties:

(i) All individual parties;

(ii) Any party that is not a natural person or a government entity shall be represented at the conference by an officer, employee or agent who is not such party's outside counsel and who has been authorized to decide on behalf of such party whether and on what terms to settle this action; and

(iii) Any party that is a governmental agency shall be represented at the conference by an employee or agent who is not such party's outside counsel and who has authority to decide on behalf of such party whether and on what terms to settle the action; provided, if under law proposed settlement terms can be approved only by a board, the representative shall have authority to negotiate on behalf of the party and to make a recommendation to that board.

(B) Insurance company representatives: A representative of each liability insurance carrier, uninsured motorist insurance carrier, and underinsured motorist insurance carrier which may be obligated to pay all or part of any claim presented in the action. Each carrier shall be represented at the conference by an officer, employee or agent, other than the carrier's outside counsel, who has the authority to make a decision on behalf of the carrier or who has been authorized to negotiate on behalf of the carrier and can promptly communicate during the conference with persons who have decision making authority.

(C) Attorneys: At least one counsel of record for each party or other participant whose counsel has appeared in the action.

(2) Notifying Lien Holders: Any party or attorney who has received notice of a lien or other claim upon proceeds recovered in the action shall notify the lien holder or claimant of the date, time, and location of the mediated settlement conference and shall request the lien holder or claimant to attend the conference or make a representative available with whom to communicate during the conference.

(3) Finalizing Agreement: Upon reaching agreement during the conference but before the conference concludes, a draft of the settlement terms shall be written by the mediator and signed by the parties and others with settlement authority. Upon reaching agreement, either before or during the conference, the parties and others with settlement authority, shall provide a copy of a formal executed written agreement to the mediator within seven (7) days of the settlement. The mediator shall attach a copy of the formal written agreement to the Report of Mediator filed pursuant to section (f)(2)(D) of these rules. Failure of the parties to provide a copy of the formal written agreement to the mediator on a timely basis may result in sanctions.

(e) Sanctions and failure to attend: If any person required to attend the conference pursuant to section (d) of these rules fails to attend without good cause, the judge may impose an appropriate monetary sanction, including but not limited to, the payment of fines, attorneys fees, mediator fees, expenses and losses of earnings incurred by persons attending the conference.

A party seeking sanctions against another party or person shall do so in a written motion stating the grounds for the motion and the relief sought. The motion shall be served upon all parties and on any person against whom sanctions are being sought. If the court imposes sanctions, it shall do so after notice and a hearing, and in a written order making findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(f) Authority and Duties of a Mediator:

(1) Authority of a Mediator:

(A) Control of conference: The mediator shall at all times be in control of the conference and the procedures to be followed.

(B) Private consultation: The mediator may meet and consult privately with any participant or counsel during the conference.

(C) Scheduling of the conference: The mediator shall make a good faith effort to schedule the conference at a time that is convenient with the participants, attorneys and mediator. In the absence of agreement, the mediator shall select the date for the conference.

(2) Duties of Mediator:

(A) Generally: The mediator shall define and describe the following to the parties at the beginning of the conference:

(i) The process of mediation;

(ii) The difference between mediation and other forms of conflict resolution;

(iii) The costs of the mediated settlement conference;

(iv) That the mediated settlement conference is not a trial, the mediator is not a judge, and the parties retain their right to trial if they do not reach a settlement;

(v) The circumstances under which the mediator may meet and communicate privately with any of the parties or with any other person;

(vi) Whether and under what conditions communications with the mediator will be held in confidence during the conference;

(vii) The inadmissibility of conduct and settlements as provided by applicable Rules of Evidence;

(viii) The duties and responsibilities of the mediator and the participants; and

(ix) The fact that any agreement reached will be reached by mutual consent.

(B) Disclosure: The mediator has a duty to be impartial and to advise all participants of any circumstances bearing on possible bias, prejudice or partiality.

(C) Declaring impasse: It is the duty of the mediator to timely determine that an impasse exists and that the conference should end.

(D) Report results in conference: The mediator shall submit a Report of Mediator to the judge which indicates the results of the conference. This report shall be filed within 2 weeks of the conclusion of the conference or upon the receipt of a copy of a written settlement agreement, whichever comes first.

If an agreement was reached, the report shall state whether the action will be concluded by consent judgement or voluntary dismissal and shall identify the persons designated to file the consent judgement or dismissal. The mediator's report shall inform the court of the absence of any party, attorney, or insurance representative who was absent without permission from the conference.

The mediator shall attach the written settlement agreement prepared by the parties to the Report of Mediator.

(E) Scheduling and holding the conference: It is the duty of the mediator to schedule the conference and to conduct and conclude the conference prior to the conference completion deadline set out in the court's order. Deadlines for completion of the conference shall be strictly observed by the mediator unless the time limit is changed by a written order of the judge.

(3) Failure of Mediator to Comply with Section (f): The judge may withhold future appointments of any mediator who does not fully comply with the requirement of section (f).

(g) Compensation of the Mediator:
(1) By agreement: When the mediator is stipulated to by the parties, compensation shall be as agreed upon between the parties and the mediator.
(2) By court order: When the mediator is appointed by the court, the mediator shall be compensated by the parties at an hourly rate set by the judge.
(3) Payment of compensation by parties: Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the court, costs of the mediated settlement conference shall be paid in equal shares by the parties. Multiple parties shall be considered one party when they are represented by the same counsel. Parties obligated to pay a share of the costs shall pay them equally unless the court otherwise orders.
(4) Sanctions for failure to pay mediator's fee: Except when excused by these rules or by order of the court, failure of a party to make a timely payment of the party's share of a mediator's fee at the conclusion of the conference may result in the imposition of sanctions.
(h) Communications with the Court: All communications concerning mediated settlement conferences should be addressed to the Bankruptcy Administrator.

Rule LBR9022-1. Judgments & Orders — Notice of.

Unless otherwise directed by the Bankruptcy Court, the Bankruptcy Clerks Office serves Orders. To facilitate this service, the preparer of each Order shall submit the following:
(1) a certificate of service to be signed by the Bankruptcy Clerks Office,
(2) pre-addressed, stamped (or metered) envelopes for every party (except for Bankruptcy Administrator and Chapter 13 Standing Trustees) listed on the certificate of service, and
(3) sufficient copies of the Order for service by the Bankruptcy Clerks Office upon the parties listed on the certificate of service.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE
WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE MATTER OF RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN THIS THIS COURT	))))	ORDER ADOPTING RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

For good cause appearing to the Court,

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. The following Local Rules of Practice and Procedure in the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina be and they are hereby adopted effective at 12:01 a.m. on the 1st day of January, 1999. At that time these local rules shall supersede all local rules theretofore in effect, as well as the Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan adopted by this court on September 23, 1993, and shall apply to all pending cases, unless the Court finds that their application in a specific case would result in injustice or hardship.
2. These rules are adopted in compliance with and pursuant to the authority of Rule 83, Fed. R. Civ. P.; Rule 57, Fed. R. Crim. P.; and other federal rules and statutes providing for district court local rules. Those rules are adopted after having provided the public and the bar with an opportunity to comment.
3. These local rules supplement the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as necessary in all civil suits in the United States District Courts for the Western District of North Carolina. Where applicable, these rules also supplement the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and Bankruptcy. In keeping with the spirit of the Federal Rules, these rules are designed, and will be construed and administered, to enhance speed and flexibility, control expense, and direct the efforts of all involved to the ends of justice.
4. The Clerk is directed to make appropriate arrangements to see that these rules are published promptly and that copies of the rules are made available for distribution to the bar and the public.

This, the 31st day of December, 1998.

PART I. LOCAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rule LR3.1. Filing fee, bond, security and prohibited sureties.

(A) Filing fee and cost bond. In every civil action commenced in or removed to this court, there shall be filed at the time of commencing or removal a filing fee in such amount as determined according to law. In a civil case commenced in this court, no bond, or cash deposit in lieu of such bond, as security for costs shall be required except on motion and for good cause shown.

(B) Security. In both civil and criminal actions, bonds shall be allowed and taken with security, or one or more securities, as provided by the federal statutes, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The judges of this district may, for good cause, enter orders restricting any bonding company or surety company from being accepted as surety upon any bond in any case or matter in this district.

(C) Prohibited sureties. Members of the Bar, administrative officers or employees of this court, or the United States Marshal and his deputies or assistants, shall not act as surety in any suit, action, or proceeding pending in this court.

Editor's note. — For website, see www.ncwd.net.

Rule LR5.1. Filing of papers, presenting judgments, orders, and communications to judge and sealed records.

(A) Filing of papers. An original and one copy of all motions, memoranda, orders, and judgments shall be filed with the court in duplicate. All papers of every sort may be filed at Statesville, Charlotte or Asheville regardless of the Division in which the case may be pending as may suit the convenience of counsel.

(1) A motion for consolidation shall be filed only in one of the cases involved with a notice of the motion being filed in the proposed member case(s). After consolidation all further proceedings will be docketed and filed in the designated lead case only. In the event the lead case is not designated in the order for consolidation, the first filed case will be designated as the lead. Each pleading filed shall note the designated lead case number and an original and one copy of each documents is to be filed.

(2) All pleadings filed in a civil case may include one extra copy marked "REDACTED COPY." All personal identifiers including Social Security numbers, dates of birth, financial account numbers and names of minor children are not to appear in this "REDACTED COPY." Counsel may also redact any other personal identifier information which they deem appropriate. This copy is the one which will be made available in electronic format to the public. If counsel file a "REDACTED COPY" an unredacted copy may also be filed which will be available for public viewing, unless the document is filed under seal. This unredacted document will not be scanned into our electronic database.

(B) Presenting judgments, orders, and communications to judges. Judgments and orders submitted by counsel will ordinarily be sent to the clerk in the appropriate division and not to the judge, unless shortness of time or other good reason appears for sending them directly to the judge. Copies as may be needed will be certified by the clerk.

All communications (letters, briefs, enclosures, etc.) sent to a judge about a case must show the provision of a copy thereof either hand delivered or mailed to opposing counsel.

(C) Seeking a continuance. Any motion filed seeking continuance of a hearing or trial shall be filed immediately upon counsel's learning of the need for same and must, in any event, be timely filed.

(D) Sealed matters.

(1) New Civil Cases: A civil complaint may be sealed at the time the case is filed if the complaint is accompanied by an ex parte motion of the plaintiff/petitioner accompanied by an order sealing the case. The case will be listed on the clerk's index as Sealed Plaintiff vs. Sealed Defendant.

(2) Pending cases: A pending case may be sealed at any time upon motion of either party and execution by the court of a written order. Unless otherwise specified in the order, neither the clerk's case index nor the existing case docket will be modified.

(3) Documents: Documents ordered sealed by the court or otherwise required to be sealed by statute shall be marked as such within the document caption and submitted together with the judge's copy prepared in the same manner. If the document is sealed pursuant to a prior order of the court, the pleading caption shall include a notation that the document is being filed under court seal and include the order's entry date.

No document shall be designated by any party as "filed under seal" or "confidential" unless:

(a) it is accompanied by an order sealing the document;

(b) it is being filed in a case that the court has ordered sealed; or

(c) it contains material that is the subject of a protective order entered by the court.

(4) Case closing: Unless otherwise ordered by a court, any case file or documents under court seal that have not previously been unsealed by the court order shall be unsealed at the time of final disposition of the case.

(5) Access to sealed documents: Unless otherwise ordered by the court, access to documents and cases under court seal shall be provided by the clerk only pursuant to court order. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the clerk shall make no copies of sealed case files or documents.

Rule LR7.1. Motions in civil actions.

(A) Motions in writing. Unless made during a hearing or trial, all motions must be put in writing and shall state with particularity the grounds of the motions and shall set forth the relief or order sought. As required by LR 5.1(A), all motions and supporting memoranda shall be filed in duplicate. Any motions other than for dismissal, summary judgment, or default judgment should show that counsel have met and attempted in good faith to resolve areas of disagreement and should set forth which issues remain unresolved.

All motions will ordinarily be ruled upon without oral argument, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(B) Time frames for the filing of responses to motions and for reply motions. Responses to motions, if any, shall be filed within fourteen (14) days of the date on which the motion is served, as evidenced by the certificate of service attached to said motion. When a motion is served by mail, the respondent shall have an additional three (3) days to file a response, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 6(e).

A reply to the response to the motion, if any, shall be filed within seven (7) days of the date on which the response is served, as evidenced by the certificate of service attached to said response. When a response is served by mail, an additional three (3) days is granted in which to file the reply, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 6(e).

The filing of a reply brief is not mandatory, and in any event such a brief should be limited to a discussion of matters newly raised in the response. If the party making the motion does not wish to file a reply brief, it must so inform the Court and opposing counsel in writing by the deadline for filing the reply brief, as set forth above.

CASE NOTES

Defendant's Motion to Stay was treated as a timely response under pretrial order although it was late under the changed Local Rule 7.1 time for filing responses. Holz-Her U.S., Inc. v. Monarch Mach., Inc., 187 F.R.D. 238 (W.D.N.C. 1999).

Failure to Attempt Resolution. — Where defendants did not attempt to confer with plaintiff prior to filing the motion to compel, nor was any certification as to that requirement attached, the fact that defendants did not confer with opposing counsel and attempt to resolve this dispute before filing the motion to compel was sufficient reason to deny the motion. Ambu, Inc. v. Kohlbrat & Bunz Corp., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2000 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 241 (W.D.N.C. Jan. 6, 2000).

Applied in Angel Med. Ctr., Inc. v. Abernathy, 159 F. Supp. 2d 215, 2000 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5109 (W.D.N.C. 2000), aff'd, 243 F.3d 535 (4th Cir. 2001).

Rule LR7.2. Briefs.

Briefs shall be filed with the motion, except timely motions for extension of time or admission pro hac vice.

Rule LR16.1. Pretrial conferences.

(A) Rule 26(f) conference. As soon as is practicable and in any event at least within sixty-nine (69) days of the appearance of a defendant, and within ninety-nine (99) days of service of the complaint, the parties shall confer as provided by Rule 26(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and file a proposed discovery plan within five (5) days of the conference which shall serve as a guideline for the Court in issuing a scheduling order as provided by Rule 16(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. If the parties choose to stipulate out of, or object to, the mandatory initial disclosure procedure required by Rule 26(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, they must so indicate in the discovery plan.

(B) Initial pretrial conference (IPC). An initial pretrial conference will only be held if specifically requested by the parties in the discovery plan. Unless otherwise directed by an Article III Judge, Magistrate Judges will preside over the pretrial conference and counsel for all parties must appear in person. Permission to appear by telephone will be determined by the judicial officer conducting the conference. The IPC is to be held no later than twelve (12) days after the filing of the discovery plan.

Unless otherwise directed by an Article III Judge, Magistrate Judges will issue the Rule 16(b) scheduling order and manage the pretrial activity of the case through direct involvement in the establishment, supervision and enforcement of the Rule 16(b) order and other applicable rules of procedure.

Matters which may be considered during the pretrial conference may include but not be limited to:

- discovery guidelines and deadlines;
- Rule 26 disclosures;
- responses to interrogatories and requests for admission;
- maintenance of discovery material;
- video depositions;
- protective orders;
- motions deadlines;
- motions hearings;
- response to motions;
- trial subpoenas;
- counsel's duties prior to trial;
- trial date;
- proposed jury instructions;
- exhibits; and
- mediation.

Rule LR16.2. Mediation or alternative dispute resolution (ADR).

(A) Mandatory mediated settlement conference. All parties to civil actions are required to attend a Mediated Settlement Conference, unless otherwise ordered by the court. A mediated settlement conference is a pretrial, court-ordered (by local rule) conference of the parties to a civil action and their representatives conducted by a mediator. The procedure for the conference shall be as provided in Local Rule 16.3.

(B) Cases not suitable for ADR. These rules for mandatory ADR shall not apply to habeas corpus proceedings or other actions for extraordinary writs, appeals from rulings of administrative agencies, forfeitures of seized property, and bankruptcy appeals. The Judicial Officer may determine, either sua sponte or on application of any party, that any other case is not suitable for ADR, in which case no ADR procedure will be ordered.

Rule LR16.3. Rules applicable to mediation or alternative dispute resolution (ADR).

(A) Time for proceeding. The Court favors the use of alternative dispute resolution (ADR), ordinarily in the form of a mediated settlement conference, for the efficient and orderly resolution of civil cases. Accordingly, the parties shall in the Certification and Report of Initial Attorneys' Conference indicate their estimation of the usefulness of ADR, their preferred method of ADR, and their opinion of the most advantageous time at which to commence ADR. If the parties fail to submit, or are unable to agree on, a proposed method of ADR, a Mediated Settlement Conference shall be selected as the default. The presiding Magistrate Judge or other Judicial Officer will in the Pretrial Order and Case Management Plan, or an Order for Alternative Dispute Resolution issued shortly thereafter, specify the selected ADR method and order it to commence on a schedule in accordance with the applicable responses given by counsel in the Certification and Report.

(B) Rules for proceeding. Upon entry of an Order for Alternative Dispute Resolution, the case shall proceed as follows:

(1) If a Mediated Settlement Conference is ordered, the ADR proceeding shall be governed by and a mediator shall be selected in accordance with the Rules Governing Mediated Settlement Conferences in Superior Court Civil Actions promulgated from time to time by the North Carolina Supreme Court pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 7A-38 (the "Mediation Rules"), and by the supplemental rules set forth herein.

(a) Wherever the Mediation Rules refer to "Senior Resident Superior Court Judge" and "Administrative Office of the Court," it shall mean "Judicial Officer" and "Clerk of the United States District Court," respectively.

(b) Rule 3(a) of the Mediation Rules is modified to permit the mediated settlement conference to be held in an appropriate facility anywhere in the division in which the case is pending.

(2) If an Alternative ADR Procedure is ordered, the ADR proceeding shall be governed by these Rules and by such other procedural rules submitted by the parties and approved by the Judicial Officer. The rules submitted by the parties shall include, in addition to rules regarding the actual proceeding, provisions setting a deadline for completion of the proceeding; the location for the proceeding; pre-proceeding submissions; and the method for selection and compensation of a mediator, evaluator or other "neutral" to preside over the proceeding.

(3) Nothing in this Alternative Dispute Resolution Program shall be deemed to override the Federal Arbitration Act or any other provision of the United States Code.

(4) The Judicial Officer may, either sua sponte or on application of any party, permit exceptions or deviations from these rules.

(C) Supplemental rules for mediated settlement conferences. In addition to the Mediation Rules, the following rules shall also apply to mediated settlement conferences in the Western District:

(1) No record made. There shall be no record made of any proceedings under these rules.

(2) Telephonic attendance. A party or person required to attend who resides more than 200 miles away by the usual highway route may appear at the mediated settlement conference through telephone communication with the Judicial Officer's prior consent.

(3) Mediator's report of outcome. The mediator's report required by the Mediation Rules shall be issued within seven (7) days of the conclusion of the Mediated Settlement Conference. The mediator may submit his or her report on a report form provided by the Clerk of Court, or using his or her own letterhead or individually developed mediation report form.

(D) Judicial settlement conference.

(1) Mandatory consideration. The Judicial Officer to whom a case is assigned may, at any time, order the parties to participate in a settlement conference to be convened by the court. Any party may also file a request for a judicial settlement conference.

(2) Mandatory attendance by representatives with full authority to effect settlement. At the time of the conference, except with regard to government attorneys and federal agency parties, attorneys for all parties and either the party or a person with the full authority to settle all pending claims must be present. For purposes of this rule the "person with full authority to settle" shall not be the attorney. Government attorneys are required to bring as much binding authority as is feasible. A knowledgeable representative of the federal agency party with the authority to recommend any contemplated settlement is required to attend the conference, except for good cause shown prior to the date of conference.

(3) Presiding judicial officer. Any Judicial Officer of the district other than the Judicial Officer to whom the case is assigned for disposition may preside over a judicial settlement conference convened by the court.

Rule LR26.1. Discovery material not to be filed unless ordered or needed.

Disclosures made pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 26, depositions upon oral examination and interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admission, and answers and responses thereto are not to be filed unless on order of the court or for use in proceeding or in support of a motion or petition. Materials filed in support of a motion or petition shall be appropriately labeled and attached as an Appendix thereto and shall be limited to those portions of the material directly necessary to support the motion or petition. All such papers must be served on other counsel or parties entitled to service of papers filed with the clerk. The party taking a deposition or obtaining any material through discovery is responsible for its preservation and delivery to the Court if needed or so ordered.

Rule LR45.1. Production of subpoenaed material by certain non-parties.

(A) Custodians of public records: Where a subpoena commands any custodian of public records to appear for the sole purpose of producing certain records in their custody, the custodian subpoenaed may, in lieu of a personal appearance, tender to the court, by registered mail or personal delivery, certified copies of the records requested, on or before the date and time specified in the subpoena, together with a copy of the subpoena and an affidavit by the custodian as to the authentication of the record tendered or, if no such records are in their custody, an affidavit to that effect.

(B) Custodians of medical records: Where a subpoena commands the custodian of medical records to appear for the sole purpose of producing certain records in their custody, the custodian subpoenaed may, in lieu of a personal appearance, tender to the Clerk of court, by registered mail or by personal delivery, certified copies of the records requested, on or before the time specified in the subpoena, together with a copy of the subpoena and an affidavit by the custodian testifying to the identity and authenticity of the records, that they are true and correct copies, and as appropriate, that the records were made and kept in the regular course of business at or near the time of the acts, conditions, or events recorded, and that they were made by persons having knowledge of the information set forth; or if no such records are in their custody, an affidavit to that effect. When the copies of medical records are personally delivered, a receipt shall be obtained from the person receiving the records.

(C) Admissibility: Any original or certified copy of any public or medical records, or affidavit, delivered according to the provisions of this rule shall not be held inadmissible inany action or proceeding on the grounds that it lacks certification, identification, or authentication, and it shall be received as evidence if otherwise admissible.

(D) Protection of privacy: The copies of public or medical records so tendered shall not be open to inspection or copying by any persons, except to the parties to the case and their attorneys in depositions, until ordered published by the judge at the time of the hearing or trial. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to waive the physician-patient privilege or to require any privileged communications under law to be disclosed.

Unless the underlying subpoena for medical records is accompanied by a written consent of the patient, the materials submitted to the court in response thereto shall not be disclosed to anyone, including the parties and their attorneys, unless upon judicial finding that disclosure is necessary to proper administration of justice.

(E) Duties of the clerk of this court: The Clerk of this court will sign or mark as "Received" a receipt if such is tendered by the subpoenaed party. The Clerk of this court has no duty to generate a receipt or mail a receipt back to the responding party unless a receipt and self addressed stamped envelope is provided.

The Clerk of this court will not file, scan, or otherwise make the proffer part of the official record unless instructed to do so by a judge of the court.

Upon presentation to the court, the Clerk of court shall stamp the first page or cover sheet of any such material as "Received", and place such materials in an official court envelope or other container indicating that the materials are sealed. The Clerk of court shall bring such filing to the court's attention at an appropriate time in the proceedings.

Unless such materials are made part of the record, they shall be destroyed by the Clerk of this court within a reasonable time after the case is closed and appeals exhausted. Originals may be returned to the custodian if arrangements are made with the Clerk of this court at the time of tender.

PURPOSE

1. Privileges, such as doctor-patient, are created at common law; therefore, the court has attempted to mirror the provisions of state law which allow keepers of public records and medical records to tender the subpoenaed materials to the court. Such procedure saves the court time in avoiding routine motions to quash for technical missteps and results in substantial savings to public agencies and health care providers, many of which are not-for-profit agencies. The intent of the proposed rule is to streamline federal litigation for practitioners who regularly appear in both federal and state courts by making the rules substantially consistent.

2. LR 45.1 is narrower than its state counterpart in that it makes clear that only non-parties may avail themselves of such provision. (The North Carolina case law reveals that Rule 45(c) was frequently mistaken as a discovery device). LR 45.1 is also broader than its state counterpart it that it extends the provision to all health- care providers rather than just hospitals. In addition, LR 45.1 adds detailed procedures for the tender and disposal of such materials inasmuch as neither discovery nor evidence is accepted or maintained by the court.

Rule LR47.1. Jurors.

Ordinarily, in the interest of time, the court will conduct the examination of prospective jurors, but may permit counsel to do so. If the court conducts the examination, counsel may suggest additional questions.

When jurors for a term of court are drawn, members of the bar of this court, upon request, shall be furnished with a copy of the list; and if questionnaires are used, responses will be made available to attorneys. The list shall include the address for each juror. However, no juror shall be contacted, either directly or through any member of his immediate family, in an effort to secure information concerning his background.

Rule LR47.2. Contact with jurors.

No attorney or party to an action shall personally or through their designees, directly or indirectly, interview, examine or question any juror, relative, friend or associate thereof during the pendency of the trial or with respect to the deliberations or verdict of the jury in any action, except on leave of the presiding judge upon good cause shown.

Rule LR54.1. Taxation of costs other than attorneys' fees.

(A) Filing bill of costs.

(1) A prevailing party may request the Clerk to tax allowable costs, other than Attorneys' fees, in a civil action as a part of a judgment or decree by filing a bill of costs, on a form available in the clerk's office, within 30 days:

(i) after the expiration of time allowed for appeal of a final judgment or decree; or

(ii) after receipt by the clerk of an order terminating the action on appeal.

(2) The original of the bill of costs shall be filed with the clerk, with copies served on adverse parties.

(3) The failure of a prevailing party to timely file a bill of costs shall constitute a waiver of any claim for costs.

(B) Objections to bill of costs.

(1) If an adverse party objects to the bill of costs or any item claimed by a prevailing party, that party must state its objection in a motion for disallowance with a supporting brief within ten (10) days after the filing of the bill of costs. Within five (5) days thereafter, the prevailing party may file a response and brief. Unless a hearing is ordered by the clerk, a ruling will be made by the Clerk on the record.

(2) A party may request review of the Clerk's ruling by filing a motion within five (5) days after the action of the Clerk. The court's review of the Clerk's action will be made on the existing record unless otherwise ordered.

(C) Taxable costs.

(1) Items normally taxed include, without limitation:

(i) those items specifically listed on the bill of costs form. The costs incident to the taking of depositions (when allowable as necessarily obtained for use in the litigation) normally include only the reporter's attendance fee and charge for the original transcript of the deposition;

(ii) premiums on required bonds;

(iii) actual mileage, subsistence, and attendance allowances for necessary witnesses at actual cost, but not to exceed the applicable statutory rates, whether they reside in or out of this district;

(iv) one copy of the trial transcript for each party represented by separate counsel.

(2) Items normally not taxed include, without limitation:

(i) multiple copies of depositions;

(ii) daily copy of trial transcripts, unless prior court approval has been obtained.

(D) Costs in settlements. The court will not tax costs in any action terminated by compromise or settlement. Settlement agreements must resolve any issue relating to costs. In the absence of specific agreement, each party will bear its own costs.

(E) Payment of costs. Costs are to be paid directly to the party entitled to reimbursement.

Rule LR67.1. Registry funds.

(A) Deposit with the Treasury. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the clerk shall deposit registry funds in the Treasury of the United States and the funds shall accrue no interest.

(B) Investment in income-earning account. Upon motion or upon consent of the parties, the court may order the clerk to invest certain registry funds in an income-earning account which will be the Court Registry Investment System. The order may issue upon a consent request of the parties or upon motion by an interested party, in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) A consent request must demonstrate the assent of all interested and potentially interested parties. The agreement must demonstrate that the investment will be in compliance with applicable provisions of the law regulating the investment of public monies, provide for proper disposition of future earnings, and set out with particularity the following information:

(i) the form of deposit;

(ii) the amount to be invested;

(iii) the length of time the money should be invested, whether it should automatically be reinvested, etc., keeping in mind that some investments include a penalty for early withdrawal;

(iv) the name and address of the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries;

(v) such other information that may be deemed appropriate under the facts and circumstances of the particular case. The consent request shall be accompanied by a proposed order directing the clerk to proceed with the investment.

(2) A motion may be filed ex parte by an interested party, and the court may enter an order in advance of the filing of any response thereto. The motion must set forth the showings required in subsection (b)(1) concerning the investment and must include a proposed order. The motion must be served on all known interested parties who do not join therein. If an order is entered prior to the filing of a response in opposition, the motion will be reconsidered by the court. The court may determine the motion upon the record or may, in its discretion, call for a hearing on the matter.

(3) Counsel or parties obtaining an order directing investment in an income-earning account shall personally serve the clerk or the chief deputy and the financial deputy. Counsel or parties have the responsibility, fifteen (15) days after service of the order on the clerk, to verify that the funds have been invested as ordered. Failure to personally serve the clerk as specified in this section or failure to verify that the funds were actually invested as provided in the order shall release the clerk and deputy clerks from any liability for the loss of interest which could have been earned on the funds.

(4) A service fee may be charged by the clerk for the investment of registry funds.

(5) Interest on Registry Funds — "Settlement Funds". Funds invested with the court for the purpose of settlement are subject to additional rules under 26 U.S.C. § 468B. To comply with the requirements found in Section 468B, the order required in subsection (b) must also contain the following information:

(i) the deposit is identified as a settlement fund;

(ii) liability is resolved by the settlement agreement as described in 26 U.S.C. § 468B or 26 C.F.R. § 1.468B-1(c);

(iii) designation of a person outside the court as the administrator responsible for obtaining the employer identification number for the fund, filing all fiduciary tax returns, and paying any tax.

Rule LR72.1. Authority of Magistrate Judges in civil matters.

(A) Magistrate Judges are authorized and designated to exercise the following functions and duties regarding civil actions in the Western District.

(1) To perform the duties prescribed in 28 U.S.C. § 636(a).

(2) To hear and decide non-dispositive procedural or discovery motions and other pretrial matters, as provided by 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A).

(3) To hear any dispositive motions involving cases in which the parties have not consented to jurisdiction of the Magistrate Judge, and thereafter to submit to the District Court proposed findings of fact and recommendations for disposition of such motions, as provided by 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B).

(4) To make a final determination upon any dispositive motion in a case wherein the parties have consented to the jurisdiction of the Magistrate Judge, subject to right of appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.

(5) To serve as a Special Master in appropriate civil cases in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(2) and Rule 53 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(6) Upon the consent of all parties, to conduct jury voir dire in civil cases when designated by the District Court to do so on a case-by-case basis.

(7) To accept petit jury verdicts in civil cases in the absence of a District Court Judge.

(8) Upon the consent of all parties to conduct the trial and order entry of judgment, as authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 636(c).

(9) To issue orders or warrants authorizing acts necessary in the performance of the duties of administrative and regulatory agencies and departments of the United States Government pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(3).

(10) To conduct proceedings of the court under the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act, consistent with the Constitution and the laws of the United States as authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 3008 (1990).

(11) To perform any additional duties that are not inconsistent with the Constitution or the laws of the United States, as shall be assigned or delegated by the District Court.

Rule LR73.1. Trial by consent before a Magistrate Judge.

(A) Consent to the exercise of civil trial jurisdiction. The consent of a party to the exercise of civil trial jurisdiction by a U.S. Magistrate Judge authorized in 28 U.S.C. § 636(c)(1) shall be communicated to the clerk by letter, or by a form available in the clerk's office, signed by the party or the party's attorney.

(1) The Plaintiff's consent/denial form shall be mailed to or filed with the Clerk on or before the date that plaintiff first seeks service of the complaint upon the defendant(s) in any manner provided by Rule 4, Fed.R.Civ.Proc.

(2) The plaintiff shall serve a blank copy of the consent/denial form on all defendants with the complaint.

(3) The defendant(s) shall file an executed consent/denial form with their first responsive pleading. For purposes of this rule, any pleading filed by the defendant, including a motion to dismiss, shall be deemed its first responsive pleading.

(B) Failure to file executed consent / denial form. In the event any party fails to file an executed consent form, the Magistrate Judge initially assigned to the case, unless otherwise ordered by the court, shall continue to be responsible for the pretrial proceedings of the case and will advise the parties during the pretrial conference of his availability to conduct the entire case up through trial. At the conference the parties will be given a final opportunity to file the required consent/denial form.

Rule LR77.1. Orders and judgments which the clerk may grant.

Pursuant to the provisions of Fed. R. Civ P. Rule 77(c), the Clerk of Court and an authorized deputy clerk at Asheville, Charlotte and Statesville are authorized to grant and enter the following orders and judgments without further direction by the court, but any such action may be suspended, altered or rescinded by the court for good cause shown:

(1) Consent orders for the substitution of attorneys only after determining such substitution will not delay a scheduled hearing or trial.

(2) Consent orders extending for not more than 20 days the time within which to answer or otherwise plead, answer interrogatories submitted under Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 33. Care will be taken not to extend the time for so long as to delay unreasonably the trial. Matters in bankruptcy and those matters set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 6(b), are not included in this authorization. Where convenience and necessity are thought to require it; e.g., unavailability of a judge, and except where an extension may delay a scheduled trial or hearing, the clerk or deputy clerk(s) in the division in which the proceeding is pending is/are authorized to extend for not more than ten (10) days the time within which to answer or otherwise plead, answer interrogatories submitted under Rule 33, or requests for admission as provided for in Rule 36. If the other party is aggrieved, he may immediately appeal the action of the clerk's office to one of the District Judges.

(3) Consent orders extending for not more than thirty (30) days the time to file the record on appeal and to docket the appeal in the appellate court, except in criminal cases.

(4) Consent orders dismissing an action, except in bankruptcy proceedings and in causes to which Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 23(c) and Rule 66 apply.

(5) Judgments of default as provided for in Rule 55(a) and 55(b)(1), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(6) Orders canceling liability on bonds.

(7) Judgments authorized by Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 58.

(8) Orders directing inmates to file sworn statements showing exhaustion of all administrative remedies through the North Carolina Department of Corrections pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1997(e).

(9) Orders directing inmates and the correctional facility in which the inmate is housed to file a copy of the inmate's trust fund account statement (or institutional equivalent) pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915.

(10) Orders waiving the filing fee or directing a partial filing fee be paid by the inmate pursuant to Section 804 of the Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These orders may also include directing the correctional facility at which the inmate is incarcerated to deduct monthly payments from the inmate's trust fund account and forward said payment to the clerk.

Rule LR79.1. Custody and disposition of evidence, models, exhibits and depositions.

(A) Custody with the clerk. Unless otherwise directed by the court, all trial exhibits admitted into evidence in criminal and civil actions shall be placed in the custody of the clerk, except as provided in Section (B) below.

(B) Custody with the offering party. All exhibits not suitable for filing and transmission to the court of appeals as a part of a record on appeal shall be retained in the custody of the party offering them, subject to the orders of the court. Such exhibits shall include, but not be limited to, the following types of bulky or sensitive exhibits: narcotics and other controlled substances, firearms, ammunition, explosive devices, jewelry, liquor, poisonous or dangerous chemicals, money or articles of high monetary value, counterfeit money, and documents or physical exhibits of unusual bulk or weight.

At the conclusion of a trial or proceedings, the party offering such exhibits shall retain custody of them and be responsible to the court for preserving them in their condition as of the time admitted until any appeal is resolved or the time for appeal has expired. The party retaining custody shall make such exhibits available to opposing counsel for use in preparation of an appeal and be responsible for their safe transmission to the appellate court, if required.

(C) Disposition of exhibits, sealed documents, and filed depositions by clerk. Any exhibit, sealed document, or filed deposition in the clerk's custody more than 30 days after the time for appeal, if any, has expired or an appeal has been decided and mandate received, may be returned to the parties or destroyed by the clerk. Complaints, answers, motions, responses and replies, whether sealed or not, must be forwarded to the General Services Administration for permanent storage. The confidentiality of sealed documents cannot be assured after the case file is transferred to the General Services Administration for records holding.

(D) Depositions. Depositions read into the court record are considered exhibits for which the parties shall be responsible as provided in Section (B) above. Depositions on file admitted into evidence but not read into the record shall be retained in the clerk's custody and disposed of as authorized in Section (C) of this rule.

Rule LR83.1. Attorney admissions.

(A) Eligibility and admission. Any lawyer who is a member in good standing of the North Carolina State Bar is eligible for admission to the bar of this court, which admission shall be granted as a matter of course upon the payment of a fee in the amount of $100.00 and upon taking the prescribed oath in open court which reads as follows:

> I do solemnly swear that I am a member in good standing of the North Carolina State Bar entitled to practice law in the courts of general jurisdiction of the State of North Carolina, and I do solemnly swear that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic, and bear true faith and allegiance to the same and that I will demean myself as an attorney and officer of this court in accordance with the Canons of Ethics of the North Carolina State Bar and American Bar Association, and according to law.
> I take this obligation freely without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, so help me God.

Attorneys already admitted to the bars of either the United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina or the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina may be admitted to the bar of this court upon tendering the application and fees required by this rule, together with a copy of the order admitting the attorney to practice in either of the aforementioned districts. It shall be necessary for a member in good standing of the North Carolina State Bar to be formally admitted in this district in advance of making an appearance and filing papers; such attorney may be admitted nunc pro tunc at trial time.

(B) Special admissions. Litigants in civil and criminal actions, except counsel representing governmental agencies and parties appearing pro se, must be represented by at least one member of the bar of this court or by an attorney admitted to practice by this court pursuant to this section. Any lawyer who is a member in good standing of the Bar of the Supreme Court of the United States or the Bar of the Supreme Court of any state in the United States may, in the discretion of the judges of this court, be permitted to appear in a particular case. If such permission is granted, and if a member of the bar of this court is not associated, said attorney and his client shall be deemed to have consented that service of all pleadings and notices may be made upon a deputy clerk in the appropriate division of this court as process agent. The court encourages such out-of-state attorneys to associate a member of the bar of this court in all cases, but will not require such association where the amount in controversy or the importance of the case does not appear to justify double employment of counsel. Special admissions will be the exception and not the rule, and no out-of-state counsel will be permitted to practice frequently or regularly in this court without the association of local counsel.

Where justice requires, the authorized deputy clerks at Asheville, Statesville and Charlotte may permit the filing of papers at the request of out-of-state counsel; provided, however, the further participation of out-of-state counsel shall be governed as herein above provided.

All counsel, except those representing governmental agencies, must pay a fee in the amount of $100.00 for each special admission or whenever Pro Hac Vice admission is granted.

(C) Withdrawal of counsel. Counsel seeking to withdraw shall file written consent of their client to their withdrawal which shall become effective on determination that a scheduled hearing or trial will not be delayed and upon court approval. Over objection of the client, withdrawal may still be obtained upon good cause shown if it is determined that a scheduled hearing or trial will not be delayed.

Rule LR83.2. No photographing, televising, or broadcasting of court proceedings.

The taking of photographs in the courtroom, or in the corridors immediately adjacent thereto, during the progress of judicial proceedings, or during any recess, and the transmitting or sound recording of such proceedings for broadcasting by radio or television, shall not be permitted. Proceedings other than judicial proceedings designed and conducted as ceremonies, such as administering oaths of office to appointed officials of the court, presentation of portraits, and similar ceremonial occasions, may be photographed in, broadcasted or televised from the courtroom, with the permission and under the supervision of the court.

PART II. LOCAL RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

Rule LCrR11.1. Electronic recording of Rule 11 inquiry.

When an appropriate inquiry under Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 11 is conducted by a United States Magistrate Judge, the electronic recording of the proceeding shall constitute the verbatim record of the proceeding.

Rule LCrR20.1. Transfers for plea and sentence.

(A) Upon transfer of the pleadings from the transferor district, the clerk in the appropriate divisional office shall assign a criminal case number and randomly assign a District Judge.

(B) Pending Related Case(s): If a related case is pending before another District Judge, the U.S. Attorney shall move for consolidation of both actions before the judge assigned to the lowest case number and submit a proposed order for the court. The motion for consolidation may be filed in either of the cases with proper notice of motion in the related case. Upon execution of the order, the clerk shall reassign the later case to the judge presiding on the lowest case number, unless otherwise set forth in the order.

Rule LCrR23.1. Fair trial and free press in criminal cases.

(A) It is the duty of the lawyer, in connection with pending or imminent criminal litigation with which he is associated, not to release or authorize the release of information or opinion for dissemination by any means of public communication, if there is a reasonable likelihood that such dissemination will interfere with a fair trial or otherwise prejudice the due administration of justice.

With respect to a grand jury or other pending investigation of any criminal matter, a lawyer participating in the investigation shall refrain from making any extrajudicial statement for dissemination by any means of public communication that goes beyond the public record or that is not necessary to inform the public that the investigation is underway, to describe the general scope of the investigation, to obtain assistance in the apprehension of a suspect, to warn the public of any dangers, or otherwise to aid in the investigation.

From the time of arrest, issuance of an arrest warrant, or the filing of a complaint, information, or indictment in any criminal matter until the commencement of trial or disposition without trial, a lawyer associated with the prosecution or defense shall not release or authorize the release of any extrajudicial statement, for dissemination by any means of public communication, relating to that matter and concerning:

(1) The prior criminal record (including arrests, indictments, or other charges of crime), or the character or reputation of the accused, except that the lawyer may make a factual statement of the accused's name, age, residence, occupation, and family status; and if the accused has not been apprehended, a lawyer associated with the prosecution may release any information necessary to aid in his apprehension or to warn the public of any dangers he may present;

(2) The existence or contents of any confession, admission, or statement given by the accused, or the refusal or failure of the accused to make any statement;

(3) The performance of any examination or tests or the accused's refusal or failure to submit to an examination or test;

(4) The identity, testimony, or credibility of prospective witnesses, except that the lawyer may announce the identity of the victim if the announcement is not otherwise prohibited by law;

(5) The possibility of a plea of guilty to the offense charged or a lesser offense;

(6) Any opinion as to the accused's guilt or innocence or as to the merits of the case or the evidence in the case.

The foregoing shall not be construed to preclude the lawyer during this period, in the proper discharge of his official or professional obligations, from announcing the fact and circumstances of arrest (including time and place of arrest, resistance, pursuit, and use of weapons), the identity of the investigating and arresting officer or agency, and the length of the investigation; from making an announcement at the time of seizure of any physical evidence other than a confession, admission or statement, which is limited to a description of the evidence seized; from disclosing the nature, substance, or text of the charge, including a brief description of the offense charged; from quoting or referring without comment to public records of the court in the case; from requesting assistance in obtaining evidence; or from announcing without further comment that the accused denies the charges made against him.

During the trial of any criminal matter, including the period of selection of the jury, no lawyer associated with the prosecution or defense shall give or authorize any extrajudicial statement or interview relating to the trial or the parties or issues in the trial, for dissemination by any means of public communication, except that the lawyer may quote from or refer without comment to public records of the court in the case.

After completion of a trial or disposition without trial of any criminal matter, and prior to the imposition of sentence, a lawyer associated with the prosecution or defense shall refrain from making or authorizing any extrajudicial statement, for dissemination by any means of public communication, if there is a reasonable likelihood that such dissemination will affect the imposition of sentence.

Nothing in this rule is intended to preclude the formulation or application of more restrictive rules relating to the release of information about juvenile or other offenders, to preclude the holding of hearings or the lawful issuance of reports by legislative, administrative, or investigative bodies, or to preclude any lawyer from replying to charges of misconduct that are publicly made against him.

(B) All courthouse personnel, including, among others, marshals, deputy marshals, court clerks, bailiffs, and court reporters, shall not disclose to any person, without authorization by the court, information concerning arguments and hearings in criminal cases held in chambers or otherwise outside the presence of the public, or disclose any other information relating to a pending criminal case that is not part of the public records of this court.

(C) In a widely publicized or sensational case, the court, on motion of either party or on its own motion, may issue a special order governing such matters as extrajudicial statements by parties and witnesses likely to interfere with the accused's right to a fair trial by an impartial jury, the seating and conduct in the courtroom of spectators and news media representatives, the management and sequestration of jurors and witnesses, and any other matters which the court may deem appropriate for inclusion in such an order.

Rule LCrR32.1. Disclosure of presentence or probation records.

The probation officer's recommendation on the sentence is a confidential record and shall not be disclosed, except pursuant to an order of the court. No confidential records of this court maintained by the probation office shall be sought by an applicant except by written petition to this court establishing with particularity the need for specific information in the records.

Rule LCrR46.1. Release from custody — Recognizance.

Release on personal recognizance shall be granted by United States Judges in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. Recognizance shall be left to the discretion of the judge within the requirements of the rules.

Rule LCrR55.1. Sealed records.

(A) For any criminal case which the government desires to be sealed, the charging document must be accompanied by an ex parte motion and order requesting that all or a portion of the documents in the criminal case be sealed at the time of filing a complaint or information, or on the return of a grand jury indictment. The clerk shall seal the case or documents as specified in the court's order. The case shall be listed on the clerk's index as United States of America vs. Sealed Defendant. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, upon referral, the Magistrate Judge on a showing of good cause by the United States Attorney or a defendant, the case or documents shall be unsealed as follows:

(1) Where the case involves a single defendant, at the time of the defendant's initial appearance before the Magistrate Judge;

(2) Where the case involves more than one defendant, at the time the last defendant appears in this district before the Magistrate Judge, unless written motion to unseal is submitted earlier with a proposed order to be executed by the court.

(B) Pending Cases: A pending case may be sealed at any time upon motion of either party and execution by the court of a written order. Unless otherwise specified in the order, neither the clerk's case index nor the existing case docket shall be modified. The motion and proposed order presented to the court should specifically identify that portion of the record which is to be sealed, such as:

(1) the case file;

(2) the case docket;

(3) a specific pleading; or

(4) only the identity of new defendants brought into the case.

(C) Documents: Documents ordered sealed by the court or otherwise required to be sealed by statute shall be marked as such within the document caption and submitted together with the judge's copy prepared in the same manner. If the document is sealed pursuant to a prior order of the court, the pleading caption shall include a notation that the document is being filed under court seal and include the order's entry date.

No document shall be designated by any party as "filed under seal" or "confidential" unless:

(1) it is accompanied by an order sealing the document;

(2) it is being filed in a case that the court has ordered sealed; or

(3) it contains material that is the subject of a protective order entered by the court.

(D) Case Closing: After final disposition of any criminal case where the file or documents under court seal have not previously been unsealed by court order, unless otherwise ordered by the court, the United States Attorney shall be responsible for filing a motion unsealing the matter with a proposed order for the court's execution.

(E) Access to Sealed Documents: Unless otherwise ordered by the court, access to documents and cases under court seal shall be provided by the clerk only pursuant to court order. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the clerk shall make no copies of sealed files or documents.

Rule LCrR57.1. Authority of Magistrate Judges in criminal matters.

(A) Magistrate Judges are authorized and designated to exercise the following functions and duties regarding criminal actions in the Western District.

(1) To perform the duties prescribed in 28 U.S.C. § 636(a).

(2) To try and to sentence, if found guilty, persons charged with petty offenses and misdemeanors, and to direct the probation office to prepare a presentence report in any such case, as provided by 18 U.S.C. § 3401.

(3) To hear and decide non-dispositive procedural or discovery motions and other pretrial matters, as provided by 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A).

(4) To hear any dispositive motions involving cases in which the parties have not consented to jurisdiction of the Magistrate Judge and thereafter to submit to the district court proposed findings of fact and recommendations for disposition of such motions, as provided by 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B).

(5) To issue preliminary orders and conduct necessary evidentiary hearings or other appropriate proceedings in connection with cases filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254 and § 2255, and to submit to the district court a report containing proposed findings of fact and recommendations for disposition of such cases (unless consent is obtained for final disposition).

(6) To accept returns of true bills of indictment from the Grand Jury.

(7) To issue orders or warrants authorizing acts necessary in the performance of the duties of administrative and regulatory agencies and departments of the United States Government pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(3).

(8) To perform any additional duties that are not inconsistent with the Constitution or the laws of the United States, as shall be assigned or delegated by the district court.

Rule LCrR57.2. Pending cases involving same defendant.

Where there are two or more cases pending against the same defendant before more than one assigned judge, the United States Attorney or the defendant may move by written motion and proposed order to have any or all of the cases reassigned to the presiding judge with the lowest case number. This motion may be filed before any of the assigned judges with notice of the motion to the other assigned judge(s). Time is of the essence with this motion.

Rule LCrR58.1. Forfeiture of collateral security in lieu of appearance.

Pursuant to Rule 58, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and Title 28, United States Code, Section 636(b)(3), and upon motion made by the United States of America in the interest of justice, good court administration, and sound law enforcement, the Collateral Forfeiture Schedule is hereby amended by adding a collateral forfeiture in the amount of $250 for first offense simple possession of marijuana having a weight not exceeding ¼ ounce or 7.78 grams occurring in the national parks or forests within the Western District of North Carolina. Such collateral may be made mandatory if, in the opinion of the arresting or citing officer, the offense was aggravated.

Such revision is reflected in the amended schedules annexed hereby and hereby incorporated into the overall Collateral Forfeiture Schedule.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
CHARLOTTE DIVISION

RE: REVISION, PROMULGATION, AND CONSOLIDATION OF COLLATERAL FORFEITURES AND MANDATORY APPEARANCES FOR PETTY AND CERTAIN OTHER MISDEMEANOR OFFENSES OCCURRING WITHIN THE SPECIAL TERRITORIAL JURISDICTION OF THE UNITED STATES WITHIN THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA	)	ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the court upon motion of the United States Attorney for the Western District of North Carolina, which was made in accordance with Rule 58(d)(1), Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, for revision, promulgation, and consolidation of collateral forfeiture schedules.

For cause, the United States has shown that a number of collateral forfeiture schedules are presently in place for federal law enforcement agencies within the Western District of North Carolina. Further, the United States has shown that with the addition of all Tennessee Valley Authority property to the jurisdiction of this court, there is a need for a consistent schedule, inasmuch as the TVA shares boundaries with other federal agencies and will be assisting other agencies in the enforcement of laws and protection of the public through shared jurisdiction agreements.

Finding that the proposed amendments are in the best interest of the public and the sound and consistent administration of justice, the court enters the following Order.

ORDER

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the annexed UNIFIED COLLATERAL FORFEITURE SCHEDULE is ADOPTED for use in all petty and misdemeanor offenses committed within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States within the Western District of North Carolina. All previous schedules are hereby superseded; however, all tickets or other criminal process issued before this Order may proceed to conclusion under the previous schedules.

The Clerk of this court is respectfully instructed to send a copy of this Order and annexed Unified Collateral Forfeiture Schedule to the United States Attorney for the Western District of North Carolina for further dissemination to the agencies he represents.

This 9th day of March, 2003.

5. Any Misdemeanor Provision Not Covered is Mandatory

9. Guidelines From The Court

1. Where collateral is insufficient for the offense, officer may make any offense Mandatory
2. Unlike the previous system of multiple schedules, this schedule provides consistent forfeitures for the numerous agencies having jurisdiction in the Western District of North Carolina. It is the responsibility of the agencies and the issuing officers to correlate the appropriate charge with the most similar collateral provided.
3. If the Code of Federal Regulations LIMITS the maximum amount of a fine for your agency, you may LOWER the collateral to match the MAXIMUM amount allowed.

CONSENT TO PROCEED BEFORE A UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) and Rule 73(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the undersigned counsel of record CONSENTS to have a United States Magistrate Judge conduct all further proceedings in this case, including bench or jury trial, and order the entry of final judgment.

Signed and dated this _____ day of _____, _____

Attorney for _____

MAGISTRATE JUDGES DO NOT CONDUCT TRIALS IN CRIMINAL FELONY CASES. ACCORDINGLY, CRIMINAL TRIALS DO NOT INTERFERE WITH THE SCHEDULING AND PROCESSING OF CIVIL CASES ASSIGNED TO MAGISTRATE JUDGES AND ARE THEREFORE RESOLVED SOONER.

REFUSAL TO CONSENT TO PROCEED BEFORE A UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Consent to proceed before a United States Magistrate Judge for trial or order of an entry of final judgment is refused. I understand that a United States Magistrate Judge may retain jurisdiction of this matter for purposes of resolving non-dispositive motions.

Signed and dated this _____ day of _____, _____

Attorney for _____

PLAINTIFF IS TO SERVE THIS FORM ON ALL DEFENDANTS WITH THE COMPLAINT.
PLAINTIFF SHALL FILE THIS FORM ON OR BEFORE THE DATE THAT PLAINTIFF FIRST SEEKS SERVICE OF THE COMPLAINT UPON THE DEFENDANT(S) IN ANY MANNER PROVIDED BY RULE 4, Fed. R. Civ. Proc.
DEFENDANTS MUST FILE THIS FORM WITH THEIR FIRST RESPONSIVE PLEADING.

Please see the reverse side for further information and directions.

CONSENT FORM INSTRUCTIONS

In the Western District of North Carolina, a new civil action is randomly assigned to either a District Judge or a Magistrate Judge at the time of filing. Upon filing, the plaintiff is to provide a copy of the Consent/Refusal Form to all defendants. The plaintiff must serve this form on all defendants with their copy of the complaint.

Each plaintiff must file this Consent/Refusal Form on or before the date that plaintiff first seeks service of the complaint upon the defendant(s) in any manner provided by Rule 4, Fed. R. Civ. Proc.

Each defendant's Consent/Refusal Form must be filed with said defendant's first responsive pleading.

A United States Magistrate Judge may, with the consent of the parties, conduct all proceedings in this civil action, including a bench or jury trial, and order the entry of final judgment. See 28 U.S.C. § 636 and F.R.C.P. 73. The statute provides for direct appeal to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.

If this case has been randomly assigned to a District Judge and all parties consent to have the Magistrate Judge conduct all proceedings, the case may be referred to a Magistrate Judge.

If this case has been randomly assigned to a Magistrate Judge and not all parties consent, the Magistrate Judge may still be responsible for the pretrial processing of the case. The Magistrate Judge may hear and decide all non-dispositive pretrial and discovery matters. The Magistrate Judge may consider dispositive motions by issuing proposed findings and a recommendation to the District Judge in accordance with F.R.C.P. 72(a) and (b). When the Magistrate Judge has issued proposed findings and a recommendation on a dispositive motion, the case will be sent back to the Clerk of Court for random reassignment to a District Judge. Thereafter, if the dispositive motion does not resolve the case, the District Judge will return the file to the Magistrate Judge who will preside over the case until it is ready for trial. When the case is ready for trial, it will be returned to the District Judge for all further proceedings.

EACH PARTY HAS THE DUTY TO RESPOND TO THIS ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER BY FILING THE CONSENT/REFUSAL FORM. File the form on the reverse side of this Order with the Clerk of Court.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Plaintiff(s) serve a copy of the Consent/Refusal form on all defendants with the complaint.

Plaintiff must file an executed form on or before the date that plaintiff first seeks service of the complaint upon the defendant(s) in any manner provided by Rule 4, Fed. R. Civ. Proc.

Each defendant must file a Consent/Refusal Form with said defendant's first responsive pleading.

Frank G. Johns
Clerk, United States District Court

LOCAL FORMS

Index follows Rules.

PART I
COMMENCEMENT OF CASE; PROCEEDINGS RELATED TO PETITION AND ORDER FOR RELIEF

Rule 1002-1. Protection of Personal Privacy.

(a) Public Records. All filings with this Bankruptcy Court are public records. Absent a specific order limiting publication, the Court's records are maintained in electronic format and are available to the public on the internet. Any person who desires to limit publication of records in this manner must timely do so in accordance with this Local Rule.

(b) Responsibility of Debtor. The protection of personal privacy is the responsibility of the debtor, not the debtor's counsel. The Court expects that the procedures outlined in this rule will be invoked only upon the debtor's request that the debtor's privacy be protected.

(c) Motion to Approve Limitation of Publication. The debtor may request that the personal identifiers listed in this Local Rule be redacted from documents filed with the Court, including the debtor's petition, claims, and pleadings; that documents be sealed from publication in their entirety; and/or that publication be limited in some other manner. Such request must be made by motion filed prior to the filing of the document. The motion shall be noticed to all parties in interest, the Bankruptcy Administrator, and the trustee.

(d) Personal Identifiers. The Court may order the redaction of the following personal identifiers from documents filed with the Clerk:

(1) Social Security Numbers. All but the last four digits of the debtor's Social Security number may be redacted.

(2) Name of Minor Child. The name of a minor child may be redacted, and the child's initials used instead.

(3) Dates of Birth. All but the year of the debtor's birth may be redacted.

(4) Financial Account Numbers. All but the last four digits of the debtor's financial account numbers may be redacted.

(e) Compliance. Upon Court order limiting publication, the responsibility for making the appropriate modifications to documents before filing and otherwise complying with the order of the Court rests solely with counsel and the parties. The Clerk will not review documents filed for compliance with this Local Rule or otherwise undertake to ensure limited publication. Counsel and the parties are cautioned that it is their responsibility to ensure that documents subject to a limitation on publication are in fact so limited, and that failure to comply with the Court's order in this regard will result in publication of the document.

Editor's note. — For website, see www.ncwb.uscourts.gov.

Rule 1002-2. Petition — General.

(a) Electronic Filing. Attorneys shall file electronically all petitions, schedules, and statements, including any schedule deficiencies, unless leave of court is granted. In filing electronically or non-electronically, attorneys shall comply with Local Rule 5005-1 and the Court's Administrative Guide for Electronic Case Filing Procedures available on the Court's website, www.ncwb.uscourts.gov. Filing electronically shall constitute the signature of the attorney and debtor(s).

(b) Waiver Requirements. Attorneys unable to file electronically may seek a waiver through a letter to the Court. In instances where the Court has granted leave to file non-electronically, complete petitions, schedules, and statements, including any schedule deficiencies, pursuant to Rule 1007 and § 1321 of the Code, are to be filed with the Court on a diskette in PDF format as defined in the Administrative Guide for Electronic Case Filing Procedures. Chapter 13 plans are required to be in a PDF format as a separate document on the diskette provided to the Court. Filing non-electronically on diskette shall constitute the signature of the attorney and debtor(s).

(c) Petitions Filed by Non-Attorneys. For petitions filed by non-attorneys, the following number of copies are required:

(1) Chapter 7 cases, the original and two copies.

(2) Chapter 11 cases, original and five copies.

(3) Chapter 13 cases, original and two copies of the petition and plan.

(d) Joint Petitions. When a joint petition is filed by a husband and wife who do not share the same surname, the debtors shall append to their petition a duly executed affidavit verifying that they are legally married at the time of filing of the petition. Such petitions submitted without the required affidavit will be filed by the Clerk, subject to dismissal in accordance with Local Rule 1007-1(b). This requirement is applicable to cases filed pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above.

(e) Petition Filed by a Corporation. When a voluntary bankruptcy petition is filed by a corporation, there shall be attached to the petition as an exhibit the original or a certified copy of the resolution of the debtor's board of directors authorizing the filing of the bankruptcy petition. Such petitions submitted without the required board resolution will be filed by the Clerk, subject to dismissal three days after filing without notice or opportunity for hearing.

(f) The Court's case management and electronic filing system shall be referred to as CM/ECF throughout these Local Rules.

Rule 1002-3. Chapter 11 First-Day Financing Orders.

Guidelines. The Court has adopted certain guidelines for cash collateral orders for Chapter 11 cases, which are appended to these Local Rules.

Rule 1006-1. Filing Fee.

Failure to Pay Filing Fee in Installments. In the event the debtor submits an application to pay the filing fee in installments, and the debtor subsequently fails to pay the filing fee in installments pursuant to the terms allowed by order of this Court, the debtor's case will be subject to dismissal without further notice or opportunity for hearing.

Rule 1007-1. Lists, Schedules, and Statements; Time Limits.

(a) Chapter 11. When Chapter 11 Petitions, schedules, statements and schedule deficiencies are filed electronically or non-electronically by an attorney, the attorney is required to serve these documents upon the following:

(1) U.S. Bankruptcy Administrator
402 W. Trade Street
Suite 200
Charlotte, NC 28202
(2) Securities & Exchange Commission
Branch of Reorganization
Suite 1000
3475 Lennox Road, NE
Atlanta, GA 30327-1323
(3) Internal Revenue Service
320 Federal Place, Room 335
Attn: Insolvency Unit
Greensboro, NC 27401

(b) Failure to File Lists, Schedules, Statements or Other Documents. In the event a bankruptcy petition is filed with the Clerk of Court without all of the lists, schedules, statements, or other documents required to be filed in conjunction with the filing of a bankruptcy petition by the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure or these Local Bankruptcy Rules, the Clerk of Court shall immediately serve upon the debtor(s), the debtor(s)' attorney, the trustee, and the petitioning creditors, if applicable, a Notice of Deficient Filing. This Notice notifies said parties that the specified documents were not filed with the petition, and that the bankruptcy case will be subject to dismissal, without further notice and opportunity for hearing if the specified documents are not filed with the Clerk of Court within the time set forth in the applicable Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure or these Local Rules.

Rule 1007-2. Master Mailing Matrix.

(a) Mailing Matrix. Attorneys filing petitions electronically are required to download into the CM/ECF system a mailing matrix containing the complete mailing address, including zip codes, for the following:

(1) All creditors listed in the petition.

(2) Internal Revenue Service, 320 Federal Place, Room 335, Attn: Insolvency Unit, Greensboro, NC 27401, or the most current address on file with the Clerk of Court.

(3) North Carolina Department of Revenue, Office Services Division, Bankruptcy Unit, Post Office Box 1168, Raleigh, NC 27602-1168, or the most current address on file with the Clerk of Court.

(4) If the United States is a party, the matrix should include the United States Attorney, 227 West Trade Street, Suite 1700, Carillon Building, Charlotte, NC 28202-1648, or the most current address on file with the Clerk of Court and the appropriate agency (e.g., FHA, RHS, FSA, VA, SBA).

(5) In Chapter 13 cases, creditors or contingent creditors to whom notice should be sent must be listed on the schedule of creditors as well as onthe matrix.

(6) In Chapter 11 cases, in addition to the entities listed above, attorneys are required to download into the CM/ECF system a mailing matrix containing the complete mailing address, including zip code, for the Bankruptcy Administrator, 402 W. Trade Street, Suite 200, Charlotte, NC 28202.

The filing of the mailing matrix shall serve to certify the accuracy thereof. The filer shall be responsible for any errors in or omissions from the listing.

(b) Non-electronically filed mailing matrices. Unless otherwise excepted by Rule 1007(a)(2), attorneys who have been granted a waiver from the electronic filing requirement pursuant to Local Rule 1002-1, or debtors or non-attorneys filing non-electronically shall submit to the Clerk of Court at the time the petition is filed a mailing matrix on a 3.5″ computer disk, along with a printed hard copy, in a format set forth by the Clerk's Office. Upon request, an instruction sheet is available from the Clerk of Court. A matrix submitted pursuant to this paragraph must comply with paragraph (a) above.

Rule 1007-3. Compliance with Statement of Intentions.

Evidence of Compliance. Within 45 days of the filing of the debtor's statement of intention, the debtor or the debtor's counsel shall serve on the trustee evidence of delivery of the collateral, evidence of reaffirmation of the debt, or other evidence showing compliance with the debtor's statement of intention.

Rule 1014-1. Transfers of Venue Within District.

(a) Notice and Motion. A request to change divisional venue of a case, adversary proceeding, or contested matter shall be made as follows:

(1) By filing a motion, with the approval or disapproval of the Bankruptcy Administrator attached, and a notice to all creditors and other parties in interest explaining the request and providing a 10-day opportunity for objections and a certificate of service of the notice by the movant evidencing service on all creditors and other parties in interest, including all parties the Court requires on a standard matrix; and

(2) By submitting a proposed order after the objection period has expired.

(b) Removal of First Meeting. The moving party shall be responsible for the removal and resetting of the § 341 first meeting of creditors.

Rule 1015-1. Case Deconsolidation.

(a) Motion to Deconsolidate. Motions to deconsolidate cases involving joint debtors may be filed on a no-protest basis. Notice shall be sent to all parties in interest, the Bankruptcy Administrator, and the trustee.

(b) Deconsolidation Fee. Motions to deconsolidate a joint case shall be accompanied by a fee equal to one-half the current filing fee for the Chapter under which the joint case originally commenced. No fee is charged if one of the joint debtors is dismissed from a case.

(c) Conversion and Deconsolidation. If a deconsolidated case is converted to a Chapter 7 case, in addition to the fee to deconsolidate the joint case, a $15 conversion fee shall be paid.

Rule 1017-1. Debtor's Failure to Appear at First Meeting of Creditors.

Dismissal for Failure to Appear. In the event the debtor fails to appear at the § 341 first meeting of creditors, the debtor's case will be subject to dismissal without further notice or opportunity for hearing.

Rule 1071-1. Divisions - Bankruptcy Court.

There shall be five divisions of the Court. The headquarters of each division and the counties comprising each division areas follows:

Name of Division	Clerk's Office	Counties
Asheville (Case prefix 1)	Asheville	Avery, Buncombe, Haywood, Henderson, Madison, Mitchell, Transylvania, Yancey

Name of Division	Clerk's Office	Counties
Bryson City (Case prefix 2)	Asheville	Cherokee, Clay, Graham,Jackson, Macon, Swain

Shelby (Case prefix 4)	Charlotte	Burke, Cleveland, McDowell, Lincoln, Polk, Rutherford
Wilkesboro(Case prefix 5)	Charlotte	Alexander, Alleghany, Ashe, Caldwell, Catawba, Iredell, Watauga, Wilkes

Rule 1073-1. Assignment of Cases.

Determination of Division for Assignment. In accordance with the divisions established in Local Rule 1071-1, the Clerk of Court shall assign all cases and proceedings to a division when the action is filed or removed. The place of filing shall be determined by the debtor's domicile, residence, principal place of business, or the location of the debtor's principal assets immediately preceding the filing of the bankruptcy case. In cases involving an affiliate, a general partner or partnership, related cases shall be assigned to the division where the original case was filed or is pending. In adversary proceedings when there is no pending bankruptcy case in this district, the division will be assigned at the discretion of the Clerk.

PART II
OFFICERS AND ADMINISTRATION; NOTICES; MEETINGS; EXAMINATIONS; ELECTIONS; ATTORNEYS AND ACCOUNTANTS

Rule 2002-1. Notice to Creditors and Service of Papers.

(a) Amended or Supplemental Schedules. If additional creditors are added after the debtor(s)' initial filing, the debtor shall serve the § 341 notice on the added creditors and promptly file a certificate of service with the Clerk of Court.

(b) Certificates of Service. The party filing a pleading shall serve the pleading upon appropriate parties and file with the Clerk a certificate of service either with the pleading or promptly after service. The party obtaining relief from the Court shall serve a copy of the filed order upon the appropriate parties and promptly file a certificate of service with the Clerk.

(c) Method of Service. Service of all pleadings and orders shall be by first class mail or electronically.

(d) Notice by Proponent. The proponent shall prepare and mail notices required pursuant to Rule 2002(a)(2), (3) and Rule 2002(f)(8).

(e) Papers Required to be Served by Chapter 11 Debtors. In Chapter 11 cases, the debtor in possession shall be responsible for serving the following papers and for filing a certificate of service with the Clerk's Office within five days of the date of the mailing:

(1) The debtor's plan;

(2) The debtor's disclosure statement as approved by the Court;

(3) The ballot;

(4) Notice regarding balloting and date for hearing on confirmation of the debtor's plan in a form approved by the Clerk's Office; and

(5) Any other notices as the Court or Clerk shall direct in a particular case in a form approved by the Clerk's Office.

(f) Service of Chapter 11 Fee Application and Notice of Hearing. In addition to proper service of the notice, copies of the full applications for compensation shall be served by the applicant on the debtor, the debtor's counsel, the Bankruptcy Administrator, and the trustee, if a trustee has been appointed. In all cases in which there is any Court-appointed committee, a full copy of the fee application shall also be served on the chairman of each such committee and its counsel if such has been appointed, or if no counsel so serves, then on all members of that committee who have accepted appointment.

(g) Service of Chapter 13 Plan. In Chapter 13 cases, the debtor shall serve copies of the Chapter 13 plan, prepared in conformance with the Court-approved local form, on all parties in interest as soon as possible following the filing of the bankruptcy petition.

Rule 2004-1. Examination.

Time. Unless otherwise ordered, an examination taken pursuant to Rule 2004 shall not exceed four hours in duration.

Rule 2016-1. Appointment of Professional Persons; Retainers Held by Professional Persons and Chapter 11 Attorney Fee Applications.

(a) Professional Fee Guidelines. Professionals seeking compensation are encouraged to refer to the Guidelines for Compensation which are appended to these Local Rules.

(b) Appointment of Professionals and Retainers.

(1) Applications. Absent extraordinary circumstances, attorneys and other professionals will not be appointed nunc pro tunc. Applications for appointment filed within 30 days of the filing of the petition or within 30 days of the date services commence, whichever occurs later, shall be considered timely.

(2) Retainers. In a Chapter 11 case, a retainer held by a professional shall be maintained in a trust account. The professional shall not draw against the retainer postpetition except upon order of the Court.

(c) Security Interests. Any agreements granting security interests in the debtor's property or other property for the benefit of the debtor to the debtor's attorney or any other professional employed by the debtor to secure the payment of professional fees must be fully disclosed in the petition and/or schedules and must be approved by the Court. Any party receiving such an interest must make application to the Court within 15 days of the date of filing of the petition or the date of the agreement, whichever occurs later. Such application should be served on all parties in interest, including the trustee and the Bankruptcy Administrator, and may be filed on a "no protest" basis pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(e).

(d) Chapter 13 Plan and Disclosure of Attorneys Fee Procedure. In addition to filing the petition and schedules as required by the Official Bankruptcy Forms, the debtor shall file its Chapter 13 plan in conformance with Local Form 4 and shall file an executed Disclosure to Debtor(s) of Attorneys Fee Procedure, in conformance with Local Form 3.

(e) Compensation of Attorneys in Chapter 13 Cases.

(1) Subject to paragraph (f)(5), below, the amount of the fee in cases and with respect to pleadings filed electronically shall be as follows:

(A) The base fee in a Chapter 13 case is up to $1,600.

(B) Any fee for non-base services that may be rendered a Chapter 13 debtor must be applied for and approved by the Court. For fees and expenses under

$1,000, notice need only be sent to the debtor(s), the trustee, and the Bankruptcy Administrator. For fees and expenses of $1,000 or more, all parties in interest must be noticed. If a no-protest notice is used, it shall be given using the form appended to these Local Bankruptcy Rules as Local Form 1.

(C) Where substitute counsel is retained by a Chapter 13 debtor, the attorney may collect a base fee of $450.

(2) In cases and with respect to pleadings not filed electronically, the base fee is up to $1,300, and all other fees scheduled in this Rule 2016-1, (e),(f), and (i) shall be reduced by $100.

(f) Definition of Base Fee Services.

(1) The Base Fee shall be presumed to compensate the debtor(s)' attorney for a level of services to the debtor(s) that shall at a minimum include the following services:

(A) Preparation and filing of petition, schedules, supplemental local forms, Chapter 13 plan and matrix;

(B) Circulating a copy of the Chapter 13 plan to all creditors and interested parties as reflected in the case matrix;

(C) Drafting and mailing letter to debtor(s) regarding attendance at the § 341 meeting, escrow of first money, and other responsibilities of the debtor(s);

(D) Preparation for and attendance at the § 341 meeting;

(E) Review of confirmation order and periodic case status reports from the trustee;

(F) Review of trustee's motion for allowance of claims;

(G) Maintaining custody and control of all case files with original documents for such periods prescribed by law or court rule;

(H) Service of orders on all affected parties;

(I) Verification of the debtor(s) identity and social security number;

(J) Defending objection(s) to confirmation of the debtor(s)' plan.

(2) The Base Fee shall also include the following services to the extent they are requested or reasonably necessary for effective representation of the debtor(s):

(A) Preparation and filing of proofs of claim on behalf of the debtor for a creditor;

(B) Drafting and filing of objections to scheduled and unscheduled proofs of claim;

(C) Assumptions and rejections of unexpired leases and executory contracts;

(D) Preparation for and attendance at valuation hearings;

(E) Motions to transfer venue;

(F) Requesting copies of proofs of claim from trustee;

(G) Consultation with the debtor(s) regarding obtaining postpetition credit, where no formal application is ultimately filed;

(H) Drafting motions to avoid liens pursuant to § 522(f) of the Code.

(I) Calculation of plan payment modifications, where no formal motion is ultimately filed;

(J) Adding creditor addresses to the master mailing matrix pursuant to filed proofs of claim and notices of appearance or assignment of claims;

(K) Responding to written creditor contacts regarding plan terms, valuation of collateral, claim amounts, and the like;

(L) Responding to debtor contacts regarding job losses, changes in financial circumstances, address changes, and advising the Court and the trustee of the same when appropriate;

(M) Communicating with the debtor(s), to a degree that is reasonable, regarding mortgage payment defaults, lease defaults, insurance coverage or the lack thereof, warranties, possible credit disability, life insurance coverage, and the like;

(N) Obtaining and providing the trustee with copies of documents relating to lien perfection issues, such as recorded deeds of trust, purchase money security agreements, and the like;

(O) Drafting and mailing letters to creditors upon entry of discharge regarding lien releases, turnover of clear title certificates, cancellation of deeds of trust and judgments, and the like;

(P) Drafting and mailing certified letter to creditors regarding matters related to alleged violations of the automatic stay;

(Q) Drafting and mailing letters regarding voluntary turnover of property;

(R) Review of documents in relation to the use or sale of collateral when no formal application is ultimately filed;

(S) Providing the debtor(s) with a list of answers to frequently asked questions and other routine communications with the debtor(s) during the pendency of the case.

(3) The following services are presumed not to be covered by the base fee, and additional compensation may be awarded by the Court for the following services. Non-base fees may not be requested of the debtor(s) or paid by the debtor(s) or any other person, in trust or otherwise, without prior approval of the Court:

(A) Abandonment of property post-confirmation;

(B) Motion for moratorium;

(C) Motion for authority to sell property;

(D) Motion to modify plan;

(E) Motion to use cash collateral or to incur debt;

(F) Defense of motion for relief from stay or codebtor stay;

(G) Defense of motion to dismiss filed after confirmation of the debtor(s) plan;

(H) Non-base fee requests;

(I) Stay violation litigation, including amounts paid as fees by the creditor or other party;

(J) Post-discharge injunction actions;

(K) Adversary proceedings;

(L) Wage garnishment orders;

(M) Turnover adversaries;

(N) Conversion to Chapter 7;

(O) Motions to substitute collateral;

(P) Any other matter not covered by paragraph (f)(1) above.

(4) In the Court's discretion, attorneys in a Chapter 13 proceeding may request, in open court, and without any further notice, non-base fees for the following services and in the amounts not exceeding those shown below. Without other notice, the debtor(s)' attorney may also request the actual expenses of filing fees and of notice to creditors.

(A) Defense of motion to dismiss	$200
(B) Motion to modify and order (including motion for moratorium)	$350
(C) Substitution of collateral	$450
(D) Prosecution or defense of motion for relief from stay or co-debtor stay and order	$450
(E) Motion for authority to sell property and order	$450

(5) These standard base and non-base fees are intended as a convention to reduce expense to the parties. Counsel may, alternatively, apply for non-base fees on a time and expenses basis in accordance with Rule 2016 and § 330 of the Code. In cases where counsel elects this procedure, it must be done at the beginning of the case and with appropriate disclosure.

(g) Fees Exceeding the Base Fee. Any fee retainer and/or agreement for payment taken by an attorney for a Chapter 13 debtor in an amount which is in excess of the base fee shall be applied for by the debtor's attorney within 60 days after the first creditors' meeting pursuant to § 341 of the Code. As to any amounts which the attorney continues to hold as a retainer after that time, application for services rendered in the interim shall be made every six months until all the retainer is earned and paid.

(h) Disclosure of Fee. Every attorney for a Chapter 13 debtor must disclose to the debtor the procedures applicable to awards of attorneys fees in Chapter 13 cases in this District. This disclosure shall be made by reviewing with the debtor the "Disclosure to Debtor(s) of Attorneys Fee Procedures for Chapter 13 Cases in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of North Carolina," Local Form 3, which is annexed to these Local Bankruptcy Rules. This form must be fully completed, executed as indicated, and the original must be filed with the Chapter 13 petition of that debtor.

(i) Payment of Attorneys Fees in Chapter 13 Cases.

(1) An attorney may accept an amount of compensation in advance of the filing of the Chapter 13 case up to the maximum of $1,600 base fee on the following conditions:

(A) All court filing fees must be paid in full at the time the case is filed (no installment fees to be applied for), and

(B) The debtor(s) must appear at the time first set for the § 341 meeting with no less than one full month's Plan payment to turn over to the trustee.

(2) If an attorney accepts a retainer and either (1)(A) or (1)(B) above is not met, the attorney must pay the delinquent fee and/or the Chapter 13 trustee's new case processing charge from the retainer held.

Rule 2016-2. Trustee Search Fee.

Chapter 13 Trustee Search Fee. Chapter 13 standing trustees are authorized to impose charges not to exceed the amounts set forth in the Judicial Conference Bankruptcy Court fee schedule, 28 U.S.C. § 1930(b), in reimbursement of the irreasonable and necessary costs incurred in conducting case record searches, photocopying documents, or performing any similar services at the request of a party in interest.

Rule 2090-1. Representation of Business Entities.

(a) Representation Required. All partnerships, corporations, and other business entities that appear in cases or proceedings before this Court, not including § 341 first meetings of creditors, must be represented by a lawyer duly admitted to practice before this Court. For purposes of this Local Rule, an appearance shall be defined as preparing and filing papers, such as complaints and answers, petitions, applications, and motions; questioning witnesses in proceedings before the Court; and pursuing any action in this Court.

(b) Sole Proprietorships Exempt. This Rule does not apply to an individual conducting business as a sole proprietorship.

Rule 2090-2. Special Admissions.

(a) Special Admission in this District. Litigants appearing at a hearing, except counsel representing governmental agencies and parties appearing pro se, must be represented by at least one member of the bar of this Court or by an attorney admitted to practice by this Court pursuant to the Local Rule for Procedure and Practice 83.1 of the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina and this Local Rule. Any lawyer who is a member in good standing of the Bar of the Supreme Court of the United States or the Bar of the Supreme Court of any state in the United States, may, in the discretion of the judges of this Court, be permitted to appear in a particular case. If special admission is granted, and if a member of the bar of this Court is not associated, the specially admitted attorney and that attorney's client shall be deemed to have consented that service of all pleadings and notices may be made upon a deputy clerk in the appropriate division of this Court as process agent. The Court encourages out-of-state attorneys to associate a member of the bar of this Court in all cases, but will not require such association where the amount in controversy or the importance of the case do not appear to justify double employment of counsel. Special admission will be the exception and not the rule, and no out-of-state counsel will be permitted to practice frequently or regularly in this Court without the association of local counsel. Special admission granted by this Court constitutes admission to the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina.

(b) Filing Papers by Attorneys not Admitted in this District. Where justice requires, the authorized deputy clerks in Asheville and Charlotte may permit the filing of papers at the request of out-of-state counsel; provided, however, that the further participation of out-of-state counsel shall be governed as provided in this Local Rule.

(c) Fee for Special Admission in this District. All counsel, except those representing governmental agencies, must pay a fee as assessed by the District Court for each special admission or whenever Pro Hac Vice admission is granted.

Rule 2091-1. Extent of an Attorney's Duty to Represent.

(a) Duty to Represent Debtor. Any attorney who files a bankruptcy petition for or on behalf of a debtor shall remain the responsible attorney of record for all purposes, including the representation of the debtor in all matters that arise in the case and conversion to another Chapter.

(b) Relief from Duty to Represent. An attorney is automatically deemed relieved of the duty to represent the debtor when the debtor's case is closed. Alternatively, an attorney may be relieved of the duty to represent the debtor only upon motion, and after notice and a hearing, on the order of this Court.

PART III
CLAIMS AND DISTRIBUTION TO CREDITORS AND EQUITY INTEREST HOLDERS; PLANS

Rule 3001-1. Claims and Equity Security Interests.

(1) In Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 cases, all claims shall be filed with the Clerk of Court in accordance with Rule 5005 and Local Rule 5005-1.

(2) In Chapter 13 cases, proofs of claim shall be filed directly with the office of the standing trustee to whom the case is assigned. The address of the proper standing trustee will be shown on the notice of creditors' meeting. Claims will be dated and stamped as received as of the date they arrive in the trustee's office, and the claim shall be deemed filed with the Court as of that date.

(b) Time for Filing Claims in a Chapter 11 Case. In a Chapter 11 case, a proof of claim shall be filed within 90 days after the date first set for the § 341 meeting of creditors, except as provided in Rule 3002(c)(1) or otherwise extended by the Court.

(c) Debtor's Notice of Disputed, Contingent or Unliquidated Claims. In addition to the duties set forth in Local Rule 4002-1, the debtor shall notify each creditor whose claim is scheduled as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated of that fact within 15 days after filing the schedule of assets and liabilities or within 15 days after the addition of any creditors to the petition. Failure to notify a creditor that its claim is listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated shall result in the creditor's claim being deemed filed in the amount listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, as though a proof of claim had been filed by the creditor. The debtor shall file a certificate of service with the Clerk of Court within three days after service has been made.

(d) Filing of Claims by Debtor or Trustee. In Chapter 13 cases, if a creditor fails to file a proof of claim on or before the first date set for the § 341 meeting of creditors, the debtor or trustee may do so in the name of the creditor. If the debtor or trustee does file a proof on behalf of a creditor, the creditor may file an amended proof pursuant to Rule 3002 or Rule 3003(c), which shall supercede the proof filed by the debtor or trustee.

(e) Monthly Reports. In accordance with § 704(8) and § 1107(a) of the Code and Rule 2015, the debtor in possession or, if applicable, the trustee in a Chapter 11 case, shall file with the Clerk, not later than the last day of each month, the original and one copy of a written financial report for the preceding month in a format approved by the Bankruptcy Administrator. The original report must be signed by the debtor or, if applicable, the trustee, and counsel for the debtor or trustee, as applicable. The first report shall include the period between the date the petition was filed and the last day of the calendar month and shall be due within 30 days after entry of the Order for Relief. All subsequent reports shall be for the entire calendar month and shall be due within 30 days following the entry of the Order for Relief.

Rule 3015-1. Dismissal or Conversion of Chapter 13 Cases.

(a) Funds Held by the Trustee at Dismissal or Conversion. In the event of the dismissal or conversion of a Chapter 13 case, the trustee shall dispose of any debtor funds in the trustee's custody as follows:

(1) Cases Dismissed or Converted Prior to Confirmation. The trustee shall refund any funds to the debtor after deducting administrative claims previously allowed by the Court.

(2) Cases Dismissed After Confirmation. The trustee shall disburse any funds received prior to service of the order of dismissal pursuant to the terms of the confirmed plan. Any funds received by the trustee subsequent to service of the order of dismissal shall be refunded to the debtor in care of the debtor's attorney.

(3) Cases Converted After Confirmation. The trustee shall refund balances on hand of $1,000 or less to the debtor in care of the debtor's attorney. Balances of more than $1,000 shall be sent to the trustee serving in the converted case.

(b) Trustee's Right to Seek Court Determination. The provisions of paragraph (a) above are subject to the trustee's right to seek a Court determination of the disposition of funds in any particular case when in the trustee's judgment such a determination is appropriate.

Rule 3016-1. Motion to Extend Exclusivity Period.

Hearing Required. In all Chapter 11 cases, motions to extend the exclusivity period that are filed pursuant to § 1121(d) of the Code may not be filed on a no-protest basis pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(e), and a Court hearing will be required for all such motions.

Rule 3018-1. Chapter 11 Balloting.

Filing with Clerk. Unless otherwise ordered, all original ballots must be returned to the Clerk of Court by the voting parties. Any proponent of a plan shall file a summary of ballots as they appear in the Court record. The summary shall be filed with the Clerk prior to the hearing on confirmation.

PART IV
THE DEBTOR: DUTIES AND BENEFITS

Rule 4001-1. Motions for Relief from Stay.

(a) Motion Requirements. In a motion for relief from stay, the following shall be included:

(1) The amount of the movant's debt;

(2) Brief description of security interest, if applicable, with copies of documents evidencing the security interest and perfection;

(3) Description of the property encumbered by the stay, including serial number(s), lot and block number, etc.; failure to adequately describe the property may result in denial of the motion, even absent objection;

(4) Basis for relief, i.e., property not necessary for reorganization, debtor has no equity, property is not property of the estate; or, if brought for cause, specific facts constituting cause;

(5) Valuation of property and basis and date of valuation, e.g., appraisal, blue book, etc., including applicable copies;

(6) In Chapter 13 cases, when a creditor whose claim is secured by an interest in real property, or personal property that is the debtor's principal residence, is seeking relief from stay on the grounds of postpetition default by the debtor, the creditor must include with the motion for relief from stay a statement of all postpetition account activity that is readable, reasonably understandable, and stated in plain English.

(b) Application of § 362(e) of the Code. If a movant seeks application of the provisions of § 362(e) of the Code, the movant must so state both in the caption of its motion and in the body of the motion. Otherwise, the movant will be deemed to have consented to a waiver of the application of § 362(e) of the Code, and the stay shall remain effective notwithstanding the expiration of the 30-day period. Similarly, if the movant seeks application of § 362(e) but selects a hearing date outside the 30-day period of § 362(e), the movant will be deemed to have consented to the waiver of the application of § 362(e), and the stay shall remain effective at least until the Court considers the matter at the hearing, and thereafter upon such terms as the Court orders. If the movant seeks application of § 362(e) and so notifies the Court and the adverse party, the Court will schedule the initial hearing within the applicable 30-day period.

(c) Standing Modification of the Automatic Stay. The automatic stay provided in § 362(a) of the Code is modified in bankruptcy cases so as to authorize the Internal Revenue Service to:

(1) Make income tax refunds, in the ordinary course of business, directly to debtors, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or otherwise instructed by the trustee.

(2) Offset against any prepetition refund due a debtor any prepetition tax obligation owing by the debtor to the United States government.

Rule 4002-1. Debtor Duties.

(a) Debtor's Duties in General. The duties of the debtor(s) filing a petition pursuant to the United States Bankruptcy Code shall specifically include the those listed in this Local Rule. These duties apply in addition to those imposed by law or regulation.

(b) Interpreters. Should the debtor require interpreters, the following provisions apply:

(1) Language Interpreters. The debtor must provide a competent language interpreter at any § 341 first meeting of creditors in which the debtor will require language interpretation. If, in the trustee or the Bankruptcy Administrator's discretion, a disinterested language interpreter is required, the trustee or Bankruptcy Administrator will continue the meeting of creditors. The debtor must provide a qualified, disinterested language interpreter at the continued meeting of creditors.

(2) Interpreters for Hearing Impaired. The Bankruptcy Administrator is required to provide interpretation services for hearing impaired interpretation at first meetings of creditors. The debtor's attorney should contact the Bankruptcy Administrator's Office at least five business days prior to the date for the first meeting to arrange for hearing impaired interpretation.

(3) Oath. The following oath shall be administered to the language or hearing impaired interpreter: Do you solemnly swear that in the first meeting of creditors in the bankruptcy case of _____, you will translate the testimony of the debtor(s) from the _____ language into the English language, and the questions and instructions of all parties from the English language into the _____ language, and make such other translations as may be required, according to the best of your ability, so help you God?[1]

(c) Pro Se Debtors. A debtor filing a petition or pleading with the Court pro se must disclose to the Court the identity of any person providing advice or assistance in the preparation of said document, including the name, address, telephone number, and, if applicable, North Carolina Bar number.

(d) Duties of Chapter 7 Debtor. The debtor filing a petition requesting relief under Chapter 7 of the Code shall comply with the following:

(1) Compliance with Trustee's Requests. The debtor shall comply with any request by the trustee for turnover of property or production of documents within 15 days of the date of the request.

(2) Inventory or Equipment. When a stock of goods or business equipment is listed in the debtor's schedules, the debtor shall immediately after the general description thereof:

(A) List the assets in need of attention including the nature and value;

(B) Append a short explanation of the assets' exact location;

(C) List the name and address of the custodian thereof;

(D) State the protection being given such property, and the amount and duration of fire and theft insurance, if any; and

(E) List whether the asset is subject to any environmental hazards or concerns.

(3) Need for Immediate Attention. Where assets are in need of immediate attention, the debtor's attorney (or the debtor if pro se) shall immediately contact the Bankruptcy Administrator to ascertain the name of the trustee assigned to the case. If no trustee has been assigned, the attorney shall notify the Bankruptcy Administrator of the necessity for immediate assignment. Upon determining the assigned trustee, the attorney shall then contact the trustee and notify the trustee of the need for immediate attention and of the items listed in paragraph (d)(2) above.

(e) Duties of Chapter 11 Debtor. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court after proper notice and hearing, Chapter 11 debtors in possession shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) Monthly Reports. The debtor shall file a monthly report in accordance with Rule 2015.

(2) Quarterly Fees. Quarterly fees are due in all Chapter 11 cases filed on or after April 1, 2002. Information concerning these fees may be obtained from the Court's internet site, www.ncwb.uscourts.gov, or by contacting the Office of the Bankruptcy Administrator. These fees are due to the Bankruptcy Administrator and must be paid not later than the last day of the month immediately following the end of the calendar quarter for which they are due in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(60). Payments must be mailed so as to ensure that they are received by the due date. Payment shall be made to: Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, with payment verification made to the Bankruptcy Administrator. All plans of reorganization must provide for the payment of quarterly fees until the case is closed, dismissed, or converted.

[1] Fill in the blanks with the name of the case and the foreign or sign language being translated. Ask the translator to administer the oath to the debtor(s).

(3) Insurance. The debtor must provide to the Bankruptcy Administrator within 10 days of the date of the filing date, copies of the declaration pages for all insurance policies maintained by the debtor. At all times, the debtor must maintain adequate hazard and liability insurance on all of the debtor's property as well as any other insurance required by applicable law or court order, i.e., worker's compensation insurance, dram shop insurance. The debtor must, within two business days, notify the Bankruptcy Administrator of any changes in the terms of the policy(s), including cancellation or non-renewal.

(4) Bank Accounts. The debtor's prepetition bank accounts should be closed and new postpetition bank accounts opened as of the date of the filing of the petition. At a minimum, the debtor will maintain a general or operating account and a tax deposit account. The signature cards for the new accounts shall clearly indicate that the debtor is a Chapter 11 Debtor in Possession. The debtor shall use only federally insured banking institutions and shall immediately inform the Bankruptcy Administrator if the total deposits in any one bank at any time exceed the FDIC coverage of $100,000. Upon notification, the Bankruptcy Administrator shall ensure the posting of collateral or bonds to secure amounts exceeding the FDIC coverage.

(5) Books, Records and Inspections. The debtor shall close its prepetition books and records and open new books and records as of the petition filing date. The debtor shall permit the Bankruptcy Administrator, or designee, reasonable inspection of its business premises, properties, books and records.

(6) Taxes. The debtor shall segregate and hold in a separate bank account all taxes deducted and withheld from employees or monies collected under any law of the United States, or any state or subdivision thereof, and the State of North Carolina. The debtor shall timely pay all postpetition taxes. Evidence of payment of taxes shall be included in the Monthly Status Report for the period paid. The debtor shall file all delinquent tax returns within 90 days of the filing date. The debtor shall file all postpetition returns timely. The Internal Revenue Service and the North Carolina Department of Revenue are authorized to contact the debtor to verify the deposit and payment of all taxes and the filing of all tax returns.

(7) Compensation and Compensation Plans. Without prior court order, the debtor may not increase compensation to management or insiders or modify compensation plans.

(8) Post Confirmation. Following the entry of an order confirming a plan of reorganization, the debtor, pursuant to Rule 2015(a) and Local Rule 2015-1, shall continue to file monthly operating reports until such time as the case is closed by the Clerk. These reports shall be in a form satisfactory to the Bankruptcy Administrator. The original and one copy of the report shall be filed with the Clerk. The debtor shall state in each report any action taken toward consummation of the plan. The debtor shall, within 120 days after the date the confirmation order is entered, do the following:

(A) File a report of substantial consummation and final report and an application for a final decree which indicates that, in the debtor's opinion, upon the approval of the application for final decree, the case will have been fully administered; or,

(B) Take appropriate action to amend the plan.

(f) Duties of Chapter 13 Debtor. The debtor filing a petition requesting relief under Chapter 13 of the Code shall comply with the following:

(1) Disposition of Non-Exempt Property. The debtor shall not dispose of non-exempt property having a fair market value of more than $2,500 by sale or otherwise without prior approval of the Court. This shall be a cumulative, rather than a per-transaction, dollar limitation over the life of the plan.

(2) Obtaining Credit. The trustee may approve debtor requests to incur credit not to exceed $15,000 provided that the proposed credit transaction will be unsecured or secured only by personal property. All other debtor requests to incur credit must be approved by the Court.

(3) Proof of Physical Damage Insurance Coverage. At the § 341 meeting of creditors, the debtor shall provide written evidence of the maintenance of physical damage insurance coverage on any property subject to valid lien claims where the underlying security agreement requires such insurance.

(4) Delinquent Tax Returns. The debtor shall have 90 days after filing in which to file delinquent tax returns.

Rule 4003-1. Exemption Election.

(a) Content of Exemption Election. The exemption election must comply with the Official Bankruptcy Form, and shall include the following:

(1) Property Description. Each item of property claimed as exempt, except clothing, shall be specifically and individually listed. Generic terms, such as "household goods," "real property," and "jewelry," shall not be an adequate description of property. Real property shall be described by at least the full street address thereof, including the county and state. Vehicles shall be described by at least the make, model, year, and body type thereof. Vehicle descriptions should also include the approximate accumulated mileage as of the petition filing date, any optional equipment, and any other factors which should be considered by the Court in determining the value of the asset.

(2) Statute or Law Creating Exemption. Each item of property claimed as exempt shall be accompanied by areference to the specific law providing for the exemption, including applicable subparagraphs of statutes.

(b) Time Limit for Amending or Objecting to Exemption Election. The debtor shall have up to and including the day of the § 341 meeting of creditors in which to amend the exemption election. An amendment to the exemption election announced at the § 341 meeting of creditors and filed with the Court in writing no later than 10 business days thereafter, shall be deemed filed within the time set forth above. Any subsequent amendments shall be allowed only with permission of the Court.

Rule 4004-1. Certificates of Discharge.

(a) Information Required. Certificates of discharge will be issued by the Clerk upon a supporting affidavit of the debtor specifically identifying the following:

(1) Judgment creditor;

(2) Court or public registry in which the judgment is recorded; and

(3) Judgment date, book, and page.

(b) Averments Required. Additionally, the affidavit must contain the following averments:

(1) The debtor has received a discharge in the case;

(2) The judgment creditor was given notice of the bankruptcy; and

(3) In counsel's opinion, the judgment debt was discharged.

(c) Service Required. The affidavit must be served on the creditor.

Rule 4071-1. Limitations on Creditor Contact with Debtors.

(a) Compliance with Non-Bankruptcy Law. Any creditor contact with debtors must also comply with any applicable non-bankruptcy law.

(b) Creditor's Responses to Debtors. A creditor may freely respond to any inquiry from a debtor on any subject matter.

PART V
COURTS AND CLERKS

Rule 5001-1. Clerk - Office Hours.

(a) Charlotte Office. The Charlotte Clerk's Office shall be open to the public from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. on all days except Saturdays, Sundays, and the legal holidays listed in the FED.R.CIV.P. 6(a), or as otherwise directed.

(b) Asheville Office. The Asheville Division Clerk's Office shall be open to the public during the same operating hours as the Charlotte Office; however, this Office shall be closed daily from 12:30 p.m. until 1:30 p.m.

(c) Access to Electronic Filing System. Documents may be filed at any time through the Court's official CM/ECF filing system by an authorized filer.

Rule 5001-2. Clerk's Entries.

(a) Orders Entered by Clerk. Pursuant to the provisions of FED.R.CIV.P. 77(c), the Clerk of Court and designated deputy clerks at the Charlotte and Asheville Offices are authorized to grant and enter the following orders and judgments without further direction by the Court:

(1) Judgments of default as provided for in FED.R.CIV.P. 55(a) and 55(b)1, and Rule 7055.

(2) Entry of ex parte order granting an additional 30 days within which to answer or respond to a Complaint pursuant to Rule 7012.

(b) Suspension, Alteration or Rescission by the Court. Any such action may be suspended, altered or rescinded by the Court for good cause shown.

Rule 5005-1. Electronic Case Filing.

(a) Electronic Filing. The Court authorizes registered users to file petitions, make motions and submit documents to the Court through the use of the official Case Management/Electronic Case Filing System (CM/ECF). The Administrative Guide for Electronic Case Filing establishes procedures and requirements for filing, signing, noticing, and verifying pleadings and papers through its official CM/ECF system. The Guide will be periodically updated and be available on the Court's website at www.ncwb.uscourts.gov.

(b) Attorney Signatures. The electronic filing of a petition, pleading, motion, claim, or other papers by an attorney who is a registered participant in the CM/ECF system shall constitute the signature of that attorney under the Rule 9011.

(c) Passwords. No attorney shall knowingly permit or cause to permit his/her password to be utilized by anyone other than an authorized employee of his/her law firm.

(d) Official Court Record. The Case Management/Electronic Case Filing System (CM/ECF) shall constitute the official Court record in electronic form. The electronic filing of a pleading or other paper in accordance with the CM/ECF system procedures shall constitute entry of that pleading or other papers on the docket kept by the Clerk pursuant to Rule 5003. The Court will not maintain case files with the following exceptions:

(1) Documents filed under seal.

(2) Pro se debtors' petitions, lists, schedules, statements, amendments, pleadings, affidavits, and other documents which contain the signature of a pro se debtor.

(e) Notice and Service. If the recipient of notice or service is a registered participant in the CM/ECF filing system, service by electronic notification shall be the equivalent of service of the pleading or other papers by first class mail, postage pre-paid pursuant to Rules 9006(f) and 9022, and FED.R.CIV.P. 5(b), 6(e) and 77(d). Participation in the CM/ECF filing system and receipt of a password shall constitute agreement to receive notice and service electronically.

(f) Orders. Any order signed electronically by a judge shall have the same force and effect as if the judge had signed a paper copy of the order.

(g) Original Documents. When an attorney files a pleading (electronically or non-electronically) with the debtor(s)' original signature or any notarized affidavit, the attorney will thereafter maintain in the attorney's files the original document so filed for a period ending four years after the case is closed. Original documents so maintained shall be presented to the Court upon request.

(h) Electronic Filings and Paper Documents. In the event a paper petition, pleading, motion, claim, or other paper document is filed contemporaneously with an electronic version which contains the same data, the data received electronically will supersede the paper version.

Rule 5005-2. Return of Originals/Copies.

(a) Return of Documents. Any person requesting return of documents must submit a stamped, self-addressed envelope; otherwise, documents will be disposed of as determined by the Clerk of Court.

(b) Paper Size. The Judicial Conference of the United States has adopted 8½ x 11 inch letter size paper as the standard for use throughout the federal judiciary. All documents and other papers submitted to this Court must conform to this standard.

(c) Attachments. Any attachments to a document which are necessary to an understanding of the matters set forth in the document must conform to the standard paper size unless advance permission is sought to submit oversized materials.

(d) Two-sided Documents. No original document submitted to the Court shall have text on both sides of the paper. Copies of documents, other than originals, may be submitted with text appearing on both sides of the paper.

Rule 5009-1. Trustee's Duty to File Final Report.

Final Report for Dismissed or Converted Cases. In the event a case is dismissed for failure of the debtor to appear at the first meeting of creditors, or if a case is converted to a case under a different chapter of the Code, the trustee in the original case will not be required to file a Final Report in accordance with Rule 5009 unless funds or assets are actually received by the trustee in any such case.

Rule 5011-1. Abstention.

(a) Adversary Proceedings. In adversary proceedings, any motion for abstention pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334(c) shall be filed within 30 days after the service of the summons, complaint, or other pleading to which it is addressed.

(b) Contested Matters. In contested matters, any motion for abstention pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334(c) shall be filed no later than the time allowed for response or objection.

(c) Where to File. Motions to abstain pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334(c), whether the requested abstention is mandatory or discretionary, shall be directed to the Bankruptcy Court, except with respect to claims within 28

U.S.C. § 157(b)(5) in which cases motions to abstain shall be directed to the United States District Court.

PART VI
COLLECTION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE ESTATE

Rule 6005-1. Auctioneers.

(a) Employment Without Application to the Court. In a Chapter 7 case where the gross sales proceeds of an auction conducted pursuant to this rule are reasonably anticipated by the trustee to be less than $50,000, the trustee may elect to employ an auctioneer without application to the Court and shall be authorized without application to the Court to pay the auctioneer a commission of up to 15 percent of gross sales of the auction.

(b) Conditions Precedent to Employment. The trustee may employ and compensate an auctioneer without application to the Court on the basis set out in paragraph (a) above only if the following conditions are satisfied in advance:

(1) The auctioneer must be licensed and in good standing with the North Carolina Auctioneer's Commission consistent with N.C. GEN. STAT. § 85-B-3 and 4;

(2) The auctioneer must execute and deliver to the trustee the same affidavit that would be required in support of an application for employment of auctioneer otherwise filed with the Court;

(3) The affidavit executed by the auctioneer must affirmatively set out compliance with the conditions above.

(c) Auctioneer's Report of Sale. An auctioneer employed to conduct a sale on behalf of the bankruptcy estate shall submit a report of sale to the trustee within 20 days following the conclusion of any sale within the time and in the format as prescribed by the Bankruptcy Administrator.

(d) Trustee's Report of Sale. The trustee shall prepare a report of sale that includes a report of such fees paid to the auctioneer, and it shall be accompanied by the auctioneer's affidavit. The trustee shall file such report of sale with the Clerk and serve copies on the Bankruptcy Administrator.

PART VII
ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS

Rule 7003-1. Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet.

Cover Sheet. All complaints initiating adversary proceedings in bankruptcy cases shall be accompanied by an Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet, Official Bankruptcy Procedural Form B 104, which has been fully completed by the plaintiff.

Rule 7007-1. Motion Practice in Adversary Proceedings.

(a) General Requirements. All motions in adversary proceedings shall state with particularity the facts supporting the motion and shall state the relief requested. Any brief or memorandum in support of the motion shall state the relief requested. Any brief or memorandum in support of the motion shall be filed with the motion.

(b) Responses to Motions. Any party in interest may file a written response to any motion within 15 days after service of the motion in question unless otherwise ordered by the Court or prescribed by the applicable rules of bankruptcy procedure. The response may be a memorandum and may be accompanied by affidavits or other supporting documents. In the event no response is filed, the Court may proceed to rule on the motion without further notice or opportunity to be heard.

(c) Hearings on Motions. At the time of the filing of any motion, counsel for the movant shall obtain a date and time for hearing from the Court. Hearings shall be scheduled so that opposing counsel shall have an opportunity to respond to the motion in accordance with this Local Rule. Each motion shall be accompanied by a separate notice of the time, date, and place of the hearing on the motion in accordance with Local Rule 9013-1.

Rule 7016-1. Pretrial Procedures.

(a) Preliminary Pretrial Conference:

(1) Scheduling and Notice. Pursuant to Rule 7016(b), adversary proceedings are exempted from the requirements of Rule 7016(b) and (c) regarding preliminary pretrial conferences. Upon the request of a party or the determination by the Court that a preliminary pretrial conference will expedite the disposition of the adversary proceeding, the Court shall schedule a preliminary pretrial conference. The Clerk of Court shall give at least 20 days notice of the conference. Counsel shall be prepared to address the items identified in FED.R.CIV.P. 16, as made applicable to adversary proceedings by Rule 7016.

(2) Preliminary Pretrial Conference Report. In the event that the Court schedules a preliminary pretrial conference, at least one week prior to the preliminary pretrial conference, counsel shall file with the Clerk of Court a joint report containing information concerning all the items to be discussed at the preliminary pretrial conference.

(b) Final Pretrial Conference:

(1) Scheduling and Notice. A final pretrial conference may be scheduled at the discretion of the Court. The Clerk of Court shall give at least 30 days notice of the conference.

(2) Preparation by Counsel for Final Pretrial Conference. At least 10 days prior to the final pretrial conference, trial counsel for each of the parties shall confer and prepare a proposed final pretrial order. In the event no pretrial conference is scheduled, counsel shall confer, prepare, and submit a proposed final pretrial order to the Court no later than 10 days prior to the scheduled trial. It shall be the duty of the counsel for the plaintiff to arrange this conference.

(c) Pretrial Orders. In adversary proceedings, the Court will enter an Initial Pretrial Order setting certain requirements and deadlines. After the close of the discovery period provided for in the Initial Pretrial Order, the Court will enter a Final Pretrial Order and notice of trial.

Rule 7016-2. Trials.

(a) Opening Statements. At the beginning of the trial, each party, beginning with the party having the burden of proof on the first issue, may, without argument and in such reasonable time as the Court allows, state to the Court the following:

(1) The substance of the claim, counterclaim, cross claim, or defense; and

(2) What counsel contends the evidence will show.

Parties not having the burden of proof on the first issue may elect to make an opening statement immediately prior to presenting evidence, rather than at the beginning of the trial.

(b) Witnesses. Counsel may not release a person from a subpoena without notice to opposing counsel and leave of Court. A party objecting to the release of a witness shall bear all costs incident to the witness which arise subsequent to the request for release. The Court, in its discretion and in the interest of justice, may permit a party to call and examine a witness not listed in the final pretrial order.

(c) Exhibits. Exhibits shall be presented as follows:

(1) All exhibits shall be marked in advance with numbers.

(2) Copies of all exhibits, properly bound, shall be provided to the Court at the beginning of the trial. Copies of exhibits shall be provided to opposing counsel prior to the trial consistent with the Final Pretrial Order or other Order of the Court.

(3) The original exhibit shall bear a number. After receipt into evidence, it shall remain in the custody of the courtroom deputy, except when being used by a witness.

(4) Copies of all exhibits shall bear the like number of the exhibit.

(d) Closing Argument. The Court will set the times for closing argument after consultation with parties. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the party with the burden of proof shall open and close the arguments. The opening argument may be waived.

Rule 7026-1. Discovery — General.

(a) Procedures for Handling Discovery Materials. The following materials shall not be filed with the Clerk except by order of the Court or when used in a proceeding:

(1) Transcripts of depositions upon oral examination and interrogatories;

(2) Requests for production of documents;

(3) Requests for admissions; and

(4) Answers and responses thereto.

(b) Service of Discovery Materials. All such papers must be served on other counsel or parties entitled to service of papers filed with the Clerk of Court.

(c) Preservation and Delivery. The party taking a deposition or obtaining any material through discovery is responsible for its preservation and delivery to the Court if needed or so ordered.

Rule 7030-1. Limitation of Application of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30 to Bankruptcy Cases.

Time. Unless otherwise ordered, a deposition taken pursuant to FED.R.CIV.P. 30 shall not exceed four hours in duration.

Rule 7041-1. Dismissal of Actions for Lack of Prosecution.

(a) When Action May be Dismissed. Except where a complaint objecting to a discharge has been filed, an adversary proceeding may be dismissed by the Court for lack of prosecution as follows:

(1) Where no service of process has been made and certified to the Court within 30 days after the filing of the complaint; or

(2) Where no responsive pleadings have been filed and plaintiff has not moved for entry of default within 30 days after the time for filing responsive pleadings has expired.

(b) Dismissal Without Prejudice. Dismissal pursuant to this Local Rule shall be without prejudice unless the delay has resulted in prejudice to an opposing party.

Rule 7067-1. Deposit and Investment of Funds Held by Clerk.

(a) Clerk's Review of Proposed Orders. Parties seeking a Court Order to have the Clerk of Court deposit funds in an interest-bearing account shall personally submit the proposed Order to the Clerk or financial deputy who will inspect the proposed Order for proper form and content and compliance with this Local Rule prior to the proposed Order being submitted to the judge for whom the Order was prepared.

(b) Required Provisions. Any order obtained by a party or parties in an action that directs the Clerk to invest, in an interest-bearing account or instrument, funds deposited in the registry of the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2041 shall include the following:

(1) The amount to be invested;

(2) The name of the depository approved by the Treasurer of the United States as a depository in which funds may be deposited;

(3) A designation of the type of account or instrument in which the funds shall be invested; and

(4) Wording which directs the Clerk to deduct from the income earned on the investment the fee authorized by law, not exceeding that authorized by the Judicial Conference of the United States and set by the Director of the Administrative Office whenever such income becomes available for deduction in the investment so held and without further order of the Court.

(c) Clerk's Retention of Funds. In the event that a depository intended by the Court to receive registry funds is not able to pledge sufficient collateral for receipt of those funds immediately upon the Court's receipt of the said funds, the Clerk may, in the Clerk's discretion, temporarily retain such funds or direct the party tendering such funds to temporarily retain them as necessary to arrange for their deposit in an interest-bearing registry account.

PART VIII
APPEALS TO DISTRICT COURT

Reserved

PART IX
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 9006-1. Time Limits.

(a) Shortening of Notice. The Court will consider shortening prescribed notice for a hearing on contested matters only under extraordinary circumstances and upon the following conditions:

(1) The request to shorten notice must be made by written motion, which states the reasons why shortened notice is necessary, identifies the parties affected by the request, and describes the service of notice of the request on interested parties; and

(2) The movant shall serve and provide notice of the motion 24 hours in advance of submitting an Order shortening notice; service and notice for the purpose of this Local Rule is accomplished upon actual delivery of the motion to the office of the party served; and service must be made upon the following parties or their counsel:

(A) In a consumer case, the trustee, Bankruptcy Administrator, debtor, and any party with a direct interest in the matter.

(B) In a non-consumer case, the debtor, trustee, Bankruptcy Administrator, examiner, and any official committee.

(3) Relief may be had from the requirement of 24 hours advance notice of the request upon demonstration of an emergency not of the movant's own creation and the inability to notify affected parties in advance.

(b) Objection to Timing of Hearing on Shortened Notice. If, at or before the hearing on the substantive motion, any opposing party objects to the shortened notice, the moving party shall have the burden of demonstrating good cause for the shortened notice, or a continuance shall be granted.

(c) Adversary Proceedings-Extensions of Time to Respond to Complaint. Any motion for an extension of time to respond to a complaint shall be filed prior to the expiration of the initial period for filing the answer. The responding party is entitled to one extension of up to 30 days from the expiration of the original deadline. The Clerk may enter an ex parte order granting an additional 30 days within which to answer or respond. Any other extension shall be for cause shown with notice to the opposing party.

Rule 9013-1. Motions Practice.

(a) Service on Trustee and Attorney for Debtor in Possession. Any and all filings, except claims, in all proceedings and cases must be served on the trustee for the debtor, including the standing Chapter 13 trustee, whether or not the trustee is a party to the proceeding. In Chapter 11 cases, the attorney for the debtor in possession is to be served in like manner.

(b) Service on Bankruptcy Administrator. Any and all filings, except claims, in Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 cases must be served on the Bankruptcy Administrator.

(c) Certificate of Service. Each pleading or document to be served on any party shall have attached a certificate reflecting that service has been made on that party. The certificate of service should appear on a separate page from the pleading or document and should include the case caption at the top.

(d) Hearings. The standard dates for setting motion hearings are listed as follows:[2]

(1) Asheville and Bryson City Divisions.

(A) Regular term of Court is scheduled for the third full week of each calendar month.

(B) Chambers days are scheduled on Tuesday and Wednesday of the first full week of each calendar month.

(C) Chapter 13 and brief Chapter 7 matters are heard on Tuesday.

(D) All other time-consuming matters are heard on Wednesday, and carry-over matters are heard on Thursday.

(2) Charlotte Division.

(A) Chapter 7 matters are heard on Thursday of the second and fourth full week of the calendar month.

(B) Chapter 11 matters are heard as follows:

(i) Judge Hodges - Wednesday of the second and fourth full week of the calendar month for routine matters.

(ii) Judge Whitley - Thursday of the first and third full weeks of the calendar month.

(C) Chapter 13 motions are heard on Tuesday of the second and fourth full weeks of the calendar month. Chapter 13 dismissal hearings are held on Wednesday of the second and fourth full weeks of the calendar month. Time-consuming matters may be set at special times throughout the week with prior Court approval.

(3) Shelby Division.

(A) Regular term of Court is scheduled for Friday of the third full week of the calendar month.

(4) Wilkesboro Division.

(A) Chapter 7, 13, and 11 matters are heard on Thursday of the first full week of the calendar month. Time-consuming matters are heard on Thursday of the first full week or on Chambers day, the Thursday of the third full calendar week of the month, with prior Court approval.

2 The first full week of the month is the first week of a calendar month that includes a Monday.

(5) Exceptions. Deviations from the standard hearing schedules may be required. The Court will post notices of such changes on the Court's internet site, www.ncwb.uscourts.gov. Motions may be set on other days with advance permission of the Court. The Court may set matters for hearing on its own initiative.

(e) Negative Notice Motions. A hearing on those motions listed in (1) through (16) below may be noticed by "no protest" notice upon notice to the parties as required by the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. The "no protest" notice must specifically advise any interested party that it must file and serve any response, including an objection or request for a hearing, within the 15-day period from service of the notice, and that if no hearing is requested, the Court may decide the matter on the record before it. A hearing shall be requested by filing and serving a response, including an objection and request for hearing within 15 days of the date of the service of the notice. Any response must specify exactly what motion is contested, and the response should comply with this Local Rule. The following is the exclusive list of motions which may be noticed by the use of "no protest" notices and determined by the Court without a hearing unless a hearing is specifically requested:

(1) Motions to use, sell, or lease property pursuant to § 363(b)(1) of the Code, except for sales of all or substantially all of the assets in a Chapter 9, 11, or 13 case.

(2) Subject to the provisions of Rule 6007, motions to abandon property of the estate by the trustee or debtor in possession pursuant to § 554 of the Code.

(3) Motions to assume executory contracts or leases pursuant to § 365 of the Code, if the other parties to the contract or lease stipulate to the assumption.

(4) Motions pursuant to § 365 of the Code to reject executory contracts or leases, except collective bargaining agreements pursuant to § 1113 of the Code.

(5) Motions to avoid liens pursuant to § 522(f) of the Code.

(6) Motions for relief from stay pursuant to § 362 of the Code, except that notices thereof shall state a specific hearing date in the event a hearing is requested.

(7) Applications to pay compensation of professional persons, including applications pursuant to § 506(b) of the Code.

(8) Motions to change venue of a case or proceeding to another division within this District.

(9) Motions to obtain post-petition credit in Chapter 13 cases.

(10) Objections to claims.[3]

(11) Motions for relief from the co-debtor stay provided in §§ 1201 and 1301 of the Code.

(12) Motions for approval of final report and account of trustee, application for commission and reimbursement of trustee expenses, application to disburse funds of the estate, application to abandon, and to discharge trustee.

(13) Motions to modify Chapter 13 plans without a request for other relief.

(14) Motions or application to approve security interest as set forth in Local Rule 2016-1(c).

(15) Motions for moratoriums in Chapter 13 cases.

(16) Motions to reopen bankruptcy cases.

(f) Orders on Negative Notice Motions. If an order is entered following the procedure outlined in paragraph (e) on a motion other than the type listed in that paragraph, that order is not valid.

(g) Ex Parte Motions. Any party shall be entitled to request a hearing or to request that the Court reconsider any ex parte relief upon a request filed within

3 The minimum time period for notice of a hearing on an objection to a claim is 30 days, plus the 3 day period, if applicable. FED.R.BANKR.P. 3007.

15 days of service of notice of the entry of ex parte relief. Upon entry of an order granting any relief requested on an ex parte basis, the movant shall promptly thereafter provide notice in accordance with the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure of the entry of the order. In addition to advising of the entry of the ex parte relief, such notice must specifically advise any interested party that it may object to the relief granted by filing a request for hearing or objection within 15 days of service of the notice. Any request or objection must specify the relief that is contested and comply with the provisions of this Local Rule. The motions listed below may be determined, at the discretion of the Court, on an ex parte basis:

(1) Motions that may be considered on an ex parte basis pursuant to the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, including motions for enlargement of time pursuant to Rule 9006(b) and Local Rule 9006-1(c).

(2) Motions to reopen a case pursuant to § 350(b) of the Code and Rule 5010.

(3) Motions for an additional 30 days within which to answer or respond to a Complaint pursuant to Rule 7012.

Rule 9013-2. Briefs in Adversary Proceedings and Contested Matters.

(a) Requirements. Briefs filed in adversary proceedings or contested matters shall include:

(1) A concise statement of the facts of the case;

(2) All admissions and stipulations, if applicable;

(3) A summary of the points of law involved, citing authorities in support thereof; and

(4) Any anticipated evidentiary problems, if applicable.

(b) Where to File. Briefs shall be filed with the Clerk of Court. In addition, two full copies shall be furnished to the judge assigned to the adversary proceeding or contested matter.

(c) When to File. Briefs shall be filed with the Clerk and received by opposing counsel at least three business days prior to the hearing. Reply briefs, if any, shall be filed with the Clerk and received by opposing counsel at least one business day prior to the hearing. A certificate of service must be filed with the original brief verifying the required service.

Rule 9014-1. Contested Matters.

(a) Requirements of Motion. A motion shall be accompanied by all exhibits and attachments referred to in the motion, together with a notice of motion and certification of service. The notice of motion shall give notice of the filing of the motion and allow for a specific response time to the motion.

(b) Content of Motion. Motions seeking relief, other than as to the debtor or the trustee, shall recite the name and address of the party against whom relief is sought.

(c) Time for Response. A response and accompanying affidavits, if any, to any motion shall be filed within 15 days from the date of the service of motion, unless otherwise ordered or provided in the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure or these Local Rules.

(d) Service of Motion. The moving party shall serve copies of the motion, together with all exhibits and attachments, accompanied by a notice of motion in the manner prescribed in Rule 7004 contemporaneously with the filing of the original motion and notice with the Clerk of Court, and shall attach a certificate of service to the original motion and notice to be filed with the Clerk of Court.

(e) Response. Any party against whom relief is sought may file a written response to the motion. The response may be accompanied by affidavits and other supporting documents and shall be served on all interested parties and service shall be certified to the Court.

(f) Content of Response. All responses shall contain sufficient information to reasonably disclose the basis for the party's position and what specific issues are contested. If a response is not in compliance with this provision, the Court in its discretion may resolve the matter without a hearing.

(g) Hearing on Motion. The provisions of Local Rule 9013-1 apply to contested matters.

(h) Frivolous or Delaying Motions. Where the Court finds that a motion is frivolous or filed for delay, costs may be assessed against the party or counsel filing the motion. Any party filing a request for a hearing shall appear at the hearing set by the Court in support of the request or costs may be assessed.

(i) Disclosure Requirements Inapplicable. The disclosure requirements imposed by Rule 7026(a) are inapplicable to contested matters.

Rule 9019-1. Settlements of Adversary Proceedings.

Settlement Papers. All papers settling adversary proceedings, including notices, motions, orders or judgments, and dismissals, shall contain the base case caption and the adversary proceeding caption(s). The original papers shall be filed in each adversary proceeding at issue regardless of whether the adversary proceeding is pending or closed. All creditors and interested parties in the base case shall be served with notice of settlements in adversary proceedings. Service thereof shall be reflected in the certificate of service filed with the settlement papers.

Rule 9021-1. Tender of Judgments and Orders.

(a) Orders and Judgments. When a proposed order or judgment is submitted to the Clerk of Court, it shall be accompanied by a properly completed Tender of Order or judgment Form, Local Form 2. However, an order or judgment tendered in open court to a Bankruptcy Judge need not be accompanied by Local Form 2. When applicable, any "no protest" response periods shall pass before the proposed order or judgment is submitted to the court.

(b) Consent Orders. Consent orders will not be entered unless also signed by the trustee in the case.

Rule 9022-1. Certificate of Service for Orders.

Service of Orders. When a submitting party receives a signed order from the Court, the submitting party shall immediately serve a copy of the order upon the appropriate parties and promptly file a certificate of service with the Clerk.

Rule 9028-1. Disqualification of Judges.

(a) Disqualification Procedure. In furtherance of 28 U.S.C. § 455 and Canon 3C of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, the Court has adopted procedures for administration of cases in which a judge is disqualified for any reason. Any circumstance that requires disqualification of the assigned judge should be brought to the Court's attention at the earliest opportunity by the filing and service of a motion seeking disqualification, except that no motion is required with respect to events listed in paragraph (c) of this Local Rule.

(b) Contested Matters. In any contested matter where the court is aware of an event requiring disqualification or is made aware of such an event by any party, the Court will reassign the matter to another judge. Where the disqualification applies only to an isolated contested matter, it is not necessary for the Court to reassign the base case. The Court will determine whether reassignment shall apply to the contested matter only or to the entire case.

(c) Disqualification Events. The Clerk shall maintain for each judge a list of entities in which the judge owns a financial interest. It is the duty of counsel or the parties to review this list and to advise the Court of any involvement of such entities in any matter before the court. Disqualification regularly recurs in the following events:

(1) Judge Hodges does not hear contested matters involving Bank of America or its subsidiaries; and

(2) Judge Hodges does not hear contested matters involving General Electric or its subsidiaries.

(d) Uncontested Settlements and Consent Orders. Approval of uncontested settlements and agreed orders in cases which would otherwise require disqualification will not require reassignment.

(e) Orders in Reassigned Matters. Orders in contested matters that are reassigned may end up with the signature of the disqualified judge even though the matter was reassigned and heard by another judge. This may occur because orders submitted sometime after reassignment, hearing, and determination may be batched for signature by the Clerk's Office with other orders, and the wrong signature stamp or electronic signature may be applied inadvertently. In such event, the order is in fact the order of the reassigned judge who determined the matter.

Rule 9035-1. Service of Papers on the Bankruptcy Administrator.

(a) Service Required. All parties are required to serve upon the Bankruptcy Administrator, by electronic service, regular mail, hand delivery, overnight courier, or facsimile machine copies, the papers specified in this Local Rule which are filed with the Bankruptcy Court or an appellate court. Appropriate certificates of service shall be filed.

(b) Documents that Must be Served:

(1) Chapter 11. All papers in Chapter 11 cases and in related adversary proceedings, except exhibits to be used at trials or hearings.

(2) Rule 2002 Requests. All papers in cases and adversary proceedings in which the Bankruptcy Administrator has filed a request for notice pursuant to Rule 2002(i).

(3) Appointment and Removal of Trustee or Examiner. All papers related to the appointment or removal of a trustee or examiner.

(4) Compensation Applications. Applications for compensation in all cases and adversary proceedings.

(5) Fraud or Criminal Activity. All papers in any case or adversary proceeding in which fraud or criminal activity is alleged on the part of any party.

(6) Chapter 7 Trustee Filings. All papers filed in cases and adversary proceedings by Chapter 7 trustees, except as the Bankruptcy Administrator may from time to time otherwise direct by notice to the trustees on an ad hoc basis.

(7) Conversions. All orders relating to conversions of a case to a case under another Chapter.

APPENDICES
APPENDIX A
GUIDELINES FOR COMPENSATION AND EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT OF PROFESSIONALS

United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of North Carolina

Introduction

Congress has established the standard for professional compensation to be: "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services" and "reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). Congress has also established relevant factors for the courts to use in determining the amount of reasonable compensation in § 330(a)(3) as follows:

(A) In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including —

(A) the time spent on such services;

(B) the rates charged for such services;

(C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; and

(E) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

The purpose of these Guidelines is to assist parties in providing information necessary for the Court to make the determination of reasonable compensation as outlined by Congress. These Guidelines are NOT requirements for the Court or parties. Following these Guidelines should reduce, if not eliminate, objections as to the form or format of the application. The Guidelines are also intended to assist parties in addressing their respective burdens of proof with respect to an application for compensation.

Narrative

A narrative explanation of the status of the case and the professional's contribution to the estate is useful to the Court. The degree of detail included in the narrative is in the discretion of the applicant as a proponent/advocate of the application. "Boilerplate" narratives are of no use to the Court. However, the use of a "boilerplate" curriculum vitae is permitted.

The narrative portion of the application provides an opportunity for the applicant to persuade the Court that the compensation requested is reasonable. The applicant should describe and highlight particular problems that were present and what was done to resolve those problems. The benefits to the estate of the services rendered should be reported in detail. Any extraordinary problems or benefits should be described in the narrative. Describe the anticipated development and progression of any litigation. For example, has all of the work to date been in preparation of lawsuits, but none has been filed? Has a substantial amount of time been spent in settlement negotiations and what were the results of the negotiations? Any time entries discounted or "written-down" should be specifically identified. For interim applications it is especially helpful to provide a case history, projected future activity, and a statement of the actions necessary to conclude the case.

Billing Summary

Summary of time and expenses applied for in this and prior applications.

Rates

This part of the application should show the hourly rates charged by each professional and include the background and experience of the professional. Unless the applicant specifically states otherwise, the rate shown is the actual rate charged the client and was the rate in effect at the time the service was rendered.

Time Increments

The applicant should use discretion in determining the increment. Generally, a "safe harbor" for the applicant is to charge an increment no greater than that generally accepted in the market (currently .1 hour). The applicant should be prepared to demonstrate that any greater increment does not operate to inflate the time billed.

Time Entries

Generally, time entries should be sufficiently descriptive to enable the Court and third parties to determine the nature and extent of the service rendered. At a minimum, the time entry should describe who provided the service, when the service was provided,where (if travel is involved), and what service was provided. To the extent the applicant believes that detailed descriptions will violate the attorney-client privilege or other applicable privilege, the applicant must assert the privilege specifically. Even where a privilege is asserted, the time entry should reflect the general topic area as specifically as possible without violating the privilege.

Even when tasks are performed on the same day or time block, separate tasks should be set forth in separate time entries. When different tasks are included in the same time entry, the Court cannot make a proper determination under 11 U.S.C. § 330. Any significant amount of time spent on adversary proceedings should be set out separately from the base application. The applicant should segregate time entries in adversary proceeding litigation such that the Court can evaluate the results obtained and benefit to the estate of the services as related to the costs incurred. Time entries which are not adequately descriptive or are "lumped" are subject to disallowance.

Conferences and Multiple Professionals

All conferences should identify the purpose, all attendees, and the nature of the matters discussed or accomplished. Because of the opportunity for "double-teaming," explanations should be given whenever more than one professional attends a conference, hearing or meeting.

Office Tasks

"Secretarial" tasks performed by professionals should be demonstrated to be both necessary and expeditious.

Travel Time

Time entries billed for non-working travel time and for work done during travel time should be identified separately. Compensation for travel time alone (where no other work was accomplished for the client), should be highlighted and explained. Travel time should not be billed when substantive work was simultaneously performed and billed. Travel time should be categorized with the category best reflecting the purpose of the travel.

Request for Compensation Other than Time Billed x Hourly Rate

The Court is not adverse to considering methods of compensation other than time billed times hourly rate charged. Any requests for compensation other than hourly rate times hours billed must be set forth clearly and conspicuously so the Court can determine the basis for the compensation request and the reasonableness thereof.

Burdens of Proof and Objections

The burden of persuasion is on the movant. The burden of going forward with the evidence begins with the movant, shifts to the objector, then back to the movant who must, in the final analysis, show the reasonableness of the compensation. Objections should be factual and should demonstrate specific objectionable time.

Project Categories

The Court may require categorization of time entries in certain cases, and where required, will do so by order. The Court encourages the use and designation of the following categories even in the absence of an order. When used, these categories should be imbedded as codes into each time entry, such that the Court can use the codes to sort and review the time entries in an automated fashion. An applicant may substitute the number of the category instead of the full title of the category. Where project categories are used and the application's time entries are submitted on computer diskette, the Court will expedite the review of the fee application.

1. Asset Transactions: Identification and review of potential assets including causes of actions, sales, leases and abandonment.
2. Case Administration and Business Operations: Issues related to the debtor-in-possession business and activities related to case administration including schedules, financial reports, creditor contacts, § 341 meetings and employee relations.
3. Fee Proceedings: Preparation of fee applications and review and objections to fee applications.
4. Financing and Relief from Stay Proceedings: Matters pertaining to debtor-in-possession financing and relief from stay motions.
5. Litigation: Matters pertaining to litigation.
6. Plan and Disclosure: Matters pertaining to the formulation, presentation,confirmation, compliance and closing of a plan.
7. Claims Administration: Analysis, bar date motions, objection and allowance of claims.
8. Other: The application should include an explanation of the specific type of projector category for time entries included under this category.

EXPENSES

The general practice is to find as reasonable and necessary those expenses and expense billing practices that are accepted in the relevant market. Expense items should be set out separately and should reflect the actual cost. Even when using the actual cost, certain items must be justified as necessary, such as overnight delivery, messenger service and meals. Any conventions used, i.e. per page charge for copying, should be identified and explained. Certain "safe harbors" for expense conventions are listed below.

Copies

In-house copies billed at $.25 or less are presumed reasonable. For copies prepared by a copying service, the actual billed amount should be listed.

Air Travel

The actual cost of the ticket at coach fare.

Auto Travel

The mileage rate set by the Internal Revenue Service at the time of the travel is presumed reasonable.

APPENDIX B
CHAPTER 11 INFORMATION
GUIDELINES FOR CONSENSUAL CASH COLLATERAL ORDERS: PROVISIONS THAT SHOULD BE INCLUDED

The Court has determined that these Guidelines for Consensual Cash Collateral orders would be useful to the bar in improving the content of first-day debtor in possession financing orders. The following is a general description of those factual findings and decretal provisions that the Court will ordinarily approve on an "ex parte" basis in connection with an emergency showing of the necessity for the use of cash collateral. At the end of these guidelines, there is a list of provisions that the Court will not ordinarily approve without prior notice and an opportunity for objection. For purposes of these guidelines, "ex parte" means without notice to all creditors and parties in interest. The court expects that every effort will be made to provide notice to the Bankruptcy administrator and any creditor directly affected by any relief sought on an emergency basis.

Findings of Fact. The following findings of fact are generally appropriate for inclusion in an emergency debtor in possession financing order:

- That there has been compliance with all applicable service requirements, including an attempt to notify the Bankruptcy Administrator, other secured creditors, and the 20 largest unsecured creditors.
- That the secured creditor asserts a priority lien in cash collateral, together with a specific identification of the assets that are or will generate cash collateral, i.e., cash on hand, proceeds of inventory sales, etc., and that amount of the indebtedness allegedly secured.
- That the debtor has an immediate need for the use of cash collateral to preserve its assets, fund its business operations, purchase inventory, etc.
- That the debtor reaffirms the existing terms and conditions of existing financing documents with secured creditors.

Decretal Provisions. The following decretal provisions are generally appropriate for inclusion in a debtor in possession financing order:

- Grant and define adequate protection to secured creditor, and its successors and assigns, pursuant to Sections 361 and 363 of the bankruptcy Code, including monthly adequate protection payments, if appropriate.
- Grant secured creditor replacement liens in post petition assets to the same extent and priority as existed prepetition.
- Grant secured creditor super-priority administrative claim to the extent that adequate protection proves inadequate.
- Provide for creation of a segregated DIP account into which cash collateral shall be deposited.
- Restrict use of cash collateral to pay specified categories of operating expenses, per budgets to be attached to the order or subsequently filed with the Court.
- Require that the debtor maintain insurance.
- Require submission of periodic (e.g., weekly, bi-weekly, monthly) reports regarding use of cash, aging of accounts receivable, etc.
- Provide equality of treatment for carve-outs as between professionals for the debtor and professionals for the Committee of Unsecured Creditors, and limiting the use of carve-outs to exclude the pursuit, but not investigation, of claims against the secured creditor providing financing.
- Provide that the order is sufficient and conclusive evidence of the priority and validity of the security interest in and liens, including replacement liens, on the debtor's assets granted to secured creditor without the necessity of filing,recording, or serving any financing statements or other documents which may otherwise be required under federal or state law in any jurisdiction or the taking of any action to validate or perfect the security interests and liens granted to secured creditor, but provided secured creditor may, in its discretion, file such financing statements or other documents with respect to such security interests and liens and that the debtor is authorized and directed to execute, or cause to be executed, all such financing state mentsor other documents upon secured creditor's reasonable request and the filing, recording, or service.

- Identify the time period to which the order is applicable and provide that, even if authorization to use cash collateral expires, adequate protection/liens will continue to be effective unless or until otherwise modified by the Court.
- Set a final hearing date and set a deadline by which the documents relied upon by the secured creditor in asserting a perfected security interest be filed with the Clerk.

Inappropriate Provisions. The following provisions should not be included on an emergency basis:

- Stipulations which reduce the time period within which parties in interest may challenge the perfection, validity, priority, or amount of secured claims to less than 60 days from the engagement of counsel for the Committee of unsecured Creditors, or, if no counsel or Committee is appointed, less than 90 days after the case is filed.
- Stipulations as to the perfection, validity, or priority of secured claims that are binding on any party other than the debtor, without affording other interested parties a reasonable time to challenge the same.
- In cases where the secured creditor asserts liens on accounts receivable pursuant to asset based revolving credit facilities, provisions which re-characterize the "use of cash collateral" as "post petition advance," without regard to whether the "post petition advance" is a new loan or the use of a prepetition receivable.
- Provisions which release potential claims or causes of action by the estate against the lender, without the passage of the time periods identified above.
- Provisions which grant automatic relief from stay upon a material default under the cash collateral order; however, the secured creditor's entitlement to an emergency hearing in the event of a material default could be recognized.
- Provisions which grant cross collateralization on unencumbered assets, absent extraordinary circumstances.
- Provisions that grant a postpetition lien on avoidance actions.

The foregoing limitations are not designed to limit the provisions of financing orders that may be presented to the Court after notice and with an opportunity for a hearing. Rather, these limitations apply to orders that are presented on a first day, emergency basis, without notice to all creditors and parties in interest.

DISCLOSURE TO DEBTOR(S) OF ATTORNEYS FEE PROCEDURE FOR CHAPTER 13 CASES IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA

After consultation with the undersigned attorney, you have decided to file a petition for relief under Chapter 13 of the United States Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, you are hereby given notice that pursuant to the local rules of the Bankruptcy Court, the base fee for a Chapter 13 case is established at $_____. Payment of all or part of this fee is included in your payments to the Trustee. The attorney's services included in the base fee are those normally contemplated in a Chapter 13 case. They are as follows:

(a) Preparation and filing of your petition, schedules, supplemental local forms, Chapter 13 Plan, and mailing matrix.
(b) Drafting and mailing notice to creditors advising of filing of case, including a copy of your Chapter 13 Plan.
(c) Drafting and mailing to you a letter regarding your attendance at the Section 341 meeting and your other responsibilities.
(d) Preparation for and attendance at Section 341 meeting.
(e) Review of order confirming plan and periodic reports.
(f) Review of Trustee's motion for allowance of claims.
(g) Maintaining custody and control of case files.
(h) Service of orders on all affected parties.
(i) Verification of your identity and social security number
(j) Defending objections to confirmation of your Chapter 13 Plan.

The base fee shall also include the following services to the extent they are requested or reasonably necessary for your effective representation:

(a) Preparation and filing of proofs of claim on your behalf for your creditors.
(b) Drafting and filing objections to scheduled and unscheduled proofs of claim.
(c) Assumptions and rejections of unexpired leases and executory contracts.
(d) Preparation for and attendance at valuation hearings.
(e) Motions to transfer venue.
(f) Requesting copies of proofs of claim from Trustee.
(g) Consultation with you regarding obtaining postpetition credit (no motion filed).
(h) Motions to avoid liens.
(i) Calculation of plan payment modifications (no motion filed).
(j) Adding creditor addresses to mailing matrix as necessary.
(k) Responding to written creditor contacts regarding plan terms, valuation of collateral, claim amounts, and the like.
(l) Responding to your contacts regarding changes in you financial and personal circumstances and advising the Court and the Trustee of the same.
(m) Communicating with you regarding payment defaults, insurance coverage, credit disability, and the like.
(n) Obtaining and providing the Trustee with copies of documents relating to lien perfection issues.
(o) Notifying creditors of entry of discharge.
(p) Notifying creditors by certified mail of alleged violations of the automatic stay.
(q) Drafting and mailing letters regarding voluntary turnover of property.
(r) Review of documents in relation to the use or sale of collateral (no motion filed).
(s) Providing you with a list of answers to frequently asked questions and other routine communications with you.

In some Chapter 13 cases, legal services which are beyond those normally contemplated must be performed. These legal services are not covered by the base fee. These "non-base" services include the following:

(a) Abandonment of property post-confirmation.
(b) Motion for moratorium.
(c) Motion for authority to sell property.
(d) Motion to modify plan.
(e) Motion to use cash collateral or to incur debt.
(f) Defense of motion for relief from stay or co-debtor stay.
(g) Defense of motion to dismiss filed after confirmation of your plan.
(h) Non-base fee requests.
(i) Stay violation litigation, including amounts paid as fees by the creditor or other party.
(j) Post-discharge injunction actions.
(k) Adversary proceedings.
(l) Wage garnishment orders.
(m) Turnover adversaries.
(n) Conversion to Chapter 7.
(o) Motions to substitute collateral.
(p) Any other matter not covered by the base fee.

For such "non-base" services you will be charged on the basis of attorney's time expended at the rate of $_____ per hour plus the amount of expenses incurred (such as court fees, travel, long distance telephone, photocopying, postage, etc.). Such "non-base" fees are chargeable only after the same are approved by the Bankruptcy Court. Except as set forth below, before any such fees are charged you will receive a copy of my motion filed in the Court requesting approval of any such "non-base" fees as well as a notice explaining you opportunity to object if you do not agree with the fee applied for. Any fees awarded for "non-base" services will be paid to the undersigned attorney from your payments to the Trustee in the same way as payment of "base" fees. It is possible that "non-base" fees approved by the Court may cause your payment to the Trustee to be increased, or the term of your Chapter 13 plan extended. Whether or not a payment increase or an extension will be necessary depends upon the facts of your case. If a payment increase is necessary because of a court-approved "non-base" fee, the Trustee will notify you of the amount of the increase.

In the Court's discretion, a debtor's attorney in a Chapter 13 proceeding may request, in open court, and without any other notice, "non-base" fees for the following services in amounts not exceeding those shown below. Without other notice, the debtor's attorney may also request up to $1.00 for each item noticed to creditors as expense for postage, copying, and envelopes. These fees may be adjusted (increased) by the Court at a later date, and, if so, those adjusted fees will then be charged.

(a)	Defense of motion to dismiss.	$200
(b)	Motion for to modify and order, including motion for moratorium.	$350
(c)	Substitution of collateral.	$450
(d)	Prosecution or defense of motion for relief from stay or co-debtor stay and order.	$450
(e)	Motion for authority to sell property and order.	$450

CHAPTER 13 PLAN SUMMARY INCLUDING
MOTION(S) FOR VALUATION; MOTION(S) TO AVOID CERTAIN LIENS; ASSUMPTION AND REJECTION OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS; AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING ON CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN INCLUDING ALL MATTERS AS SET FORTH IN THE PLAN

The following is a summary of the Chapter 13 plan proposed by the above-named debtor(s). The plan may include in its provisions certain motions to avoid liens and motions for valuation of collateral securing claims. If any such motions are included in the proposed plan of the debtor(s), they are specifically included in this plan summary.

Your rights may be affected. You should read the plan summary carefully, including any motions contained in the plan, and discuss them with your attorney, if you have one, in this bankruptcy case. If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one.

If you do not want the Court to confirm the proposed plan of the debtor(s), including any of the motions included in the plan, or if you want the Court to consider your views on these matters, then you or your attorney must file with the Court a written objection to confirmation and request for hearing on confirmation at the following address: Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Room #111, Charles R. Jonas Federal Building, 401 West Trade Street, Charlotte, N.C. 28202. Your objection to confirmation and request for hearing must include the specific reasons for your objection, and must be filed with the Court no later than fifteen (15) business days following the conclusion of the meeting of creditors. If you mail your objection to confirmation to the Court for filing, you must mail it early enough so that the Court will receive it on or before the deadline stated above. You must also serve a copy of your objection to confirmation on the debtor(s), the attorney for the debtor(s), and the Chapter 13 trustee at their addresses as they are listed in the notice of the meeting of creditors. If any objections to confirmation are filed with the Court, written notice of the date, time and location of the hearing on confirmation of the proposed plan will be sent to you. No hearing will be held unless an objection to confirmation is filed.

If you or your attorney do not take these steps, the Court may decide that you do not oppose the proposed plan of the debtor(s), including any motions contained in the plan, and may enter an order confirming the plan and granting the motions.

CHAPTER 13 PLAN SUMMARY

1. The plan proposes payments of _____ per month for _____ months or for a ___% payout to the general unsecured creditors.

2. From the payments received, the trustee shall make disbursements as follows and in the following order of priority:

a. ADMINISTRATIVE CLAIMS:

(1) Trustee's fees and costs (up to a maximum of 10%), court costs, and other administrative claims as ordered paid by the Court.

(2) Attorney's fees. The attorney for the debtor has received $_____ of the total base attorney fee of $_____. The remainder of the base fee shall be paid through the plan by the trustee in the sum of one-half of the amount of each of the first two plan payments (up to a maximum of $350.00 attributable to attorney's fees per plan payment) with any balance of the base fee and any allowed non-base fees to be paid through the plan on a pro-rata basis with allowed secured claims.

b. SECURED CLAIMS:

HOLDERS OF SECURED CLAIMS (INCLUDING ANY ARREARAGES ON FULLY SECURED CLAIMS) WHICH ARE FILED WITH THE TRUSTEE SHALL RETAIN THE LIENS SECURING SUCH CLAIMS UNTIL DISCHARGE AND SHALL BE TREATED AND PAID AS SECURED CLAIMANTS TO THE EXTENT OF THE COLLATERAL VALUE SET FORTH IN THE MOTION TO VALUE CLAIMS SET FORTH HEREIN. TO THE EXTENT THAT A CREDITOR'S CLAIM EXCEEDS THE COLLATERAL VALUE, AND THUS THAT CREDITOR'S CLAIM IS UNDERSECURED, IT SHALL BE TREATED AND PAID IN THE SAME MANNER AS GENERAL UNSECURED CLAIMS.

CLAIMANT	CLAIM AMOUNT	COLLATERAL VALUE	UNSECURED PORTION

c. PRIORITY CLAIMS

The debtor shall make full payment in deferred cash payments of all claims entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. §§ 507 and 1322. To the extent such claims are not entitled to priority, they shall be treated and paid in the same manner as general unsecured claims.

CLAIMANT	PRIORITY AMOUNT	CLAIMANT	PRIORITY AMOUNT

d. GENERAL UNSECURED CLAIMS

The plan provides for the pro-rata payment of all non-priority, unsecured claims after payment of all administrative, secured and priority claims as set forth above. If the plan proposes payments for a term of months, the anticipated payout to general unsecured creditors is approximately ___%.

3. Special Plan Terms

a. SEPARATE CLASSIFICATIONS OF UNSECURED CLAIMS

The following general unsecured claims shall be separately classified and paid in full:

CLAIMANT	CLAIM AMOUNT	REASON FOR CLASSIFICATION

b. PROPERTY TO BE SURRENDERED

The debtor shall surrender the collateral securing the claims of the following creditors in satisfaction of the secured portion of such creditor's allowed claims. To the extent that the collateral does not satisfy such a creditor's claim, the creditor shall hold a general unsecured claim. All such unsecured deficiency claims must be filed with the trustee to be included for payment.

CLAIMANT	CLAIM AMOUNT	COLLATERAL BEING SURRENDERED

c. LIEN AVOIDANCE

Liens shall be avoided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §522(f) as set forth herein.

d. EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND/OR UNEXPIRED LEASES

(1) The following executory contracts and/or unexpired leases shall be assumed:

(2) The following executory contracts and/or unexpired leases shall be rejected:

e. DIRECT PAYMENTS BY DEBTOR

The debtor(s) will make regular payments directly to the following creditors:

CLAIMANT	MONTHLY PAYMENT

f. PAYMENTS UPON TAX CLAIMS

Any payments made to a taxing authority during the term of the plan from either the trustee, directly from the debtor(s), from a tax refund, or from any source whatsoever shall be applied first to secured tax claims, second to priority tax claims, and last to general unsecured tax claims without priority.

g. OTHER SPECIAL TERMS

4. Effect of Discharge

UPON THE DEBTOR(S)' COMPLETION OF THE CONFIRMED PLAN (AS PROPOSED HEREIN OR AS SUBSEQUENTLY MODIFIED), ALL CLAIMS PROVIDED BY THE PLAN WILL BE DISCHARGED AS PROVIDED FOR IN 11 U.S.C. §1328, INCLUDING THE CANCELLATION OF LIENS WHICH SECURE CLAIMS THAT ARE PAID IN THE PLAN BY PAYMENT OF THE VALUE OF THE SECURED CLAIM (AS SET FORTH HEREIN OR AS DETERMINED AT THE §341 MEETING OF CREDITORS), AND INCLUDING THE CANCELLATION OF LIENS THAT ARE AVOIDED AS PROVIDED FOR HEREIN.

MOTION TO VALUE LIENS

Included in the debtor(s) schedule of debts are purported secured claims as follows:

CREDITOR	DEBT AMOUNT	COLLATERAL	COLLATERAL VALUE	UNDERSECURED AMOUNT

The debtor(s) hereby moves the Court pursuant to Rule 3012 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure to value the collateral of each of the above-stated creditors at the collateral value stated. TO THE EXTENT THAT THE AMOUNT OF THE DEBT OF ANY SUCH CREDITOR EXCEEDS THE STATED COLLATERAL VALUE, THE DEBTOR(S) HEREBY MOVES THE COURT THAT SAID DIFFERENCE BE TREATED IN THE CHAPTER 13 PLAN AS A GENERAL UNSECURED CLAIM WITHOUT PRIORITY. THE DEBTOR(S) FURTHER MOVES THE COURT THAT THE LIEN OF EACH CREDITOR LISTED UPON THE COLLATERAL LISTED BE SATISFIED UPON PAYMENT OF THE COLLATERAL VALUE AND THE ISSUANCE OF THE DEBTOR(S)' DISCHARGE.

MOTION TO AVOID NON-POSSESSORY NON-PURCHASE MONEY SECURITY INTEREST IN HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

The debtor(s) is/are indebted to the following creditors in the amount stated. As security for the debt, each such creditor insisted upon, and the debtor(s) executed, a waiver of exemption of certain property, and a security agreement granting said creditor(s) a non-possessory, non-purchase money security interest in household goods which is property delineated by 11 U.S.C. §522(f)(2) and which is held primarily for the personal, family, or household use of the debtor(s) or a dependent of the debtor(s). The debtors(s) believe that a financing statement has been properly recorded evidencing each such creditors(s)' security interest and liens:

CREDITOR	ACCOUNT/I.D.	DEBT AMOUNT	DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

The debtor(s)' interest in any item of property referred to above does not exceed the value claimed exempt. The money so borrowed from each such creditor does not represent any part of the purchase money of any of the articles covered by each such creditor's security agreement. The existence of each such creditors(s) lien on the debtor(s)' household goods and personal items impairs the exemptions to which the debtor(s) would be entitled under 11 U.S.C. §522. The debtor(s) moves the Court for the cancellation and avoidance of the security interest of each such creditor in the debtor(s) personal and household goods, effective upon discharge.

MOTION TO AVOID JUDICIAL LIEN(S)

Judgment(s) were obtained by the creditors listed below in cases before the General Court of Justice of the State of North Carolina, and said Judgments have been recorded in the Public Registry(ies) as follows:

CREDITOR	JUDGMENT BOOK AND PAGE	REGISTRY	JUDGMENT DATE	JUDGMENT LIEN AMOUNT

The above-stated Judgment(s) created lien(s) on the real property in which the debtor(s) has an interest, which real property is more specifically described as _____. The value of the debtor(s)' interest in this real property is _____. The aforesaid lien(s) constitutes judicial lien(s) under 11 U.S.C. §522(f)(1). The property which this judicial lien encumbers is property which the debtor(s) are entitled to exempt under 11 U.S.C. §522 and the claimed amount of this exemption is $_____. The existence of this judicial lien impairs the exemption to which the debtor(s) are entitled under 11 U.S.C. §522.

The debtor(s) respectfully moves the Court to issue an order compelling the above-stated creditors to cancel and to avoid their judicial lien(s) upon the real property described herein, effective upon discharge.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. To receive payment from the trustee, a secured creditor must file a proof of claim. Secured claims which are not filed within the time period required by Bankruptcy Rule 3002(c) may be disallowed or subordinated to other claims upon further order of the Court.

2. Confirmation of this plan does not bar a party in interest from objecting to a claim which is not filed in accordance with Federal Bankruptcy Rules 3001 or 3002.

3. Unless otherwise ordered, any creditor holding a claim secured by property which is removed from the protection of the automatic stay, whether by judicial action, voluntary surrender, or through operation of the plan, will receive no further distribution from the trustee, unless an itemized proof of claim for any deficiency is filed within 120 days after the removal of the property from the protection of the automatic stay. This also applies to creditors who may claim an interest in, or lien upon, property which is removed from the protection of the automatic stay of another lien holder or release to another lien holder.

4. If a claim is listed in the plan as secured and the creditor files a proof of claim as an unsecured creditor, the creditor shall be treated as unsecured for purposes of distribution of the plan.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided in this Chapter 13 Plan Summary, including Motion(s) for Valuation; Motion(s) to Avoid Certain Liens; and Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts; as to all matters set forth herein are true and correct.

I. Introduction to bankruptcy practice guide.

This Administrative Guide ("Guide") has been prepared to assist all interested parties in their use of the services of this Court and the Clerk's Office. Prior to October 1, 1994, many of this Court's Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure ("Local Bankruptcy Rules") were not phrased in terms of mandatory rules. Instead, they simply provided information or recommended guidelines for all interested parties. Therefore, the Local Bankruptcy Rules were substantially revised on October 1, 1994. Many of the non-mandatory provisions that were a part of the Local Bankruptcy Rules prior to October 1, 1994 have now been moved to this Guide. Although the provisions of this Guide have been approved by this Court, its requirements do not have the full force of law.

The Guide shall be updated periodically as necessary. Each revised page will bear a revision date in the upper right hand corner. All parties on the Court's mailing list will receive notice of all future revisions to the Guide.

The Clerk has arranged for a local copy service to prepare copies of the Guide for purchase by all interested parties. Copies of this Guide can be obtained from Kwik Copies, 333 S. Kings Drive, Charlotte, North Carolina 28204, (704) 332-6521. Contact the Chief Deputy Clerk, Linda Anderton, for further information.

C. BANKRUPTCY ADMINISTRATOR

1. Responsibility

All matters relating to estate administration and the supervision of trustees and other court appointed fiduciaries are the official responsibility of the office of the Bankruptcy Administrator — an independent, non-judicial officer of the Federal Judiciary. The Bankruptcy Administrator is not an employee of the Bankruptcy Court itself, but, rather, is appointed by and under supervision of the Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit.

Implementation of the U.S. Trustee program has been deferred in the judicial districts of Alabama and North Carolina. The Bankruptcy Administrator performs essentially the same functions as the U.S. Trustee does in other states.

III. Rules governing practice before the court.

A. Admission to practice.

All duly licensed lawyers who are admitted to practice before the District Court shall be allowed to practice law before this Court. Admission to practice before the District Court is governed by Rule 1 of the Local Rules of Practice of the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina. "Practice of law" includes, but is not limited to, preparing and filing papers, such as complaints, petitions, applications, and motions, questioning witnesses in proceedings before the Bankruptcy Judge and pursuing or defending any action of any nature in this Court. "Practice of law" does not include questioning a debtor at a meeting of creditors in that debtor's case.

All partnerships, corporations and other business entities (other than an individual conducting business as a sole proprietorship) that desire to appear in cases or proceedings before this Court must be represented by a lawyer duly admitted to practice before this Court. Licensed attorneys who are not admitted to practice before the District Court may be permitted by the Court to appear pro hac vice from time to time in a case or proceeding, upon motion and a certificate of service evidencing service of the motion and order upon counsel for the adverse party, the counsel for the debtor, the debtor, the creditors' committee (Chapter 11), the trustee and the Bankruptcy Administrator. A motion requesting admission pro hac vice must specifically recite that the movant is familiar with and will comply with the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Western District of North Carolina. There is no specific requirement for obtaining local co-counsel. However, any local co-counsel should be identified in a motion requesting admission pro hac vice and the accompanying order. The movant may submit a proposed ex parte order with the Court allowing the appearance.

An individual may represent himself or herself in a case or a proceeding, and an individual may represent an unincorporated business if that individual is the sole proprietor of that business. Furthermore, an individual may represent a creditor or any other non-debtor entity at a first meeting of creditors.

B. Disclosure of State Bar number.

All attorneys shall disclose their State Bar number below their signature line and name and address/telephone number on all papers filed with or submitted to the Court. Attorneys shall indicate the state of admission preceding the respective number(s).

C. Local Bankruptcy Rules.

The Court has enacted a revised set of Local Rules of Practice and Procedure. A reference copy of the Local Rules is available at the front counter of the Clerk's office for use by the public. Copies of the Local Rules may be purchased from Kwik Copies, 333 S. Kings Drive, Charlotte, North Carolina 28204, (704) 332-6521. The Local Bankruptcy Rules can also be reviewed through the use of the PACER automation system. For further information concerning purchase, contact the Chief Deputy Clerk of Court, Linda Anderton.

Included in the Local Rules is an appendix of forms for use by the bankruptcy bar in this District. The forms must be substantially complied with at all times.

The Local Rules may be amended from the time to time after a period of public review and comment. The amendment process will begin on May 1 of each year. Any proposed changes in the Local Bankruptcy Rules should be submitted in writing to the Clerk of Court on or before May 1 of each year. All proposed amendments will be on display for review and comment at the Intake Section of the Bankruptcy Clerk's Office from June 1 through June 15. Proposed amendments will also appear in the Local Rules Directory in the PACER automation system from June 1 through June 15 of each year. Any amendments to the Local Bankruptcy Rules will become effective on June 30 of each year. At that time, the amended Local Bankruptcy Rules will be available at the Intake Section of the Clerk's Office, at Kwik Copies in Charlotte, and through the PACER automation system.

Should any matter of practice or procedure require the attention of the Court on a more frequent basis, the Court shall from time to time enter standing orders which will have the same force and effect as the Local Bankruptcy Rules. The Clerk maintains a file of all standing orders entered by the Court and enters the standing orders on an accompanying docket sheet. This standing order file and docket shall be available for public inspection, subject to reasonable terms and conditions, at all times during regular business hours of the office of the Clerk. Standing orders which relate to administrative matters will be incorporated into either the Local Bankruptcy Rules or this Guide on an annual basis. Several standing orders of general interest to the bar are appended to this Guide.

IV. Clerk's office services.

A. Information services.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, all documents filed with the Clerk are public records and available for in person inspection at no charge. The Clerk may require a receipt from parties reviewing a file. If the services of the Clerk's staff are requested to locate a particular document in a case or adversary proceeding file, a $15.00 search fee must be paid. All requests for information made by mail or by telephone that require a physical search of the case file are subject to the $15.00 search fee; however, the Clerk's office will provide the following information concerning any pending bankruptcy case at no charge to any interested person:

1. The name and address of any debtor;
2. The bankruptcy case number;
3. The case filing date;
4. The name and address of the debtor's counsel if any;
5. The name and address of the trustee, if any; and
6. The date of the entry of discharge, if applicable;

In addition, and subject to the continuing availability of adequate administrative resources, the Clerk's office will respond at no charge to inquiries concerning specific matters that may have been entered on any pending bankruptcy case electronic docket. Each telephone inquiry shall be limited to any combination of three (3) bankruptcy cases and/or adversary proceedings.

Attorneys and their staff are invited to use the computer terminals that are located at the Intake Counter in the Clerk's office in order to locate case information. The use of these computer terminals will often result in the user being able to locate case information faster than it can be obtained by having the Intake Clerks retrieve a case file.

B. Voice Case Information System (V.C.I.S.)

Attorneys and the general public may now obtain basic information concerning active cases by dialing the Court's V.C.I.S. telephone line, which is (704) 344-6311, on a touchtone telephone. V.C.I.S. or Voice Case Information System is a set of computer programs that interface the Bankruptcy Court's BANCAP database with another piece of equipment (DECtalk), which in turn gives a caller information stored on the Court's computer system.

The V.C.I.S. works using a device called a voice synthesizer. This is a box which contains a high-powered processor running a special program, as well as a dictionary of English words and standard rules of pronunciation. The synthesizer (DECtalk) will take words transmitted by the computer and read them over the phone. Unlike bank voice computer systems that are able to use pre-recorded human speech as a result of the limited phrases produced by the system, there is no limit to the various words that must be produced by V.C.I.S. (i.e., debtor's names). Therefore, V.C.I.S. cannot use pre-recorded speech and must use the synthesizer to generate words electronically. The voice synthesizer cannot generate as high a voice quality as a system that uses pre-recorded speech. Nevertheless, V.C.I.S. has been fine-tuned to provide very acceptable understandability for most purposes.

In order to get information from V.C.I.S., you must dial the Court's V.C.I.S. telephone line on a touchtone telephone. When the line connects, the DECtalk will answer the call and begin its speech as follows:

> "This is a computerized name look-up system at the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of North Carolina. Type the name of a participant in a bankruptcy case, using the letters shown above the keys on your telephone. Type the last name, followed by the first name, if any, ignoring any spaces or other non-letters. Use the 1 key for the letters Q and Z. Press the pound key when done."

You would then begin quickly to type the name of the bankruptcy case about which you are inquiring and press the # key. The V.C.I.S. would then make the following statement:

> "I'll look that up and read the name or names that match, if there are any. If more than one name matches the keys you pressed, I'll read each and every one of them. Please stand by, and I'll have this for you momentarily. Just a moment."

V.C.I.S. will then provide the caller with the appropriate case number, chapter, filing date, debtor's name, name and phone number of debtor's attorney, trustee's name, name of Judge assigned to the case, status of the case, 341 meeting date if applicable, and discharge date. It will then thank you for calling and hang up.

C. Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER).

The Federal Court system has introduced a new service designed to provide attorneys and the general public with easier and better access to court information. This system is an electronic public access system called PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records). PACER has been operational since March, 1992, and the Court's PACER telephone numbers are 344-6121, 344-6122, 344-6123, and 344-6124.

This system allows attorneys and the general public to use a terminal or computer and modem to dial into the Court's computer system, connect to a special information computer, and request information about a case. The system will provide lists of cases, searched by name, as well as the full electronic docket for each case. Users may save the docket on their computer or print it out in their office. This allows users to get docket information on any of thousands of cases in the Bankruptcy Court. PACER allows users to:

1. Track updates to a case of interest in less than a minute;
2. Get a printed history of a case by retrieving the public docket in less than a minute;

3. Research litigants by name;
4. Obtain copies of Court calendars;
5. Review and download the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Western District of North Carolina;
6. Review and download proposed amendments to the Local Bankruptcy Rules; and
7. Review and download the Bankruptcy Practice Guide for the Western District of North Carolina.

The Clerk's office will provide documentation on the use, restrictions, and capabilities of the PACER system, as well as a PACER registration form, upon request. Anyone who has questions concerning this system should direct those questions to the Court's Systems Manager or Assistant Systems Manager at (704) 344-6103.

Potential users can be certain that the following equipment will be needed in order to utilize the PACER system:

1. Terminal or computer. A computer has the added advantage of being able to download data (case information) onto a disk for later reviews, printing, or even editing (such as with a word processor). However, even a dumb terminal will be sufficient for retrieving information.
2. Printer. A printer will give the user the option of making a copy of the information received for later reference.
3. Modem. The system will accept both 2400 baud and 1200 baud modems. The former is twice as fast, and it will make the system more pleasant to use if the user is downloading large docket reports.

All users will be billed quarterly at the rate of $.60 per minute of use. However, information can be downloaded instantaneously, thereby minimizing the cost to users. Registration of all new users will be handled by the PACER Billing Center, U.S. Courts — CVB (S.A.), P. O. Box 740026, Atlanta, Georgia 30374-0026, 1 (800) 827-2982.

When a user logs into PACER, the Billing Center software will post a date and time in a log file. The user will be permitted to enter a fifteen character client identification code which can be used to track the transaction and bill the user's clients. When the user logs out of PACER, the user's total time will be posted to the log file. Users will also have the ability to review their transactions on line and change their password. Each month, the prior month's log file will be electronically sent to the Billing Center for processing.

Itemized statements will be sent on a quarterly basis. All funds collected by the Billing Center will be forwarded to a U.S. Treasury account established by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

D. Photocopying documents.

Copy requests for three or fewer pages can be honored while the requestor waits. Copy requests for more than three pages must be left with the counter deputy and will be completed in the order received. A charge of $.50 per page applies to all copy requests and must be paid in advance of receiving the copies.

E. Transcripts and tape duplications.

Transcript requests are made directly to the Electronic Court Recorder Operator ("ECRO") by telephone, in person, or in writing. A follow-up letter is required for those requests made by telephone or in person. The Clerk's office will not honor requests for transcripts consisting of various portions of a witness's testimony on direct examination or cross-examination. However, the Clerk's office will honor requests for transcripts of the entire direct examination and/or the entire cross-examination of a single witness. The ECRO will estimate the number of pages and provide an estimated cost which must be paid before the Clerk's office begins any work required for the preparation of the transcript.

There will be a $15.00 service charge (payable to the Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court) if an attorney or representative requests a transcript and does not follow through with the request. This service charge provides a nominal fee for the ECRO's time spent in processing the transcript request. Federal government agencies are exempt from paying in advance.

Tapes of Section 341 creditors' meetings are retained by the Bankruptcy Administrator for two (2) years, and requests for tape duplications of any first meeting shall be made, in writing, directly to the Office of the Bankruptcy Administrator and shall include payment of the prescribed fee to the Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court. There is no longer a charge for duplication of these tapes. However, the party requesting the tape must provide blank tape(s) which will be used to make the copy and then returned.

F. Record retrieval.

Case and adversary proceeding files are maintained on Court premises for a limited period of time after the case is closed before being shipped to a Federal Records Center for storage. Upon request, the Clerk can arrange for retrieval of a particular file from the Federal Records Center located in Atlanta, Georgia, upon payment of a $25.00 fee. Alternatively, an interested party may arrange for inspection directly with the Center itself. Contact the Chief Deputy Clerk for details on this procedure.

G. Filing papers after business hours.

In a genuine emergency, petitions or other papers may be filed by contacting the Clerk at the residential telephone number published in the Huntersville telephone directory. If the Clerk is unavailable after regular work hours, a message can be left on his telephone answering machine. The Bankruptcy Judges may also accept emergency filings.

H. Legal advice.

A bankruptcy case is a formal legal case affecting the rights of both debtors and creditors. For that reason, the Clerk's and the Bankruptcy Administrator's offices are prohibited from giving any advice which may be considered legal in nature. Bankruptcy is sufficiently complicated that most individuals find it desirable to obtain the services of an attorney.

V. Financial information.

A. Bankruptcy fees. (as established per 28 U.S.C. §1930)

1. Chapter 7 or 13 case filing fee
(Including $30.00 Administrative Fee) ..... $ 160.00
2. Chapter 9 case filing fee ..... $ 300.00
3. Chapter 11 case filing fee ..... $ 800.00
(Railroad) $1,000.00
4. Chapter 12 case filing fee ..... $ 200.00
5. Conversions: Upon request of the debtor, if a case under Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 is converted to a case under Chapter 11 ..... $ 400.00
Note: All other conversion fees previously included in the federal bankruptcy fee schedule have been repealed.
6. Reopening cases — Unless a case is being reopened to correct administrative error or for actions related to the debtor's discharge, the moving party must tender payment equal to the current case filing fee.
7. Photocopying ..... $ .50 per page
8. Document certification ..... $ 5.00 per document
9. Magnetic tape reproduction ..... $ 15.00 per tape
10. Amendments to Debtor's Schedules or List of Creditors after service of the 341 first meeting of creditors notice ..... $ 20.00 per amendment
Note: Pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 1009, the debtor shall provide written notice to all affected parties of all amendments except those ordered by the court.
11. Record Search by Clerk ..... $ 15.00 per name or item

12. Complaint Filing Fee ..... $ 120.00
(no charge where plaintiff is a Chapter 7, 12 or 13 debtor)
13. Filing or indexing any document from a case pending in another district ..... $ 20.00
14. Notices generated by Clerk on behalf of the estate .. $ .50 /addressee
15. Claims processing charge (for each proof of claim filed in excess of 10) $ .25 /claim
16. Filing notice of appeal ..... $ 5.00
(including cross-appeals)
17. Appeal Docketing Fee ..... $ 100.00
18. Retrieval of Court File from Federal Records Center or any off-premises location ..... $ 25.00
19. Insufficient Funds Check Charge ..... $ 25.00
20. Mailing Matrix Labels ..... $ 5.00 /page
IMPORTANT NOTE: As a result of actions taken by the Congress and the Judicial Conference of the United States during 1989 and 1990, certain additional bankruptcy court fees have been established. They are as follows:
21. For the deconsolidation of any joint petition at the request of the debtor, a fee equal to one-half of the current fee for filing a petition for the chapter under which the joint case was originally filed. The fee is applicable to case conversions, also, and it applies whether the joint case was previously substantively consolidated or not.
22. For filing motions to vacate or modify the automatic stay, to withdraw the reference of a case or proceeding, or to compel abandonment of property of the estate ..... $ 60.00
23. For docketing cross appeals ..... $ 100.00
24. Pursuant to action of the Judicial Conference of the United States, an administrative fee of $30.00 is required to be paid upon the filing of all petitions for relief under Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code. This fee is in lieu of the noticing fee the Clerk is required to charge as provided in paragraph 14 above. This fee may be included in one check with the filing fee because it is assessed, and is to be collected, at the time the petition for relief is filed. This means that payment at the time of filing of a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 case should be in the total amount of $160.00.

B. Methods of payment.

Cash, certified check, personal check, money order. Personal checks are not accepted from debtors or debtors in possession. The Clerk reserves the right to refuse to accept personal checks from any other parties, included but not limited to, those who have written checks to the Court that are subsequently returned NSF. The Court does not keep funds for making change. Exact change is required.

On October 12, 1990, the Court entered an Order Establishing Methods of Payment for Court Fees and for Satisfaction of all Judgments of the Court. This Order provides that any party who tenders payment of any bankruptcy court fees established pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1930 or any party who tenders payment in satisfaction of any judgment or order of this Court shall do so in such a manner as to minimize the inconvenience of collection for the person or entity to whom the payment is tendered. In furtherance of this policy, the Order directs all payments to be made by check, draft, money order, currency and/or coin. The Order further provides that when payment is to be made by currency and/or coin, the tendering party shall make such payment using the largest denominations of such currency and/or coin as are possible, given the total amount of said payment. Violation of this Order shall subject the violating party to such sanctions as the Court deems appropriate.

C. Unclaimed funds.

All unclaimed funds collected by the Court in Chapter 7, 12 and 13 cases and deposited into the registry of the Court shall be transferred to the United States Treasury as soon as is practicable thereafter. Unclaimed funds in Chapter 11 cases shall not be deposited into the registry of the Court unless specifically allowed by order of the Court. These funds should be distributed according to the debtor's Chapter 11 Plan. All requests for the disbursement of unclaimed funds and the actual disbursement of such funds shall comply with the following:

1. Each request for the disbursement of unclaimed funds shall be verified in writing and filed with the Clerk of Court in the form of a verified Motion for Disbursement of Unclaimed Funds, which shall be accompanied by a Notice of Hearing.

2. The requestor shall serve a copy of the motion and notice of hearing on the United States Attorney, the Bankruptcy Administrator, and the case trustee. The notice shall further advise said parties that they have fifteen (15) days following service of the notice to object to or otherwise respond to the request and ask for a hearing before the Court. The notice and a written certificate of service shall be filed with the Clerk of Court within three (3) days following service as required herein.

3. An individual claimant may file a Motion for Disbursement of Unclaimed Funds and Notice of Hearing pro se, but all other claimants must be represented by an attorney who is a member in good standing of the North Carolina State Bar and who has been admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina by taking the prescribed oath in open Court, as set forth in Rule 1 of the Rules of the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina. Licensed attorneys who are not admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina shall not be permitted to appear pro hac vice for the purpose of filing a Motion for Disbursement of Unclaimed Funds on behalf of a claimant.

4. An individual claimant shall establish full proof of his or her right to the unclaimed funds by personally appearing at the hearing and presenting testimony in open Court which convinces the Court of the claimant's right to the unclaimed funds. A partnership claimant shall establish full proof of its right to the unclaimed funds by having a general partner personally appear at the hearing and present testimony in open Court which convinces the Court of the claimant's right to the unclaimed funds. A corporate or other business claimant shall establish full proof of its right to the unclaimed funds by having an officer or director personally appear at the hearing and present testimony in open Court which convinces the Court of the authority of the officer or director to act on behalf of the claimant and of the claimant's right to the unclaimed funds.

5. If the requestor is a representative of the estate of a deceased individual, the requestor shall provide the Clerk with certified copies of all probate documents to substantiate the requestor's right to act on behalf of the decedent as additional proof of entitlement to the funds.

VI. Document filing requirements.

A. Petitions and accompanying documents.

The Court requires the following number of full copies of bankruptcy petitions, including all schedules, the statement of financial affairs, exhibits and all other papers filed with a bankruptcy petition:

Chapter 7:	Original plus three (3) copies
Chapter 9:	Original plus five (5) copies
Chapter 11:	Original plus five (5) copies for a corporation or partnership debtor
	Original plus four (4) copies for an individual debtor

Chapter 12: Original plus four (4) copies
Chapter 13: Original plus four (4) copies

The copy requirements listed above include those required for service of one (1) copy on the Bankruptcy Administrator and for one (1) filed stamped office copy for the debtor or the debtor's attorney.

All petitions, schedules, statements and other papers filed with a bankruptcy petition shall conform, in all respects, to the Official Bankruptcy Forms, as promulgated by the Judicial Conference of the United States, effective August 1, 1991. Normally defective papers will be accepted by the Clerk. However, conforming papers must be filed within fifteen (15) days of the original filing. Failure to do so may result in dismissal of the case without further notice.

B. Return of file stamped office copies of documents.

Recent cuts in the operating budget of the Federal Judiciary have resulted in substantial reductions in this Court's annual allocation for postage. We must, therefore, insist that any person desiring return of a file-stamped, office copy of any document filed with or submitted to the Clerk provide the extra copy of the document plus a self-addressed envelope with sufficient return postage. The Clerk's office has discontinued its practice of returning filed copies of pleadings and orders to attorneys who do not enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope with the copies of pleadings to be returned to the attorneys.

The Clerk's office will maintain a mailbox at the Intake Section that will contain mail slots for the seventy-two most active members of the bankruptcy bar. A separate box will be used to retain pleadings for all other attorneys. Copies of filed pleadings that are not mailed back to the submitting attorneys will be retained in this area for a two-week period. Attorneys will be given the opportunity to appear at the Clerk's office and collect these documents during such two-week period.

Attorneys and their staff who visit the courthouse on a regular basis are encouraged to ask the Intake Deputies for their mail. This will not only save on postage expenses that would otherwise be incurred by the Clerk's office or the attorneys, but it will also result in a quicker return of copies of filed documents to attorneys. During such two-week period, attorneys may also send the Clerk's office a self-addressed, stamped envelope of sufficient size and containing sufficient postage for the return of these documents. After such time, the pleadings will be disposed of by depositing them in the paper recycling bin.

C. Facsimile filings.

With one exception, the Clerk will not accept "fax" transmissions or other facsimiles for filing unless a prior Order has been entered by the Court directing the Clerk to do so. The one exception to this rule will apply to trustees who are appointed by the Court to serve in a Chapter 7 or 11 case. As a result of the short time period in which a trustee may reject his or her appointment, trustees will be permitted to fax their rejections of appointment to the Court. However, a trustee must file an original document rejecting his or her appointment within two days of his or her facsimile transmission. Any other party who wishes to file a facsimile of a document should direct his or her request to the appropriate Bankruptcy Judge. The Clerk is not permitted to address such a request.

If the Court authorizes the Clerk to accept a facsimile for filing, the filing party must present the original document to the Clerk for filing within two (2) business days after the facsimile filing. Failure to file the original document within two (2) business days of the facsimile filing may cause the facsimile filing to be stricken by the Court. Pleadings and other documents that have been mailed to the Clerk's office to be filed should not also be faxed to the Clerk's office for informational purposes.

D. Bancap mailing matrix.

During late 1990, the Court converted to the BANCAP automated case management system. This is the same docketing system now in use in the bankruptcy courts of the Middle District of North Carolina and the District of South Carolina.

Use of the BANCAP system will require strict adherence to certain operating procedures by both the Clerk and the bankruptcy bar. For example, all master mailing matrices required to be filed pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 4 will have to be prepared in a specific format and conform to certain type-styles.

On October 3, 1990, the Court entered a standing order requiring each Chapter 7, 11 or 12 petition filed on or after November 1, 1990 to be accompanied by a mailing matrix creditor list prepared in the one-column format specified by the Clerk. In addition, any Chapter 13 debtor that converts to Chapter 7, 11 or 12 must file with the Notice of Conversion or proposed order a revised mailing matrix creditor list that conforms to the one-column format. Chapter 13 debtors in the Charlotte, Shelby and Statesville Divisions may file either the one-column BANCAP matrix or the three-column matrix that is commonly filed with Chapter 13 petitions.

On October 3, 1990, the Court entered a standing order requiring each Chapter 7, 11 or 12 petition filed on or after November 1, 1990 to be accompanied by a mailing matrix creditor list prepared in the one-column format specified by the Clerk. In addition, any Chapter 13 debtor that converts to Chapter 7, 11 or 12 must file with the Notice of Conversion or proposed order a revised mailing matrix creditor list that conforms to the one-column format. Chapter 13 debtors in the Charlotte, Shelby and Statesville Divisions may file either the one-column BANCAP matrix or the three-column matrix that is commonly filed with Chapter 13 petitions.

Although the majority of BANCAP matrices submitted to the Clerk's office are in the proper format, these matrices are often submitted in formats that do not comply with the instructions set forth in this Bankruptcy Practice Guide. When a matrix is submitted in a noncomplying format, the Clerk's office staff must make a decision whether to retype the matrix itself or return the matrix to the filing party with instructions to correct the format of the matrix. The Clerk's office has recently experience[d] a forced staff-reduction that makes it exceedingly more difficult for the remaining staff to retype a non-conforming matrix. Furthermore, if a noncomplying matrix is returned to the filing party, it may necessitate a delay in the scheduling of the first meeting of creditors. Therefore, all members of the bankruptcy bar are asked to comply with the BANCAP matrix instructions that are set forth herein.

1. General instructions.

The BANCAP system in this court provides a program for the computerized processing of creditors listed in each case filed to enable a high volume of cases to be processed within limited time constraints. Creditors are initially loaded into the computer data base for each case in one of two ways: (1) by "scanning" the hard copy matrix supplied by the debtor at the time of filing the case, or (2) by loading information from a diskette supplied by the debtor.

"Scanning" is a process which enables a deputy clerk to feed the matrix sheets into an optical character reader. The OCR reads the matrix and transmits the creditor information directly into the BANCAP system, thus eliminating the need to type each creditor individually into the system. If a diskette is provided, it is "loaded" into the system. All creditors on the matrix are available for retrieval for query, noticing or updating purposes within one day after entry into the system.

Hard copy matrices or diskettes must be submitted in the format utilized by the BANCAP system. When submitting matrices or diskettes, debtors and their attorneys are asked to adhere to the following:

(1) All matrices with less than 1000 creditors may be submitted by a hard copy matrix or on a diskette.

(2) If the matrix contains over 1000 creditors, the Court's Systems Manager should be contacted at (704) 344-6103 for specific instructions.

(3) Regardless of whether a diskette or a hard copy matrix is submitted, the instructions set forth herein regarding the preparation of an original matrix or diskette or supplemental matrix must be observed.

An incorrect matrix or diskette will result in delay in noticing the § 341 first meeting of creditors. Failure to comply with these matrix requirements will result in this matter being brought to the attention of the Court. The Clerk's office staff will answer any questions concerning the proper preparation of a BANCAP matrix. In addition, copies of these instructions are available upon request from the Clerk's office.

2. Hard copy matrices.

In order to ensure that the hard copy matrix to be filed can be properly read by the optical scanner, the following guidelines must be complied with when preparing the BANCAP matrix:

(1) Lists must be typed in one of the following standard typefaces or print styles: Courier 10 Pitch, Prestige Elite or Letter Gothic.

(2) Lists should be typed in a single column on the page.

(3) No letters should be closer than one (1) inch from any edge of the paper.

(4) Each name and address must consist of no more than five (5) total lines, with at least two (2) blank lines between each name and address.

(5) Each line must not exceed forty (40) characters in length.

(6) Do not include the following parties on your matrix: debtor, joint debtor, attorney(s) for the debtor(s), Bankruptcy Administrator, or case trustee. These parties will be added by Clerk's office staff and retrieved from the system for noticing.

(7) Do not put any other information on the matrix, such as a heading, date, lines, and page numbers, etc. The case number and the debtor's name should be listed on the reverse side.

(8) Do not staple or hole punch the matrix.

(9) Be sure the paper is inserted straight in the typewriter or printer and do not remove the list and reinsert it to complete the matrix.

(10) If you are using a 10 pitch element, make sure that your typewriter or printer is set to 10 pitch, not 12 pitch.

(11) Do not use all caps. Use both upper and lower case, where appropriate.

(12) Zip codes must be placed on the last line along with the city and state. Use the standard two-letter abbreviations for states. Use capital letters for state abbreviations (i.e., FL). Do not use periods to separate these initials (i.e., N.C.). Use a hyphen for nine digit zip codes. Do not put attention lines or account numbers on the last line. Put this information on the second line following the creditor's name, if needed.

(13) Do not use onion skin, colored or half-sized paper, or erasable bond.

(14) Make sure your matrix is clean and reads easily. Do not use correction fluid.

(15) List the creditor's first name first, last name last, without titles (i.e., Mr., Mrs., Ms., etc.).

(16) Submit only clear originals. Photocopies or carbon copies are unacceptable.

(17) Printing from dot matrix printers or worn out typewriter or printer ribbons is unacceptable.

(18) Do not use the letter "l" for the number "1". Do not use % as a substitute for c/o. Do not use \ as a substitute for /. Do not use +, use either "and" or "&". Do not use /eqv as a substitute for -. Do not use [ ] as a substitute for ( ).

(19) The matrix must be accompanied by a properly completed certification of accuracy. The certification can not be made on the matrix form itself.

3. Matrices on diskette.

The Clerk's office will accept filing of matrices on floppy diskettes using ASCII text format. The equipment that will be needed to submit matrices on diskettes is an IBM compatible PC with DOS, a 3½" double-sided, double-density or high-density diskette, and a program that will produce ASCII text files such as a word processor or text editor, or other programs with the capability of producing output in ASCII format.

The following guidelines must be complied with:

(1) Lists should be typed in a single column.

(2) Each name and address must consist of no more than five (5) single-spaced lines, with at least one blank line between each of the name/address blocks.

(3) Zip codes must be located on the same line as the city and state. This must be the last line of each name/address block.

(4) Nine-digit ZIP codes should be typed with a hyphen separating the two groups of digits.

(5) All states must be two-letter abbreviations. Example: correct = CA; incorrect = Cal., Calif., California.

(6) Each line must be forth (40) characters or less in length.

(7) Entities with more than one address may be listed as many times as necessary to ensure proper notice.

(8) Do not include the following entities, since they will be added by the Clerk's office: the debtor, the joint debtor, the attorney for debtor(s), the Bankruptcy Administrator, and the case trustee.

(9) Do not use upper case only (all capital letters). Type in upper and lower case as you would a letter.

(10) Do not type "attention" lines or account numbers on the last line. If needed, this information must be placed on the second line of the name/address block. Account numbers may not exceed fifteen (15) characters.

(11) Do not use a header or footer to identify your case.

(12) Save the date in ASCII format in a file called creditor.scn.

(13) Label the floppy diskette with the case name and date, and file it with the petition.

(14) Only one case should be included on each floppy diskette. Only one creditor.scn file can be processed from a single floppy diskette.

Accuracy and completeness in preparing the mailing matrix are the sole responsibility of the debtor and the debtor's attorney. The Court will rely on the creditor listing for mailings. Please be certain to include all listed creditors, including priority creditors such as the IRS.

4. Matrices filed subsequent to filing of original matrix.

If the debtor files schedules or amended schedules subsequent to the filing of the original matrix, or if the debtor files a schedule of unpaid debts pursuant to FRBP 1019 which requires the addition, deletion or correction of names already listed or to be added to the original BANCAP matrix or diskette, special instructions apply in addition to the instructions for preparing original matrices, as set forth above. These special instructions are as follows:

(1) The debtor should never re-submit a name on a supplemental matrix which was submitted on the original matrix unless the name and/or address is being corrected or updated. The debtor should not re-list all creditors that appeared on the original matrix in addition to the changes that he or she is attempting to make by filing the supplemental matrix. Only the changes should be listed.

(2) Separate matrices must be filed when submitting creditor additions, corrections or deletions at the same time. The debtor should indicate on the reverse side of each such matrix whether the matrix lists "added", "modified", or "to be deleted" creditors.

The Clerk's automation staff may be able to develop programs that will accept matrices that are prepared on Apple or other non-IBM/PC computers.

Anyone who has questions concerning the submission of matrices on diskettes is urged to contact the Court's Systems Manager, or Assistant Systems Manager, at (704) 344-6103.

The BANCAP attorney data base will be indexed by bar number rather than by name; therefore, all papers filed in the Court will have to include the filing attorney's State Bar number. Therefore, the Court asks that all attorneys begin to use their bar numbers on all pleadings as soon as possible.

E. Proofs of claim.

As provided by Local Bankruptcy Rule 3002-1.1., Chapter 13 proofs of claim are to be filed directly with the standing trustee. When filing a proof of claim, be certain that the case name and number are noted on the claim form. The form must also be signed by the claimant or his attorney or agent, as appropriate. In order to receive a filed copy of a proof of claim, the claimant must submit a copy of the original document and include a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

F. Adversary proceeding cover sheet.

Local Bankruptcy Rule 7003-1 requires a cover sheet to be filed with any adversary proceeding.

G. Briefs.

Any Brief or other paper filed subsequent to the related motion or other pleading should be filed and served on all parties who are required to be served so that actual receipt of the Brief or other paper occurs at least three (3) business days prior to the scheduled trial or hearing. If service of a Brief or other paper is made close to this deadline, it is the obligation of the party serving the Brief or paper to determine that the party to be served will be available within the three (3) business days immediately preceding a scheduled trial or hearing. When the Court enters a pre-trial order, it may specify different time periods for service of papers and exchange of exhibits in adversary proceedings, which would preempt the time period specified herein.

Failure to comply with this requirement may be grounds for a continuance. The Court will not permit a party to be prejudiced by late filing of a Brief or other paper. In all cases, in addition to filing originals with the Clerk, two (2) full copies of all Briefs should be delivered directly to the Judge's chambers.

H. Scheduling judgment creditors.

If a judgment creditor is scheduled in the bankruptcy, it is necessary that the Judgment Book and Page Number of the judgment be set out beside the creditor's name. This information will be required if a Certificate of Discharge is requested by the debtor for filing in state court. All Certificates of Discharge that are submitted to the Clerk for execution must conform to the form that is attached to this Guide as Appendix 1.

I. Debtor's change of address.

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4002 places an affirmative duty on the debtor to file a statement of any change of address with the Court. Failure to do so not only violates the rule, but it also exposes the debtor to the risk of not receiving important notices in the mail.

VII. Assignment of venue and judges.

A. Divisional venue of cases and proceedings.

The Western District of North Carolina encompasses thirty-two (32) North Carolina counties. In this district there are five divisions — the Asheville Division, the Bryson City Division, the Charlotte Division, the Shelby Division and the Statesville Division. The Asheville Division contains the counties of Avery, Buncombe, Haywood, Henderson, Madison, Mitchell, Transylvania and Yancey. The Bryson City Division contains the counties of Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Jackson, Macon and Swain. For purposes of bankruptcy, cases filed in the Bryson City Division are heard in the Asheville Division. The Charlotte Division contains the counties of Anson, Gaston, Mecklenburg and Union. The Shelby Division contains the counties of Burke, Cleveland, McDowell, Polk and Rutherford. The Statesville Division contains the counties of Alexander, Alleghany, Ashe, Caldwell, Catawba, Iredell, Lincoln, Watauga and Wilkes.

Upon the filing of any bankruptcy petition, the case shall be assigned to its proper divisional venue according to the residence of an individual debtor or principal place of business of any other debtor. If the debtor's residential address or principal place of business lies in a different county than the mailing address included in the petition and the debtor wishes for that residential or business address to be used in assigning divisional venue instead, that fact must be noted conspicuously for the Clerk on the petition. Otherwise, divisional venue assignments will be based upon the debtor's mailing address as provided on the petition.

The initial assignment and transfer of divisional venue of all cases and proceedings is governed by 28 U.S.C. § 1408, 28 U.S.C. § 1409, 28 U.S.C. § 1412, Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 1014, and Local Bankruptcy Rule 1. Regardless of the timing of the filing of a Motion to Change Venue, the Section 341(a) First Meeting of Creditors shall be held in the division to which the case was originally assigned. In addition, if venue is transferred, the initial trustee shall not be changed unless the Court so orders. In certain routine administrative matters, such as hearings on applications for compensation of professionals or for approval or confirmation of sales, the Court may ex parte order a divisional venue change for convenience of the parties.

Divisional venue is currently indicated numerically in the case number. The two-digit number to the left of the hyphen is the year in which the case was filed. The first numeral in the five-digit number to the right of the hyphen represents the venue to which the case has been assigned according to the following code:

1	Asheville
2	Bryson City
3	Charlotte
4	Shelby
5	Statesville

B. Assignment of judges.

In the absence of a conflict of interest, cases filed in the Western District will be assigned between the judges as follows:

1. Asheville Division
   - All Cases — Judge Hodges
2. Charlotte Division
   - Chapter 7 — Judge Hodges
   - Chapter 11 — Judges Hodges/Whitley-Random
   - Chapter 12 — Judge Whitley
   - Chapter 13 — Judge Whitley
3. Shelby Division
   - All Cases — Judge Wooten
4. Statesville Division
   - Chapter 7 and 11 — Judge Whitley
   - Chapter 12 and 13 — Judge Hodges
5. Converted cases in all divisions

   Upon conversion, a case will be assigned to the judge who would otherwise have received it if it had been an initial filing, using 1-4 above.

VIII. Calendar matters.

A. Trials.

Trials are scheduled by the Court as the calendar permits. The parties will receive notice of trial dates by the Court.

The Bankruptcy Judges have adopted a series of standard orders designed to incorporate the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure dealing with discovery matters into the Court's pre-trial procedures. The general format of the series of orders is 1) a first order governing timing of initial disclosures, discovery and preliminary matters (appended to this Bankruptcy Practice Guide as Appendix 8); 2) a notice after the end of the discovery period to solicit a mutually convenient trial date or alert the Court that the case has not proceeded as planned (appended to this Bankruptcy Practice Guide as Appendix 9); and 3) a final order governing the exchange of exhibits and other matters immediately prior to trial (appended to this Bankruptcy Practice Guide as Appendix 10).

This format is designed to allow the case to proceed initially with only minimal Court attention or management. If all goes well, Court case management will be minimal. The Notice to Counsel serves as the Court's check on the status of the case. If the case is not ready for trial at that point, then the Court will become involved with management of the case from that point forward. Ultimately, the final pre-trial order will be entered to govern matters immediately prior to trial. The orders permit a party to request the Court's intervention in case management at any point that is deemed necessary.

The substance of what is required of parties is largely left to the Federal Rules. These orders seek to control the timing of those matters. The format of the orders is designed to use actual dates rather than time periods. Although this is initially a bit more burdensome on the Clerk's office, the Court believes that it will be helpful in communicating the exact deadlines that are established. The Court expects all parties to respect these deadlines.

The Federal Rules' provisions on the timing of initial disclosure effectively delay discovery at the beginning of a case. Therefore, the total time from the entry of the initial pre-trial order to the close of discovery will be approximately four (4) months.

These orders attempt to avoid the Federal Rules' requirements of multiple meetings/conferences. The Court believes that economy of everyone's time would be served by eliminating artificial appearances. The Court is hopeful that the bankruptcy bar can accomplish what the Federal Rules require without Court appearances or conferences. The benefits of meetings/conferences are preserved for cases where they are necessary by providing that parties may seek modification of the orders, or Court intervention, at any time.

The Court anticipates that the deadlines established in these orders will be satisfactory for the great majority of cases. In any case in which the deadlines are not realistic, the parties may propose modifications to the orders.

B. Motions.

Special motion days are scheduled each month for each chapter and each divisional venue. Counsel should make a reasonable effort to coordinate hearings on motions with the calendars of opposing counsel and the trustee in the case. Parties shall make every effort to notice their motions for hearing on special motion days.

When preparing to notice a motion for hearing, contact the judge's secretary or the assigned deputy clerk for the upcoming hearing dates for the appropriate chapter and division. The deputy clerk will not take calendaring information at that point. The motion will be added to the calendar only when an original motion and a notice of hearing are filed with the Clerk. When a "no protests" notice containing a specific hearing date is used and filed with the Clerk, the matter will not be calendared unless an objection or other request for hearing is filed thereafter. A certificate of service of the mailing of the notice of hearing must be filed with the Clerk within three days of the date of service.

The special motion days are currently scheduled as follows:

1. Asheville Division.

a) Regular term of court is scheduled for the third full week of each calendar month.

1) Chapter 13 and brief Chapter 7 matters are heard on Tuesday, only.
2) All other matters are heard on Wednesday and Thursday, with Monday afternoon available, if needed.

b) As a result of courtroom renovation work, the additional term of court previously held on the Wednesday of the first full week of each calendar month will be suspended until further notice by the Court.

c) The Court address for the Asheville Division is:
Main Courtroom, Third Floor
United States Post Office and Courthouse
100 Otis Street
Asheville, North Carolina

2. Charlotte Division.

a) Chapter 7 matters are heard on Thursday of the second full week of the calendar month.

b) Chapter 11 matters.

1) Judge Hodges: Wednesday of the second full week of the calendar month for routine matters. Other times are available upon request for more time-consuming matters.
2) Judge Whitley: Thursday of the first and third full weeks of the calendar month.

c) Chapter 12 matters: Monday of the first full week of the calendar month.

d) Chapter 13 motions are heard on Tuesday of the second, third, and fourth weeks of the calendar month. Chapter 13 dismissal hearings are held on Wednesday of the second and fourth full weeks of the calendar month. Time consuming matters can be set at special times throughout the week after receiving prior court approval.

e) The calendars for hearings in the Charlotte Division are now prepared by grouping all cases according to the debtor's attorney. This practice occasionally results in the need to calendar a matter for an afternoon hearing even though it has been noticed for a hearing to be held in the morning. Therefore, all out-of-town creditors' attorneys are invited to verify hearing times by reviewing the court calendars on PACER. An out-of-town creditors' attorney who does not have access to PACER can call the Clerk's office on the day before the scheduled hearing in order to verify the time of the hearing.

f) Pretrial hearings (both judges) will be set on the respective motion days above.

g) The court address for the Charlotte Division is:
Bankruptcy Courtroom, First Floor
Charles R. Jonas Federal Building
401 West Trade Street
Charlotte, North Carolina

h) Judge Wooten normally holds court in Room 122.

i) Judge Hodges normally holds court in Room 126.

j) Judge Whitley normally holds court on Chapter 13 matters in Room 126. Judge Whitley's other hearings will normally be held in Room 122.

3. Shelby Division.

a) Regular term of court is scheduled for Friday of the fourth full week of the calendar month.

b) An emergency term of court will be scheduled on an "as needed" basis. Contact the appropriate judge or the judge's secretary to obtain an emergency hearing date.

c) The court address for the Shelby Division is:
Cleveland County Courthouse
Assigned Bankruptcy Courtroom
100 Justice Place
Shelby, North Carolina

4. Statesville Division.

a) Chapter 13 matters are heard on Tuesday of the first full week of the calendar month.

b) Chapter 7 and 11 matters are heard on Wednesday of the first full week of the calendar month.

c) An emergency term of court will be scheduled on an "as needed" basis. Contact the appropriate judge or the judge's secretary to obtain an emergency hearing date.

d) The court address for the Statesville Division is:
Main Courtroom, Second Floor
United States Post Office and Courthouse
Broad Street
Statesville, North Carolina

C. Emergency hearings and hearings on shortened notice.

1. Motions for order shortening time.

A motion for order shortening time will generally be determined ex parte by the Court on the basis of the papers submitted with the motion, subject to the right of any party to subsequently object to the adequacy of notice. The motion should be substantially in the form of Local Form 7. The request for an order shortening time may be contained in the motion seeking the relief in the matter, and need not be made by separate motion. The notice on the underlying motion shall state that the movant has submitted an order shortening with the Court.

2. Orders shortening time.

The proposed order shortening time shall be submitted as a separate document at the time of the filing of the motion and shall substantially comply with Local Form 8. The proposed order shall specify the nature and timing of the proposed shortened notice, and leave appropriate blanks for the Court to insert the date and time of hearing on the underlying motion, and the date for serving and filing papers in opposition to the underlying motion. Counsel for the movant is encouraged to confer in advance with the appropriate judge's secretary to secure appropriate dates so they may be completed in the order being submitted. In order to secure expedited processing of motions to shorten notice, parties should advise the appropriate chapter deputy clerk of the need for expedited handling at the time of filing.

D. First meetings of creditors.

First meetings are normally held according to the following schedule which may be changed from time to time:

1. Charlotte Division.

a) Chapter 13 first meetings are normally held on Wednesday and Thursday of the first full week of the month, and on Thursday and Friday of the third full week of the month, and they are staggered beginning at 9:30 a.m.

b) Chapter 7 first meetings are normally held on Tuesday of the first, second, third, and fourth full week of the month. Chapter 11 and 12 first meetings are normally held on Tuesday of the first, second, and fourth full week of the month. Chapter 12 meetings are held at 9:00 a.m. and Chapter 11 meetings are held at 10:00 a.m. Chapter 7 cases begin at 2:00 p.m.

2. Asheville Division.

a) Chapter 13 first meetings are normally held on Monday of the third full week of the month at 9:30 a.m.

b) Chapter 11 and 12 first meetings are normally held on Tuesday of the third full week of the month at 1:30 p.m.

c) Chapter 7 first meetings are normally held on Monday of the fourth full week of the month beginning at 9:00 a.m.

d) Asheville first meetings will be held in Suite 103, 11 N. Market Street, Asheville, North Carolina.

3. Shelby Division.

a) All first meetings are normally held on Friday of the second full week of the month. The meetings are held at the following times:

1) Chapter 7 — 9:30 a.m.

2) Chapter 13 — 10:30 a.m.

3) Chapter 11 and Chapter 12 — 1:30 p.m.

b) Shelby first meetings will be held where regular court hearings are held, as noted above.

4. Statesville Division.

a) All first meetings are normally held on Monday of the first full week of the month.

b) The meetings are held at the following times:

1) Chapter 13 and Chapter 7 — 9:00 a.m.

2) Chapter 11 and Chapter 12 — 1:30 p.m.

c) Statesville first meetings will be held where regular court hearings are held, as noted above.

E. Court calendars.

Budgetary considerations have forced the Clerk's office to discontinue its prior practice of mailing copies of the Court calendars to the attorneys whose names appear thereon. Instead, copies of the Court calendars will be made available at the Intake Section of the Clerk's office. In addition, copies of the Court calendars can be obtained by all attorneys who subscribe to the Court's PACER automation service. The Court calendars can be downloaded into a subscriber's own computer system in less than one minute.

F. Motions for continuance and settlement.

Motions for continuance of any matter should be filed as far in advance as possible, should set forth in detail the reasons for the request, and should advise the Court whether any continuance has previously been granted for the same matter. Every effort should be made with opposing counsel to coordinate calendars and obtain consent to continuances. The Court may award costs, including attorney's fees, for any party who suffers a monetary loss because of a last minute request for a continuance. The Court encourages parties to stipulate to continuances where the requests are reasonable. Last minute continuances are disruptive to the Court's calendar, and they are an inconvenience to all parties.

Parties should advise the Court as soon as possible concerning settlements, and all interested parties should be given the courtesy of such notice as soon as reasonably possible.

IX. Orders, notices of hearings, and judgments.

A. Orders.

1. Submission of orders.

Proposed orders should not be submitted with the Clerk's office for the Court's consideration until the matter is ready for consideration. Any objection periods which must have first expired before the order can be entered should pass before the document is submitted. The time requirements of Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002 and 9006 apply.

Parties must be careful to provide sufficient copies of all proposed orders to the Clerk for service. The Clerk's office asks that all parties submit an original and at least four copies of every order to be signed and entered. If any question concerning the correct number of copies in a particular situation arises, contact the respective deputy clerk.

All papers, including proposed orders, shall be filed with the Clerk's office, rather than directly with the Bankruptcy Judge. The Clerk shall perform any necessary processing of such papers before forwarding the papers to the Bankruptcy Judge for consideration. It is recognized that occasionally a matter may be discussed by counsel directly with a Bankruptcy Judge and that the Bankruptcy Judge will sign the order before the motion or application is actually filed with the Court. In such situations, the signed order and the motion or application shall be filed simultaneously with the Clerk's office.

Should expedited processing of papers be required during a term of Court in a division of the District not regularly staffed by the Clerk, the Court may, upon a showing of compelling need by a party, direct the courtroom deputy to enter a judgment, final order or other paper on the docket. The party shall arrange for prompt service of the paper and shall execute and deliver a certificate of service to the courtroom deputy at the time of the docket entry.

2. Orders affecting title to real property.

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 5003(c), the Clerk is required to keep an additional copy of every final order affecting title to or liens on real property in a judgment book. Parties must include an extra copy of any such proposed orders submitted to the Court. Such orders must describe the encumbered real property with specificity, either by its metes and bounds description, its complete street address, or a reference to the book and page at which the deed or deed of trust is recorded in the appropriate county registry.

3. Orders avoiding liens.

All orders avoiding liens and the corresponding motions must describe the encumbered property with particularity. A reference to "household goods" or "real property" is generally considered an insufficient description of property. If the property is real estate, it must be described by either its metes and bounds description, its street address, or a reference to the deed book and page at which the deed or deed of trust is recorded. The movant may attach to the motion a copy of a security agreement or financing statement that contains a list of the encumbered property. The orders and motions must also set forth how the lien was perfected, the Judgment Book and Page Number at which the lien is recorded, a statement concerning the basis of the lien avoidance, the value of the movant's interest in the encumbered property, and the amount of the exemption that is impaired by the lien.

The Judges will not sign orders directing creditors to personally cancel liens that have been avoided. It is the debtor's responsibility to ensure that the avoidance of liens is noted in the appropriate public records.

Orders avoiding liens pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 522(f) should clearly state that the lien is avoided "to the extent it impairs the debtor's exemptions."

4. Joint administration or consolidation orders.

Whenever two or more cases are to be substantively consolidated or jointly administered, the proposed order that is submitted for this purpose must specify which of the two procedures is being invoked and the order must also identify which case is to be deemed the lead case. If two or more cases are administratively consolidated, all docket entries will be made in a lead case, but separate final reports shall be filed in each case. If two or more cases are substantively consolidated, all docket entries will be made in the lead case, but only one final report shall be filed.

5. Docketing of final orders or judgments/appeals.

Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 5003 and 9021 provide that, for appeal purposes, a final order or judgment becomes effective only when the ministerial act of docketing by the Clerk is performed. Parties are, therefore, advised not to serve a final order until it has been so docketed by the Clerk.

6. Service of docketed orders.

Prompt service of docketed final orders, or notice of the entry of such orders, is, as provided by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9022, essential. Where the Clerk has arranged for service of a final order to be handled by a particular party, care must be taken to ensure that this is done.

B. Notices of hearing.

1. Responsibility for providing notice.

Pursuant to the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, responsibility for providing notice has been delegated to the movants to the extent permitted by the Bankruptcy Code and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. The Court will provide original notice of filing of the case to creditors in Chapter 7, 12 and 13 cases and notice of discharge in those chapters. All other notices must be mailed by the party requesting relief. Notice of a continued hearing will be sent by the party requesting the continuance.

The Clerk must approve the form and content of any notice sent as a Court notice prior to mailing and, upon request, can furnish a mailing list to the party sending the notice. A certificate of service must be filed with the Clerk within three days of service and include a copy of the notice and a list of the parties upon whom it was served.

2. "No protest" notices.

In Local Bankruptcy Rule 7007-1.2, matters which can be determined by the Court without the need for an actual hearing unless an objection is filed and/or a hearing is specifically requested are listed. Local Form 4 provides a model "no protest" notice for use in these situations.

The notice form provides for the inclusion of a specific hearing time and location in the event that one becomes necessary. Parties are urged to obtain and include a specific hearing date and time in their notices rather than using language simply stating that "if objections or requests are received, a hearing subsequently will be scheduled and noticed." If such language is used in a "no protest" notice and hearing is requested, the movant, and not the Clerk, will be responsible for sending the follow-up notice of hearing if an objection or other request for hearing is filed. If the objection period expires without the filing of any objection or request for hearing, the movant shall promptly submit a proposed order, which shall be accompanied by Local Form 9, which itself is a representation to the Court of movant's timely service of the motion and "no-protest" notice and constituting advice by the movant to the Court that no objections were served upon the movant or filed with the Court.

3. Notices of motions to dismiss.

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002 provides that motions to dismiss a case must be served upon all creditors. All motions for relief from stay that include in the prayer for relief a request for the alternative relief that the case be dismissed must be served on all creditors, and the certificate of service must indicate such service. An accurate mailing matrix may be obtained from the Clerk.

4. Notice to bankruptcy administrator.

All parties are required to serve upon the Bankruptcy Administrator, by regular mail, hand delivery, overnight courier or by facsimile machine copies of the following documents:

a) Chapter 11 papers. All papers in Chapter 11 cases and in proceedings therein, except exhibits to be used at trials or hearings.

b) Chapter 12 papers. All papers in Chapter 12 cases and in proceedings therein, except exhibits to be used at trials or hearings.

c) Rule 2002 requests. All papers in cases and proceedings in which the Bankruptcy Administrator has filed a request for notice pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002(i).

d) Appointment and removal of trustee or examiner. All papers related to the appointment or removal of a trustee or examiner.

e) Compensation applications. All applications for compensation in all cases and proceedings.

f) Fraud or criminal activity. All papers in any case or proceeding in which fraud or criminal activity is alleged on the part of any party.

g) All papers by chapter 7 trustees. All papers filed in cases and proceedings by Chapter 7 Trustees, except as the Bankruptcy Administrator may from time to time otherwise direct by notice to the Trustees on an ad hoc basis.

h) Conversions. All orders relating to conversions of a case to a case under another chapter. Debtors or their attorneys shall serve on the Bankruptcy Administrator a copy of all schedules and statements filed following conversion of a case to a Chapter 7 proceeding.

5. Ex parte motions.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Court, the following motions are common examples of some matters which may be determined by the Court ex parte:

a) Conversions upon debtor's first request. Unless the case has previously been converted, a debtor's motion to convert a case under Sections 1112(a), 1208 or 1307(a) of the Bankruptcy Code does not require a hearing. Notice of the motion must be given to the trustee in the case and the Bankruptcy Administrator. Notice of an order converting a case to a case under another chapter must be given by the Clerk to all creditors and interested parties.

b) Motions for examination under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004. Motions and proposed orders permitting examination under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004 must be served on the debtor, trustee (if any), and the party whose examination is requested. The motion shall state, if known, the place of residence and the place of employment of the party whose examination is requested. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, no hearing is required, and the Court will enter an ex parte order permitting the examination. At least twenty (20) days prior notice of the examination must be provided, unless otherwise ordered by the Court for cause shown. The party whose examination is requested or any other interested party may file a motion for a protective order if grounds exist under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).

c) Applications to retain professionals. Applications to retain professionals under Section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code require no notice and no hearing unless the Court so orders. Proposed orders of appointment should be submitted to the Court when the application is filed.

d) Extension of time to file schedules and statement of affairs. Motions to extend time to file lists of creditors and equity security holders, or to file schedules and statements of affairs, must comply with Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 1007. Absent extraordinary circumstances, the Court will not allow extensions beyond the first date set for the Section 341 first meeting of creditors. The proposed order should be submitted to the Court when the motion is filed.

e) Motion for reduction or limitation of notice period. Motions to reduce the time of any notice period or limit the parties to whom notice shall be given, shall state the reasons therefore. A proposed order should be submitted to the Court when the motion is filed.

f) Motion for admittance pro hac vice. Attorneys not admitted to practice in the United States District Court for the Western District of North Carolina must be admitted pro hac vice prior to entrance of an appearance. A proposed order should be submitted with the Court when the motion is filed.

C. Judgments.

1. Certification of judgments for registration in other districts.

Certification of a judgment of this Court is a prerequisite to registration of the judgment in another district. Once registered in this manner, the judgment may then be enforced by execution and orders for supplementary proceedings anywhere in the state where registered.

The Clerk will perform the certification procedure upon payment of the certification fee plus a copy charge for each page of the judgment itself. (See Chapter V. A. 8. above).

Note that the official certification form provided by the Clerk is used only where the appeals period has clearly expired without an appeal having been taken or where all appeals have been finally disposed of. Where this is not the situation, an order of the Court directing the registration must be obtained by the party. That order must then be transmitted with a copy of the judgment to the court where registration will take place.

2. Registration of judgments from other districts.

Judgments from other districts may be registered in this Court as a prerequisite to execution after the following steps have been taken:

a) Delivery to the Clerk of a Certificate of Registration prepared by the court in which the judgment was obtained, or, a copy of the order referred to above.

b) A certified copy of the judgment to be registered.

c) Payment of the registration fee (See Chapter V. A. 13. above for fee).

Once the above requirements are met, the judgment will be registered on this Court's miscellaneous docket. Note that such judgments can be registered in the Bankruptcy and/or the District Court. If registered in both courts, two registration fees must be paid.

X. Discovery documents, subpoenas, and trial exhibits.

A. Discovery documents.

Depositions, interrogatories and answers thereto, requests for production or inspection, and requests for admission and responses thereto shall be served upon other counsel or parties, but shall not be filed with the Court.

B. Subpoenas.

The Clerk will provide blank, unissued subpoena forms in reasonable numbers to any requesting party.

Certain fees for attendance, mileage and service may be applicable as noted in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c). See 28 U.S.C. §§ 1821 and 1921 for further information.

Prior to the issuance of a subpoena in a case or proceeding pending in another district, the Clerk must collect the fee cited in Chapter V. A. 13. above.

Please refer to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9016, which incorporates Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 in its entirety.

C. Trial exhibits.

All models, diagrams, exhibits, depositions and other material admitted into evidence or filed in any case or proceeding shall be placed in the custody of the Clerk, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. These items shall be claimed by the party offering such evidence, or filing such materials, within 30 days after the expiration of the time for appeal from final judgment, unless otherwise directed by the Court.

At the time of removal, a detailed record of the disposition of the items shall be filed in the case or proceeding jacket. If the party who offered the items in evidence or filed the items fails to claim these materials as provided herein, the Clerk shall write the attorney of record, or if none, the party on whose behalf the items were filed or offered into evidence, calling attention to this policy. If after the mailing of such notice the materials have not been claimed and removed within 30 days, they may be destroyed by the Clerk. Because of space limitations within the Clerk's office, this disposal provision will be closely followed.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, all exhibits shall be numbered and marked for identification prior to the day of trial or motion hearing with appropriate labels. The Court will not permit attorneys or litigants to waste time numbering, marking and exposing exhibits for the first time to opposing counsel during trial. Each party intending to present exhibits shall number and mark its exhibits, prepare an index of the exhibits, and deliver the index and deliver or make available for copying or review one (1) complete set of numbered and marked exhibits with the index to each party at least three (3) court days before the date of the trial or motion hearing. In addition, each party shall bring to trial sufficient copies of each numbered and marked exhibit and the index for the witness, the Judge, the Judge's law clerk, and the court recorder operator. The courtroom deputies and electronic court recorder operators have found that receipt of a list of exhibits prior to commencement of the trial or motion hearing is particularly important to them.

XI. Removal procedure and withdrawal of reference.

A. Removal.

1. Procedure.

Consult Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9027 as to procedure governing removals. Note that the proceeding must be removed to the district or bankruptcy court for the district in which the civil action is pending. If the action is not pending in the Western District of North Carolina, it must first be removed to the court for that particular district and then — in the Court's discretion — transferred elsewhere.

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7001 provides that a cause of action removed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1452 is an adversary proceeding and the adversary rules apply. Therefore, the $120.00 adversary filing fee must accompany all removals when applicable. In addition, an adversary cover sheet must be prepared and submitted with the removal application.

2. Transfer of removed proceeding to another district.

The Court will consider a request to transfer a proceeding originally removed to the Western District to another district only upon written motion and a ten-day "no protest" notice to all affected parties. Every effort will be made to schedule such matters for a hearing, if necessary, as soon as possible. Contact the appropriate Judge's secretary for the next available hearing date.

B. Withdrawal of reference.

Motions for withdrawal of reference of a case or proceeding pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 5011 shall be filed with the Clerk, who shall promptly forward them to the Clerk of the District Court.

XII. Chapter 13 matters.

A. Claims.

1. Filing claims.

Proofs of claim in Chapter 13 proceedings shall be filed directly with the office of the Standing Trustee to whom the case is assigned. The address of the proper Standing Trustee will be shown on the notice of creditors' meeting. Claims will be dated and stamped as received as of the date they arrive in the Trustee's office and the claim shall be deemed filed with the Court as of that date.

2. Claims docket.

The staff of the Chapter 13 Trustee shall prepare a claims docket for each proceeding referred to that trustee and such claims docket shall be transferred to the Clerk's office at the closing of the case along with the original claims and made a part of the permanent record.

3. Allowance of claims.

Following the expiration of the claims bar date set forth in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3002 or the debtor's confirmed plan, the Standing Trustee shall file with the Court and serve upon all parties a Motion for Allowance of Claims Determination which shall include a report of all claims filed in the case and the Standing Trustee's proposed treatment of such claims under the plan. The motion shall also set forth the minimum percentage dividend that the Standing Trustee believes should be paid to the general unsecured creditors through the plan and request approval of the same.

The motion shall be accompanied by a notice to all parties which shall provide that any party objecting to the proposed treatment of any claim, or the proposed dividend as reported therein must file a written response and request for hearing with the Clerk within the appropriate time period as prescribed by the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. If no written responses are filed as set forth therein, the Standing Trustee's motion shall be granted. The Court has entered a Standing Order regarding the above matter which is attached to this Guide as Appendix 3.

4. Property tax claims.

The Standing Trustee shall accept for filing all properly-executed proofs of claim for property taxes, even when such proofs of claim are filed prior to the date that the taxes in question are last payable without penalty or interest as provided by applicable state law. Such proofs of claim shall not be administered by the Standing Trustee until the date that such taxes are last payable without penalty or interest has, in fact, passed. Following the passage of such date, the county or municipal taxing authority must provide timely written notification to the Standing Trustee if the taxes that are the subject of the respective proof of claim remain unpaid and if the taxing authority desires to have the debt included for payment by the Standing Trustee through the Chapter 13 plan. Unless and until the taxing authority provides such timely written notice to the Standing Trustee, the proof of claim is deemed to be objected to by the Standing Trustee on the grounds that the claim has been satisfied by payment, and such objection will be sustained by the Court. The Court has entered a Standing Order regarding the above matter which is attached to this Guide as Appendix 5.

5. Income tax claims.

The Standing Trustee shall accept for filing all properly-executed proofs of claim for income taxes from the Internal Revenue Service, even when such proofs of claim are filed prior to the due date for the federal tax returns in question, including extensions, under applicable federal law. The Standing Trustee shall proceed with no further administration of such proofs of claim until the due dates for the federal tax returns in question have, in fact, passed. Following the passage of such return due dates, the Internal Revenue Service must provide timely written notification to the Standing Trustee if the taxes that are the subject of the respective proofs of claim remain unpaid and if the Internal Revenue Service desires to have the debts included for payment by the Standing Trustee through the Chapter 13 plan. Unless and until the Internal Revenue Service provides such timely written notice to the Standing Trustee as set forth above, the proofs of claim are deemed to be objected to by the Standing Trustee for the reason that the claims have been satisfied by direct payment, and such objection will be sustained by the Court. The Court has entered a Standing Order regarding the above matter which is attached to this Guide as Appendix 6.

6. Application of Section 506(b) to secured claims.

In order for any creditor asserting over-secured status to invoke the application of the provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 506(b) to its proof of claim, the creditor shall attach to its proof of claim a specific itemization of all of the following which it intends to have considered in the determination of the secured value of its claim:

a) The interest which would accrue on such claim under the agreement under which the claim arose between the case filing date and the date of confirmation of the debtor's plan. The applicable per diem interest rate upon which the creditor's computations are based shall be set forth therein; and

b) Any reasonable fees, costs or charges provided for under the agreement under which the creditor's claim arose.

Should the creditor fail to attach such specific itemizations to its proof of claim as set forth above, the Standing Trustee is authorized to recommend to the Court a secured value for such claim which he deems to be appropriate, given the evidence that is available to him.

7. Lien avoidance / secured claims.

Unless the debtor files motions to avoid Section 522(f) liens within ninety (90) days of the date of the Section 341 first meeting of creditors, the creditor's claim will be treated as filed and may be a secured claim, to the extent of the value of the collateral.

B. Disbursements by trustee.

1. Minimum disbursements in chapter 13 cases.

Except for the final payment on a claim, a Standing Chapter 13 Trustee shall not be obligated to issue disbursements of less than $15.00 to any individual claimant. However, such trustee may, in his discretion, issue such disbursements in a smaller sum on a general basis or on a case-by-case basis.

2. Disposition of funds held by standing trustees upon conversion.

Upon receipt of notice of the dismissal of a Chapter 13 case prior to the confirmation of the debtor's plan, the trustee shall refund any undisbursed plan payments to the debtor, as set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 1326(a)(2). Upon receipt of notice of the conversion of a Chapter 13 case either prior to or following the confirmation of the debtor's plan, the trustee shall forward any undisbursed funds to the trustee, if any, in the converted case. Upon receipt of notice of the dismissal of a Chapter 13 case following the confirmation of the debtor's plan, the trustee shall disburse any funds then on hand pursuant to the terms of the confirmed plan. Any funds received by the trustee following receipt of notice of the dismissal of the case shall be remitted to the debtor.

C. Plan modification.

1. Definition of plan modification.

A proposal to modify a Chapter 13 plan includes any proposal to materially:

a) Increase, decrease, or delay periodic payments due under an existing plan;

b) Increase, decrease, or delay periodic disbursements anticipated from an existing plan;

c) Change or revise the order of distribution of payments under an existing plan.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a voluntary increase in plan payments, or early payoff of plan obligations alone, shall not constitute a proposal to modify a plan.

2. Service of plan modification.

Proposed modifications to Chapter 13 plans shall be by motion, served upon all parties in interest by the movant, and allow not less than twenty (20) days notice before the hearing, or twenty (20) days notice for the filing of objections to modifications if the "no-protest" notice procedure is used.

3. Modification of plans incident to the filing of post-petition tax claims.

Section 1305 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the filing of post-petition tax claims for inclusion in debtors' Chapter 13 plans. The inclusion of such claims in a plan frequently necessitates a request by the trustee that the plan be modified by an increase in the plan payment and/or an extension of the plan term to accommodate payment of such claims, and, pursuant to Section 1329 of the Bankruptcy Code, such requested modifications may not be allowed until after such notice and the opportunity for hearing as is appropriate.

Trustees must process a large volume of such post-petition tax claims, and the resulting modification process imposes a significant administrative burden on the trustees' office. Therefore, in any Chapter 13 case where the filing of a post-petition tax claim pursuant to Section 1305 of the Bankruptcy Code necessitates a modification of the terms of the confirmed plan, the trustee may proceed to make the necessary modification to the plan and provide written notice of the same to the debtor and the debtor's attorney. If the trustee in his discretion determines that the required plan modification is of such a nature that it should be allowed only after service of a formal written motion to modify with such additional notice and opportunity for hearing as is appropriate, he may elect to do so.

D. Compensation of attorneys and trustee.

1. Compensation of attorneys in Chapter 13 cases.

In addition to complying with all other requirements for professional fee applications, applications for non-base attorneys fees in Chapter 13 cases shall cover only time and expenses incurred on non-base matters, shall not cover time or expenses incurred on base fee matters, and shall be submitted on Local Form 13. A proposed order in the format of Local Form 14 shall be submitted to the Court at the time the application is filed. It shall be completed except for the date and the amount of the fee and expenses. The accompanying notice shall be in the format of Local Form 15.

The full application and notice must be served on the debtor(s), the trustee, and the Bankruptcy Administrator. If the compensation requested exceeds $500, the notice must be served on all parties in interest.

2. Noticing costs.

The actual costs incurred by a Chapter 13 Standing Trustee for the service of Official Form 9I (Notice of Commencement of Case Under Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code, Meeting of Creditors, and Fixing of Dates) and the Notice of Entry of the Order Confirming Plan are priority claims of administration for which the Standing Trustee should be reimbursed from the respective Chapter 13 bankruptcy estates as such actual costs are incurred, provided that the Standing Trustee shall have given all parties in the respective cases adequate notice of his intention to have such actual costs reimbursed by inclusion of the same in Official Form 9I.

3. Trustee's compensation in cases dismissed prior to confirmation.

In any Chapter 13 case dismissed prior to confirmation, the Standing Trustee shall be allowed an administrative claim of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) as an actual cost to the Standing Trustee for the set-up and processing of the case, and the Standing Trustee is authorized to recover the amount of said claim from any plan payments made by the debtor an being held in anticipation of confirmation by the Standing Trustee, the attorney for the debtor, or any other party, provided that in any case where the Standing Trustee has incurred actual costs in excess of this presumptively reasonable amount of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), he may, by separate application pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(a), seek reimbursement of such additional expenses as well.

XIII. Adversary proceedings.

A. Core and non-core matters.

Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 7008 and 7012 require an allegation as to whether a proceeding is core or non-core. A party who alleges that the proceeding is non-core shall state whether the party does or does not consent to the entry of a final Order of Judgment by the Bankruptcy Judge. Failure to include the statement of consent does not constitute consent. Amendments to Rule 7012 require the defendant to admit or deny the allegation as to whether the proceeding is core or non-core.

In the event a party moves for a ruling as to whether an action is a core or non-core proceeding, the Court will ordinarily allow adverse parties twenty (20) days from the service of the motion within which to file responses. The filing of such a motion shall not postpone any time periods unless so stipulated by the parties or ordered by the Court.

Title 28 U.S.C. Section 157(c)(1) requires the Bankruptcy Judge to submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law to the District Court when the Bankruptcy Judge has heard a non-core proceeding and consent to such hearing under Section 157(c)(2) is not given. Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9033 provides the procedure for objecting to, and review by the District Court of, specific findings and conclusions.

B. Settlements in pending adversaries.

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002(a) requires that all creditors in a case receive notice of any proposed settlements, including those arising in adversary proceedings. In the Clerk's office, the settlement procedure is coordinated between the adversary and base case file. To facilitate this process, parties should follow the procedures set forth herein.

Parties should caption all documents (Motion to Approve Settlement, Notice, Certificate of Service and Proposed Order) with both the adversary and base case captions. Notice of the proposed settlement should be served on all parties in interest in the base case with service certified in writing. Copies of the documents are required as follows — Motion (original only), Notice and Certificate of Service (original plus one copy), Proposed Order (original plus two copies for Court and sufficient copies for each party to adversary).

C. Settlements in closed adversaries.

Caption all documents with base case caption only. Notice is provided as in the above paragraph regarding notice in pending adversaries. Copies of documents are required as follows — Motion, Notice and Certificate of Service (originally only), Proposed Order (original plus two copies for Court and sufficient copies for each party to adversary).

XIV. Taxation of costs.

A. Bill of costs.

A party allowed costs shall, within ten (10) days after entry of the order or judgment, file and serve any desired bill of costs on the attorney for the opposing party. The bill of costs shall state the time that the costs thereon will be taxed, which time shall be no less than three (3) days from the date the bill of costs is served on the opposing party. A certificate of service that the opposing party was served shall be filed with the bill of costs. The provisions of Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9006(f) should be considered in the computation of the deadline.

Note that while Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(d) provides for costs to the prevailing party as a matter of course unless the Court otherwise directs, Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7054(b) provides that the Court may allow costs to the prevailing party. As to the allowability of attorney's fees as costs, note the requirement of Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7008(b) that they be pleaded as a claim.

B. Objection and hearing.

Before the costs are taxed, a party objecting to any costs contained in the bill of costs shall file its objection specifying the ground for the objection, and serve the objection on opposing counsel. The Clerk will hear the objection after prior notice to all parties.

C. Taxation.

After the hearing, or if no objection is filed, on the date stated in the bill of costs, the Clerk may enter an order taxing the costs. The taxation of costs made by the Clerk shall be final unless modified on appeal as provided in subdivision (D).

D. Appeal.

A party may appeal the decision of the Clerk in the taxation of costs by filing a Motion to Retax Costs with the Court within five (5) days of the entry of the order of taxation by the Clerk. The party appealing shall give notice and opportunity for a hearing to the opposing party.

XV. Appeals.

A. Fees.

All applicable fees must accompany any notice of appeal filed with the Court. Both the appeal fee and the docketing fee must be tendered at the time the notice of appeal is filed. The Judicial Conference Miscellaneous Bankruptcy Fee Schedule has been amended to make it clear that the $100.00 appeals docketing fee also applies to cross-appeals.

B. Record on appeal.

As provided by the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 8006, any party filing a designation of items to be included in the record on appeal shall provide to the Clerk a copy of the items designated. The Clerk will provide the party or parties in question with twenty (20) days written notice of this requirement. No record on appeal will be considered complete for transmission until copies of all designated items are tendered to the Clerk.

In addition, the Clerk's office will now promptly refer procedurally defective, incomplete records on appeal to the District Court for appropriate action. Problems frequently arise where parties fail to file timely designations of records on appeal or fail to arrange for the preparation of any transcripts so designated, as required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8006.

C. Post-appeal motions.

The District Court has instituted a procedure whereby it now sets up an appeal file upon notification from the Bankruptcy Clerk that a notice of appeal has been filed. As a result of this change, motions for particular kinds of relief that only the District Judge may grant pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 8001 et seq. may be filed directly with the District Clerk prior to the docketing of the appeal pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8007 (b).

D. Interlocutory appeals.

Be aware of the special procedural requirements in Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 8001 and 8003 affecting interlocutory appeals.

XVI. Reopening cases.

Any party seeking to reopen a case pursuant to Section 350(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall file with the Court a motion and give ten (10) days notice of the filing of the motion and the opportunity to request a hearing to the Trustee, the Trustee's attorney, the debtor, the debtor's attorney, and the Bankruptcy Administrator.

Do not notice a hearing on a particular matter in a previously closed case without first filing and noticing the motion to reopen and tendering the appropriate filing fee.

Unless the case or proceeding is to be reopened to correct an administrative error in the record, to aid the debtor in furtherance of the discharge, or to file a complaint to determine dischargeability other than under Section 523(c), a filing fee equal to the current case or proceeding filing fee must be paid. It is not necessary to pay the administrative fee along with the filing fee when the case is reopened. If the fee is not timely paid as required, the motion to reopen will be ordered stricken from the record.

If the original case was closed without payment in full of the filing fee, the outstanding balance of that initial filing fee must be tendered prior to reopening, as well.

XVII. Court mailing list.

The Clerk will maintain a master mailing list of all attorneys and any other persons who desire to receive notification of certain matters affecting practice and procedure in the Court. Each person who wishes to be included on this mailing list should provide the Clerk with a current mailing address and update this information as necessary.

The Clerk's office prepares and distributes an edition of The Bankruptcy Newsletter once every three months to those attorneys and members of the general public who send a self-addressed stamped envelope to the Clerk's office and request a copy. The envelope and postage should be sufficient to mail twenty (20) pages. The Newsletter is prepared during the first week of March, June, September, and December of every year. The Newsletter covers such topics as recent caselaw from the Supreme Court, the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of North Carolina; legislative changes; calendar matters; educational matters; and other matters of interest in the Clerk's office, the Bankruptcy Administrator's office, and the offices of the Chapter 13 Standing Trustees.

Rule XVIII. Administrative guide for electronic case filing procedures.

1. Registration for training in case management/Electronic case filing system (CM/ECF).

A. Passwords.

Each attorney who receives training and is admitted to practice in this court shall be entitled to one CM/ECF system password to permit the attorney to participate in the electronic retrieval and filing of pleadings and other papers in accordance with the system. The password will be issued after receiving court training. A separate PACER password will be required to access case information from the court's Internet website.

B. Training registration.

1.) After completion of training with the court, each registering attorney will select a password for the training system. Upon completion of the training materials, a registering attorney may contact the Clerk's Office for selection/activation of a live system password.

2.) The training registration form shall be completed and submitted for each party requesting training. The form may be duplicated for use.

3.) All registration forms shall be mailed or delivered to the Charlotte divisional office. Attention: United States Bankruptcy Court, Western District of North Carolina, Post Office Box 34189, Charlotte, North Carolina 28234-4189, Attention: Systems Administrator.

4.) Once registered, an attorney may withdraw from participation in the system by providing the court with written notice of such withdrawal. Upon receipt of written notice, the court will immediately cancel the attorney's password and will delete the attorney from any applicable electronic service list.

2. Electronic filing and service of documents.

1.) All documents should be separately filed, imaged and related to the pleading to which they refer, with the exception that exhibits may be electronically filed together under one docket number.

2.) Exhibits/Attachments to documents — including but not limited to leases, notes and the like, which are not available in electronic form, shall be electronically imaged (i.e., scanned) and filed using Portable Document Format (pdf).

3.) Expedited Matters.

a. Charlotte, Shelby and Wilkesboro — Attorneys shall contact the judges' chambers in Charlotte by telephone before such expedited matters are filed on the system.

b. Asheville and Bryson City — Attorneys shall contact the division Clerk's Office in Asheville by telephone before such expedited matters are filed on the system.

B. Service.

1.) Whenever a pleading or other paper is filed electronically in accordance with the electronic filing procedures, the system will automatically generate a "Notice of Electronic Filing" at the time of docketing.

2.) The filing party shall serve the pleading or other paper upon all persons entitled to notice or service in accordance with the applicable rules, or, if service by first class mail is permitted under the rules, the filing party may make service in accordance with 2-B-3 below.

3.) If the recipient of notice or service is a registered attorney in the CM/ECF system, service of the Notice of Electronic Filing shall be the equivalent of service of the pleadings or other paper by first class mail, postage prepaid.

C. Signatures; Affidavits of service.

1.) Registered attorneys and parties with legal representation. Petitions, lists, schedules, statements, amendments, pleadings, affidavits, claims and other documents which must contain original signatures, or which require verification under FRBP 1008, or an unsworn declaration as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 1746, shall be filed electronically or in accordance with the Administrative Order and Administrative Guide. Originally executed copies must be maintained by the filer until four (4) years after the closing of the case, and upon request of the court, the filer must provide original documents for review. The pleadings or other documents electronically filed shall indicate a signature with the party's name typed in full, e.g. "/s/Jane Doe."

2.) Pro Se Filers. Petitions, lists, schedules, statements, amendments, pleadings, affidavits, claims and other documents which must contain original signatures, or which require verification under FRBP 1008, or an unsworn declaration as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 1746, must be submitted with full signature. These documents will be scanned by the Clerk's Office, and shall be maintained in the Clerk's Office after scanning.

D. Fees payable to the clerk.

1.) Registered users. For filings that require a fee, application for authorization of credit card payment must have been mailed or delivered to Office of the Clerk, United States Bankruptcy Court, Western District of North Carolina, Post Office Box 34189, Charlotte, North Carolina 28234-4189. The Clerk's Office in Charlotte will retain the original credit card application form and provide copies to the other applicable divisions.

2.) Non-registered users. For filings that require a fee, current rules for methods of payments must be followed.

E. Orders.

In order to facilitate the entry of the order, proposed orders shall be submitted following the instructions found on the court's Internet website (www.ncwb.uscourts.gov). Only attorneys who are registered users on the court's CM/ECF System will be allowed to file orders electronically. Multiple signature agreements will need to be submitted to the court after the completion of all signatures. The pleading may be scanned and submitted by one party.

Note: Parties without legal representation will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

F. Docketing of pleadings or other documents.

The person electronically filing a pleading or other document will be responsible for docketing the pleading or document by selecting the appropriate event from the categories contained in the system.

3. Conventional (non-electronic) filing of documents.

A. Conventional (non-electronic) filings.

The following documents shall be filed non-electronically unless specifically authorized by the court:

1.) Documents to be filed under seal. A motion to file document(s) under seal shall be filed electronically; however, the actual document(s) to be filed under seal shall be filed conventionally. The order of the court authorizing the filing of such document(s) under seal shall be entered electronically by the Clerk's Office or the presiding judge, and shall indicate that the motion to file documents under seal has been "so ordered" in accordance with Paragraph 2-E above. The order only shall be attached to the document(s) under seal and be delivered to the Clerk of Court.

2.) Trial Exhibits. Trial Exhibits shall be filed conventionally.

3.) Transcripts. Transcripts shall be filed conventionally.

4.) Claims. Claims shall be filed conventionally.

B. Service of conventional or 3.5 inch floppy disk filings.

Pleadings or other documents which are filed conventionally shall be served in the manner provided for, and on those parties entitled to notice, in accordance with the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and the Local Bankruptcy Rules except as otherwise provided by order of the court.

C. Cover sheet for documents filed conventionally.

A completed cover sheet shall be attached to documents filed conventionally, noting the number of pages in the document.

D. Maintenance of documents filed conventionally.

Petitions, lists, schedules, statements, amendments, pleadings, affidavits, claims and other documents which must contain original signatures, or which require verification under FRBP 1008, or an unsworn declaration as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 1746, shall be filed electronically or in accordance with the Administrative Order and Administrative Guide. Originally executed copies must be maintained by the filer until four (4) years after the closing of the case, and upon request of the court, the filer must provide original documents for review.

E. Receipt of case number.

Petitions and complaints filed over the counter under CM/ECF will receive the case number and copies back within 24 hours of filing. Emergency filings will be processed at the time of filing.

F. Envelopes.

Petitions, pleadings and complaints filed over the counter must include a pre-addressed, stamped envelope, with sufficient postage to return processed documents. If an attorney has a mail slot in the Clerk's Office, it will not be necessary to provide an envelope.

G. Number of copies.

The court requires the following number of full copies of bankruptcy petitions, including all schedules, and statements filed over the counter.

Chapter 7: Original plus one (1) copy
Chapter 9: Original plus four (4) copies
Chapter 11: Original plus three (3) copies
Chapter 13: Original plus one (1) copy

After the original petition is filed and scanned, it will be returned to the debtor's attorney. The copy requirements listed above include those required for service on the trustee, SEC, IRS and the Bankruptcy Administrator. The court will only retain original petitions, including schedules and statements, filed by pro se debtors.

4. Public access to the system docket.

A. Internet access.

Any person or organization can access the CM/ECF system for information purposes through the national PACER system. PACER passwords can be obtained by contacting PACER directly.

Such access to the system through Internet site will allow retrieval of the docket sheet and documents. Access to the system will be on a "read only" basis.

B. Public access at the court.

The public will have electronic access in the Clerk's Office for viewing the documents and docket record filed in the system during regular business hours, Monday through Friday.

C. Conventional copies and certified copies.

Conventional copies of the electronically filed documents may be purchased at the Clerk's Office during regular business hours, Monday through Friday. Certified copies may be purchased at the Clerk's Office during regular business hours Monday through Friday. The fee for copying and certification will be in accordance with the fee charged by the copy service and/or 28 U.S.C. § 1930. (February 2001)

The Court having considered this matter and it appearing that Section 1326(a) (2) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Chapter 13 trustee to recover from any plan payments returned to a debtor in any Chapter 13 case dismissed prior to confirmation any costs of administration approved by the Court, and it further appearing that the costs incurred by the trustee in the set-up and processing of a case dismissed prior to confirmation total at least one hundred dollars ($100.00),

And the Court concluding that the trustee is entitled to an administrative claim in such amount in any such Chapter 13 case administered through his office and that he should be allowed to recover such claim from plan payments made by the debtor,

Based upon the foregoing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, pursuant to the notice and authorization provided herein, in any Chapter 13 case dismissed prior to confirmation, the trustee shall be allowed an administrative claim of one hundred dollars ($100.00), said claim representing the actual costs to the trustee for the set-up and processing of the case, and that the trustee is authorized to recover, pursuant to Section 1326(a) (2), the amount of said claim from any plan payments made by the debtor and being held in anticipation of confirmation by the trustee, the attorney for the debtor, or any other party, PROVIDED; however, that in any such case where the trustee has incurred actual costs in excess of the presumptively reasonable amount of one hundred dollars ($100.00), he may, by separate application pursuant to Section 503(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, seek reimbursement of such additional expenses, as well.

Upon consideration of this matter and the Court concluding that a procedure should be established herein for the allowance of claims to be paid pursuant to confirmed Chapter 13 plans, and for the designation of a minimum percentage dividend that must be paid to the general unsecured creditors in any such case,

Based upon the foregoing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that following expiration of claims bar date as set forth in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3002, the trustee shall file with the Court and serve upon all parties a motion for allowance of claims determination which shall include a report of all claims filed in the case and the trustee's proposed treatment of such claims under the plan. The motion shall also set forth the minimum percentage dividend that the trustee believes should be paid to the general unsecured creditors through the plan and request approval of the sam. The motion shall be accompanied by a notice to all parties which shall provide that any party objecting to the proposed treatment of any claim and/or the proposed minimum percentage dividend as reported therein must file a written response and request for hearing with the Clerk within the appropriate time period as prescribed by the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. If no written responses are filed as set forth therein, the trustee's motion shall be granted pursuant to the authority of this administrative order.

The Court having considered this matter and it appearing that Section 1305 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the filing of post-petition tax claims for inclusion in debtors' Chapter 13 plans, and it further appearing that the inclusion of such a claim in a plan frequently necessitates a request by the trustee that the plan be modified by an increase in the plan payment and/or an extension of the plan term to accommodate payment of such claim, and, pursuant to Section 1329 of the Bankruptcy Code, such requested modifications may not be allowed until after such notice and the opportunity for hearing as is appropriate, and it further appearing that the trustees must process a large volume of such post-petition tax claims and the resulting modification process imposes a significant administrative burden on the trustees' offices,

And the Court concluding that an expedited process should be adopted to facilitate the modification of Chapter 13 plans to accommodate the filing of such tax claims in such a way as to reduce the actual costs to the trustees,

Based upon the foregoing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that in any Chapter 13 case where the filing of a post-petition tax claim pursuant to Section 1305 of the Bankruptcy Code necessitates a modification of the terms of the confirmed plan, the trustee may, pursuant to the notice and authorization provided by this administrative order, proceed to make the necessary modification to the plan and provide written notice of the same to the debtor and debtor's attorney; PROVIDED, that if the trustee in his discretion determines that the required plan modification is of such a nature that it should be allowed only after service of a formal written motion to modify with such additional notice and opportunity for hearing as is appropriate, he may elect to do so.

IN RE:

PROCEDURES IN AID OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF CHAPTER 13 PLANS	)	ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER SETTING PROCEDURE FOR THE PROCESSING OF PROOFS OF CLAIM FOR PROPERTY TAXES

The Court having considered this matter and it appearing that some county and municipal taxing authorities customarily file proofs of claim with the Chapter 13 standing trustees for the collection of taxes owed by debtors for a current calendar year, and will file such proofs of claim with the trustees during the summer or fall of such calendar year even though the taxes are payable without interest or penalty through the end of such calendar year, and it further appearing to the Court that the majority of such claims will be satisfied by payment by the debtors or their agents on or before the date that the taxes are last payable without interest or penalty, and that requiring the trustees to receive and process all such proofs of claim for inclusion in the debtors' plans when most will ultimately be otherwise satisfied by payment imposes an unnecessary cost upon the trustees' operations,

And the Court concluding that such a process results in a less efficient administration of Chapter 13 plans in this District and should, therefore, be modified in such a way as to accommodate the filing of proofs of claim for property taxes while, at the same time, minimizing unnecessary costs of administration, and,

Based upon the foregoing, THE COURT ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

1. The standing trustees shall accept for filing all properly-executed proofs of claim for property taxes even when such proofs of claim are filed prior to the date that the taxes in question are last payable without penalty or interest as provided by applicable state law;

2. The trustees shall proceed with no further administration of such proofs of claim until the date that such taxes are last payable without penalty or interest has, in fact, passed;

3. Following the passage of such date, the county or municipal taxing authority MUST PROVIDE TIMELY WRITTEN NOTIFICATION to the trustee if the taxes that are the subject of the respective proof of claim remain unpaid and if the taxing authority desires to have the debt included for payment by the trustee through the Chapter 13 plan;

4. Unless and until the taxing authority provides such timely written notice to the trustee as set forth above, the proof of claim is deemed to be OBJECTED TO by the trustee on the grounds that the claim has been satisfied by payment, and such objection is hereby SUSTAINED by the Court;

IN RE:

PROCEDURES IN AID OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF CHAPTER 13 PLANS	ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER SETTING PROCEDURE FOR THE PROCESSING OF CERTAIN PROOFS OF CLAIM OF IRS

The Court having considered this matter and it appearing that from time to time, the Internal Revenue Service (hereinafter "IRS") will file proofs of claim with the Chapter 13 standing trustees for the collection of federal taxes prior to the due date for the federal tax return, including extensions, under applicable law, and it further appearing to the Court that the majority of such claims will be satisfied by direct payment to IRS by the debtors on or before such due date, and that requiring the trustees to receive and process all such proofs of claim for inclusion in the debtors' plans when most will ultimately be otherwise satisfied by payment imposes an unnecessary administrative cost upon the trustees' operations,

And the Court concluding that such a process results in a less efficient administration of Chapter 13 plans in this District and should, therefore, be modified in such a way as to accommodate the filing of such proofs of claim for federal taxes while, at the same time, minimizing unnecessary costs of administration, and,

Based upon the foregoing, THE COURT ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

1. The standing trustees shall accept for filing any and all properly-executed proofs of claim from IRS even when such proofs of claim are filed prior to the due date for the federal tax returns in question, including extensions, under applicable federal law;

2. The trustees shall proceed with no further administration of such proofs of claim until the due dates for the federal tax returns in question have, in fact, passed;

3. Following the passage of such return due dates, the IRS MUST PROVIDE TIMELY WRITTEN NOTIFICATION to the trustee if the taxes that are the subject of the respective proofs of claim remain unpaid and if the IRS desires to have the debts included for payment by the trustee through the respective Chapter 13 plans;

4. Unless and until the IRS provides such timely written notice to the trustee as set forth above, the proofs of claim are deemed to be OBJECTED TO by the trustee for the reason that the claims have been satisfied by direct payment, and such objections are hereby SUSTAINED by the Court;

PROCEDURES IN AID OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF CHAPTER 13 PLANS	) ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER AUTHORIZING REIMBURSEMENT OF CERTAIN NOTICING COSTS INCURRED BY TRUSTEES

The Court having considered this matter and it appearing that pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002 and 3020, the Clerk of Court having delegated to the offices of the Chapter 13 Standing Trustees in this District responsibility for the service of the Notice of the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors and the Time Fixed for Filing Objections to and the Hearing to Consider Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plans, and Notice of the Entry of the Order Confirming Plan, and it further appearing that the actual costs incurred in the service of said notices are presently being paid for by the Standing Trustees from their respective percentage fee allowances,

And the Court concluding that the actual costs incurred by the Standing Trustees incidental to the service of said notices constitute priority claims of administration pursuant to Sections 503 and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code which should, after appropriate notice and the opportunity for hearing, be allowed and reimbursed to the Standing Trustees from the respective Chapter 13 bankruptcy estates,

Based upon the foregoing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the actual costs incurred by the Chapter 13 Standing Trustees of this District for the service of the notices referenced hereinabove are priority claims of administration for which the Standing Trustees should be reimbursed from the respective chapter 13 bankruptcy estates as such actual costs are incurred, PROVIDED that the Standing Trustees shall have given all parties in the respective cases adequate notice of their intention to have such actual costs reimbursed to them by inclusion of the same in the Notice of the Section 341 Meeting of Creditors.

INITIAL PRE-TRIAL ORDER

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 7016 and 7026 (which incorporate Rules 16 and 26 Fed. R. Civ. Pro.), it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. The parties shall meet pursuant to Rule 26(f) by [Order date +20 days]. (The meeting requirement may be satisfied by correspondence, telecommunication, facsimile transmission or other forms of communication).

2. The parties shall comply requirements of Rule 26(a) by [+10 days].

3. The parties shall file with the court by [+5 days] a Report which contains the following matters:

a. A statement that the joinder of all parties and issues is complete or a statement of how such joinder is incomplete;

b. A statement of whether the parties have discussed settlement and whether the assistance of the court regarding settlement is desired at this time;

c. The discovery plan setting forth those matters specified in Rule 26(f)(1)-(4);

4. All discovery in this action shall be completed by [+90 days].

5. Any dispositive motions shall be filed by [+15 days];

6. Paragraphs 1—3 of this Order shall not apply in adversary proceedings to recover money or property having a value of less than $15,000.

7. The provisions of this Order may be modified or substituted for by agreement of all of the parties by preparing a proposed substitute Order signed by the parties and submitted to the court for its consideration and entry. In the absence of agreement, any party may move the court to modify this Order or for any other matter relating to pre-trial administration at any time by proper motion and notice of hearing. These provisions are deemed to satisfy the requirement that the court conduct conferences with counsel pursuant to Rules 16 and 26.

8. At the conclusion of the period for discovery, the court will send a Notice to Counsel which solicits a mutually convenient trial date. Two weeks thereafter, the court will enter a Final Pre-Trial Order and Notice of Trial which will require supplementation of disclosure and discovery, exchange of exhibits, identification of witnesses and which will set a time certain for trial.

After entry of that Order, continuances will be granted only for compelling circumstances.

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER ADOPTING ELECTRONIC CASE FILING PROCEDURES

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 83 and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 50055(a)(2), and 9011 authorize this court to establish practices and procedures for the filing, signing and verification of pleadings and papers by electronic means.

An Administrative Guide for Electronic Filing outlining procedures for filing, signing an verifying pleadings and papers by electronic means has been presented to and reviewed by this court.

It has been found that these Electronic Case Filing Procedures are consistent with the present fee structure adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States pursuant to 28 USC §§ 1913, 1914 and 1930. It has been found that these procedures do not impair the ability of the Clerk of this Court to control the court's docket under FRBP 5005, nor do these procedures impair the ability of the clerk to perform her statistical reporting responsibilities to this court and to the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

It is therefore ORDERED that:

1. The procedures for filing, signing, noticing and verifying pleadings and papers by electronic means, entitled Administrative Guide for Electronic Case Filing , are hereby approved by this court and will be updated periodically and made available on the court's Internet website. Updates will also be approved by this Administrative Order;

2. The electronic filing of a petition, pleading, motion, claim or other paper by an attorney who is a registered participant in the Electronic Case Filing system shall constitute the signature of that attorney under FRBP 9011;

3. No attorney shall knowingly permit or cause to permit his/her password to be utilized by anyone other than an authorized employee of his/her law firm;

4. No person shall knowingly utilize or cause another person to utilize the password of a registered attorney unless such person is an authorized employee of his/her law firm;

5. The electronic filing of a pleading or other paper in accordance with the Electronic Case Filing Procedures shall constitute entry of that pleading or other paper on the docket kept by the clerk pursuant to FRBP 5003;

6. The Office of the Clerk shall enter all orders, decrees, judgments and amendments of the court in accordance with the Electronic Filing Procedures, which shall constitute entry of the order, decree, judgment or proceeding on the docket kept by the clerk under FRBP 9021;

7. a. Whenever a pleading or other paper is filed electronically in accordance with the Electronic Filing Procedures, the Office of the Clerk shall serve the filing party with a "Notice of Electronic Filing" by electronic means at the time of docketing;

b. The filing party shall serve the pleading or other paper upon all persons entitled to notice or service in accordance with the applicable rules, or, if service by first class mail is permitted under the rules, the filing party may make service in accordance with sub-paragraph (c) below;

c. If the recipient of notice or service is a registered participant in the Electronic Case Filing System, service by electronic means of the Notice of Filing shall be the equivalent of service of the pleadings or other paper by first class mail, postage prepaid.

8. Participation in the Electronic Case Filing System by receipt of a password from the court shall constitute a request for service and notice electronically pursuant to FRBP 9036. Participants in the Electronic Case Filing System, by receiving a password from the court, agree to receive notice and service by electronic means;

9. Any order filed and signed electronically and hence without the original signature of a judge shall have the same force and effect as if the judge had affixed his signature to a paper copy of the order and it had been entered on the document in a conventional manner;

10. When an attorney electronically files a verified pleading, the filing must include an image of the verified pleading including the page upon which the original signature appears. The attorney will thereafter maintain in his or her files the original document so filed (electronically or manually) for a period ending four (4) years after the case or proceeding in which the verified pleading is filed is closed;

11. Tendered orders submitted to the court may be submitted by electronic means and must be submitted in a format that is outlined by the court.

Appendix of Forms

Model form for use in applications for habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2254.
Model form for use in 28 U.S.C. § 2254 cases involving a Rule 9 issue.

Index follows Rules.

Rule 1. Scope of rules.

(a) Applicable to cases involving custody pursuant to a judgment of a state court. These rules govern the procedure in the United States district courts on applications under 28 U.S.C. § 2254:

(1) By a person in custody pursuant to a judgment of a state court, for a determination that such custody is in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States; and

(2) By a person in custody pursuant to a judgment of either a state or a federal court, who makes application for a determination that custody to which he may be subject in the future under a judgment of a state court will be in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States.

(b) Other situations. In applications for habeas corpus in cases not covered by subdivision (a), these rules may be applied at the discretion of the United States district court.

Legal Periodicals. — For a note discussing the development of habeas corpus relief, the application of the doctrines of exhaustion, comity and federalism, and O'Sullivan v. Boerckel, see 78 N.C.L. Rev. 1604 (2000).

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality. — The § 2254(d)(1) standard of review does not violate the due process clause or result in an unconstitutional suspension of the writ Fisher v. Lee, 215 F.3d 438, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 14167 (4th Cir. 2000), cert. denied, 531 U.S. 1095, 121 S. Ct. 822, 148 L. Ed. 2d 706 (2001).

U.S. Supreme Court Review Under and Application of § 2254. — The U.S. Supreme Court has determined that the following basic premise shall inform its interpretation of both parts of § 2254(d)(1): first, the requirement that the determinations of state courts be tested only against "clearly established Federal law, as determined by the Supreme Court of the United States," and second, the prohibition on the issuance of the writ unless the state court's decision is "contrary to, or involved an unreasonable application of," that clearly established law. As to the second prong of this interpretation, the court said that this statute (the federal version) directs federal courts to attend to every state-court judgment with utmost care, but it does not require them to defer to the opinion of every reasonable state-court judge on the content of federal law. If, after carefully weighing all the reasons for accepting a state court's judgment, a federal court is convinced that a prisoner's custody—or, as in this case, his sentence of death—violates the Constitution, that independent judgment should prevail. Williams v. Taylor, 529 U.S. 362, 120 S. Ct. 1495, 146 L. Ed. 2d 389, 2000 U.S. LEXIS 2837 (2000).

Denial of Habeas Relief Held Proper. — The United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit was required to deny the defendant relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 where the Virginia Supreme Court's ruling that the defendant was not entitled to a jury instruction on parole ineligibility under Virginia's three-strikes law was neither contrary to, or an unreasonable application of, clearly established federal law. Ramdass v. Angelone, 530 U.S. 156, 120 S. Ct. 2113, 147 L. Ed. 2d 125, 2000 U.S. LEXIS 3965 (2000).

Defendant who claimed that his counsel was ineffective for failing to put forth available evidence that would support the mitigating circumstance that he aided in the apprehension of another capital felon, as recognized by § 15A-2000(f)(8), was not entitled to habeas corpus relief, because the state MAR court's denial of defendant's ineffectiveness of counsel claim was not contrary to, or an unreasonable application of, Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668, 80 L. Ed. 2d 674, 104 S. Ct. 2052 (1984). Bacon v. Lee, 225 F.3d 470, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 22231 (4th Cir. 2000), cert. denied, 532 U.S. 950, 121 S. Ct. 1420, 149 L. Ed. 2d 360 (2001).

Petitioner's Allegation of Error Did Not Raise a Constitutional Issue. — This rule requires that an application for writ of habeas corpus shall only be entertained on the grounds that the petitioner "is in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States". Where petitioner's allegation of error in questioning the jury on views regarding life sentence and the possibility of parole did not raise a constitutional issue, his petition was denied. Skipper v. Lee, — F. Supp. 2d —, 1999 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 21347 (E.D.N.C. Nov. 30, 1999), aff'd, 238 F.3d 414 (4th Cir. 2000).

Applied in Moore v. Brown, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 11963 (4th Cir. May 30, 2000), reported in table case format at 215 F.3d 1320 (4th Cir. 2000).

Cited in McCarver v. Lee, 221 F.3d 583, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 12222 (4th Cir. 2000), cert. denied, 531 U.S. 1089, 121 S. Ct. 809, 148 L. Ed. 2d 694 (2001); Adkins v. North Carolina Att'y Gen., 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 14442 (4th Cir. June 22, 2000), reported in table case format at 217 F.3d 837 (4th Cir. 2000).

Rule 2. Petition.

(a) Applicants in present custody. If the applicant is presently in custody pursuant to the state judgment in question, the application shall be in the form of a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in which the state officer having custody of the applicant shall be named as respondent.

(b) Applicants subject to future custody. If the applicant is not presently in custody pursuant to the state judgment against which he seeks relief but may be subject to such custody in the future, the application shall be in the form of a petition for a writ of habeas corpus with an added prayer for appropriate relief against the judgment which he seeks to attack. In such a case the officer having present custody of the applicant and the attorney general of the state in which the judgment which he seeks to attack was entered shall each be named as respondents.

(c) Form of petition. The petition shall be in substantially the form annexed to these rules, except that any district court may by local rule require that petitions filed with it shall be in a form prescribed by the local rule. Blank petitions in the prescribed form shall be made available without charge by the clerk of the district court to applicants upon their request. It shall specify all the grounds for relief which are available to the petitioner and of which he has or by the exercise of reasonable diligence should have knowledge and shall set forth in summary form the facts supporting each of the grounds thus specified. It shall also state the relief requested. The petition shall be typewritten or legibly handwritten and shall be signed under penalty of perjury by the petitioner.

(d) Petition to be directed to judgments of one court only. A petition shall be limited to the assertion of a claim for relief against the judgment or judgments of a single state court (sitting in a county or other appropriate political subdivision). If a petitioner desires to attack the validity of the judgments of two or more state courts under which he is in custody or may be subject to future custody, as the case may be, he shall do so by separate petitions.

(e) Return of insufficient petition. If a petition received by the clerk of a district court does not substantially comply with the requirements of Rule 2 or Rule 3, it may be returned to the petitioner, if a judge of the court so directs, together with a statement of the reason for its return. The clerk shall retain a copy of the petition.

CASE NOTES

Petitioner Failed to Forecast Evidence of Material Issues of Disputed Facts. — Petitioner's motion for an evidentiary hearing was denied where he failed to forecast evidence of material issues of disputed fact regarding ineffective assistance of counsel for: (1) failing to present a diminished capacity defense, (2) failing to request an instruction regarding nonstatutory mitigating circumstances, and (3) failing to present evidence on petitioner's's mental age and retardation. Skipper v. Lee, — F. Supp. 2d —, 1999 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 21347 (E.D.N.C. Nov. 30, 1999), aff'd, 238 F.3d 414 (4th Cir. 2000).

Rule 3. Filing petition.

(a) Place of filing; Copies; Filing fee. A petition shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court. It shall be accompanied by two conformed copies thereof. It shall also be accompanied by the filing fee prescribed by law unless the petitioner applies for and is given leave to prosecute the petition in forma pauperis. If the petitioner desires to prosecute the petition in forma pauperis, he shall file the affidavit required by 28 U.S.C. § 1915. In all such cases the petition shall also be accompanied by a certificate of the warden or other appropriate officer of the institution in which the petitioner is confined as to the amount of money or securities on deposit to the petitioner's credit in any account in the institution, which certificate may be considered by the court in acting upon his application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis.

(b) Filing and service. Upon receipt of the petition and the filing fee, or an order granting leave to the petitioner to proceed in forma pauperis, and having ascertained that the petition appears on its face to comply with Rules 2 and 3, the clerk of the district court shall file the petition and enter it on the docket in his office. The filing of the petition shall not require the respondent to answer the petition or otherwise move with respect to it unless so ordered by the court.

CASE NOTES

Defendant's federal habeas petition was timely filed because the limitations period did not expire until April 24, 1997, and she still had one day to spare when she filed her MAR on April 23, 1997, at which time the statute was tolled until the state court denied certiorari on September 8, 1997; consequently, when the defendant filed her federal habeas petition the next day (her one spare day), her petition was timely. Hernandez v. Caldwell, 225 F.3d 435, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 21956 (4th Cir. N.C. 2000).

Rule 4. Preliminary consideration by judge.

The original petition shall be presented promptly to a judge of the district court in accordance with the procedure of the court for the assignment of its business. The petition shall be examined promptly by the judge to whom it is assigned. If it plainly appears from the face of the petition and any exhibits annexed to it that the petitioner is not entitled to relief in the district court, the judge shall make an order for its summary dismissal and cause the petitioner to be notified. Otherwise the judge shall order the respondent to file an answer or other pleading within the period of time fixed by the court or to take such other action as the judge deems appropriate. In every case a copy of the petition and any order shall be served by certified mail on the respondent and the attorney general of the state involved.

Rule 5. Answer; Contents.

The answer shall respond to the allegations of the petition. In addition it shall state whether the petitioner has exhausted his state remedies including any post-conviction remedies available to him under the statutes or procedural rules of the state and including also his right of appeal both from the judgment of conviction and from any adverse judgment or order in the post-conviction proceeding. The answer shall indicate what transcripts (of pretrial, trial, sentencing, and post-conviction proceedings) are available, when they can be furnished, and also what proceedings have been recorded and not transcribed. There shall be attached to the answer such portions of the transcripts as the answering party deems relevant. The court on its own motion or upon request of the petitioner may order that further portions of the existing transcripts be furnished or that certain portions of the non-transcribed proceedings be transcribed and furnished. If a transcript is neither available nor procurable, a narrative summary of the evidence may be submitted. If the petitioner appealed from the judgment of conviction or from an adverse judgment or order in a post-conviction proceeding, a copy of the petitioner's brief on appeal and of the opinion of the appellate court, if any, shall also be filed by the respondent with the answer.

Rule 6. Discovery.

(a) Leave of court required. A party shall be entitled to invoke the processes of discovery available under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure if, and to the extent that, the judge in the exercise of his discretion and for good cause shown grants leave to do so, but not otherwise. If necessary for effective utilization of discovery procedures, counsel shall be appointed by the judge for a petitioner who qualifies for the appointment of counsel under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(g).

(b) Requests for discovery. Requests for discovery shall be accompanied by a statement of the interrogatories or requests for admission and a list of the documents, if any, sought to be produced.

(c) Expenses. If the respondent is granted leave to take the deposition of the petitioner or any other person the judge may as a condition of taking it direct that the respondent pay the expenses of travel and subsistence and fees of counsel for the petitioner to attend the taking of the deposition.

CASE NOTES

Discovery, Generally. — As is now expressly provided in the rules governing habeas corpus cases, the district judge (or a magistrate to whom the case may be referred) may employ a variety of measures in an effort to avoid the need for an evidentiary hearing. Under Rule 6, a party may request and the judge may direct that discovery take place, and there may be instances in which discovery would be appropriate (prior to an evidentiary hearing) and would show such a hearing to be unnecessary. Under Rule 7, the judge can direct expansion of the record to include any appropriate materials that enable the judge to dispose of some habeas petitions not dismissed on the pleadings, without the time and expense required for an evidentiary hearing. Blackledge v. Allison, 431 U.S. 63, 97 S. Ct. 1621, 52 L. Ed. 2d 136 (1977).

Rule 7. Expansion of record.

(a) Direction for expansion. If the petition is not dismissed summarily the judge may direct that the record be expanded by the parties by the inclusion of additional materials relevant to the determination of the merits of the petition.

(b) Materials to be added. The expanded record may include, without limitation, letters predating the filing of the petition in the district court, documents, exhibits, and answers under oath, if so directed, to written interrogatories propounded by the judge. Affidavits may be submitted and considered as a part of the record.

(c) Submission to opposing party. In any case in which an expanded record is directed, copies of the letters, documents, exhibits, and affidavits proposed to be included shall be submitted to the party against whom they are to be offered, and he shall be afforded an opportunity to admit or deny their correctness.

(d) Authentication. The court may require the authentication of any material under subdivision (b) or (c).

CASE NOTES

Applied in Blackledge v. Allison, 431 U.S. 63, 97 S. Ct. 1621, 52 L. Ed. 2d 136 (1977).

Rule 8. Evidentiary hearing.

(a) Determination by court. If the petition is not dismissed at a previous stage in the proceeding, the judge, after the answer and the transcript and record of state court proceedings are filed, shall, upon a review of those proceedings and of the expanded record, if any, determine whether an evidentiary hearing is required. If it appears that an evidentiary hearing is not required, the judge shall make such disposition of the petition as justice shall require.

(b) Function of the magistrate.

(1) When designated to do so in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b), a magistrate may conduct hearings, including evidentiary hearings, on the petition, and submit to a judge of the court proposed findings of fact and recommendations for disposition.

(2) The magistrate shall file proposed findings and recommendations with the court and a copy shall forthwith be mailed to all parties.

(3) Within ten days after being served with a copy, any party may serve and file written objections to such proposed findings and recommendations as provided by rules of court.

(4) A judge of the court shall make a de novo determination of those portions of the report or specified proposed findings or recommendations to which objection is made. A judge of the court may accept, reject, or modify in whole or in part any findings or recommendations made by the magistrate.

(c) Appointment of counsel; Time for hearing. If an evidentiary hearing is required the judge shall appoint counsel for a petitioner who qualifies for the appointment of counsel under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(g) and the hearing shall be conducted as promptly as practicable, having regard for the need of counsel for both parties for adequate time for investigation and preparation. These rules do not limit the appointment of counsel under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A at any stage of the case if the interest of justice so requires.

CASE NOTES

Applied in Williams v. Currie, 103 F. Supp. 2d 858, 2000 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 9888 (M.D.N.C. 2000).

Rule 9. Delayed or successive petitions.

(a) Delayed petitions. A petition may be dismissed if it appears that the state of which the respondent is an officer has been prejudiced in its ability to respond to the petition by delay in its filing unless the petitioner shows that it is based on grounds of which he could not have had knowledge by the exercise of reasonable diligence before the circumstances prejudicial to the state occurred.

(b) Successive petitions. A second or successive petition may be dismissed if the judge finds that it fails to allege new or different grounds for relief and the prior determination was on the merits or, if new and different grounds are alleged, the judge finds that the failure of the petitioner to assert those grounds in a prior petition constituted an abuse of the writ.

CASE NOTES

The abuse of the writ doctrine which mandates dismissal of claims presented in habeas petitions if the claims were raised, or could have been raised, in an earlier petition. The doctrine's rationale is rooted in the limited resources available in the federal judicial system. Noble v. Barnett, 24 F.3d 582 (4th Cir. 1994).

Abuse of the writ is not confined to instances where litigants deliberately abandon claims; it also applies to instances where litigants, through inexcusable neglect, fail to raise available claims. Noble v. Barnett, 24 F.3d 582 (4th Cir. 1994).

The standard for excusing a failure to raise an available claim in the abuse of writ context is substantially the same as that required in procedural default cases, namely a showing of cause and prejudice. In the abuse of the writ context, for cause to exist, the external impediment, whether it be governmental interference or the reasonable unavailability of the factual basis for the claim, must have prevented petitioner from raising the claim. Noble v. Barnett, 24 F.3d 582 (4th Cir. 1994).

The cause and prejudice standard in the abuse of the writ context need not be met in cases where a fundamental miscarriage of justice would otherwise occur. But this occurs only in a very narrow realm of cases where a constitutional violation may have resulted in the conviction of an innocent person. Noble v. Barnett, 24 F.3d 582 (4th Cir. 1994).

The abuse of the writ doctrine has nothing to do with the doctrine of waiver. Unlike waiver, abuse of the writ focuses not on a party's state of mind, but rather on a petitioner's objective conduct, and addresses not whether conduct is knowing and voluntary, but rather the interests of judicial economy and justice for all by limiting petitioners, in certain circumstances, to one bite of the habeas apple. Noble v. Barnett, 24 F.3d 582 (4th Cir. 1994).

Third petition for a writ of habeas corpus which raised the claims that petitioner was incompetent to stand trial and that he received ineffective assistance of counsel owing to his counsel's failure to raise the incompetency issue did not meet the cause and prejudice standard required under this rule, where petitioner had full knowledge of the facts central to each of these claims at the time that he filed his second petition for a writ of habeas corpus, and where he produced no evidence that any objective factors prevented him from raising in his second petition either of these claims presented. Noble v. Barnett, 24 F.3d 582 (4th Cir. 1994).

Applied in Young v. Sams, 510 F. Supp. 141 (E.D.N.C. 1981).

Rule 10. Powers of magistrates.

The duties imposed upon the judge of the district court by these rules may be performed by a United States magistrate pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636. (Amended effective August 1, 1979.)

Rule 11. Federal rules of civil procedure; Extent of applicability.

The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to the extent that they are not inconsistent with these rules, may be applied, when appropriate, to petitions filed under these rules.

PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS BY A PERSON IN STATE CUSTODY

Instructions — Read Carefully

(1) This petition must be legibly handwritten or typewritten, and signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury. Any false statement of a material fact may serve as the basis for prosecution and conviction for perjury. All questions must be answered concisely in the proper space on the form.
(2) Additional pages are not permitted except with respect to the facts which you rely upon to support your grounds for relief. No citation of authorities need be furnished. If briefs or arguments are submitted, they should be submitted in the form of a separate memorandum.
(3) Upon receipt of a fee of $5 your petition will be filed if it is in proper order.
(4) If you do not have the necessary filing fee, you may request permission to proceed in forma pauperis, in which event you must execute the declaration on the last page, setting forth information establishing your inability to prepay the fees and costs or give security therefor. If you wish to proceed in forma pauperis, you must have an authorized officer at the penal institution complete the certificate as to the amount of money and securities on deposit to your credit in any account in the institution. If your prison account exceeds $_____, you must pay the filing fee as required by the rule of the district court.
(5) Only judgments entered by one court may be challenged in a single petition. If you seek to challenge judgments entered by different courts either in the same state or in different states, you must file separate petitions as to each court.

(6) Your attention is directed to the fact that you must include all grounds for relief and all facts supporting such grounds for relief in the petition you file seeking relief from any judgment of conviction.

(7) When the petition is fully completed, the original and two copies must be mailed to the Clerk of the United States District Court whose address is

12. State concisely every ground on which you claim that you are being held unlawfully. Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. If necessary, you may attach pages stating additional ground and facts supporting same.

Caution: In order to proceed in the federal court, you must ordinarily first exhaust your state court remedies as to each ground on which you request action by the federal court. If you fail to set forth all grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

For your information, the following is a list of the most frequently raised grounds for relief in habeas corpus proceedings. Each statement preceded by a letter constitutes a separate ground for possible relief. You may raise any grounds which you may have other than those listed if you have exhausted your state court remedies with respect to them. However, you should raise in this petition all available grounds (relating to this conviction) on which you base your allegations that you are being held in custody unlawfully.

Do not check any of these listed grounds. If you select one or more of these grounds for relief, you must allege facts. The petition will be returned to you if you merely check (a) through (j) or any one of these grounds.

(a) Conviction obtained by plea of guilty which was unlawfully induced or not made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea.
(b) Conviction obtained by use of coerced confession.
(c) Conviction obtained by use of evidence gained pursuant to an unconstitutional search and seizure.
(d) Conviction obtained by use of evidence obtained pursuant to an unlawful arrest.
(e) Conviction obtained by a violation of the privilege against self-incrimination.
(f) Conviction obtained by the unconstitutional failure of the prosecution to disclose to the defendant evidence favorable to the defendant.
(g) Conviction obtained by a violation of the protection against double jeopardy.
(h) Conviction obtained by action of a grand or petit jury which was unconstitutionally selected and impaneled.
(i) Denial of effective assistance of counsel.
(j) Denial of right of appeal.

Petitioner's Response as to Why His Petition Should Not Be Barred Under Rule 9

Explanation and Instructions—Read Carefully

(I) Rule 9. Delayed or successive petitions

(a) Delayed petitions. A petition may be dismissed if it appears that the state of which the respondent is an officer has been prejudiced in its ability to respond to the petition by delay in its filing unless the petitioner shows that it is based on grounds of which he could not have had knowledge by the exercise of reasonable diligence before the circumstances prejudicial to the state occurred.

(b) Successive petitions. A second or successive petition may be dismissed if the judge finds that it fails to allege new or different grounds for relief and the prior determination was on the merits or, if new and different grounds are alleged, the judge finds that the failure of the petitioner to assert those grounds in a prior petition constituted an abuse of the writ.

(II) Your petition for habeas corpus has been found to be subject to dismissal under rule 9( ) for the following reason(s):

(III) This form has been sent so that you may explain why your petition contains the defect(s) noted in (II) above. It is required that you fill out this form and send it back to the court within _____ days. Failure to do so will result in the automatic dismissal of your petition.

(IV) When you have fully completed this form, the original and two copies must be mailed to the Clerk of the United States District Court whose address is _____

(V) This response must be legibly handwritten or typewritten, and signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury. Any false statement of a material fact may serve as the basis for prosecution and conviction for perjury. All questions must be answered concisely in the proper space on the form.

(VI) Additional pages are not permitted except with respect to the facts which you rely upon in item 4 or 5 in the response. Any citation of authorities should be kept to an absolute minimum and is only appropriate if there has been a change in the law since the judgment you are attacking was rendered.

(VII) Respond to 4 or 5 below, not to both, unless (II) above indicates that you must answer both sections.

RESPONSE

1. Have you had the assistance of an attorney, other law-trained personnel, or writ writers since the conviction your petition is attacking was entered? Yes ☐ No ☐
2. If you checked "yes" above, specify as precisely as you can the period(s) of time during which you received such assistance, up to and including the present. _____
3. Describe the nature of the assistance, including the names of those who rendered it to you. _____
4. If your petition is in jeopardy because of delay prejudicial to the state under rule 9(a), explain why you feel the delay has not been prejudicial and/or why the delay is excusable under the terms of 9(a). This should be done by relying upon FACTS, not your opinions or conclusions. _____
5. If your petition is in jeopardy under rule 9(b) because it asserts the same grounds as a previous petition, explain why you feel it deserves a reconsideration. If its fault under rule 9(b) is that it asserts new grounds which should have been included in a prior petition, explain why you are raising these grounds now rather than previously. Your explanation should rely on FACTS, not your opinions or conclusions. _____

I declare (or certify, verify, or state) under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on _____.

Appendix of Forms

Model form for motions under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.
Model form for use in 28 U.S.C. § 2255 cases involving a Rule 9 issue.

Index follows Rules.

Rule 1. Scope of rules.

These rules govern the procedure in the district court on a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255:

(1) By a person in custody pursuant to a judgment of that court for a determination that the judgment was imposed in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States, or that the court was without jurisdiction to impose such judgment, or that the sentence was in excess of the maximum authorized by law, or is otherwise subject to collateral attack; and

(2) By a person in custody pursuant to a judgment of a state or other federal court and subject to future custody under a judgment of the district court for a determination that such future custody will be in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States, or that the district court was without jurisdiction to impose such judgment, or that the sentence was in excess of the maximum authorized by law, or is otherwise subject to collateral attack.

CASE NOTES

Second Motion. — Habeas corpus petition styled as a § 2241 motion would be dismissed as being an uncertified, and therefore unauthorized, second § 2255 motion. Lowery v. United States, 47 F. Supp. 2d 645, 1999 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 6892 (W.D.N.C. 1999), aff'd, 181 F3d 93 (4th Cir. 1999), cert. denied, 528 U.S. 982, 120 S. Ct. 440, 145 L. Ed. 2d 344 (1999).

Applied in Bradley v. United States, 51 F. Supp. 2d 696 (W.D.N.C. 1999); United States v. Crawford, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 8231 (4th Cir. Apr. 26, 2000), reported in table case format at 213 F.3d 633 (4th Cir. 2000); United States v. Miller, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 11011 (4th Cir. May 18, 2000), reported in table case format at 215 F.3d 1322 (4th Cir. 2000).

Cited in United States v. Brewer, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 19048 (4th Cir. Aug. 9, 2000), reported in table case format at 229 F.3d 1144 (4th Cir. 2000).

Rule 2. Motion.

(a) Nature of application for relief. If the person is presently in custody pursuant to the federal judgment in question, or if not presently in custody may be subject to such custody in the future pursuant to such judgment, the application for relief shall be in the form of a motion to vacate, set aside, or correct the sentence.

(b) Form of motion. The motion shall be in substantially the form annexed to these rules, except that any district court may by local rule require that motions filed with it shall be in a form prescribed by the local rule. Blank motions in the prescribed form shall be made available without charge by the clerk of the district court to applicants upon their request. It shall specify all the grounds for relief which are available to the movant and of which he has or, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, should have knowledge and shall set forth in summary form the facts supporting each of the grounds thus specified. It shall also state the relief requested. The motion shall be typewritten or legibly handwritten and shall be signed under penalty of perjury by the petitioner.

(c) Motion to be directed to one judgment only. A motion shall be limited to the assertion of a claim for relief against one judgment only of the district court. If a movant desires to attack the validity of other judgments of that or any other district court under which he is in custody or may be subject to future custody, as the case may be, he shall do so by separate motions.

(d) Return of insufficient motion. If a motion received by the clerk of a district court does not substantially comply with the requirements of Rule 2 or Rule 3, it may be returned to the movant, if a judge of the court so directs, together with a statement of the reason for its return. The clerk shall retain a copy of the motion.

CASE NOTES

When Applicable. — The defendant had to raise his ineffective assistance of counsel claims by way of a motion under this section where his claim of ineffective assistance, based on an alleged promise of a lesser sentence, did not plainly appear on the face of the record. United States v. Debty, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 12446 (4th Cir. June 6, 2000), reported in table case format at 217 F.3d 841 (4th Cir. 2000).

Rule 3. Filing motion.

(a) Place of filing; Copies. A motion under these rules shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court. It shall be accompanied by two conformed copies thereof.

(b) Filing and service. Upon receipt of the motion and having ascertained that it appears on its face to comply with Rules 2 and 3, the clerk of the district court shall file the motion and enter it on the docket in his office in the criminal action in which was entered the judgment to which it is directed. He shall thereupon deliver or serve a copy of the motion together with a notice of its filing on the United States Attorney of the district in which the judgment under attack was entered. The filing of the motion shall not require said United States Attorney to answer the motion or otherwise move with respect to it unless so ordered by the court.

Rule 4. Preliminary consideration by judge.

(a) Reference to judge; Dismissal or order to answer. The original motion shall be presented promptly to the judge of the district court who presided at the movant's trial and sentenced him, or, if the judge who imposed sentence was not the trial judge, then it shall go to the judge who was in charge of that part of the proceedings being attacked by the movant. If the appropriate judge is unavailable to consider the motion, it shall be presented to another judge of the district in accordance with the procedure of the court for the assignment of its business.

(b) Initial consideration by judge. The motion, together with all the files, records, transcripts, and correspondence relating to the judgment under attack, shall be examined promptly by the judge to whom it is assigned. If it plainly appears from the face of the motion and any annexed exhibits and the prior proceedings in the case that the movant is not entitled to relief in the district court, the judge shall make an order for its summary dismissal and cause the movant to be notified. Otherwise, the judge shall order the United States Attorney to file an answer or other pleading within the period of time fixed by the court or to take such other action as the judge deems appropriate.

CASE NOTES

Ineffectiveness of Counsel. — The pro se defendant who did not label either of his filings as a § 2255 motions stated cognizable claims of ineffective assistance of counsel under this section and was therefore entitled to have his motion construed pursuant to this section. United States v. Curry, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 8744 (4th Cir. May 2, 2000), reported in table case format at 213 F.3d 633 (4th Cir. 2000).

Ineffective Assistance of Counsel. — Where it did not conclusively appear from the record on appeal that the defendant received ineffective assistance of counsel, this claim was more properly raised in a § 2255 motion. United States v. Quick, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 12140 (4th Cir. June 2, 2000), reported in table case format at 215 F.3d 1322 (4th Cir. 2000).

Rule 5. Answer; Contents.

(a) Contents of answer. The answer shall respond to the allegations of the motion. In addition it shall state whether the movant has used any other available federal remedies including any prior post-conviction motions under these rules or those existing previous to the adoption of the present rules. The answer shall also state whether an evidentiary hearing was accorded the movant in a federal court.

(b) Supplementing the answer. The court shall examine its files and records to determine whether it has available copies of transcripts and briefs whose existence the answer has indicated. If any of these items should be absent, the government shall be ordered to supplement its answer by filing the needed records. The court shall allow the government an appropriate period of time in which to do so, without unduly delaying the consideration of the motion.

Rule 6. Discovery.

(a) Leave of court required. A party may invoke the processes of discovery available under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure or the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or elsewhere in the usages and principles of law if, and to the extent that, the judge in the exercise of his discretion and for good cause shown grants leave to do so, but not otherwise. If necessary for effective utilization of discovery procedures, counsel shall be appointed by the judge for a movant who qualifies for appointment of counsel under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(g).

(b) Requests for discovery. Requests for discovery shall be accompanied by a statement of the interrogatories or requests for admission and a list of the documents, if any, sought to be produced.

(c) Expenses. If the government is granted leave to take the deposition of the movant or any other person, the judge may as a condition of taking it direct that the government pay the expenses of travel and subsistence and fees of counsel for the movant to attend the taking of the deposition.

Rule 7. Expansion of record.

(a) Direction for expansion. If the motion is not dismissed summarily, the judge may direct that the record be expanded by the parties by the inclusion of additional materials relevant to the determination of the merits of the motion.

(b) Materials to be added. The expanded record may include, without limitation, letters predating the filing of the motion in the district court, documents, exhibits, and answers under oath, if so directed, to written interrogatories propounded by the judge. Affidavits may be submitted and considered as a part of the record.

(c) Submission to opposing party. In any case in which an expanded record is directed, copies of the letters, documents, exhibits, and affidavits proposed to be included shall be submitted to the party against whom they are to be offered, and he shall be afforded an opportunity to admit or deny their correctness.

(d) Authentication. The court may require the authentication of any material under subdivision (b) or (c).

Rule 8. Evidentiary hearing.

(a) Determination by court. If the motion has not been dismissed at a previous stage in the proceeding, the judge, after the answer is filed and any transcripts or records of prior court actions in the matter are in his possession, shall, upon a review of those proceedings and of the expanded record, if any, determine whether an evidentiary hearing is required. If it appears that an evidentiary hearing is not required, the judge shall make such disposition of the motion as justice dictates.

(b) Function of the magistrate.

(1) When designated to do so in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b), a magistrate may conduct hearings, including evidentiary hearings, on the motion, and submit to a judge of the court proposed findings and recommendations for disposition.

(2) The magistrate shall file proposed findings and recommendations with the court and a copy shall forthwith be mailed to all parties.

(3) Within ten days after being served with a copy, any party may serve and file written objections to such proposed findings and recommendations as provided by rules of court.

(4) A judge of the court shall make a de novo determination of those portions of the report or specified proposed findings or recommendations to which objection is made. A judge of the court may accept, reject, or modify in whole or in part any findings or recommendations made by the magistrate.

(c) Appointment of counsel; Time for hearing. If an evidentiary hearing is required, the judge shall appoint counsel for a movant who qualifies for the appointment of counsel under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(g) and the hearing shall be conducted as promptly as practicable, having regard for the need of counsel for both parties for adequate time for investigation and preparation. These rules do not limit the appointment of counsel under 18 U.S.C. § 3006A at any stage of the proceeding if the interest of justice so requires.

(d) Production of statements at evidentiary hearing.

(1) In General. — Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 26.2(a)-(d), and (f) applies at an evidentiary hearing under these rules.

(2) Sanctions for Failure to Produce Statement. — If a party elects not to comply with an order under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 26.2(a) to deliver a statement to the moving party, at the evidentiary hearing the court may not consider the testimony of the witness whose statement is withheld. (Amended by order adopted April 22, 1993, effective December 1, 1993.)

Editor's note. — The rule set out above reflects the amendment approved and authorized for transmittal to Congress on April 22, 1993. The amendment took effect December 1, 1993.

CASE NOTES

The court granted a certificate of appealability, — vacated the district court's order and remanded for further proceedings in regard to the defendant's attorney's alleged failure to note an appeal where the record contained conflicting allegations about whether the defendant asked his attorney to file an appeal. United States v. Strickland, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 15086 (4th Cir. June 28, 2000), reported in table case format at 217 F.3d 842 (4th Cir. 2000).

Rule 9. Delayed or successive motions.

(a) Delayed motions. A motion for relief made pursuant to these rules may be dismissed if it appears that the government has been prejudiced in its ability to respond to the motion by delay in its filing unless the movant shows that it is based on grounds of which he could not have had knowledge by the exercise of reasonable diligence before the circumstances prejudicial to the government occurred.

(b) Successive motions. A second or successive motion may be dismissed if the judge finds that it fails to allege new or different grounds for relief and the prior determination was on the merits or, if new and different grounds are alleged, the judge finds that the failure of the movant to assert those grounds in a prior action constituted an abuse of the procedure governed by these rules.

Rule 10. Powers of magistrates.

The duties imposed upon the judge of the district court by these rules may be performed by a United States magistrate pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636.

Rule 11. Time for appeal.

The time for appeal from an order entered on a motion for relief made pursuant to these rules is as provided in Rule 4(a) of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure. Nothing in these rules shall be construed as extending the time to appeal from the original judgment of conviction in the district court.

CASE NOTES

Conviction Finalized on Date of Mandate. — For purposes of this section, the conviction of a federal prisoner whose conviction is affirmed by United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit and who does not file a petition for certiorari becomes final on the date that this court's mandate issues in his direct appeal. United States v. Torres, 211 F.3d 836, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 8650 (4th Cir. 2000).

Rule 12. Federal rules of criminal and civil procedure; Extent of applicability.

If no procedure is specifically prescribed by these rules, the district court may proceed in any lawful manner not inconsistent with these rules, or any applicable statute, and may apply the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure or the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, whichever it deems most appropriate, to motions filed under these rules.

CASE NOTES

Procedure for Amending Motions. — The rules governing § 2255 motions do not specify a procedure for amending motions, therefore, courts have typically applied Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15 to the amendment of a § 2255 motion. United States v. Pittman, 209 F.3d 314, 2000 U.S. App. LEXIS 4854 (4th Cir. 2000).

v.

(full name of movant)

(If movant has a sentence to be served in the future under a federal judgment which he wishes to attack, he should file a motion in the federal court which entered the judgment.)

MOTION TO VACATE, SET ASIDE, OR CORRECT SENTENCE BY A PERSON IN FEDERAL CUSTODY

Instructions—Read Carefully

(1) This motion must be legibly handwritten or typewritten, and signed by the movant under penalty of perjury. Any false statement of a material fact may serve as the basis for prosecution and conviction for perjury. All questions must be answered concisely in the proper space on the form.
(2) Additional pages are not permitted except with respect to the facts which you rely upon to support your grounds for relief. No citation of authorities need be furnished. If briefs or arguments are submitted, they should be submitted in the form of a separate memorandum.
(3) Upon receipt, your motion will be filed if it is in proper order. No fee is required with this motion.
(4) If you do not have the necessary funds for transcripts, counsel, appeal, and other costs connected with a motion of this type, you may request permission to proceed in forma pauperis, in which event you must execute the declaration on the last page, setting forth information establishing your inability to pay the costs. If you wish to proceed in forma pauperis, you must have an authorized officer at the penal institution complete the certificate as to the amount of money and securities on deposit to your credit in any account in the institution.
(5) Only judgments entered by one court may be challenged in a single motion. If you seek to challenge judgments entered by different judges or divisions either in the same district or in different districts, you must file separate motions as to each such judgment.
(6) Your attention is directed to the fact that you must include all grounds for relief and all facts supporting such grounds for relief in the motion you file seeking relief from any judgment of conviction.
(7) When the motion is fully completed, the original and two copies must be mailed to the Clerk of the United States District Court whose address is

Movant's Response as to Why His Motion Should Not Be Barred Under Rule 9

Explanation and Instructions—Read Carefully

(I) Rule 9. Delayed or Successive Motions

(a) Delayed motions. A motion for relief made pursuant to these rules may be dismissed if it appears that the government has been prejudiced in its ability to respond to the motion by delay in its filing unless the movant shows that it is based on grounds of which he could not have had knowledge by the exercise of reasonable diligence before the circumstances prejudicial to the government occurred.

(b) Successive motions. A second or successive motion may be dismissed if the judge finds that it fails to allege new or different grounds for relief and the prior determination was on the merits or, if new and different grounds are alleged, the judge finds that the failure of the movant to assert those grounds in a prior motion constituted an abuse of the procedure governed by these rules.

(II) Your motion to vacate, set aside, or correct sentence has been found to be subject to dismissal under Rule 9( ) for the following reason(s):

(III) This form has been sent so that you may explain why your motion contains the defect(s) noted in (II) above. It is required that you fill out this form and send it back to the court within _____ days. Failure to do so will result in the automatic dismissal of your motion.

(IV) When you have fully completed this form, the original and two copies must be mailed to the Clerk of the United States District Court whose address is _____

(V) This response must be legibly handwritten or typewritten, and signed by the movant under penalty of perjury. Any false statement of a material fact may serve as the basis for prosecution and conviction for perjury. All questions must be answered concisely in the proper space on the form.

(VI) Additional pages are not permitted except with respect to the facts which you rely upon in item 4 or 5 in the response. Any citation of authorities should be kept to an absolute minimum and is only appropriate if there has been a change in the law since the judgment you are attacking was rendered.

(VII) Respond to 4 or 5, not to both, unless (II) above indicates that you must answer both sections.

RESPONSE

1. Have you had the assistance of an attorney, other law-trained personnel, or writ writers since the conviction your motion is attacking was entered?
   Yes ☐ No ☐
2. If you checked "yes" above, specify as precisely as you can the period(s) of time during which you received such assistance, up to and including the present. _____
3. Describe the nature of the assistance, including the names of those who rendered it to you. _____
4. If your motion is in jeopardy because of delay prejudicial to the government under rule 9(a), explain why you feel the delay has not been prejudicial and/or why the delay is excusable under the terms of 9(a). This should be done by relying upon FACTS, not your opinions or conclusions. _____
5. If your motion is in jeopardy under rule 9(b) because it asserts the same grounds as a previous motion, explain why you feel it deserves a reconsideration. If its fault under rule 9(b) is that it asserts new grounds which should have been included in a prior motion, explain why you are raising these grounds now rather than previously. Your explanation should rely on FACTS, not your opinions or conclusions. _____

I declare (or certify, verify, or state) under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on _____.

RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR THE TRIAL OF MISDEMEANORS BEFORE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATES

ABROGATED.

Editor's note. — The Rules of Procedure for the Trial of Misdemeanors before United States Magistrates were abrogated, effective December 1, 1990, and were replaced by Rule 58 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The Report of the Judicial Conference Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure provided in part: "Proposed new Rule 58 would replace the 'Rules of Procedure for the Trial of Misdemeanors before United States Magistrates' with a single rule of criminal procedure. Although the proposed rule would make a number of technical changes, no substantive change to the current procedures for the trial of misdemeanors is intended."

TITLE 28

CHAPTER 89.
DISTRICT COURTS; REMOVAL OF CASES FROM STATE COURTS

§ 1441. Actions removable generally.

(a) Except as otherwise expressly provided by Act of Congress, any civil action brought in a State court of which the district courts of the United States have original jurisdiction, may be removed by the defendant or the defendants, to the district court of the United States for the district and division embracing the place where such action is pending. For purposes of removal under this chapter, the citizenship of defendants sued under fictitious names shall be disregarded.

(b) Any civil action of which the district courts have original jurisdiction founded on a claim or right arising under the Constitution treaties or laws of the United States shall be removable without regard to the citizenship or residence of the parties. Any other such action shall be removable only if none of the parties in interest properly joined and served as defendants is a citizen of the State in which such action is brought.

(c) Whenever a separate and independent claim or cause of action within the jurisdiction conferred by section 1331 of this title is joined with one or more otherwise non-removable claims or causes of action, the entire case may be removed and the district court may determine all issues therein, or, in its discretion, may remand all matters in which State law predominates.

(d) Any civil action brought in a State court against a foreign state as defined in section 1603(a) of this title may be removed by the foreign state to the district court of the United States for the district and division embracing the place where such action is pending. Upon removal the action shall be tried by the court without jury. Where removal is based upon this subsection, the time limitations of section 1446(b) of this chapter may be enlarged at any time for cause shown.

(e) The court to which such civil action is removed is not precluded from hearing and determining any claim in such civil action because the State court from which such civil action is removed did not have jurisdiction over that claim. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 937; Oct. 21, 1976, Pub. L. 94-583, § 6, 90 Stat. 2898; June 19, 1986, Pub. L. 99-336, § 3(a), 100 Stat. 637; Nov. 19, 1988, Pub. L. 100-702, Title X, § 1016(a), 102 Stat. 4669; Dec. 1, 1990, Pub. L. 101-650, Title III, § 312, 104 Stat. 5114; Dec. 9, 1991, Pub. L. 102-198, § 4, 105 Stat. 1623.)

§ 1442. Federal officers sued or prosecuted.

(a) A civil action or criminal prosecution commenced in a State court against any of the following persons may be removed by them to the district court of the United States for the district and division embracing the place wherein it is pending:

(1) Any officer of the United States or any agency thereof, or person acting under him, for any act under color of such office or on account of any right, title or authority claimed under any Act of Congress for the apprehension or punishment of criminals or the collection of the revenue.

(2) A property holder whose title is derived from any such officer, where such action or prosecution affects the validity of any law of the United States.

(3) Any officer of the courts of the United States, for any act under color of office or in the performance of his duties.

(4) Any officer of either House of Congress, for any act in the discharge of his official duty under an order of such House.

(b) A personal action commenced in any State court by an alien against any citizen of a State who is, or at the time the alleged action accrued was, a civil officer of the United States and is a nonresident of such State, wherein jurisdiction is obtained by the State court by personal service of process, may be removed by the defendant to the district court of the United States for the district and division in which the defendant was served with process. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 938.)

§ 1442a. Members of armed forces sued or prosecuted.

A civil or criminal prosecution in a court of a State of the United States against a member of the armed forces of the United States on account of an act done under color of his office or status, or in respect to which he claims any right, title, or authority under a law of the United States respecting the armed forces thereof, or under the law of war, may at any time before the trial or final hearing thereof be removed for trial into the district court of the United States for the district where it is pending in the manner prescribed by law, and it shall thereupon be entered on the docket of the district court, which shall proceed as if the cause had been originally commenced therein and shall have full power to hear and determine the cause. (Added Aug. 10, 1956, ch. 1041, § 19 (a), 70A Stat. 626.)

§ 1443. Civil rights cases.

Any of the following civil actions or criminal prosecutions, commenced in a State court may be removed by the defendant to the district court of the United States for the district and division embracing the place wherein it is pending:

(1) Against any person who is denied or cannot enforce in the courts of such State a right under any law providing for the equal civil rights of citizens of the United States, or of all persons within the jurisdiction thereof;

(2) For any act under color of authority derived from any law providing for equal rights, or for refusing to do any act on the ground that it would be inconsistent with such law. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 938.)

§ 1444. Foreclosure action against United States.

Any action brought under section 2410 of this title against the United States in any State court may be removed by the United States to the district court of the United States for the district and division in which the action is pending. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 938; May 24, 1949, ch. 139, § 82, 63 Stat. 101.)

§ 1445. Nonremovable actions.

(a) A civil action in any State court against a railroad or its receivers or trustees, arising under sections 51 to 60 of Title 45, may not be removed to any district court of the United States.

(b) A civil action in any State court against a common carrier or its receivers or trustees to recover damages for delay, loss, or injury of shipments, arising under section 11707 of Title 49, may not be removed to any district court of the United States unless the matter in controversy exceeds $10,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

(c) A civil action in any State court arising under the workmen's compensation laws of such State may not be removed to any district court of the United States.

(d) A civil action in any State court arising under section 40302 of the Violence Against Women Act of 1994 may not be removed to any district court of the United States. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 939; July 25, 1958, Pub. L. 85-554, § 5, 72 Stat. 415; Oct. 17, 1978, Pub. L. 95-473, § 2(a)(3)(A), 92 Stat. 1465; Oct. 20, 1978, Pub. L. 95-486, § 9(b), 92 Stat. 1634; Sept. 13, 1994, Pub. L. 103-322, Title IV, § 40302(e)(5), 108 Stat. 1942.)

§ 1446. Procedure for removal.

(a) A defendant or defendants desiring to remove any civil action or criminal prosecution from a State court shall file in the district court of the United States for the district and division within which such action is pending a notice of removal signed pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and containing a short and plain statement of the grounds for removal, together with a copy of all process, pleadings, and orders served upon such defendant or defendants in such action.

(b) The notice of removal of a civil action or proceeding shall be filed within thirty days after the receipt by the defendant, through service or otherwise, of a copy of the initial pleading setting forth the claim for relief upon which such action or proceeding is based, or within thirty days after the service of summons upon the defendant if such initial pleading has then been filed in court and is not required to be served on the defendant, whichever period is shorter.

If the case stated by the initial pleading is not removable, a notice of removal may be filed within thirty days after receipt by the defendant, through service or otherwise, of a copy of an amended pleading, motion, order or other paper from which it may first be ascertained that the case is one which is or has become removable, except that a case may not be removed on the basis of jurisdiction conferred by section 1332 of this title more than 1 year after commencement of the action.

(c)(1) A notice of removal of a criminal prosecution shall be filed not later than thirty days after the arraignment in the State court, or at any time before trial, whichever is earlier, except that for good cause shown the United States district court may enter an order granting the petitioner leave to file the notice at a later time.

(2) A notice of removal of a criminal prosecution shall include all grounds for such removal. A failure to state grounds which exist at the time of the filing of the notice shall constitute a waiver of such grounds, and a second notice may be filed only on grounds not existing at the time of the original notice. For good cause shown, the United States district court may grant relief from the limitations of this paragraph.

(3) The filing of a notice of removal of a criminal prosecution shall not prevent the State court in which such prosecution is pending from proceeding further, except that a judgment of conviction shall not be entered unless the prosecution is first remanded.

(4) The United States district court in which such notice is filed shall examine the notice promptly. If it clearly appears on the face of the notice and any exhibits annexed thereto that removal should not be permitted, the court shall make an order for summary remand.

(5) If the United States district court does not order the summary remand of such prosecution, it shall order an evidentiary hearing to be held promptly and after such hearing shall make such disposition of the prosecution as justice shall require. If the United States district court determines that removal shall be permitted, it shall so notify the State court in which prosecution is pending, which shall proceed no further.

(d) Promptly after the filing of such notice of removal of a civil action the defendant or defendants shall give written notice thereof to all adverse parties and shall file a copy of the notice with the clerk of such State court, which shall effect the removal and the State court shall proceed no further unless and until the case is remanded.

(e) If the defendant or defendants are in actual custody on process issued by the State court, the district court shall issue its writ of habeas corpus, and the marshal shall thereupon take such defendant or defendants into his custody and deliver a copy of the writ to the clerk of such State court. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 939; May 24, 1949, ch. 139, § 83, 63 Stat. 101; September 29, 1965, Pub. L. 89-215, 79 Stat. 887; July 30, 1977, Pub. L. 95-78, § 3, 91 Stat. 321; Nov. 19, 1988, Pub. L. 100-702, Title X, § 1016(b), 102 Stat. 4669; Dec. 9, 1991, Pub. L. 102-198, § 10(a), 105 Stat. 1626.)

§ 1447. Procedure after removal generally.

(a) In any case removed from a State court, the district court may issue all necessary orders and process to bring before it all proper parties whether served by process issued by the State court or otherwise.

(b) It may require the removing party to file with its clerk copies of all records and proceedings in such State court or may cause the same to be brought before it by writ of certiorari issued to such State court.

(c) A motion to remand the case on the basis of any defect in removal procedure must be made within 30 days after the filing of the notice of removal under section 1446(a). If at any time before final judgment it appears that the district court lacks subject matter jurisdiction, the case shall be remanded. An order remanding the case may require payment of just costs and any actual expenses, including attorney fees, incurred as a result of the removal. A certified copy of the order of remand shall be mailed by the clerk to the clerk of the State court. The State court may thereupon proceed with such case.

(d) An order remanding a case to the State court from which it was removed is not reviewable on appeal or otherwise, except that an order remanding a case to the State court from which it was removed pursuant to section 1443 of this title shall be reviewable by appeal or otherwise.

(e) If after removal the plaintiff seeks to join additional defendants whose joinder would destroy subject matter jurisdiction, the court may deny joinder, or permit joinder and remand the action to the State court. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 61 Stat. 939; May 24, 1949, ch. 139, § 84, 63 Stat. 102; July 2, 1964, Pub. L. 88-352, Title IX, § 901, 78 Stat. 266; Nov. 19, 1988, Pub. L. 100-702, Title X, § 1016(c), 102 Stat. 4670; Dec. 9, 1991, Pub. L. 102-198, § 10(b), 105 Stat. 1626.)

§ 1448. Process after removal.

In all cases removed from any State court to any district court of the United States in which any one or more of the defendants has not been served with process or in which the service has not been perfected prior to removal, or in which process served proves to be defective, such process or service may be completed or new process issued in the same manner as in cases originally filed in such district court.

This section shall not deprive any defendant upon whom process is served after removal of his right to move to remand the case. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 940.)

§ 1449. State court record supplied.

Where a party is entitled to copies of the records and proceedings in any suit or prosecution in a State court, to be used in any district court of the United States, and the clerk of such State court, upon demand, and the payment or tender of the legal fees, fails to deliver certified copies, the district court may, on affidavit reciting such facts, direct such record to be supplied by affidavit or otherwise. Thereupon such proceedings, trial, and judgment may be had in such district court, and all such process awarded, as if certified copies had been filed in the district court. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 940; May 24, 1949, ch. 139, § 85, 63 Stat. 102.)

§ 1450. Attachment or sequestration; Securities.

Whenever any action is removed from a State court to a district court of the United States, any attachment or sequestration of the goods or estate of the defendant in such action in the State court shall hold the goods or estate to answer the final judgment or decree in the same manner as they would have been held to answer final judgment or decree had it been rendered by the State court.

All bonds, undertakings, or security given by either party in such action prior to its removal shall remain valid and effectual notwithstanding such removal.

All injunctions, orders, and other proceedings had in such action prior to its removal shall remain in full force and effect until dissolved or modified by the district court. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 940.)

§ 1451. Definitions.

For purposes of this chapter—

(1) The term "State court" includes the Superior Court of the District of Columbia.

(2) The term "State" includes the District of Columbia. (July 29, 1970, Pub. L. 91-358, Title I, § 172(d)(1), 84 Stat. 591.)

§ 1452. Removal of claims related to bankruptcy cases.

(a) A party may remove any claim or cause of action in a civil action other than a proceeding before the United States Tax Court or a civil action by a governmental unit to enforce such governmental unit's police or regulatory power, to the district court for the district where such civil action is pending, if such district court has jurisdiction of such claim or cause of action under section 1334 of this title.

(b) The court to which such claim or cause of action is removed may remand such claim or cause of action on any equitable ground. An order entered under this subsection remanding a claim or cause of action, or a decision to not remand, is not reviewable by appeal or otherwise by the court of appeals under section 158(d), 1291, or 1292 of this title or by the Supreme Court of the United States under section 1254 of this title. (Added Pub. L. 98-353, Title I, § 103(a), July 10, 1984, 98 Stat. 335, and amended Pub. L. 101-650, Title III, § 309(c), Dec. 1, 1990, 104 Stat. 5113.)

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rule 81(c). Applicability in general; Removed actions.

(c) Removed actions.

These rules apply to civil actions removed to the United States district courts from the state courts and govern procedure after removal. Repleading is not necessary unless the court so orders. In a removed action in which the defendant has not answered, the defendant shall answer or present the other defenses or objections available under these rules within 20 days after the receipt through service or otherwise of a copy of the initial pleading setting forth the claim for relief upon which the action or proceeding is based, or within 20 days after the service of summons upon such initial pleading, then filed, or within 5 days after the filing of the petition for removal, whichever period is longest. If at the time of removal all necessary pleadings have been served, a party entitled to trial by jury under Rule 38 shall be accorded it, if the party's demand therefor is served within 10 days after the petition for removal is filed if the party is the petitioner, or if not the petitioner within 10 days after service on the party of the notice of filing the petition. A party who, prior to removal, has made an express demand for trial by jury in accordance with state law, need not make a demand after removal. If state law applicable in the court from which the case is removed does not require the parties to make express demands in order to claim trial by jury, they need not make demands after removal unless the court directs that they do so within a specified time if they desire to claim trial by jury. The court may make this direction on its own motion and shall do so as a matter of course at the request of any party. The failure of a party to make demand as directed constitutes a waiver by that party of trial by jury. (Amended March 2, 1987, effective August 1, 1987.)

TITLE 28

CHAPTER 115.
EVIDENCE; DOCUMENTARY

§ 1738. State and territorial statutes and judicial proceedings; Full faith and credit.

The Acts of the legislature of any State, Territory, or Possession of the United States, or copies thereof, shall be authenticated by affixing the seal of such State, Territory or Possession thereto.

The records and judicial proceedings of any court of any such State, Territory or Possession, or copies thereof, shall be proved or admitted in other courts within the United States and its Territories and Possessions by the attestation of the clerk and seal of the court annexed, if a seal exists, together with a certificate of a judge of the court that the said attestation is in proper form.

Such Acts, records and judicial proceedings or copies thereof, so authenticated, shall have the same full faith and credit in every court within the United States and its Territories and Possessions as they have by law or usage in the courts of such State, Territory or Possession from which they are taken. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 947.)

§ 1738A. Full faith and credit given to child custody determinations.

(a) The appropriate authorities of every State shall enforce according to its terms, and shall not modify except as provided in subsection (f) of this section, any child custody determination made consistently with the provisions of this section by a court of another State.

(b) As used in this section, the term —

(1) "child" means a person under the age of eighteen;

(2) "contestant" means a person, including a parent, who claims a right to custody or visitation of a child;

(3) "custody determination" means a judgment, decree, or other order of a court providing for the custody or visitation of a child, and includes permanent and temporary orders, and initial orders and modifications;

(4) "home State" means the State in which, immediately preceding the time involved, the child lived with his parents, a parent, or a person acting as parent, for at least six consecutive months, and in the case of a child less than six months old, the State in which the child lived from birth with any of such persons. Periods of temporary absence of any of such persons are counted as part of the six-month or other period;

(5) "modification" and "modify" refer to a custody determination which modifies, replaces, supersedes, or otherwise is made subsequent to, a prior custody determination concerning the same child, whether made by the same court or not;

(6) "person acting as a parent" means a person, other than a parent, who has physical custody of a child and who has either been awarded custody by a court or claims a right to custody;

(7) "physical custody" means actual possession and control of a child; and

(8) "State" means a State of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or a territory or possession of the United States.

(c) A child custody determination made by a court of a State is consistent with the provisions of this section only if —

(1) such court has jurisdiction under the law of such State; and

(2) one of the following conditions is met:

(A) such State (i) is the home State of the child on the date of the commencement of the proceeding, or (ii) had been the child's home State within six months before the date of the commencement of the proceeding and the child is absent from such State because of his removal or retention by a contestant or for other reasons, and a contestant continues to live in such State;

(B) (i) it appears that no other State would have jurisdiction under subparagraph (A), and (ii) it is in the best interest of the child that a court of such State assume jurisdiction because (I) the child and his parents, or the child and at least one contestant, have a significant connection with such State other than mere physical presence in such State, and (II) there is available in such State substantial evidence concerning the child's present or future care, protection, training, and personal relationships;

(C) the child is physically present in such State and (i) the child has been abandoned, or (ii) it is necessary in an emergency to protect the Child because he has been subjected to or threatened with mistreatment or abuse;

(D) (i) it appears that no other State would have jurisdiction under subparagraph (A), (B), (C), or (E), or another State has declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that the State whose jurisdiction is in issue is the more appropriate forum to determine the custody of the child, and (ii) it is in the best interest of the child that such court assume jurisdiction; or

(E) the court has continuing jurisdiction pursuant to subsection (d) of this section.

(d) The jurisdiction of a court of a State which has made a child custody determination consistently with the provisions of this section continues as long as the requirement of subsection (c)(1) of this section continues to be met and such State remains the residence of the child or of any contestant.

(e) Before a child custody determination is made, reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard shall be given to the contestants, any parent whose parental rights have not been previously terminated and any person who has physical custody of a child.

(f) A court of a State may modify a determination of the custody of the same child made by a court of another State, if —

(1) it has jurisdiction to make such a child custody determination; and

(2) the court of the other State no longer has jurisdiction, or it has declined to exercise such jurisdiction to modify such determination.

(g) A court of a State shall not exercise jurisdiction in any proceeding for a custody determination commenced during the pendency of a proceeding in a court of another State where such court of that other State is exercising jurisdiction consistently with the provisions of this section to make a custody determination. (Dec. 28, 1980, Pub. L. 96-611, § 8(a), 94 Stat. 3569.)

§ 1739. State and territorial nonjudicial records; full faith and credit.

All nonjudicial records or books kept in any public office of any State, Territory, or Possession of the United States, or copies thereof, shall be proved or admitted in any court or office in any other State, Territory, or Possession by the attestation of the custodian of such records or books, and the seal of his office annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate of a judge of a court of record of the county, parish, or district in which such office may be kept, or of the Governor, or secretary of state, the chancellor or keeper of the great seal, of the State, Territory, or Possession that the said attestation is in due form and by the proper officers.

If the certificate is given by a judge, it shall be further authenticated by the clerk or prothonotary of the court, who shall certify, under his hand and the seal of his office, that such judge is duly commissioned and qualified; or, if given by such Governor, secretary, chancellor, or keeper of the great seal, it shall be under the great seal of the State, Territory, or Possession in which it is made.

Such records or books, or copies thereof, so authenticated, shall have the same full faith and credit in every court and office within the United States and its Territories and Possessions as they have by law or usage in the courts or offices of the State, Territory, or Possession from which they are taken. (June 25, 1948, c. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 947.)

§ 1740. Copies of consular papers.

Copies of all official documents and papers in the office of any consul or vice consul of the United States, and of all official entries in the books or records of any such office, authenticated by the consul or vice consul, shall be admissible equally with the originals. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 947.)

§ 1741. Foreign official documents.

An official record or document of a foreign country may be evidenced by a copy, summary, or excerpt authenticated as provided in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. (June 25, 1948, ch. 646, § 1, 62 Stat. 948; May 24, 1949, ch. 139, § 92 (b), 63 Stat. 103; Oct. 3, 1964, Pub. L. 88-619, § 5 (a), 78 Stat. 996.)

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rule 44. Proof of official record.

(a) Authentication.

(1) Domestic. An official record kept within the United States, or any state, district, or commonwealth, or within a territory subject to the administrative or judicial jurisdiction of the United States, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by the officer's deputy, and accompanied by a certificate that such officer has the custody. The certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the officer's office.

(2) Foreign. A foreign official record, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof; or a copy thereof, attested by a person authorized to make the attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (i) of the attesting person, or (ii) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the attestation or is in a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of the documents, the court may, for good cause shown, (i) admit an attested copy without final certification or (ii) permit the foreign official record to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without a final certification. The final certification is unnecessary if the record and the attestation are certified as provided in a treaty or convention to which the United States and the foreign country in which the official record is located are parties.

(b) Lack of record.

A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in subdivision (a) (1) of this rule in the case of a domestic record, or complying with the requirements of subdivision (a) (2) of this rule for a summary in the case of a foreign record, is admissible as evidence that the records contain no such record or entry.

(c) Other proof.

This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law.

ARTICLE I. EXTRADITION GENERALLY

Extradition is the procedure by which a person who committed a crime in one state (or escaped from prison or violated probation or parole) and fled to another state is returned to the first state. This introductory section of the Extradition Manual seeks to give the reader an overview of the extradition process. For those with a limited role, such as the arresting officer or the magistrate, this general description should help them understand how their actions fit in the overall process. More specific instructions for the different stages in the extradition process appear in other sections of the manual.

To begin, consider the case of a person who committed a crime — say, armed robbery — in another state, Ohio, and fled to North Carolina. Probably he is already formally charged in Ohio, either by indictment or by the issuance of an arrest warrant there. When his presence in North Carolina is discovered, he may be arrested by a North Carolina officer, either with or without an arrest warrant from a North Carolina magistrate.

An arrest without a warrant, which is the less common practice, may be made only if the crime committed in Ohio is punishable there by more than one year's imprisonment. After arresting without a warrant, the officer must take the defendant before a North Carolina magistrate without unnecessary delay for issuance of a magistrate's order (see AOC-CR-909M in this manual's Forms section), just as he would do if he were arresting for a crime committed in this state. The magistrate determines whether the person is charged in Ohio with armed robbery, whether armed robbery is punishable by more than a year's imprisonment in Ohio, and whether the person fled from Ohio. The magistrate is not determining whether there is probable cause to believe the person committed the armed robbery — only whether he is so charged in Ohio. If the magistrate finds that such is the case, he puts the defendant under bail as he would someone charged with a North Carolina crime, but bail may not be allowed if the crime is punishable by either death or life imprisonment.

More likely, the officer will go to a magistrate to obtain a North Carolina arrest warrant, called a fugitive warrant (see AOC-CR-901M in this manual's Forms section), before making the arrest. In that case, it is not necessary that the crime be punishable by more than one year's imprisonment; a warrant may be issued if the defendant has been charged with any crime in another state. Once the fugitive warrant is issued, the officer is to make the arrest and take the defendant before the magistrate without unnecessary delay for the setting of bail, just as he would for a North Carolina crime.

Usually, the basis for determining that the defendant has been charged with a crime in another state is a National Crime Information Center (NCIC) message on the Police Information Network (PIN) terminal. Such a message by itself is a sufficient basis for the magistrate to find that the fugitive is charged in the other state. Although a message is not supposed to appear in the NCIC files unless the warrant is still outstanding and the other state intends to extradite, the officer may want to confirm the NCIC report with someone in the other state before making an arrest.

Sometimes the officer's information that a person is a fugitive may come from another source, such as a telephone call, telegram, or letter from an officer in another state. Such information may be used to determine whether the defendant is charged in the other state. In cases like these, and in cases in which an NCIC message is used, the other state should be asked to send a copy of the warrant or indictment as soon as possible so that it can be attached to the North Carolina warrant.

Another possibility, though unusual, is that the person has not yet been formally charged in the other state. For example, a person may have robbed a convenience store in Virginia late at night and fled to North Carolina but no warrant was issued because no judicial official was on duty in Virginia. The statutes allow North Carolina officers to arrest fugitives in such cases, but only after a North Carolina warrant has been issued; and that warrant may be issued only after the magistrate has made the same kind of finding of probable cause he would have to make if the crime had occurred in North Carolina. That is, the magistrate must find probable cause that the defendant committed the crime in Virginia. The most likely basis for that probable cause will be information relayed by Virginia officers through North Carolina officers. Once the warrant has been issued, the officer proceeds the same as in other fugitive cases mentioned above.

It may also be that the fugitive has already been convicted in the other state and has escaped or has fled in violation of the conditions of his probation or parole. In such cases the magistrate simply determines that the fugitive was convicted and fled. The procedures are otherwise the same as for the person who has not yet been tried in the other state.

Once arrested, the fugitive is held until formal extradition procedures can take place. If he wishes to do so, he may waive extradition before a clerk of court or a judge and be immediately released to the state from which he fled. Many fugitives choose to do this, knowing that they will be extradited and not wishing to spend the time required for formal extradition. The waiver must be in writing (see AOC-CR-912M in this manual's Forms section).

If the fugitive does not waive extradition, the state from which he fled then must formally request the Governor of North Carolina to extradite. The request will come from the governor of the other state, on the basis of information supplied by the prosecutor in the county where the crime was committed. The extradition request to North Carolina includes a copy of the warrant or indictment against the fugitive, plus other papers establishing all the requirements of the formal extradition process. These papers are sent by the Governor's Extradition Secretary to the North Carolina Attorney General's office, which determines whether they are legally sufficient to justify extradition through issuance of a Governor's Warrant. The only questions the Governor of North Carolina asks in deciding whether to extradite are whether the fugitive is actually charged with a crime in another state and whether the person arrested in North Carolina is the fugitive. The Governor's office does not attempt to determine whether there was probable cause for the charge; that is considered a matter between the other state and the fugitive — just like other defenses he might raise, such as self-defense or alibi. The magistrate and the district court judge should notify the fugitive that he may question the legal sufficiency of the papers submitted by the other state to the Governor's office. The fugitive does this by sending a written request to the Governor's office outlining the basis of his challenge. If the Governor determines that the fugitive should be heard on this matter, he will direct that the Attorney General's office hold a hearing.

If the Governor's office is satisfied, either with or without a hearing, that the other state has met the requirements of extradition, a Governor's Warrant is issued. This paper authorizes the taking of the fugitive into custody — in fact, he may already be in custody if he was not allowed bail or could not make bail — to be turned over to an agent of the other state. If he was released on bail, he is to be picked up and his bail revoked pursuant to the Governor's Warrant. Before he is turned over, the fugitive must be taken before a judge to be informed that he has the right to challenge the legality of his arrest through habeas corpus proceedings and to have counsel appointed for that purpose if he cannot afford a lawyer. The habeas corpus proceeding is held in North Carolina; the only grounds for challenging the arrest under the Governor's Warrant are that (1) the person has not been charged with a crime in the other state, or (2) he is not the person being sought. If the fugitive does not try to obtain a writ of habeas corpus or if he tries and fails, he is turned over to the agents from the other state. (The Governor may recall the Governor's Warrant at his discretion, and he occasionally does so when new facts arise after the Warrant was issued. He then may reissue the Warrant if circumstances so indicate.)

If a person who committed a crime in North Carolina flees to another state and is found there, essentially the same procedure takes place. A North Carolina fugitive may be extradited from another state if he committed any crime in this state, whether a felony or a misdemeanor. But the State pays the expenses of extradition only if the crime is a felony, escape (felony or misdemeanor), or a violation of probation or parole (felony or misdemeanor). The county pays for all other misdemeanors, and some other states are reluctant to extradite for minor crimes.

Once the fugitive is arrested in the other state, the North Carolina district attorney of the county where the fugitive is charged is notified and must put together the documents that the North Carolina Governor's office will need in requesting extradition (assuming that the fugitive does not waive extradition). These documents include copies of the arrest warrant with supporting affidavit or indictment, a statement that the extradition is not sought to enforce a private claim, certain further information about the circumstances of the crime, and certifications that the documents are all true copies. Some states require further information, such as photographs, fingerprints, or a physical description. The Governor's Extradition Secretary reviews the materials to be sure they comply with the requirements of the other state and then formally requests extradition from that state. Once extradition is granted, the Governor commissions one or more North Carolina officers named by the district attorney of the judicial district from which the fugitive fled to bring him back.

The procedures for extradition are essentially the same in all the states. Nearly all states, including North Carolina, have passed the Uniform Criminal Extradition Act, and the others have statutes similar to the uniform act. But extradition practice may vary somewhat from state to state. For example, many states will not extradite for misdemeanors. The North Carolina Governor's office knows the peculiar requirements of other states and tries to review all documents to be certain they will satisfy the recipient state.

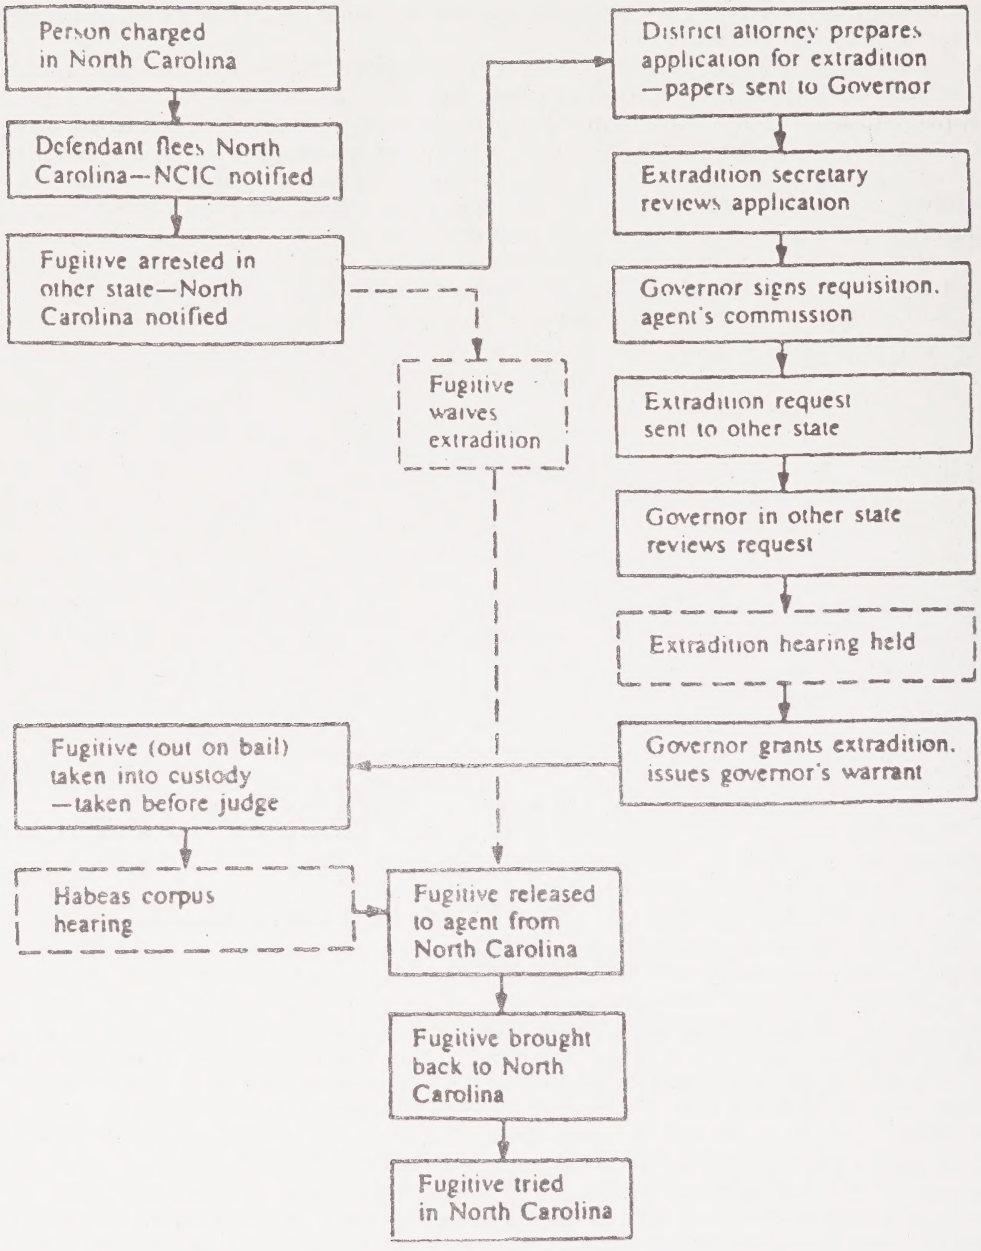
ARTICLE II. FUGITIVE FROM NORTH CAROLINA FOUND IN ANOTHER STATE

PART 1. CRIMES SUBJECT TO EXTRADITION

Any person who is charged with a crime in North Carolina and flees to another state may be extradited to North Carolina to stand trial. (Also subject to extradition are those persons who have been convicted in North Carolina and have escaped or have violated the conditions of probation or parole). But G.S. 15A-744 provides that the State of North Carolina is to pay the expenses of extradition only when the fugitive is charged with a felony or has violated the conditions of probation or parole (whether felony or misdemeanor). (The State will also pay the expenses of extraditing a person who has escaped, whether the escape is a felony or misdemeanor.) Thus a fugitive charged with a misdemeanor may be extradited, but in most cases the costs of that procedure (the greatest expense is sending an agent to bring the fugitive back) must be paid by the county where the crime was committed. For that reason extradition should never be initiated against someone charged with a misdemeanor unless there is some assurance that the county commissioners will pay the costs.

The National Association of Extradition Officials recommends the policies set out below on extradition for certain offenses. The law allows extradition for each of the offenses mentioned, but the Governor's office agrees with the recommended policies and expects all law enforcement officers and district attorneys to follow them.

Nonsupport. For abandonment and nonsupport, bastardy, and all similar offenses, action should first be taken under Chapter 52A of the General Statutes, the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act (URESA). Only if that procedure has failed should extradition be requested. If the URESA procedure has not been used, the extradition request should include an affidavit from the district attorney or the appropriate law enforcement officer explaining fully the reason for not using URESA.



Child custody. Before seeking extradition for a violation of G.S. 14-320.1 (transporting a child out of state to violate custody order) the District Attorney should require the legal custodian of the child to pursue all available civil remedies. If there is a competing child custody order in another state, extradition will not be requested by the Governor's office.

Worthless checks. Extradition should not be sought for violations of G.S. 14-107, writing worthless checks, unless the check or aggregate checks total more than $100 or the defendant is a chronic violator. These limitations do not apply if the charge under G.S. 14-107 is for writing a check on a nonexistent account or on a closed account. Nor is there any limit on extradition for forgery and similar offenses.

Removing mortgaged property. Only in exceptional circumstances should extradition be sought for violations of G.S. 14-114 (fraudulent disposal of personal property on which there is a security interest), G.S. 14-115 (secreting property to hinder enforcement of lien or security interest), or similar statutes. The amount of money involved in such a case does not alter the policy. Generally these problems should be handled as civil matters, especially if the defendant has made regular payments on the merchandise and now owes only a small balance. But if the defendant purchased a vehicle or other merchandise and immediately left North Carolina, making no payments whatsoever, there would seem to be an intent to defraud and extradition may be sought.

Rental property. If a person fails to return rented property, such as an automobile, and the car has been found, there would appear to be no intent to steal and this matter should be handled civilly rather than through extradition. But if the person immediately leaves North Carolina for parts unknown with rented property, larceny is probably the proper charge and extradition is appropriate. Generally, extradition should be sought if the facts show an intent to deprive the owner of the property permanently and thus support a charge of larceny; but it should not be sought if the facts support only a charge like G.S. 14-72.2, unauthorized use of conveyance (unless the conveyance is an aircraft, in which case the offense is a felony).

PART 2. FLOW CHART OF PROCEEDINGS

PART 3. DUTIES OF THE LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

A. Review the evidence in the case. When notified that the fugitive has been taken into custody in the other state and refuses to waive extradition, you as the officer should first review the evidence in the case to be certain that extradition is appropriate and that a prosecution might succeed. Review the section of this manual entitled Crimes Subject to Extradition. If the crime is appropriate for extradition, consider whether the witnesses need to be interviewed again. Determine whether the witnesses are likely to change their testimony, whether any of them has already received restitution, whether they are willing to testify in court, and whether they can identify the fugitive by a photograph or other means. If witnesses or officers have submitted affidavits in the case, review these and determine whether they support or contradict the other information in the case. Also review all investigative reports.

B. Obtain a warrant if necessary. If, for some reason, the fugitive has not yet been charged in an arrest warrant or an indictment, relate the facts in the case to a magistrate so that an arrest warrant may be issued (unless you know that the district attorney would prefer to submit a bill of indictment). Five copies of the warrant will be needed eventually, so ask the magistrate for five copies, each one signed separately. If a warrant or indictment has already been issued (which is usually the case), have a copy available for reference when you talk with the district attorney. If the charging document is a warrant rather than an indictment, it must be accompanied by an affidavit (usually by the investigating officer or victim) that states the basis for issuing the warrant. This affidavit must be sworn to before a magistrate or judge and should have the same date as the warrant (or earlier). Some states will not extradite if the date of the affidavit (for example, January 25, 1987) is later than the date that the arrest warrant was issued (for example, January 20, 1987). Therefore, when a warrant was issued without an accompanying affidavit (oral sworn testimony is sufficient to support an arrest warrant in North Carolina), a new arrest warrant must be issued when the affidavit is prepared so that the dates of the arrest warrant and the affidavit will be the same.

C. Check the fugitive's criminal record. Check the fugitive's criminal record and have a copy of it with you when you talk with the district attorney.

D. Meet with the district attorney. Bring to this meeting with the district attorney or assistant district attorney all the information and documents discussed above. Be candid about any problems you foresee with witnesses or with the methods of investigation in the case and any other factor that might affect the outcome of the case. At this meeting the district attorney should decide whether to proceed with extradition. Usually an assistant district attorney will then take responsibility for preparing the proper papers, but he may well ask your help. If he does, review the section of this manual entitled Checklist of Documents Needed for an Extradition Request.

PART 4. DUTIES OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY

A. Decide whether to seek extradition. After a law enforcement officer has been notified that a fugitive from North Carolina is in custody in another state and refuses to waive extradition, he should come to you with the relevant information (see the section of this manual on Duties of the Law Enforcement Officer). You must decide whether extradition should be sought. First, review the section of this manual entitled Crimes Subject to Extradition. If you are satisfied that extradition is appropriate for the kind of offense with which the fugitive has been charged, next consider the following factors:

—The seriousness of the offense.

—The evidence available to prove the crime.

—The challenges that might be mounted against the evidence or the methods of investigation.

—The defendant's character, including prior convictions.

—The probability that the defendant will commit similar crimes elsewhere.

—The probable length of time the defendant will be imprisoned if he is returned to North Carolina and convicted and the effect of that imprisonment on his conduct after he is released.

—The probability that the governor of the other state will grant extradition.

—The cost of having the defendant returned to North Carolina.

—The effect of not extraditing on others in the community who might consider committing similar crimes.

B. Prepare the proper papers for extradition. A separate section of this manual lists the documents that must be submitted to the Extradition Secretary in the Governor's office. An assistant district attorney or administrative assistant may prepare those documents, and a law enforcement officer may assist. The application for requisition may be signed by the district attorney or an assistant. If the fugitive has not yet been charged in North Carolina in an arrest warrant or indictment, the next step is to have such process issued. Although an arrest warrant is sufficient, usually the proceedings in the other state go faster when an indictment is used. For that reason an indictment should be sought if possible. If an arrest warrant is used, it must be accompanied by an affidavit (usually by the investigating officer or the victim) that states the grounds for charging the defendant. This affidavit must be sworn to before a magistrate or judge and should have the same date as the warrant (or earlier). Some states will not extradite if the date of the affidavit (for example, January 25, 1987) is later than the date of the arrest warrant (for example, January 20, 1987). Therefore, when a warrant was issued without an accompanying affidavit (oral sworn testimony is sufficient to support an arrest warrant in North Carolina), a new arrest warrant must be issued when the affidavit is prepared so that the dates of the arrest warrant and the affidavit will be the same.

C. Select the agents to go to the other state. The application for requisition is to include the names of the agents who will go to the other state to return the fugitive. It is best to have the investigating officers or other officers who are familiar with the case named as agents. It is required that an individual be named as an agent, and that person must have the option of naming someone else. For example, the appointment might read: "Sheriff W.C. Fain of Sampson County and/or his agent." The Governor's Extradition Office (and many states) requires that a female agent be named when the fugitive to be returned is a woman. Agents are expected to be ready at any time to travel to the other state when extradition has been granted by the other state or when a hearing is to be held there. The State does not pay travel expenses for a hearing unless the fugitive is returned on that trip.

PART 5. DUTIES OF THE CLERK OF COURT

The clerk of court has only a limited role in bringing a fugitive back to North Carolina. When the district attorney makes his request for extradition to the Governor of North Carolina (who will in turn make the same request to the governor of the state where the fugitive now is), he includes various documents, including a copy of the arrest warrant or indictment. Each document must be certified by the official who issued it or by the keeper of the original, the clerk of court. Also, the clerk must certify that the various other officials who certify the documents — the district attorney, magistrate, or judge — are indeed the officials they claim to be. In turn, a judge must certify that the clerk is indeed the clerk. A summary of the documents and certifications needed for the extradition request is included in the section of this manual entitled Checklist of Documents Needed for an Extradition Request. Otherwise, the clerk has no duties in connection with extradition of a North Carolina fugitive from another state.

PART 6. DUTIES OF THE AGENT SENT TO BRING THE FUGITIVE BACK

When the district attorney applies to the Governor of North Carolina to seek the extradition of a fugitive who is in another state, he names the law enforcement officers to be designated the Governor's agents for bringing the fugitive back. An officer who has been designated an agent should not go to the other state until he has been notified that the governor of that state has approved extradition and the authorities there are ready to hand over the fugitive. Also, when more than one agent is to make the trip, the North Carolina Extradition Secretary should be notified before they leave. Expenses will not be paid for any trip made before that notification (except possibly when the officer must attend a hearing before extradition is ordered).

Your commission as an agent of the Governor of North Carolina will be sent to the other state with the Governor's request for extradition and will be waiting for you there. When you return the fugitive to the North Carolina county where he is to be tried, the sheriff should complete the part of the commission form indicating that he has received the prisoner. You must complete the return portion of the commission and submit it to the Governor's office. If for some reason the fugitive could not be brought back, that fact must be stated on the return portion of the commission and an explanation given.

If the fugitive decided to waive extradition, the officer who brought the fugitive back must send a copy of that waiver to the Governor's office.

A copy of the form used for reimbursement of expenses appears in this manual's Forms section.

PART 7. CHECKLIST OF DOCUMENTS NEEDED FOR AN EXTRADITION REQUEST

Listed below are all the documents that might be needed when a request for extradition is sent to the Governor's Extradition Secretary. Usually an assistant district attorney is responsible for gathering the documents, though in some districts he may have substantial assistance from an administrative assistant, a law enforcement officer, or someone else. The list states when a document must be certified or signed by a particular person. Whoever gathers the documents should collect five complete sets, four to go to the Extradition Secretary and one to be retained in the district attorney's files.

When there is more than one charge, the person who prepares the request should base the request on the strongest charge. Once the fugitive is returned, he may be charged with any number of offenses. The fact that charges were not included in the request for extradition does not mean that they are waived.

Arrest warrant. Copies of the arrest warrant are needed if the fugitive has not yet been indicted. If he has been indicted, the arrest warrant is not needed; copies of the indictment will be used instead. The warrant or indictment should be reviewed to see that it properly charges the offense and cites the statute violated. Use of an indictment simplifies the process. An order for arrest is not sufficient by itself.

Affidavit supporting the warrant. When the charging document is an arrest warrant, it must be supported by an affidavit. The most likely person to write the affidavit is the investigating officer or the victim. The affidavit must state enough facts to establish probable cause for the issuance of the warrant. Also, to avoid questions in the other state concerning the authority of the official to issue the warrant, the affidavit must be sworn to before a magistrate or judge rather than a clerk. To show that the affidavit was the basis for issuing the warrant, the affidavit must have the same date as the warrant. Some states will not extradite if the date of the affidavit (for example, January 25, 1987) shows that it was issued after the date that arrest warrant was issued (for example, January 20, 1987). Therefore, when a warrant was issued without an accompanying affidavit (oral sworn testimony is sufficient to support an arrest warrant in North Carolina), a new arrest warrant must be issued so that the dates of the arrest warrant and the affidavit will be the same.

An affidavit is clearly not necessary when the charging document is an indictment, though a few other states prefer to have an affidavit then also.

Certification of documents. If a warrant and affidavit are submitted, they must be accompanied by a certification of the magistrate or judge who issued the warrant or took the affidavit. A clerk of court may certify copies of documents when he is the keeper of the original. Each copy must be certified.

Certifications of office. When a judge or magistrate certifies a document, the clerk of court must certify that person's official character. Then a district court or superior court judge must certify the official character of the clerk. And in turn the clerk must certify the official character of the judge who certified the clerk.

The indictment. If the fugitive has been indicted, the indictment should be submitted rather than the arrest warrant. The district attorney should make certain that the indictment properly charges the offense and has been signed by the foreman. He should also check to see that it cites the statute violated. The authenticity of each copy must be certified by the clerk of court, the official character of the clerk certified by the judge, and the official character of the judge certified by the clerk.

Application for a requisition. This form, included in this manual's Forms section, must be filled out in full. Note that it includes the following information:

—The fugitive's full name, properly spelled.

—A statement that in the district attorney's opinion the ends of public justice require that the fugitive be brought to North Carolina for trial.

—A statement that the district attorney believes that he has sufficient information to convict the fugitive.

—The names and addresses of the agents who are to bring the fugitive back to North Carolina from the other state and a statement that the persons recommended as agents are proper persons and have no private interest in the arrest or conviction of the fugitive.

—A statement whether there has been any earlier application for requisition of the same person for the same transaction, including the date of such request, and a statement of the reason for the present request if there was an earlier one.

—If the fugitive is under arrest in the other state, a statement that he is under arrest, the nature of the proceedings, and the place (with complete address) where he is in custody, if known. If the fugitive is out on bail, the date of his hearing should be stated. If the fugitive's home or business address is known, that should also be stated. The source of this information should be given.

—A statement that the application is not made for the purpose of enforcing the collection of a debt or for any private purpose whatever, and that if the requisition is granted, the criminal proceeding will not be used for any such purposes.

—A statement of the crime charged and the approximate time, date, places, and circumstances of its occurrence. This statement should include a citation to the statute violated.

—A statement that the person was in North Carolina when the crime was committed and has since fled. Or if the person committed an act in another state that intentionally resulted in the crime in North Carolina, that fact must be stated.

—If the crime did not occur recently, an explanation for the delay in making application.

The requisition form provides blanks for all this information or notes the need to include the information.

Certification of the district attorney. Again, the clerk must certify the official character of the district attorney who submits the application, and in turn the clerk must be certified by a judge, who must then be certified by the clerk. Note that only one such certification of official character per official is required, no matter how many documents that official has signed.

Special affidavits. In any case involving fraud, false pretense, embezzlement, or forgery, there must also be an affidavit of the principal complaining witness or informant that (a) the application is made in good faith for the sole purpose of criminal punishment, and (b) he does not desire or expect to use the prosecution for the purpose of collecting a debt or for any other private purpose, either directly or indirectly. If such an affidavit is not included, a good explanation for its absence must be given.

Photograph and fingerprints of the fugitive. Many states now require some identification of the fugitive. Therefore, a requisition request should be accompanied by fingerprints, a photograph, and/or a physical description. Although a photograph is not required, it can be very helpful in identification and should be included whenever possible. It should be accompanied by an affidavit to the effect that the person shown is the person charged with the crime. Nor are fingerprints required, but they should be provided for identification when available.

The statute. Copies of the statute the fugitive is charged with violating should be included.

PART 8. WHEN THE FUGITIVE HAS ESCAPED FROM CUSTODY OR VIOLATED PROBATION OR PAROLE

Extradition procedures are slightly different when the fugitive from North Carolina has already been convicted in this state and has escaped from custody or has left the state in violation of parole or probation conditions. A separate form (see this manual's Forms section) is used for requisition in these cases. The application is to be made by the district attorney or the sheriff if the person was in jail awaiting transfer to the Department of Correction or if he was out of jail pending appeal. If the person escaped from the Department of Correction's custody, the application is to be made by the Secretary of Correction or a properly designated official of the Department. For a fugitive who left the state in violation of probation conditions, the application may be made by the district attorney of the district where the person was serving probation (or it might be prepared for the district attorney's signature by the Division of Probation and Parole). If the person was on parole, the request may be made by either the district attorney or the Parole Commission. The application for requisition is to be accompanied by the following documents:

—The indictment (or the arrest warrant, if the person was tried on a warrant).

—The judgment of conviction and sentence on which the person was being held when he escaped.

—An affidavit of the officer from whose custody the person escaped, showing that an escape occurred and the circumstances of it.

—The record of escape, which includes the transcript and fingerprints.

Five copies of each document should be prepared; four are sent to the Governor's Extradition Secretary, and one is retained by the official who made the application. The clerk of court who holds the original must certify to the authenticity of the indictment (or warrant) and the judgment of conviction and sentence. The clerk must also certify the official character of the person who made the affidavit that describes the fugitive's escape. The official character of the clerk must be certified by a judge and vice versa.

PART 9. EXTRADITION OF MILITARY PERSONNEL

If extradition is requested for someone who is on active duty with the Air Force, Army, Marine Corps, or Navy, the application must be accompanied by an agreement by the appropriate authorities that:

—The fugitive's commanding officer will be informed of the outcome of any trial; and —If the military authorities desire his return, the fugitive will, if acquitted or when his sentence is completed, be returned to the military authorities at the place where he was taken into custody or taken to the nearest receiving ship, station, or barracks at the expense of the authority that seeks the requisition.

If the crime is a felony and the requisition is made through the Governor's office, this agreement will be prepared by the Governor's office and the State will pay the expenses. If the crime is a misdemeanor, so that the expenses of extradition are to be borne by the county, then the district attorney or other official who applies for the requisition must prepare and execute the agreement. The agreement may be in the form of a letter to the Secretary of the appropriate branch of the service, setting out the required promises. An example of such an agreement appears on the next page.

PART 10. OTHER SPECIAL CASES

Fugitives out of the United States. In cases of international extradition, the district attorney completes the same papers and sends his application to the Governor's Extradition Secretary. The Governor's office will process the request, add its endorsement, and send it to the Secretary of State in Washington.

Fugitives in United States possessions. If the fugitive is in a United States territory the district attorney completes the same papers and sends his application to the Governor's Extradition Secretary. The Governor's office will process the request, add its endorsement, and send it directly to the territorial governor.

Fugitives in the District of Columbia. If the fugitive is in the District of Columbia, the district attorney completes the same papers and sends his application to the Governor's Extradition Secretary. The Governor's office will process the request, add its endorsement, and send it to the Chief Judge of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia. The District of Columbia has several special requirements for extradition. One requirement is that the fugitive must be identified by photograph or other description or by sending a witness who can identify him. The District of Columbia is also very strict in requiring a timely application; the application should not be delayed.

Renewal of the application. When an application must be renewed — for example, when the fugitive could not be found in the state from which requisition was first sought — new or recertified copies of the papers required for extradition must be furnished.

ARTICLE III. FUGITIVE FROM ANOTHER STATE FOUND IN NORTH CAROLINA

PART 1. DUTIES OF THE ARRESTING OFFICER

Section 1. Before an arrest is made.

A. Determine whether the person is a fugitive. The first thing the officer needs to know is whether the suspect is charged with a crime in another state (by warrant or indictment), or has escaped from imprisonment there (following a conviction), or has violated probation or parole by leaving that state. An officer usually learns that someone is a fugitive by receiving an NCIC message on the PIN terminal, less often by telephone, letter, or telegram from an officer in the other state. The PIN message by itself is sufficient to obtain a North Carolina arrest warrant for the fugitive, but the information should be verified by phone or otherwise if possible. As mentioned below, a copy of the other state's warrant or indictment should be obtained as soon as possible and attached to the North Carolina warrant.

B. Determine whether to arrest with or without a North Carolina warrant. If the fugitive has been formally charged with a crime in the other state and the crime is punishable in that state by death or imprisonment for more than one year, you may arrest him without a North Carolina warrant. Otherwise, an arrest may not be made until a North Carolina magistrate has issued a warrant. It is always preferable to obtain a warrant first if time allows.

Section 2. If the arrest is to be made without a warrant, follow these steps.

C. Arrest the fugitive. Follow the same procedure you use when arresting for a North Carolina crime. Tell the fugitive why he has been arrested.

D. Take the fugitive to a magistrate. This requirement is the same as when you arrest for a North Carolina crime.

E. Tell the magistrate the reason for the arrest. State why you believe the person has been charged with a crime in another state. If your reason is a PIN message or a letter or telegram, give that to the magistrate to be attached to the Fugitive Affidavit (see AOC-CR-911M in this manual's Forms section). The magistrate is to determine only whether the person has been formally charged in the other state; he does not determine whether there is probable cause to believe the fugitive actually committed the crime. Is this case, since you arrested without a warrant, the magistrate must also determine that the crime is punishable by death or imprisonment for more than one year.

F. Take the fugitive to jail or release on bail as ordered by the magistrate. Unless the crime is punishable by death or life imprisonment, the magistrate may release a fugitive on bail just as if he were charged with a North Carolina crime.

G. Request a copy of the warrant or indictment from the other state. If this has not already been done, ask your contact in the other state for a copy of the arrest warrant or indictment charging the fugitive with the crime there. When the copy arrives, attach it to the Magistrate's Order (see AOC-CR-909M in this manual's Forms section).

Section 3. What happens when a fugitive from another state is found in North Carolina.

Section 4. If a warrant is to be obtained before you make the arrest, follow these steps instead.

C. Go to the magistrate and complete an affidavit for an arrest warrant. The Fugitive Affidavit (see AOC-CR-911M in this manual's Forms section) contains instructions on what information is needed. Either you or the magistrate may fill out the form, but you must be certain it accurately reflects your information and you must sign it as the affiant.

D. Tell the magistrate your reasons for arresting the fugitive. If you have a PIN message, letter, telegram, or other written document showing that the fugitive has been charged with a crime in another state or has escaped from imprisonment there, show that document to the magistrate and help complete the affidavit. The magistrate is to determine only whether the fugitive has been charged with a crime in the other state or whether he has escaped from imprisonment or violated probation or parole. The magistrate is not trying to determine whether there was probable cause for the other state to make the charge. In this case it is not necessary to show what punishment the other state places on the crime.

E. Once the warrant is issued, arrest the fugitive. The warrant is executed the same as if the person were charged with a North Carolina crime. Tell the fugitive the reason for his arrest.

F. Take the fugitive to a magistrate. This is the same procedure you use when arresting with a warrant for a North Carolina crime. The magistrate is to decide whether to allow bail, except that bail is not allowed when the crime is punishable by death or life imprisonment.

G. Take the fugitive to jail or release on bail as ordered by the magistrate. The procedure is the same as when you arrest for a North Carolina crime.

H. Request a copy of the warrant or indictment from the other state. If this has not already been done, ask your contact in the other state for a copy of the arrest warrant or indictment charging the fugitive with the crime there. When the copy arrives, attach it to the arrest warrant issued in North Carolina.

Section 5. If the fugitive has not yet been charged in the other state.

The extradition statutes also allow you to arrest someone who has committed a crime in another state even if he has not yet been formally charged there. This situation should occur only rarely. It is most likely to happen when someone commits a crime in a neighboring state and immediately flees to North Carolina and you are contacted before a judicial official has been found in that other state to issue the warrant. Before making the arrest you must obtain a warrant for arrest from a magistrate. You may use a standard North Carolina arrest warrant form for this purpose, modifying it to allege (a) the name of the crime in the other state (without giving all the elements) and (b) the statute of the other state. Because the other state has not yet issued a warrant, you must show the magistrate probable cause to believe the fugitive committed the crime in the other state, just as if you were requesting a warrant to arrest for a crime committed in North Carolina. Your probable cause will be the information you received from the officers in the other state that links the person with the crime there. Once the arrest warrant is issued, proceed just as if it were a warrant charging a North Carolina crime. Ask the other state's officers for a copy of the warrant issued there when the defendant is charged in that state. When the copy arrives, attach it to the North Carolina arrest warrant.

PART 2. DUTIES OF THE MAGISTRATE

Section 1. If the officer comes to you before arresting the fugitive.

A. Determine whether there are grounds for an arrest. Place the officer under oath and ask his reasons for making an arrest. The three grounds that justify an arrest are (1) the person is charged with a crime in another state and fled, (2) he was convicted of a crime in another state and has escaped from imprisonment there, and (3) he was convicted of a crime in another state and violated the conditions of his probation or parole by fleeing. The officer's information must be reliable. Usually it will consist of a PIN message, but it could be a letter or telegram or phone call from an officer in the other state, or even a copy of the warrant or indictment from the other state. You are not to determine whether there is probable cause to believe the person committed the crime — only whether he is charged in the other state or has escaped and whether this is the person wanted by the other state.

B. Complete the affidavit and arrest warrant. It is necessary to complete both the Fugitive Affidavit (see AOC-CR-911M in this manual's Forms section) and the Warrant for Arrest for Fugitive (see AOC-CR-910M in this manual's Forms section) and be certain that they are attached. Follow the usual procedure on the number of copies to be completed, sending the original to the clerk of court's office. Attach to the original the PIN message or any other document used to establish that the person is a fugitive. Remind the officer to obtain a copy of the arrest warrant or indictment in the other state as soon as possible and have it attached to the original copy of the warrant in the clerk's office.

Section 2. If the officer brings in the fugitive after arresting him without a warrant.

A. Determine whether the officer had adequate grounds for the arrest. Place the officer under oath and ask his reasons for making the arrest. An officer may arrest without a warrant only when the person has been charged with a crime in another state and that crime is punishable by death or by imprisonment for more than one year. The person might have been charged in the other state by the issuance of an arrest warrant there, by an indictment, or by information filed by a prosecutor in that state. You are to determine only whether the person has been charged in the other state, not whether there was probable cause for the charge. The officer's information that the person has been charged must be reliable. Usually it will be a PIN message, but it could be a letter, telegram, or telephone call from an officer in the other state. Sometimes the officer may even have a copy of the warrant or indictment from the other state. If his information is a PIN message, ask him whether he has phoned the other state to verify that the charge is still outstanding and they wish to extradite. This verification is not essential — the PIN message is sufficient justification for arresting the fugitive — but it is a highly recommended practice. Of course you must also determine that the person arrested is the person charged in the other state.

B. Complete a magistrate's order. Complete the Fugitive Affidavit (see AOC-CR-911M in this manual's Forms section) and the Magistrate's Order for Fugitive (see AOC-CR-909M in this manual's Forms section). Follow the usual procedure on the number of copies to be completed; the original goes to the clerk's office. Attach to the original the PIN message or other written document used to establish that the person is a fugitive. Remind the officer to obtain a copy of the other state's warrant or indictment as soon as possible and have it attached to the original copy of the magistrate's order in the clerk's office.

C. Inform the fugitive of the charges. Follow the same procedure you follow in any other case, informing the person of the charge against him, his right to communicate with counsel and friends, and whether he is entitled to bail. Also point out to him the information about his rights that appears on the reverse side of the magistrate's order form. You need not read all of that information to him, but at least tell him that he may ask the Governor's office for a hearing before the Governor grants extradition. The request must be in writing and must state the person's reasons for challenging his extradition.

D. Determine whether to allow bail. G.S. 15A-736 allows a fugitive to be given bail unless the offense with which he is charged in the other state is punishable by death or life imprisonment. Apparently the only form of pretrial release that may be used is a bail bond with sureties. The bail bond schedule given the magistrate by the senior resident superior court judge may include instructions on what bond to set for fugitives. Sometimes the same amount is required as for a similar North Carolina crime, and sometimes that amount is doubled or otherwise multiplied. If bail is not allowed, or if the defendant cannot meet the bail, he should be committed to the county jail. (Note: Bail is not allowed after a Governor's Warrant has been issued.)

E. Order the fugitive to appear in district court. Whether the fugitive is released on bond or cannot make bond or is ineligible for bail, the release or commitment order should direct that he appear before a district court judge at the earliest possible time. Although the statute does not require an immediate district court appearance for the fugitive who is released on bond, such an appearance will give the district judge an early opportunity to review the fugitive's bond, explain the extradition process, and appoint counsel if necessary. Fugitives often waive formal extradition once they are told about the process and have talked to a lawyer. If the chief district judge for your district prefers not to deal with the fugitive at this point, your release is on condition that the person either (a) return for a district court appearance at a specific time within 30 days or (b) surrender when a Governor's Warrant is issued. If the Governor's Warrant has not been issued by the time of that first district court appearance, the district judge can continue the case for additional 30-day periods.

Section 3. If the officer arrested the fugitive on the basis of a warrant and is now bringing him before you.

A. Inform the fugitive of the charges against him. The procedure is the same as if the person were charged with a North Carolina crime. He should be informed of the charge against him, the right to communicate with counsel and friends, and whether he is entitled to bail. Also point out to him the information about his rights that appears on the reverse side of the arrest warrant form. You need not read all of that information to the fugitive, but be sure to tell him that he may ask the Governor's office for a hearing before extradition is granted. The request must be in writing and must state the fugitive's reasons for challenging his extradition.

B. Determine whether to allow bail. G.S. 15A-736 allows bail for a fugitive unless the offense with which he is charged in the other state is punishable by death or life imprisonment. Apparently the only form of pretrial release that may be used is bail bond with sureties. The bail bond schedule given the magistrate by the senior resident superior court judge may include instructions on what bond to set for fugitives. Sometimes the same amount is required as for a similar North Carolina crime, and sometimes the amount is doubled or otherwise multiplied. If bail is not allowed, or if the defendant cannot meet the bail, he should be committed to the county jail. (Note: Bail is not allowed after a Governor's Warrant has been issued.)

C. Order the fugitive to appear in district court. Whether the fugitive is released on bond or cannot make bond or is ineligible for bail, the release or commitment order should direct that he appear before a district court judge at the earliest possible time. Although the statute does not require an immediate district court appearance for the fugitive who is released on bond, such an appearance will give the district judge an early opportunity to review the fugitive's bond, explain the extradition process, and appoint counsel if necessary. Fugitives often waive formal extradition once they are told about the process and have talked to a lawyer. If the chief district judge for your district prefers not to deal with the fugitive at this point, your release is on condition that the fugitive either return for a district court appearance at a specific time within 30 days or surrender when a Governor's Warrant is issued. If the Governor's Warrant has not been issued by the time of that first district court appearance, the district judge can continue the case for additional 30-day periods.

Section 4. If the fugitive has been arrested on a governor's warrant.

A. Inform the fugitive of the charges against him. Tell the fugitive what crime he is charged with in the other state (he was also given this information when he was first arrested in North Carolina) and that the Governor of North Carolina has issued a warrant for him to be taken into custody and returned to the state from which he fled. Also inform the fugitive of his right to communicate with counsel and friends. The Governor's Warrant requires that he be held without bond.

B. Commit the fugitive to jail. Commit the fugitive to jail to await his appearance before a district court judge.

C. Order the fugitive returned to district court at the earliest possible date. The order of commitment should specify the time and date that the fugitive is to appear before a district court judge, which should be as early as possible. At that time he will be informed of his right to apply for habeas corpus.

Section 5. When the fugitive has not yet been charged with a crime in the other state.

The extradition statutes also allow a fugitive to be arrested in North Carolina even though he has not yet been formally charged in the other state. This situation should occur only rarely. It is most likely to happen when the person commits a crime in a neighboring state and flees to North Carolina immediately, and then law enforcement officers in North Carolina are asked to arrest him before officers in the other state have found a judicial official to issue an arrest warrant in that state. Before a North Carolina officer may make an arrest in this situation, he must obtain an arrest warrant. The procedure you follow in issuing such a warrant is the same one used when the officer wants to charge someone with a North Carolina crime. That is, the officer must be placed under oath and must state facts from which you can independently determine that there is probable cause to believe the person committed the crime in another state. You cannot just accept the word of the officers from the other state that the person committed the crime; you must be told the reasons for reaching that conclusion. (This is different from other situations involving a fugitive in which you need only establish that the person has been charged in the other state and you may not inquire as to the probable cause for that charge.) If you determine that there is probable cause, complete an arrest warrant. The standard arrest warrant form will need to be modified to indicate that the crime is one committed against the law of another state. You need not spell out the elements of the offense but can simply state the name of the crime in the other state. Use the name of the crime given by the officers from that state, which may be different from the name used in North Carolina (for example, "second degree robbery"). After the warrant is issued, the case proceeds like any other involving a fugitive.

PART 3. DUTIES OF THE CLERK OF COURT

Section 1. When the fugitive is first arrested.

A. Assign a docket number and set a district court hearing. When the fugitive is arrested, he will be taken to a magistrate like anyone else arrested in North Carolina and will be either committed to jail or given pretrial release. In either case, the magistrate should have scheduled the person to appear in district court as soon as possible. (Although a fugitive released on bail need not be immediately scheduled for a district court appearance — he could simply be released on bond on the condition that he return at the end of 30 days or whenever a Governor's Warrant is issued — the magistrate has been advised in this manual to set a district court appearance for the fugitive at the next session. An early appearance gives the judge an opportunity to explain the extradition process and to determine whether the fugitive needs an attorney, which may well result in an early waiver of the formal extradition procedures.) When the fugitive papers are received from the magistrate, the clerk should assign a docket number and set the case for the first possible district court session.

Section 2. If the fugitive waives extradition in district court, take these steps.

B. Accept the waiver and see that the file is complete. While he is in district court, the fugitive may decide to waive extradition. Either the judge or the clerk may take that waiver (not a magistrate). Use AOC-CR-912M (see this manual's Forms section). Whoever accepts the waiver should explain the fugitive's rights to him. The clerk is responsible for seeing that the papers are handled correctly. One copy of the waiver goes in the case file, one copy goes to the Governor's office, and one copy goes to the jail with the fugitive (to be given to the officer from the other state when he takes custody). Generally the clerk is to see that copies of all correspondence involving the fugitive are kept in the case file. The sheriff is responsible for notifying the officers in the other state that the fugitive is ready for return.

Section 3. If the fugitive refuses to waive extradition, follow these steps instead.

B. Assign an attorney and set a new court date. If the fugitive does not waive extradition during his first appearance in district court, the clerk should determine indigency and assign an attorney to represent him. Although the statutes do not require appointment of counsel until later in the process, matters can be expedited if the fugitive has a lawyer. The attorney should be mailed a copy of the appointment, the refusal form, the warrant, and a notice of the next court date. It is likely that at the first appearance in district court, the judge will continue the case for 30 days. The defendant will be ordered to return on a given date to see whether the Governor of North Carolina has issued a Governor's Warrant to have him returned to the other state. If the Governor's Warrant is issued before then, a fugitive who is out on bail should be returned to custody and taken immediately before a district court judge. If no Governor's Warrant is issued and the fugitive returns as scheduled in 30 days, the case can be continued and another appearance scheduled later. The statute allows the judge to continue the fugitive's bond or commitment for 60 additional days if the Governor's Warrant has not been issued by the end of the first 30-day period, but judges usually continue the case for two additional 30-day periods rather than one 60-day period. The judge will decide whether the fugitive is to be given bond during this time. The clerk's responsibility is to record the information on the commitment paper or release order. If the other state shows no urgency in carrying out formal extradition, the judge may simply release the fugitive after 60 days — not waiting the full 90 days. If the judge releases the fugitive because no Governor's Warrant has been issued, the clerk closes the case as a dismissal.

C. Prepare copies of the governor's warrant, have the defendant served, and set the court appearance. When a Governor's Warrant is issued, the original and one copy are sent to the clerk for the sheriff. The clerk should notify the sheriff that the warrant has been received and should make another copy for the fugitive, giving the Governor's Warrant the same docket number as the fugitive warrant used for the original arrest. In addition to the fugitive's copy, the original Governor's Warrant and one other copy are sent to the jail to be signed by the officers from the other state when they come. If the fugitive is not still in custody, the Governor's Warrant is given to an officer to bring him back into custody. The fugitive should be scheduled for the next session of district court. In district court the judge will tell the fugitive that he may apply for habeas corpus, will see that he gets a lawyer if he does not already have one, and will give him a certain amount of time (though still in custody) to decide whether to apply for habeas. The case is then continued for the period set by the district judge. If the fugitive does not apply for habeas corpus by the set time, the district judge orders him turned over to the agents from the other state. If the fugitive does apply for habeas corpus, the docket file is given to the superior court clerks and the case becomes a pending case in superior court to be set for hearing by the district attorney.

D. Place the original governor's warrant in the file and return the copy to the governor's office. Once the fugitive is turned over to the agents from the other state — either with or without a habeas corpus hearing in superior court — the original Governor's Warrant is returned to the Governor's office and one copy placed in the court record.

PART 4. DUTIES OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Section 1. When the fugitive is first arrested.

When first arrested, the fugitive may be given bond by a magistrate unless the crime is one punishable by death or life imprisonment. Whether the defendant is held or released on bond, the magistrate should schedule him for the next session of district court. (If the fugitive is released on bail, the immediate appearance in district court is not required by the statute — the magistrate could schedule the district court appearance 30 days later — but an immediate appearance will usually expedite matters.) At the district court appearance the judge should inform the fugitive of the charge against him, see that he has a copy of the arrest warrant or magistrate's order, review the bail, and see whether it is necessary to appoint an attorney. The fugitive may waive extradition and be turned over to an agent from the other state, or he may be continued on bonded release or in commitment for up to 30 days (from the time of the initial arrest in North Carolina) to await issuance of a Governor's Warrant.

Section 2. When the fugitive appears in district court at the end of 30 days.

If the recommended procedure has been followed, the fugitive will have already appeared before a district judge once, when first arrested, although he could have been released by a magistrate for 30 days without having seen a judge. In either case, the only purpose of this district court appearance is to determine whether the Governor of North Carolina has issued a Governor's Warrant ordering the fugitive's return to the other state. Before the hearing, the district attorney should determine whether the Governor's Warrant has been issued. If the warrant has been issued, proceed as indicated below. If not, the fugitive may be held or released on bond for another 60 days to await issuance of the Governor's Warrant. Judges usually continue the case for 30 days at a time. Before he asks for another 30-day commitment, the district attorney should try to determine whether the other state is diligently pursuing extradition.

Section 3. When a governor's warrant is issued.

When a Governor's Warrant is issued, the fugitive is to be taken into custody (he may already be in custody if he was not given bail or could not make bail) and brought before a district court judge. The judge is to inform him of the other state's demand for his surrender, the crime he has been charged with, that he is entitled to counsel, and that he has a reasonable time, set by the judge, within which to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. The fugitive may not be turned over to the agent of the other state until this appearance has been held. Bail is not allowed once a Governor's Warrant has been issued.

Section 4. When the fugitive applies for the writ of habeas corpus.

The district attorney is to be notified if the fugitive applies for habeas corpus; the district attorney will represent the State of North Carolina at that hearing. As discussed in the section of this manual entitled Some Legal Issues in Extradition, the issues that may be raised at the habeas corpus hearing are limited to the following:

Whether the demand for extradition was made in the proper form. G.S. 15A-723 requires the demand for extradition to include a copy of the indictment, information, or warrant, plus supporting affidavits used to charge the defendant in the other state. If the fugitive is an escapee, the other state must send a copy of the judgment of conviction or the sentence imposed with a statement that the person has escaped or has broken the terms of his bail, probation, or parole. The indictment, information, or warrant and affidavit must substantially charge the person with a crime in the other state and must be authenticated by the governor of that state. Minor defects in the wording of the charge from the other state do not invalidate a charge, nor is there any particular form required for the authentication by the governor.

The identity of the fugitive. The defendant has the burden of showing that he is not the fugitive being sought. Identification is facilitated when photographs or fingerprints accompany the extradition papers. Sometimes an identifying witness must be brought from the other state. A determination that the defendant is not the fugitive does not prevent a subsequent extradition proceeding against the same person for a similar charge.

Whether the person is a fugitive from the other state. The recital in the Governor's Warrant that the defendant is a fugitive from the other state creates a presumption that he is, placing the burden on the defendant to show otherwise. If the charge is one that required his presence in the other state, he can meet the burden by showing that he was not there when the crime was committed. His reason for leaving the other state is irrelevant. The demand from the other state may omit a statement that the defendant was present when the crime was committed, if the nature of the crime is such that his presence is implicit in the commission.

Whether the defendant has been charged with a substantial crime. The defendant may show, by introducing the relevant statutes, that his acts do not amount to a crime in the other state.

The Governor's Warrant is presumed valid, and the burden is on the defendant to disprove its allegations. Unless the matter is related to one of the issues above, it is not relevant to consider the defendant's guilt or innocence, his alibi, the other state's motive in extraditing, the expiration of the statute of limitations, or any constitutional matter such as whether the defendant is likely to receive a fair trial. Nor are the prison conditions of the other state relevant, though there is some authority that the defendant should be allowed to show great likelihood of being lynched or being subjected to cruel and unusual punishment in the other state.

A judgment denying habeas corpus is a final judgment of the superior court for which the defendant may seek certiorari to the North Carolina Court of Appeals. (The State may seek certiorari to review a judgment granting habeas corpus.) The superior court judge or a Court of Appeals judge may issue a stay to allow the Court of Appeals to hear the defendant's appeal.

Section 5. If the fugitive is also charged with a crime in North Carolina.

G.S. 15A-739 allows the Governor of North Carolina to delay extradition if the person being sought by the other state has been charged with a crime in North Carolina. The Governor's Extradition Secretary should be notified that a North Carolina charge is pending before she issues the Governor's Warrant.

PART 5. DUTIES OF THE DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

Section 1. When the fugitive is first arrested.

Normally a district court judge will have no involvement in the initial arrest of a fugitive. The judge could be called on to issue an arrest warrant just as a magistrate would, but that should rarely happen.

Section 2. The first appearance before a district court judge.

G.S. 15A-601, the statute requiring a first appearance before a district court judge, refers to crimes "in the original jurisdiction of the superior court." Because the fugitive is charged with a crime in another state, it is probably not required under that statute that a first appearance be held, but magistrates are advised to schedule all fugitives, whether committed or released on bail, to appear at the next session of district court. This procedure can expedite matters considerably. At the first appearance, the judge can tell the fugitive the charge against him, see that he has a copy of the arrest warrant or magistrate's order, and review the bail set by the magistrate. The fugitive may waive extradition at this appearance (see the separate section on waiver below).

At the first appearance, the judge should also tell the fugitive that he may apply in writing for a Governor's hearing before a Governor's Warrant is issued. The request must state the grounds for opposing extradition. The only issues that will be considered are (1) whether the person has been charged in the other state, (2) whether the papers are in proper form, (3) whether the person demanded is the person charged, and (4) whether the accused is a fugitive. A Governor's hearing may be granted or denied at the Governor's discretion.

If the fugitive cannot make bail or if he is denied bail, he should be committed to jail to be returned to district court on a specific date within 30 days of his arrest. At that time there will be a determination whether a Governor's Warrant has been issued. If he is released on bond after the first appearance, his release should be conditioned on a return to district court on a specific date within 30 days to determine whether the Governor's Warrant has been issued, or to return whenever the warrant is issued if it is sooner than 30 days.

Usually the first appearance is used to determine whether counsel should be appointed. Although the extradition statutes, in particular G.S. 15A-730, provide for the fugitive to be notified of the right to counsel after the Governor's Warrant has been issued (when the fugitive is returned to custody and taken before a judge to be informed of his right to apply for habeas corpus), the need for counsel should be determined at the first appearance. Doing so often helps in informing the defendant of the extradition process and in helping him decide whether to waive formal extradition.

Section 3. When the fugitive returns to court after 30 days.

Whether the fugitive is out on bond or has been committed to the jail, he is to return to district court within 30 days of his arrest in North Carolina. This appearance is used to determine whether the Governor of North Carolina has issued a Governor's Warrant ordering that the fugitive be returned to the other state. If the warrant has been issued, proceed as indicated in the next section. If the Governor's Warrant has not been issued, the fugitive may be continued on bond or committed to jail for up to 60 additional days to await issuance of the Governor's Warrant. The usual practice is to continue the case for 30 days at a time. Before an additional 30-day custody is imposed, the district attorney or a law enforcement officer should be required to determine whether the other state is diligently pursuing extradition. Of course the fugitive may use this opportunity to waive extradition and return voluntarily to the other state.

Section 4. When a governor's warrant has been issued.

Once a Governor's Warrant is issued, G.S. 15A-730 requires that the fugitive be brought before a judge before he is delivered to the agent of the other state. At the district court appearance after the arrest on a Governor's Warrant, the judge is to inform the fugitive of the other state's demand for his return, the charge against him in that state, that he has the right to demand and procure counsel, and that he may challenge the legality of his arrest by applying for a writ of habeas corpus. If the fugitive wants counsel and is indigent, the judge should appoint counsel if that has not already been done. The statute also requires that the fugitive be given a reasonable time within which to apply for habeas corpus. The time limit is to be fixed by the district court judge. The judge should order the fugitive held in the county jail (or other place of confinement) until the time expires for applying for habeas corpus; the person is then to be turned over to the agent for the other state. Once a Governor's Warrant is issued, bail is not allowed.

Section 5. If the fugitive wishes to waive extradition.

At any time after he has been arrested, the fugitive may waive extradition and be delivered to an agent from the other state. G.S. 15A-746 allows the waiver to be made before a judge or a clerk of court. The waiver must be in writing; use AOC-CR-912M (see this manual's Forms section). Before the form is signed, the fugitive must be told that (a) he may refuse to waive extradition and may require the other state to make a formal request for extradition; and

(b) if a Governor's Warrant is issued, he may apply for a writ of habeas corpus. When the waiver is signed, one copy is to be forwarded to the Governor's Extradition Secretary and one copy is to be given to the agent from the other state. The judge should order the fugitive released to that agent. If the agent is not present, the fugitive should be ordered held in jail until he arrives.

PART 6. DUTIES OF THE SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE

Section 1. When the fugitive is first arrested.

The superior court judge should have no direct involvement in the extradition case unless the fugitive applies for a writ of habeas corpus. The senior resident superior court judge is to issue a bail policy to be used by the magistrates in his district, and that policy should indicate what bond is to be required of a fugitive. The extradition statute on bail, G.S. 15A-736, allows bail unless the offense is punishable by death or life imprisonment, but only on a secured appearance bond. Once a Governor's Warrant is issued, bail is not allowed.

Section 2. When the fugitive applies for a writ of habeas corpus.

After the Governor's Warrant is issued, a fugitive may apply for a writ of habeas corpus. As discussed in greater detail in the section of this manual entitled Some Legal Issues in Extradition, the issues that may be raised at the habeas corpus hearing are limited to the following:

Whether the demand for extradition has been made in the proper form. G.S. 15A-723 requires the demand for extradition to include a copy of the indictment, information, or warrant — with supporting affidavits — used to charge the defendant in the other state. If the fugitive is an escapee, the other state must send a copy of the judgment of conviction or the sentence imposed with a statement that the person has escaped or has broken the terms of his bail, probation, or parole. The indictment, information, or warrant and supporting affidavit must substantially charge the person with a crime in the other state and must be authenticated by the governor of that state. Minor defects in the wording of the charge from the other state do not invalidate a charge, nor is there any particular form required for the authentication by the governor.

The identity of the fugitive. The defendant has the burden of showing that he is not the fugitive being sought. Identification can be facilitated by photographs or fingerprints accompanying the extradition papers. Sometimes an identifying witness must be brought from the other state. A determination that the defendant is not the fugitive does not prevent a subsequent extradition proceeding against the same person for a similar charge.

Whether the person is a fugitive from the other state. The recital in the Governor's Warrant that the defendant is a fugitive from the other state creates a presumption that he is, and the burden is on the defendant to show otherwise. If the charge is one that required his presence in the other state, he can meet that burden by showing that he was not there when the crime was committed. His reason for leaving the other state is irrelevant. The demand from the other state may omit a statement that the defendant was present when the crime was committed, if the nature of the crime is such that his presence is implicit in the commission.

Whether the defendant has been charged with substantial crime. The defendant may show, by introducing the relevant statutes, that his acts do not amount to a crime in the other state.

The Governor's Warrant is presumed valid and the burden is on the defendant to disprove the allegations. Unless the matter is related to one of the issues above, it is not relevant to consider the defendant's guilt or innocence, his alibi, the other state's motive in extraditing, the expiration of the statute of limitations, or any constitutional matter such as whether the defendant is likely to receive a fair trial. Nor are the prison conditions of the other state relevant, though there is some authority that the defendant should be allowed to show great likelihood of being lynched or being subjected to cruel and unusual punishment in the other state.

A judgment denying habeas corpus is a final judgment of the superior court for which the defendant may seek certiorari to the North Carolina Court of Appeals. (The State may seek certiorari to review a judgment granting habeas corpus.) The superior court judge or a Court of Appeals judge may issue a stay to allow the Court of Appeals to hear the defendant's appeal.

Section 3. If the fugitive wishes to waive extradition.

At any time after he has been arrested, the fugitive may waive extradition and be delivered to an agent from the other state. G.S. 15A-746 allows the waiver to be made before a judge or a clerk of court. The waiver must be in writing; use AOC-CR-912M (see this manual's Forms section). Before the form is signed, the fugitive must be told that (a) he may refuse to waive extradition and may require the other state to make a formal request for extradition; and (b) if a Governor's Warrant is issued, he may apply for a writ of habeas corpus. When the waiver is signed, one copy is to be forwarded to the Governor's Extradition Secretary and one copy is to be given to the agent from the other state. The judge should order the fugitive released to that agent. If the agent is not present, the fugitive should be ordered held in jail until he arrives.

Editor's note. — At this point, the Extradition Manual quotes the Uniform Criminal Extradition Act, Article 37, §§ 15A-721 to 15A-750, of G.S. Chapter 15A. The Article has been omitted here as it may be found in Volume 4 of the General Statutes of North Carolina.

ARTICLE IV. SOME LEGAL ISSUES IN EXTRADITION

1. Is the fugitive entitled to a hearing before a Governor's Warrant can be issued?

The general rule is that he is not. Application of Dugger, 17 Ariz. App. 297, 497 P.2d 413 (1972); Horne v. Wilson, 306 F. Supp. 753 (E.D. Tenn. 1969); Scheinfain v. Aldredge, 191 Ga. 479, 12 S.E.2d 868 (1941).

2. What issues may the Governor consider in deciding whether extradition is proper in a given case?

The United States Supreme Court has ruled that a Governor has a mandatory duty to comply with a proper demand for a fugitive, and a federal court has the authority to compel the Governor to perform this duty. Puerto Rico v. Branstad, 483 U.S. 219, 107 S. Ct. 2802, 97 L. Ed. 2d 187 (1987). A Governor may only consider the following issues when deciding whether extradition is proper: (1) whether the extradition documents on their face are in order; (2) whether the accused has been charged with a crime in the demanding state; (3) whether the accused is the person named in the request for extradition; and (4) whether the accused is a fugitive. Michigan v. Doran, 439 U.S. 282, 99 S. Ct. 530, 58 L. Ed. 2d 521 (1978); California v. Superior Court, 482 U.S. 342, 107 S. Ct. 2400, 96 L. Ed. 2d 282 (1987).

3. Is the fugitive entitled to be released on bail before the Governor's Warrant is issued?

G.S. 15A-736 says that the magistrate or judge "may admit the person arrested to bail by bond" unless the person is charged with a crime punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the state in which it was committed. The statute mentions only release by bail with sufficient sureties.

4. Does a person held for extradition have a right to be released on bail after a Governor's Warrant has been issued?

The majority rule is that the Uniform Extradition Law does not grant a right to bail to a person held for extradition after a Governor's Warrant is issued. Emig v. Hayward, 703 P.2d 1043 (Utah 1985); In re Iverson, 135 Vt. 255, 376 A.2d 23 (1977); In re Lucas, 136 N.J. Super. 24, 343 A.2d 845 (1975), aff'd, 136 N.J. Super. 460, 346 A.2d 624 (1975); Balasco v. State, 52 Ala. App. 99, 289 So.2d 666 (1974); State ex rel. Howard v. St. Joseph Superior Court, 262 Ind. 367, 316 N.E.2d 356 (1974). Most courts have also held that judges have no common law or inherent power to grant release on bail in such circumstances (see the cases cited above). But see Carrio v. Watson, 171 Conn. 366, 370 A.2d 950 (1976), which ruled that releasing a fugitive on bail was proper, even after a Governor's Warrant had been served on the fugitive; the opinion was based on the court's common law power to allow bail "in all cases"; and Ex parte Quinn, 549 S.W.2d 198 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977), granting bail on the basis of state statute giving right to bail in "any habeas corpus proceeding" except capital cases.

The Office of the Governor agrees with the National Association of Extradition Officials' resolution (1986) opposing bail in all cases when a Governor's Warrant has been issued. It takes the position that the Governor's Warrant is an executive — not judicial — warrant and bail is not allowed.

5. Is a fugitive entitled to counsel at a habeas corpus hearing to contest the legality of an extradition proceeding?

Yes, pursuant to G.S. 15A-730, any accused is entitled to have counsel present at such hearings. Most courts have held that counsel in such cases is required solely by statute and is not constitutionally required under the Sixth Amendment. Hystad v. Rhay, 12 Wash. App. 872, 533 P.2d 409 (1975); Wertheimer v. State, 294 Minn. 293, 201 N.W.2d 383 (1972); Roberts v. Hocker, 85 Nev. 390, 456 P.2d 425 (1969). Nevertheless, courts have held that counsel must be appointed for indigents contesting extradition proceedings at habeas corpus proceedings. People v. Braziel, 17 Mich. App. 411, 169 N.W.2d 513 (1969); Ex parte Turner, 410 S.W.2d 639 (Tex. Crim. App. 1967). In North Carolina, G.S. 7A-451(a)(5) entitles an indigent held for extradition to appointed counsel. Appointed counsel is not required at an initial arraignment on a fugitive warrant or at a hearing before the Governor. Rutledge v. Preadmore, 21 Mich. App. 726, 176 N.W.2d 417 (1970).

6. On what grounds may a fugitive attack a Governor's Warrant in a habeas corpus proceeding?

The United States Supreme Court has ruled that a court may only consider the following issues when deciding whether extradition is proper: (1) whether the extradition documents on their face are in order; (2) whether the accused has been charged with a crime in the demanding state; (3) whether the accused is the person named in the request for extradition; and (4) whether the accused is a fugitive. California v. Superior Court, 482 U.S. 342, 107 S. Ct. 2400, 96 L. Ed. 2d 282 (1987). See also Michigan v. Doran, 439 U.S. 282, 99 S. Ct. 530, 58 L. Ed. 2d 521 (1978); Dodd v. State, 56 N.C. App. 214, 287 S.E.2d 435 (1982); In re Armstrong, 49 N.C. App. 175, 270 S.E.2d 619 (1980). The defendant's evidence must be conclusive; mere conflicting testimony as to an accused's absence from the demanding state at the time of the alleged crime will not support his release from custody at a habeas corpus proceeding. People ex rel. Garner v. Clutts, 20 Ill.2d 447, 170 N.E.2d 538 (1970); State ex rel. Zack v. Kriss, 195 Md. 559, 74 A.2d 25 (1952).

7. Must an indictment, information, or warrant from the demanding state be accompanied by affidavits or other documents showing the basis for the probable cause to arrest the fugitive?

Courts generally hold that an indictment carries with it a sufficient finding of probable cause so that an asylum state may not look behind the document to see for itself whether probable cause exists. U.S. ex rel. Davis v. Behagen, 436 F.2d 596 (2d Cir. 1970); People v. Jackson, 180 Colo. 135, 502 P.2d 1106 (1972).

If the documents sent by the demanding state do not contain an indictment, they must show that a detached and neutral judicial official in the demanding state has found probable cause in the case; if the Governor in the asylum state decides to issue a Governor's Warrant, the courts of that state may not review the documents to see whether they contain a showing of probable cause. Michigan v. Doran, 439 U.S. 282, 99 S. Ct. 530, 58 L. Ed. 2d 521 (1978); California v. Superior Court, 482 U.S. 342, 107 S. Ct. 2400, 96 L. Ed. 2d 282 (1987).

8. What is the standard of proof required for a fugitive who is attacking a Governor's Warrant in a habeas corpus proceeding? Does the state have the burden of producing evidence if a defendant introduces evidence contesting his status as a fugitive?

A Governor's Warrant creates a presumption of regularity in an extradition proceeding, and a fugitive who wishes to attack the warrant must show by clear and convincing evidence that the warrant is invalid. People ex rel. Harris v. Warden, 42 App. Div. 2d 549, 345 N.Y.S.2d 29 (1973); Stolz v. Miller, 190 Colo. 43, 543 P.2d 513 (1975); McCollough v. Darr, 219 Kan. 477, 548 P.2d 1245 (1976). Other cases have formulated the standard of proof as requiring "conclusive" evidence, People ex rel. Pirone v. Police Comm'r, 15 App. Div. 2d 809, 225 N.Y.S.2d 257 (1962); or as requiring "clear and satisfactory" evidence, State ex rel. Rhodes v. Omodt, 300 Minn. 129, 218 N.W.2d 461 (1974). In Dodd v. State, 56 N.C. App. 214, 287 S.E.2d 435 (1982), the North Carolina Court of Appeals ruled that the fugitive must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that he is not the person named in the extradition papers.

States differ on whether the prosecution must present evidence to rebut an alleged fugitive's evidence. In Rhodes, the court ruled that the state must present "minimal" evidence rebutting an alleged fugitive's evidence that he was not in the demanding state at the time of the crime; in Stolz, the court ruled that a statement by an alleged fugitive does not necessarily rebut the presumption of regularity created by the Governor's Warrant.

ARTICLE V. INTERSTATE AGREEMENT ON DETAINERS

Sometimes a person who is wanted for prosecution is already in prison. A prosecutor may lodge a "detainer" against the prisoner by notifying the prison authorities that the person has charges pending against him and thus prevent release of the prisoner without notice to the prosecutor. Virtually all the states, including North Carolina, have joined an Interstate Agreement on Detainers that establishes procedures for resolving pending charges against a prisoner early in his detention in another state. (The Agreement only applies to pending charges. The extradition process must be used to return a prisoner who is a probation or parole violator.) This section of the Extradition Manual briefly explains the detainer procedure.

The Interstate Agreement on Detainers appears in G.S. 15A-761. The Agreement allows both the prisoner and the prosecutor to request early resolution of charges outstanding against the prisoner. The prison officials who have custody of the prisoner are required to notify him of any detainers lodged against him. He may then request final disposition of the charges. When the prisoner makes such a request, the prison officials notify the prosecutor in the other state and offer him the opportunity to take custody of the prisoner. The prosecutor must try the case within 180 days after the prisoner is delivered. A judge may grant a delay in the trial deadline for good cause if either the prisoner or his lawyer is present.

If detainers have been lodged for other charges from the same state, the prosecutors responsible for the other charges are also notified of the prisoner's request for final disposition. His request is considered a request for disposition of all charges pending in that state. Failure to prosecute any of the charges pending against the prisoner in that state within the 180-day period, or the extended deadline, means dismissal of the charges with prejudice.

The prosecutor also can force an early trial. When a prosecutor has a charge against a prisoner in another state, he may request temporary custody for trial. The governor of the other state can refuse to grant that request, but if he agrees — or if he does not object within 30 days — the prisoner is turned over for prosecution. The trial must be held within 120 days after the prisoner is delivered — again with delays possible for good cause — or the charges must be dismissed with prejudice. All prosecutors in the state who have a detainer on the prisoner are notified that he is being returned for prosecution so that they may make their own requests for temporary custody.

After trial, the prisoner is returned to the state where he was serving his sentence. Once he completes his sentence in the state where he was originally in prison, he is given back to the other state to serve the sentence imposed there.

The Department of Correction employs an Administrator for the Interstate Agreement on Detainers. The Administrator (919-733-4926) can provide additional information about detainers and the forms to be used in the procedures described above.

ARTICLE VI. RETURN OF JUVENILES

North Carolina is a member of the Interstate Compact on Juveniles (G.S. 7A-684 through -712), which provides for the return of juveniles who have been charged with being delinquent, juvenile delinquents who have escaped from custody or absconded from probation or parole, juveniles who are runaways, and the like. The Compact Administrator, who is employed in the Division of Social Services of the Department of Human Resources (919-733-4622), can provide information about the Compact's procedures and the forms to be used to return a juvenile.
